

"High School Day" at State College May 15th.

Suggesting that the High schools of central Pennsylvania charter motor trucks, pack them full of students and declare a big holiday, President Edwin E. Sparks has sent invitations to all High school principals within fifty miles of State College to take their boys and girls there on Saturday, May 15th, which will be a great day on the college campus.

This is reviving a custom established before the declaration of war when hundreds of nearby High school students went there by truck on the day of the interscholastic track and field meet. They took their lunches and had an outing that all enjoyed.

The attractions there for May 15th include: Annual interscholastic athletic meet; High school principal's conference; finals of the Central Pennsylvania public speaking contests for High schools; a military review of the 1800 college cadets; a varsity baseball game with Washington and Jefferson; a track and field meet with the University of West Virginia, and a baseball game between the Penn State Freshmen and Lafayette High school of Buffalo.

This is the biggest program that has ever been attempted by Penn State in one day, and the college is expecting hundreds of visitors in addition to the scores of athletes who will be there from other High schools and colleges.

"The Saturday motor truck trip should appeal to all High school boys and girls within reaching distance of the college," President Sparks says. "It will not only give them a fine outing, but will give them a chance to visit a college and see it in full operation. It often happens that the visit of a High school student to a college will create a desire for higher education, and this opportunity is one of the best."

COHEN & CO.,

Well, Easter is past and we still have a message for you that will interest you are sure. We have been telling you about the things that we were offering for Easter and for the Spring cleaning and renewing, but this week we are going to give you a sort of variety.

SECOND FLOOR.—Last week was a big week in this department and we can easily account for that. Our prices are the lowest and the merchandise the best. That is a logical explanation, is it not? We still have several patterns left of the Axminster velvet brussels rugs 9x12 that we have been showing. We are offering these for $50.50. Then we have crex, and wool fiber rugs 9x12, for $12.50, $13.50, $18.00, and $22.00. What better could you ask? We advise that you come soon and take your choice for we are sure that these will not last long at these prices.

We have a three piece living room suite of mahogany upholstered in tapestry, that we are offering now for $149.50. You could not picture the worth and beauty of this suite if you were a long description of it; you can only know this by seeing it. We have only one of these left so if you want it at this price do not delay your visit to this department.

STREET FLOOR.—Have you seen the case at the front of our store, and did you see the pretty patterns of voile that we are selling at 25 cents per yard. Yes, we have been more than selling them; at this price we have really been giving them away. Don't pass up an opportunity like this, when you can buy at such a saving. Have you seen our voiles at 50 cents a yard? The patterns are beauties and the quality is extra fine.

Just now we are displaying some dainty camisoles, of silk and georgette crepe, of all styles, and some are embroidered, for $1.69.

We have a new line of carriage robes. It is too warm for baby to have the winter carriage robe, and too cool for none at all. We have solved the problem, with these new robes of pale pink or blue silk, daintily embroidered in pale shades. These are only $4.98 and $5.98. Then there is the trouble to find a cap warm enough and yet not too warm for this kind of weather. We have the cutest little silk caps for 98c., $1.25, $1.50. Let us show them to you.

BASINEMENT.—Did you get one of our circulars headed "The Bargain Basement"? Well, then you saw some of the values we are offering; but they are not all listed on that. This week we are offering you a pound of BOSCU COFFEE for 49c. You know the quality of this coffee and you know also that this is a real bargain.

Last week we received a shipment of children's suit cases and are offering them at 48c. while they last. Of course the children want these and we have made the price within reach of all so no child need wish for one and not have it.

We especially invite you to see our line of water motor washers at $22.50. Saves time, labor, strength and money. Come and see for yourself.

"Your Store is so Different"

We hear that remark several times a day. Yes, it is different!

First of all we carry nothing but the best merchandise obtainable; by this we mean lines of goods that have stood the test of time, which after all is the test of worth and value.

Secondly, no two of our garments are alike; a great variety and every one different.

Thirdly, we carry little merchandise over from one season to another. Last Fall we had just two suits and six coats left over. Needless to say we disposed of them, so that our stock is always clean, new and attractive.

Lastly, we guarantee everything that leaves our shop.

So, you see, our shop is different; individuality in clothes is why our business grows.

Then, too, we have a graduate corset fitter always in attendance.

Of course "we're different" and glad of it.
