PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. J. S. Miller is visiting friends in Cleveland, Ohio.

Fifteen Shropshire ewes for sale. Inquire of W. H. Fry.

W. E. Johnson was a business visitor in Stonevalley on Monday.

Several weddings are expected to materialize in this section in the near future.

Mrs. Ida Williams, who has been under the doctor's care the past week, is improving slowly.

Charles Sunday left for Pitsaam on Monday, where he had a good job awaiting his arrival.

J. S. Goss, of the State College Times, spent Sunday with his mother on east Main street.

Wray Reed bade adieu to his many friends last Thursday and struck for Akron, Ohio, for a good job.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at 10:30 a. m. Sunday, in the Lutheran church.

The soap box orators of our town have a new mercantile establishment figured out for this place in the near future.

A crew of men with a road scraper and six horses are getting the state highway opened for travel, either by sled or automobile.

Mrs. Maggie Swabb and Mrs. Clayton Musser, of Linden Hall, were royally entertained at the J. J. Tressler home last Thursday.

Mrs. J. Calvin Gates, of Pennsylvania Furnace, had a severe attack of heart trouble on Saturday night but is now somewhat improved.

The annual banquet of Pennsylvania Lodge I. O. O. F. will be held in their hall here this (Friday) evening, and a delightful time is anticipated.

Squire J. H. Miller braved the storm last Saturday and sleighed to Linden Hall on a business trip, stopping at the Frank Weiland home.

Simon E. Ward, our handy man of various trades is in Bellefonte this week wiring the Morris Miller home on east High street for electric light.

Owing to the blockaded roads the White Hall school was closed all of last week and the teacher, Miss Powell, spent the time with friends at Gatesburg.

Claude C. Williams and family enjoyed the sleighing on Sunday and journeyed to the Glades where they spent the day at the William Grant Garner home.

The Stork last week left a sweet little girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Walker and a chubby little boy, No. 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hosterman.

Harry Sunday, one of Tadpole's progressive farmers, spent Monday at his parental home on east Main street, to see his son Walter, who has been quite ill with pleurisy.

Mrs. Maggie Gardner has gone to the home of her brother, William McWilliams, near Freeport, Ill., owing to his serious illness, and expects to be away at least a month.

Last Friday evening Miss Mary Reed entertained a number of her girl friends at a pantry party. The hour was quite late when all had departed for their respective homes.

Our popular grain merchant, J. D. Neidigh, is loading two cars with corn this week. This will make eight carloads of corn shipped from this section in the past two weeks.

William Dunlap, of Freeport, Ill., was last week entertained at the home of his cousin, S. A. Dunlap, on south Water street, spending several days here looking up old-time acquaintances.

A number of our good-hearted citizens last week cut and hauled from Tussey mountain a liberal supply of wood to the home of William Jacobs, an old Civil war veteran, who greatly appreciated the kindness of his fellowmen.

After three postponements on account of bad weather the Presbyterian Sunday school entertainment was held last Sunday, and all the children who took part did splendidly. An offering was lifted for the Near East relief and the generous sum of $114.00 realized.

Mrs. Maggie Quinn, of Pennsylvania Furnace, was an over Sunday visitor with relatives in Altoona and Bellwood. She returned home on Monday afternoon and from the extra amount of baggage she carried it seemed as if her time was very busily employed shopping.

In last week's "Mentions" we noted the sale of a piece of timberland for $15,000 by Ben Everhart. Last Thursday he sold his farm to the Houck Bros. for $15,000 and is now arranging to make public sale of his stock and farming implements and retire to a comfortable home at Frankville.

Our Lutheran minister, Rev. A. M. Lutton, did not allow little things like huge snow drifts and blockaded roads to keep him from filling his regular appointments on Sunday. Starting out early Sunday morning he went to Gatesburg, from there to Pennsylvania Furnace and was back home in time for his regular appointment here in the evening.

Last Saturday was a bad day for automobiling. Ed Martz, our efficient mail carrier, started out with the mail and two passengers but had gone but a short distance when he ditched his car along the sidewalk. He made no effort to right it but put back and brought out his Overland machine and landed both mail and passengers safely at State College. The same day John Moore and friend started for Snyder county and managed to get somewhere in the mountains when his Ford gave out and he telephoned Elmer Long to go to his rescue. His car also went bad so that it was Monday before the parties landed home.

HUBLERSBURG.

Fred Yocum is at home, nursing a badly sprained ankle.

We are glad to know that the sick in our vicinity are all improving at present.

Communion services will be held in the Reformed church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

William Faust, who has been holding down a good job in Williamsport, is spending a few days with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Faust.

Mrs. D. A. Detrick is still at Axe Mann, helping to care for her brother, Wallace White and family, who have been ill with pneumonia.

J. D. Miller and Mr. Grenoble are busy tearing down the station building at this place. Mr. Miller expects to use the lumber in erecting a new barn.

The properties belonging to John Vonada, (deceased) were sold Saturday afternoon at public sale. The farm brought $10,000, and the property in Hublersburg $480.00.

Last Thursday night two fox hunters, Whitmer Grove, (we failed to learn the other man's name) from Spring Mills, were entertained at the home of Miss Sophie Rockey. The men had gone to the mountains on a hunting expedition and finally lost their dogs, and not wishing to go home without them started on a hunt for the dogs, and late in the evening landed in our burg for the night. The next day they found their dogs down at Nittany and no doubt went home rejoicing.

RUNVILLE.

Austin Brower is visiting among friends at Philipsburg.

Mrs. James Fetterolf was taken to Bellefonte on Monday, where she entered the hospital as a surgical patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher were called to Cresona last week on account of the illness of their daughter, Mrs. Roy Corman, who is threatened with an attack of appendicitis.

CASTORIA.

Bears the signature of Chas. E. Fletcher. In use for over thirty years, and

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

ORVISTON.

Mrs. Charles Young has been quite ill, but is somewhat improved.

Little Eva Estright, of Lock Haven, is visiting her grandma, Mrs. Croll.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shearer are leaving Orviston for Lock Haven. Mrs. Shearer has never been quite well since coming here. We hope her health may be benefited by the change.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wyland are sorrowing over the death of a baby son, born January 21st, who passed away in a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Wyland have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.

Lieut. and Mrs. John Hume returned to their home in Falconer, N. Y., leaving Orviston Thursday. Robert, who has been working there since July, left Sunday morning for Lock Haven. He was accompanied by his brother, Alexander Hume, who will also become a New Yorker.

The officers of Lodge 53, P. O. of A., were installed Thursday, January 22nd, after which the ladies provided a dandy lunch which was appreciated by the members and their visitors. Those installed were: President, Bertha Condo; assistant president, Rhoda Isabel Croll; vice president, Emma Herr; assistant, Elizabeth Confer; chaplain, Margaret Confer; recording secretary, Josephine Poorman; financial secretary, Myrtle Cox; treasurer, Anna Confer; conductor, Maude Page; assistant conductor, Joseph L. Hume; orator, Joseph L. Hume; past president, Pearl Brown; assistant past president, John Shank; sentinel, Mary Shank; guardian, Mary Klingler.

JACKSONVILLE.

Rumor is rife of a wedding booked to take place in the near future.

Miss Adella Garbrick is plying her trade as a seamstress in this community.

Theodore Dixon is arranging to take a trip to California with a party of friends.

Some of our folks are counting the weeks, and some only days, until moving time, and the indications are that quite a number of changes will be made.

A sled load of happy young folks journeyed to the Robert Confer home last Friday evening and, notwithstanding the rain, they had a very enjoyable time. Reed and Ephriam Dietz officiated as teamsters and the party included Joe Dietz, Willard Weaver, Hogan Long, Miles Bartley, Harold Betz, Theodore Dixon, Ralph Vonada, Austin Allison, Homer Yearick, Clarence Weight, Hewitt Confer, Deimer Ertley, Walter Dietz, Ephriam Dietz, and Misses Alta Yarnell, Florence Yarnell, Hazel Dietz, Madge Allison, Rosetta Yearick, Rosalie Yearick, Rhoda Yarnell, Elnora Weight, Rhoda Kling, Elizabeth Vonada, Viola Hoy, Mary Weight, Helena Kling, Mary Weaver, Margaret Condo, Myra Peters and Mrs. Mary Condo.

Oh, Pshaw!

"The first act of your new play is positively Shavian."

"Shouldn't wonder. You see, I outlined it while waiting my turn in a barber's shop."

MEDICAL.

Some Good Advice

Strengthened by Bellefonte Experience.

Kidney disease is too dangerous to neglect. At the first sign of backache, headache, dizziness or urinary disorders, you should give the weakened kidneys prompt attention. Eat little meat, take things easier, and use a reliable kidney tonic. There's no other kidney medicine so well recommended as Doan's Kidney Pills. Bellefonte people rely on them. Here's one of the many statements from Bellefonte people.

Mrs. B. F. Blair, 108 Howard St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally when suffering from kidney trouble. They certainly have benefited me in every way, in fact, I haven't had to use any kidney medicine for kidney complaint since I first took Doan's Kidney Pills. I think there is nothing as good as Doan's for people who may be troubled with weak kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Blair had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

AARONSBURG.

The Stork left a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Homan.

Mrs. John F. Krape and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Hosterman, of Fiedler.

On Monday morning Harry Acker assumed his new duties on the mail route from Coburn to Woodward.

Mrs. C. E. Musser went to Smullton on Tuesday, where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hackenberg.

Miss Margaret Witmyer, who spent the last few months with her uncle, Charles Harter, near Madisonburg, came home on Saturday.

Mr. Bower, of Colon, Mich., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Guise-wite. Mr. Bower is a cousin of Mrs. Guise-wite and Mrs. Breen, who had not seen him for forty years.

H. E. Crouse on Monday evening received a telegram stating that Durbin Holloway, of Akron, Ohio, had passed away on the 26th inst. Death was due to an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Holloway had a similar attack just one week previous. He was about sixty-three years of age. His wife, one son, one daughter and one brother, all of Akron, survive him. Funeral was held Thursday at his late home.

Following is a list of those who are ill in our little village: W. J. Krape, who some time ago had been ill, but had recovered sufficiently to again attend church, we are sorry to note, has had a relapse and is again ill at his home. Mrs. John Condo, who was taken suddenly ill last Tuesday, is slowly improving, being still confined to her bed. Miss Mary Forster, last Wednesday evening, while on her way home from the postoffice, had the misfortune to fall on the icy sidewalk and break her leg. She was carried home and Dr. Musser called, who is doing all possible to relieve her suffering. She is resting as comfortably as can be expected. William Guise-wite, who had been suffering with lumbago, is not improving, as he has now developed sciatic rheumatism. Arthur Weaver is suffering from the effects of a bad cold and is under the doctor's care. We wish all these sufferers a speedy recovery.

A Fair Question.

A New York man is jarred by the pronouncing of "Ensign" "Ensin," and wants to know if a man who paints signs is a sin painter.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Itch! Itch! Itch!

It Seems Sometimes As if You Would Fly Out of Your Skin.

Eczema or salt rheum not only itches, but it also burns, oozes, dries and scales over and over again. Sometimes it covers the whole body and causes intense suffering.

You have found that local applications have no lasting effect, and you want permanent relief.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, give it a good fair trial, because you must thoroughly purify your blood or the eruption will continue to annoy, perhaps agonize you. This great medicine has been successfully used in thousands of cases.

To make and keep the bowels normally active, take Hood's Pills, they are gentle and thorough.
