PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. Grant Martin is visiting relatives and friends at Julian and vicinity.

Saturday's snow and Sunday's blow again filled the roads fence high with drifts.

J. C. Dunlap, of Twin Rocks, was an over Sunday visitor at his parental home on Water street.

Four prospective weddings hereabouts are scheduled to take place about Easter or early spring.

After a three week's visit at her parental home in the Mountain city Mrs. A. M. Lutten returned home on Tuesday.

A little son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keith, near town, on Sunday, and has been named Albert Jr.

Mrs. J. W. Kepler entertained at dinner on Sunday her mother, Mrs. A. F. Goss, and Miss Carrie Royer, of Bloomsburg.

W. A. Collins was a business visitor in Bellefonte last Thursday, but to get there he had to hike to State College and back.

George W. Rossman recently purchased the Colobine store at Graysville and expects to establish there a good sized garage and repair shop.

Miss Lucetta Tanyer left on Monday evening for Johnstown to lend assistance in caring for her aunt Sadie and family, all of whom are ill with the flu.

The annual congregational meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church here at 7:30 o'clock next Monday evening. A full turnout is requested.

Russell Shirk has sold his home on west College avenue, State College, to H. R. Harkins and will give up the bakery work to go to farming with Will Glenn on April first.

Hon. J. W. Kepler spent Sunday with his family here, though to get back to his work he was compelled to go by horse and sleigh to Bellefonte on Sunday to catch a train west.

Homer Ishler, of Dale's Summit, is assisting his uncle, W. A. Lytle, in putting a shine on his stock and getting his implements in shape for his public sale on March 27th, on the Dr. Fry farm at Rock Springs.

We erred last week in stating that Thomas D. Gray had already sold out all his holdings near Bloomsburg and would shortly move to his new home at State College. Instead he has sold his farm and will later dispose of his personal effects at public sale.

Waldo Cori has arranged to go to farming on his father's farm at White Hall. John Walls moved to J. B. Campbell's farm near Tyrone on Monday, while J. Cal. Bailey will be Pierce S. Gray's right hand man the coming year on his farm near Marengo.

Several real estate changes have been made here recently. W. T. Thompson bought the J. I. Reed home on east Main street, and Mr. Reed purchased the Port home. Kocher and Peters, two hustling young men, will succeed Mr. Thompson as tenants on the Henry McWilliams farm.

Rev. Ira E. Fisher will hold his last service at Franklinville next Sunday before going to Harrisburg next week to attend the annual Methodist conference. Mrs. Fisher and Miss Lena will make a short visit at their old home at Frankstown and later Mrs. Fisher will join her husband in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Barger, of Pine Hall, are mourning the death of their six month's old son John, who died very suddenly on Sunday while he was with his parents on a visit to his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Breon. Burial was made at Pine Hall on Wednesday, Rev. S. C. Stover officiating.

On Tuesday evening of last week the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Albright, at Oak Grove, gathered at their home to give them a farewell party. Over one hundred people were present and the evening proved a very delightful one. Last fall Mr. Albright purchased the Will Grazer farm on west Tadpole and he and his family will move there April first. A farewell party was also tendered the W. A. Lytle family at Rock Springs on Friday evening. The Lytles will shortly move onto a farm they bought near Mifflinburg, in Union county.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Rose Sunday, of Tadpole, was a guest of Miss Margaret Snyder for a few days.

William Meyer spent last Wednesday with his sister, Mrs. John Kline, at Centre Mills.

Miss Gladys Hazel, accompanied by several friends from Penn State, spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Henry Reitz and Mrs. Eliza Poorman enjoyed a day's visit at the home of Charles Kuhn last week.

Mrs. Elmer Young and son Leitzell, and Mrs. Fernon Russell, who moved to Middleburg last fall, returned to their home near town last week.

On Saturday afternoon the body of Mrs. Lawrence Melvaine, of Bentleyville, Pa., was brought to Boalsburg for interment in the Union cemetery. Mrs. Melvaine was, before her marriage Leona Catharine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wieland, of Lebanon, who for more than twenty years lived in Boalsburg, and the husband and family have many friends here who sympathize with them in their bereavement. Mrs. J. M. Wieland, Guy and Boyd Wieland, Mr. and Mrs. William Snyder, of Lebanon; Daniel and Donald Wieland, of Penn State; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wieland, of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Wieland, of Mt. Union, and Mr. John Ziegler, of Altoona, attended the funeral services, conducted by Rev. S. C. Stover, of the Reformed church, of which the deceased was a member. Mrs. William Klingler, a sister, was unable to be present at the burial on account of the illness of herself and family.

LEMONT.

Prof. David Eiters was seen on our streets Saturday.

Glenn Wasson is able to be out again but not able to do much work.

Friday brought rain and snow and then high wind and the roads drifted shut again.

Rev. McHenry, who has been ill with pneumonia is getting better and it is hoped will soon be out again.

Willard Dale's son-in-law, Calvin Cheesman, has come to take up the work of helper on the former's farm.

William E. Grove spent last week attending the annual sessions of the United Evangelical conference, at Williamsport.

John H. M. Stover is able to attend to business again, but his son, Russell, had the misfortune to have one of his arms badly hurt, putting him out of commission.

The people are beginning to get the moving spirit, and some of the movings will be as follows: M. A. Williams from the Mrs. Cal Bathgate farm to his own home; Harry Houtz from the Ella Bottorf farm to the one vacated by M. A. Williams, and Harry Coble to the Bathgate farm; Jas. Kustenborder from the Witmer farm (near Shiloh) to his farm near Pine Grove Mills, and Chalmer Houtz from the Christ farm to the one vacated by James Kustenborder; John Fogleman to Pleasant Gap, and George Bloom to the place vacated by John Fogleman; Daniel Klingler to his farm in Pennsylvania, from one of the penitentiary farms.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Lee Hain, of Sunbury, spent a day with her father, H. E. Crouse.

Mrs. Henry Mowery returned home, after spending a week with relatives near Snow Shoe.

Mrs. Jennie Sylvis has returned to her home in this place after spending the winter in Milroy.

Clair Gramley last Thursday moved from Millheim to our village and is now occupying the T. W. Kreamer house.

Monday, March 8th, the P. O. of A. held a tureen supper in their hall, which was followed by the initiation of several new members.

Arthur Cummings, of near Rebersburg, has rented the J. Z. Haffley house on North 2nd street and will move into same in the near future.

Miss Rilla Musser has been ill for a week and is under the care of Dr. G. S. Frank. Sunday her condition was slightly better and it is hoped she may soon be quite well again.

W. J. Krape has again been confined to his bed for a few days, but is slowly improving. His neighbors and friends hope soon to see him in his accustomed seat in Sunday school and church.

The condition of A. D. Keener has not improved any, and there is little hope for, owing to the nature of the disease from which he has long been suffering. He is being made as comfortable as possible.

Monday, while on the mountain chopping wood, Frank Burd had the misfortune to cut his foot. No doubt he will be housed up for a time, but we hope he may improve rapidly and soon be able to resume work.

Miss Mary Forster, who some weeks ago fell and fractured her hip, is still confined to her bed. However, her physician tells her she will soon be able to leave her bed, and we hope soon to see her about as usual.

Mrs. Tom Swann and Miss Jennie Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, spent a day in town with Mrs. Swann's uncle, James Wert. They also called on other friends.

ORVISTON.

Beatrice Croll, baby daughter of Mrs. Isabel Croll, has been quite ill.

John Dietz, of Lock Haven, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dietz.

Orviston friends of Floyd Miller are sympathizing with him over the death of his young wife, formerly Miss Madaline Cook. Mrs. Miller was a sweet dispositioned girl and was loved by all who knew her. She leaves an infant son, who is not yet a year old.

Mrs. Louis E. MacDonald, of Lock Haven, accompanied by her little son, William Hume-Jones, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hume Sr. Mrs. MacDonald is expecting to make another visit to the hospital and as she is very weak the outcome is doubtful.

Hensyl Young is worrying with a very sore finger, that necessitated his remaining at home for a day. His brother Charles is far from well, and Charles Jr. has been quite ill for a week. The young child of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Poorman was also on the sick list.

A few of Mrs. George Bixel's friends planned a happy little surprise for her recently, the occasion being her birthday. The conspirators met at the home of Rev. Merrick but found him too ill to go with them, and Mrs. Merrick far from well, so they proceeded to the Bixel home and succeeded in surprising Mrs. Bixel. The evening was pleasantly spent in conversation and music. Miss Almeta Bixel and Miss Josephine Poorman rendered several beautiful piano duets, and some popular songs, in which they were aided by Mrs. Bixel's beautiful alto voice, accompanied by Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Croll, who sang a solo. Mrs. Hume wound up the program by an old revue. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. James Heverly, Mrs. William Lucas, Mrs. Roy Leathers, Mrs. Alva Confer, Mrs. Maurice Klinger, Mrs. Alfred Shank, Mrs. John Hume, Mrs. Isabel Croll, Misses Josephine Poorman, Almeta Bixel, a Miss Leathers, Velma, Encie and Sara Heverly, Mary Jeannette Bixel, Sterling Heverly and Mr. and Mrs. Bixel. Mrs. Bixel received several pretty and appropriate gifts. Illness kept many away.

"Has the landlord made any repairs or additions for you lately?" "Well, he has made two additions to the rent."

MEDICAL.

Brace Up!

Do you feel old before your time? Is your back bent and stiff? Do you suffer urinary disorders? Don't despair—profit by Bellefonte experiences. Bellefonte people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's a Bellefonte resident's statement.

Mrs. Christ Young, 16 Potter St., says: "For more than a year I suffered with a dull pain in the small of my back. My back was always sore and when I bent over, I could hardly get up again. I didn't feel able to do anything about my house. I had a dull, drowsy feeling all day long and when I got up in the morning I could hardly dress. I was troubled a lot with dizzy spells and my kidneys acted irregularly. I read in our town paper where Doan's Kidney Pills had helped so many people of the same trouble that I decided to give them a trial. The first box I got at the Green Pharmacy Co. cured me and it has been about three years now since I have had any trouble with my kidneys." (Statement given April 22, 1914).

On October 18, 1918, Mrs. Young said: "I am very glad to confirm my former endorsement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no kidney trouble since I used Doan's and am now a well woman and owe it all to Doan's."

Karo In the blue can.

Jams, Jellies, Preserves are Too High—Blue Label Karo Solves the "Sweet" Problem at Less Cost. Important to Large Families

THE mother of a large family cannot help being worried over the extremely high prices of jams, jellies, preserves—and candy. In children especially Nature emphasizes her demand for sweets. We all need a good percentage of sweets each day.

This is the reason for the unusual present demand for Blue Label Karo—the Great American Sweet for every purpose.

INSTEAD of worrying about and paying high prices for store candy, I make Karo Candy at home. It is easy to make, costs but little and its purity makes it best for children.

There is an every day use for Blue Label Karo. From breakfast —on pancakes or waffles—to dinner for cooking and baking.

CORN PRODUCTS REFINING COMPANY 17 Battery Place New York

NOTICE Because you will find so many economical ways to use Blue Label Karo it will pay you to buy it by the dozen cans, as others are doing. Ask your grocer the price. FREE Write today for beautifully illustrated 64-page Corn Products Cook Book.
