PINE GROVE MENTION.

E. C. Musser is now engaged in making the fall assessment in Ferguson township.

Mrs. A. C. Kepler is spending the Thanksgiving season among relatives at Unionville.

John H. Bailey is sporting a new Dodge car, and is already handling it like an old-timer.

Mrs. Mary Dale Miller was a Sunday visitor at the C. M. McCracken home at Circleville.

Fred B. Tate will be the tenant farmer on the Thomas Weaver farm in Spring township, next season.

G. C. Corl has just completed re-roofing his house and outbuildings with galvanized iron roofing.

Mrs. Harry Wagner, of Oak Hall, spent the latter part of the week with her mother on east Main street.

New flues are being built on the old Academy building to accommodate the new heater which is being installed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carson, of Tyrone, spent a few days of their honeymoon at the Maggie Sunday home at Fairbrook.

Mrs. Jacob Roan, of New York, spent the early part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, on west Main street.

C. S. Homan and Homer Grubb have each invested in farm tractors, purchased through the Frank Krumrine agency.

Rev. Jandier, of State College, will fill the pulpit in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock.

Farmer Ben Everhart came in off of Tussey mountain last Thursday with an eighteen pound turkey gobbler—a wild one.

Misses Sue and Sadie Dannley returned home on Saturday from a week's visit with friends at Millheim and Hublersburg.

Dr. J. V. Foster, medical inspector of schools for Ferguson township, is making his rounds among the children in his territory.

Grandmother Emma Hess, of Bellefonte, is visiting her old friends and neighbors in this section before Old Boreas gets on the job.

Ben Louck last week closed a deal for the Ellery E. Ellenberger farm near Marengo for $8000. He will take possession next spring.

E. H. Auman went to State College on Saturday evening to hear ex-President Taft's lecture and remained over Sunday with friends.

Miss Mary Watt, daughter of merchant E. M. Watt, arrived home on Saturday evening to find a big fat turkey ready to roast awaiting her.

Mrs. Arthur Jamison, of Bellwood, and Miss Elizabeth Psycher, of Williamsport, were entertained at the A. S. Walker home on the Branch last week.

Thomas Frank, who has served three years in the marines, expects to get home this week. Most of his term of service was among the West India islands.

Mrs. H. A. Elder, who has been in the Glenn brothers sanitarium at State College the past two weeks, was brought home on Monday much improved in health.

Rev. Harry N. Walker came over from Milroy on Monday to see his little nephew, Samuel Stine Walker, who has been critically ill with pneumonia but is now slowly improving.

Mrs. J. M. Kepler and Mrs. Ed Graff motored to the Iron city and ate their Thanksgiving dinner at the Graff home. Mrs. Kepler will remain for a week's visit with her daughter.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss was summoned to Pittsburgh last week where her son Fred underwent a serious operation at one of that city's hospitals. His many friends here hope for his speedy recovery.

The venerable D. L. Dennis was quite ill last week but is now so much improved that he is able to be up and around. His niece, Mrs. Margaret Moore, of State College, administered to his needs during his illness.

Mrs. David Cotler spent last week at Milroy with Rev. H. W. Walker and family. She returned however, on Monday, bringing with her Ralph Herman Walker for a two week's visit at the A. S. Walker home on the Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grubb, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Corl and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Homan composed a merry party which motored to Lebanon county last week, returning on Monday perfectly satisfied that they live in good old Centre county.

Our young friend, Charles Gates, last week bought a "Lizzie" he saw advertised for sale in the "Watchman," and with it he will handle Uncle Sam's mail matter on the rural route during four months while the regular carrier, Mr. McWilliams, takes a well-earned vacation.

The steam threshers, hay balers and clover seed hullers are now keeping the farmers quite busy, but there is still some corn to husk. J. H. McCracken had the best corn in this section of the county, having husked 1600 bushel of ears off of 9 1/2 acres. Will Gates spent his vacation husking corn for the neighbors and is the champion husker, with 200 bushels a day to his credit. Next!

The official installation of Rev. A. M. Lutton as pastor of the Lutheran church here will take place the first Sunday in December. Dr. C. T. Houtz, of Selingsgrove, will deliver the charge to the pastor at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, and Rev. J. J. Weaver, of Aaronsburg, will deliver the charge to the congregation at 7:15 p. m.

Samuel H. Tate, who is Howard H. Goss' assistant on the farm, met with a serious accident on Monday which might have resulted fatally. He was engaged in hoisting the heavy wagon ladders into their winter quarters by means of a rope and tackle when one of the tie chains broke allowing the ladders to fall on his head. He sustains a broken nose and some bad cuts and bruises but fortunately escaped any critical injuries. The attending physician fixed him up so he is able to be around, but the accident will probably keep him from joining the hunters on Old Tussey next week.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the Jacob Harpster home at Fairbrook last Saturday evening, which was arranged by Mrs. Harpster in honor of her husband. That gentleman spent the day in Bellefonte on business and in the evening his son Robert induced him to go along to State College. When they returned they found their home filled to overflowing with neighbors and friends who had been summoned to help him celebrate his fifty-ninth anniversary. It is needless to say that the evening proved a most delightful one for all. The program included music, games and dancing, as well as delicious refreshments. Mr. Harpster also received a large number of very useful presents. His wife before her marriage was Miss Anna Gates and their family consists of three sons and one daughter.

There is now considerable activity among the hunters of this section getting everything in readiness for the opening of the deer hunting season next week. The Woodrow Wilson crowd will this year go into camp in Kail hollow, in the western Barrens in Huntingdon county. The MODOCKS will take their old location at the Ross place in the Green woods. The Baileyville juniors will camp at the McCormick springs above Graysville, with the Hess-Homan crowd nearby. The Pine Grove Rod and Gun club will occupy their cosy quarters on the Furnace road. The Rossman-Sunday gang will go to their old location in Shade Gap. The Wilson club No. 2 will locate at the foot of Old Tussey south of Pine Grove Mills. The Fisher, Raymond and Riley gang will go into the Bear Meadows. The State College Cottontails at Colyer and the Tigers of State College on the third Mountain. As deer are reported quite plentiful the hunters all expect to bring home a good supply of venison.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Anna M. Dale spent Friday in Bellefonte.

Dr. Longwell, of Centre Hall, was in town on Tuesday.

John Roush, of Madisonburg, is spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Hazel.

John B. Curry will deliver a lecture in the Reformed church on Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh and Charles Jr. spent Sunday at the home of Waldo Homan, at Oak Hall.

The W. H. and F. Missionary society will hold their annual thank offering on Sunday evening, in the Lutheran church.

Mrs. Philip Fisher, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Wireback, of Pittsburgh, were guests at the home of Mrs. Amanda Fisher recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Keller motored to Milroy county on Saturday, where Mrs. Keller will visit friends for several weeks. Mr. Keller returned home Tuesday.

OAK HALL.

Mrs. Amanda Houser, of Bellefonte, is a visitor in our town this week.

Ralph and Frederic Dale spent a short time at State College on Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Wagner was a week-end visitor with her mother, Mrs. Sue Peters, at Pine Grove Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Clell Garner, of State College, were Sunday guests at the Ira Korman home, on Main street.

Mrs. Ernest Wagner and children, of Bellefonte, will spend an indefinite time at the Harry Wagner home.

Medical.

Perfect Confidence

BELLEFONTE PEOPLE HAVE GOOD REASON FOR COMPLETE RELIANCE.

Do you know how— To find relief from backache; To correct distressing urinary ills; To assist weak kidneys.

Your neighbors know the way— Have used Doan's Kidney Pills; Have proved their worth in many tests.

Here's Bellefonte testimony. Mrs. B. F. Blair, 108 Howard St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally when suffering from kidney trouble. They certainly have benefited me in every way. In fact, I haven't had to use any kidney medicine for kidney complaint since I first took Doan's Kidney Pills. I think there is nothing as good as Doan's Kidney Pills for people who may be troubled with weak kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Blair had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

ORVISTON.

Lot Thompson, of Port Matilda, is helping some of his Orviston friends with their butchering.

Mrs. Edward Welsh, of Lock Haven, spent the week-end with friends in our little town, and assisted Mrs. Amelia Rickard with her butchering.

Kelsey and William Harvey, of Bellefonte, visited among Orviston friends and relatives last week. Come again, boys; we are glad to see how big you are growing.

Gilbert Gillespie was very pleased to have his mother with him, if only for a short time. Mrs. Gillespie has been making her home with a daughter in Connecticut, but is always a welcome visitor at "Gill's."

L. C. Barner has been unable to work for almost two weeks, as he had taken a severe dose of ivy poisoning. Harry Singer, also, has been a sufferer from the same cause. Both were poisoned while working on the water line up the mountain. Better luck next time, we hope, boys.

William A. Walker butchered three fine hogs on Tuesday. One great husky fellow easily tipped the scales at 600 pounds, dressed, and the other two averaged 350. "Bill" certainly knows how to care for his porkers, and almost always leads the crowd when it comes to big, healthy hogs and we have lots of them here who can show fine and dandy meat every butchering time.

John Hume Sr. has returned from his pleasure trip through New York, Ohio and western Pennsylvania. He found Mrs. John Hume Jr. quite ill at Falconer, N. Y. The boys were quite well. He reported a fine time in New Brighton and vicinity, and met a lot of old friends, and made a few new ones. He was accompanied home by his grand-daughter, Miss Florence C. Hume, who will spend the winter here.

Mrs. Isabel Coll and children, Elmer, Etta, Gladys, Leonie, Mildred and Beatrice, accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Bowes, of this place, and her daughters, Miss Grace and Mrs. Harry Estright, of Lock Haven, visited the last resting place of her husband at Milesburg, it being the last trip the whole family will be able to take until spring, because of the little ones.

Mrs. Coll had our heartfelt sympathy on her sad errand.

JACKSONVILLE.

Harry Hoy has arranged to move onto his father's farm in the near future and is offering his home about a mile from town for rent.

Quite a number of our old-time deer hunters will take to the woods the latter part of the week so as to be on the ground for the opening of the season next Monday morning.

The Sunday school convention held here last Friday was well attended. Interesting sessions were held in the afternoon and evening and many good points on Sunday school work were brought out by the speaker.

On Monday morning when Miss Ethel Neff was driving over to Howard, where she is a student in the High school, her horse frightened at some tiling lying alongside of the road not far from town, jumped to the side of the road and threw the young lady out of the buggy. She sustained a few cuts and bruises but no serious injury. The horse was caught before it could run away and as no material damage was done to the buggy Miss Neff continued her journey to school.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Nasal Catarrh

Though Very Common It is a Serious Disease—Worse at This Season.

It is an inflammation of the mucous membrane, causing a discharge, and is aggravated by colds and sudden changes of weather, but depends on an impure condition of the blood.

When chronic it may develop into consumption by breaking down the delicate lung tissues and impairing the general health.

Begin treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla at once. This medicine purifies the blood, removes the cause of the disease, and gives permanent relief. It has been entirely satisfactory to three generations.

If a cathartic is needed take Hood's Pills,—they enliven the liver, regulate the bowels.
