William White Badly Injured When Train Hit Auto.

William White, a well known farmer on upper Dix Run, in Union township, was badly injured last Saturday afternoon when his automobile was run down by the Tyrone work train on the Chestnut street crossing at Unionville. Mr. White, with his wife and ten year old son, had motored from their farm into Unionville with some produce for market. The approach to the crossing was obscured by a long pile of mine ties and props so that Mr. White could not see the work train which was backing up the track and the trainmen could not see the automobile. The result was Mr. White drove onto the track just at the moment when the train reached the crossing, and his car, a five passenger Dodge, was struck full on the side and pushed along ahead of the train some thirty feet or more, being literally smashed to pieces.

Mr. White sustained a compound fracture of the left leg below the knee, severe bruises and lacerations on the face, head and body. Mrs. White was badly cut about the head and face and slightly injured internally. The boy was badly cut on the head and sustained some ugly bruises. As soon as the conductor of the work train could get permission from headquarters in Tyrone he had the injured loaded on the train and brought them to Bellefonte, they being taken direct to the hospital. The doctors' examination disclosed the injuries as above stated which, though painful and serious, are not considered in the fatal class, but they will keep Mr. White housed up for weeks, and just at the unfortunate time when his spring work on the farm should have his attention. The accident happened about 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon and some time after the victims had been taken away from Unionville on the work train Mr. White's pocketbook was found along the tracks. It contained $47.72. In the auto when it was struck by the train was a basket confound with the shells cracked and the remainder were all scrambled.

In the meantime the people of Williamsport and Lycoming county will beat Centre and Clinton county to it in the matter of creating such lasting memorials. The Garden club of Williamsport have already placed an order for approximately five thousand trees and shrubs which will be planted along the state highway between Montoursville and Falls. A planting committee has been appointed and as soon as the trees and shrubs are received a force of one hundred volunteers will assist in the planting so that the work can be done in one or trees and shrubs ordered by the Wil-500 honeysuckle; 400 roses; 200 clem-400 forsythia interdemnia; 1000 tulips; 500 jack pine; 500 white pine; 10 pussy willow; 10 honey locust; 10 pink flowering dogwood; 100 sour cherries; 10 black walnut, and 100 hickory.

In 1867 he removed with his family to Philadelphia and a year later to Rochester, N. Y., and shortly after became actively connected with the

In 1881 he went to Morristown, Pa., where for two years he was superintendent of the Grain Binder works, returning to Rochester in the latter part of 1882. That city had been his home ever since with the exception of ten months in the latter part of 1897 and early part of 1898, which he spent on a trip

He worked on it a number of years until he had it perfected but in the formation of a company for the manufacture of the machine Mr. Myers was literally frozen out and never realized much financially for his invention, although the voting machine is now in general use in New York, and although perfected to a high degree is manufactured over the original lines designed by Mr. Myers. Later in life Mr. Myers designed and made specifications for special bank vaults and safes which showed a high standard of inventive genius. He was a close student of political economy and all public questions and frequently contributed articles of unusual merit to the public press which were copied far and wide. He was a member of the G. A. R. and the Jefferson club, of Rochester. In 1891 he was nominated on the Democratic ticket for State Senator in New York, taining twelve dozen of eggs. Trout Fishing Season Will Open Next Thursday.

Before another issue of the "Watchman" is issued the enthusiastic angler will have tried his skill at catching trout on the opening day of the season, which will be next Thursday. From the appearance of the trout streams now conditions will not be at all auspicious for the first day. The water is unusually high and in some of the streams very cloudy. In the few days that intervene until the opening day there will hardly be enough change to make fly fishing even a good pastime, let alone a

Aside from the condition of the streams there is one other thing that will count very decidedly in making the opening day a success, and that is the number of trout. Ever since the breakup of winter the streams have been so high and cloudy that it has been impossible to see if there are any trout worth going after. Many of the mountain streams were frozen almost to the bottom for weeks during the winter time and if the trout in them did not perish they undoubtedly went down stream to deeper waters. The larger streams which did not freeze would naturally not be affected in this way. But the fact that trout were not very plentiful last year does not augur very well for a good catch this year.
