The Supreme court is a trifle tardy about handing down its opinion on the constitutionality of the war time dry act. Probably the Judges are trying to "pass the buck."

AARONSBURG.
Calvin Moyer, of Freeburg, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Catherine Phillips.

Willard Wilt, of Franklin, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Guisevite.

William Harter, of Muncy, is in our vicinity, having come for the hunting season.

Mrs. Jennie Sylvius, who for some few months has been staying in Milroy, came home for a short time, expecting to return to Milroy later.

Rev. J. F. D. Bowersox, of East Prospect, arrived in our village on Monday evening to help in the butchering at his father-in-law's, J. P. Condo.

Mrs. Clark Herman, of State College, spent the Sabbath with her brother, Squire Stover and family, returning to her home the same evening with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull and daughter, Miss Jennie, returned from Coatesville last Wednesday evening, to which place they were called by the sudden death of Mrs. Hull's brother, T. C. Bell. Mrs. Hull is the last surviving member of the J. R. Bell family.

Mrs. William Bohn, of Willard, Ohio, gave her mother, Mrs. Caroline Mayes, and her sister, Mrs. William Guisevite, quite a pleasant surprise last Wednesday evening when she came down from Boalsburg, where she had spent several days with relatives.

Miss Jennie Beaver, of Milroy, spent the past few weeks at the home of her uncle, Squire Stover. Miss Beaver has been in delicate health for some time and it was hoped the change might prove of benefit to her. She has now gone to her parents in Milroy.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Otto and son Morgan, went to Williamsport on Monday where they expect to spend the winter with Mr. Otto's brother and other relatives. Mr. Otto has been able to walk about his room and his friends hope that the trip will prove beneficial to him and that he may return home well.

Born Tired.
"What do you think is your natural vocation, Reggie?"
"Haven't any, dear boy. What I was born with is a natural vocation."

Picturesquely Pat.
Disgusted Cop (at crossing)—Some chauffeur you are! Say, if you were crossing the Sahara desert you'd run into a hydrant.

ORVISTON.

Curtis Walker, of Lock Haven, and little daughter Twila, are making a short visit to Mr. Walker's brother, William A. Walker, of this place.

Alexander Hume, who is working in Lock Haven at the dye works, made a flying trip to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hume Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young were in Lock Haven Saturday, consulting a physician. Mrs. Young has been failing in health for some time past.

Ben Poorman, who has been working in Philadelphia for the last few months, is home for a visit to his father, Francis Poorman and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hensyl Young spent Sunday with relatives in Romola. They were accompanied by their larger babies, Relda, Harvey and Dorothea.

Mrs. Clayton Poorman reports a very pleasant visit to friends and relatives at Howard. She was accompanied by her three smallest children, Gladys, Paul and Gertrude.

Mrs. Louis MacDonald, of Lock Haven, is paying a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hume, this being her first trip since leaving the hospital. Mrs. MacDonald is in very poor health, which causes her friends to be very anxious about her.

Newton Cameron is training a bunch of Orviston talent for the Christmas cantata. So far the young actors have proved satisfactory, and the pleasant weather (we mean it has not been so cold) has kept the singers from their annual Christmas "bad cold."

Newt is very competent, and has had charge of this kind of work for years, and the young folks listen to him much better than they do to any one else. So we expect a nice entertainment.

Why They Were Scared.
A boy's composition—"Tobacco was invented by Walker Raleigh, and when the people first saw him smoking they thought it was a steamboat or locomotive, and as they had never heard of those things they were greatly frightened."

Economical Suggestion.
"John, I need a new dress. All I have are out of style."
"Everything's frightfully high, my dear. Better go in for literature awhile and pretend to be superior to the fashions."

I was there to make a sketch of her. Luncheon was just over, and she was talking to a little knot of women. The first words I heard, as I slid quietly into a nearby seat, were "National Biscuit," recalling pleasantly my own tasty Uneeda Lunch-cook. I liked her, and bottled fortably as she spoke again, my ears and ears busy.

"Between the dark and daylight," she was quoting, "there's always a bit of pause."

seems waiting and listening—for the children. Since they were babies, I've given that toddle, I've given that me in my Child.

The original, inherent goodness of Uneeda Biscuit is due to the superior materials and methods employed in the baking. The everlasting table-goodness of Uneeda Biscuit is due to security of the In-er-seal trade mark package.
