Inauspicious Opening of Trout Fishing Season.

Nature gave the trout a good chance to escape the snares of the wily fisherman's hook yesterday morning, on the first day of the trout fishing season, because not in years have the conditions been more unfavorable for a good catch.

But notwithstanding the unfavorable conditions, fishermen were out in force to try their luck. In his day and generation Izaak Walton may have been the boss fisherman and made some good catches, but in those days, when every stream in the country was teeming with fish, it was doubtless an easy matter to go out and catch a mess of fish.

He turns to it just as naturally as the small boy turns to marbles and the habit is not confined to any particular set of men. From cities, towns, villages and countryside they flock to the streams, not simply for the blood-lust of killing but for the pure delight of matching wits and skill with the wily trout and the ambition to conquer.

Wednesday brought many strange fishermen to town, the most of whom journeyed to other streams in the county. Quite a number of Bellefonters made the trip to Fishing creek where the waters are not so cloudy, even though high, and fly casting was possible on some parts of the stream.

A Tyone fisherman also landed a nice one measuring sixteen inches, from the Bush House dam. Other fishermen along the stream got from one to three and four but up to the time the "Watchman" went to press yesterday evening no unusually big catches were reported.

The Clarence Co-operative association was organized at Clarence last week for the purpose of operating a store for the benefit of the miners in that locality. The organization has been capitalized at $10,000 and the officers chosen are as follows: President, Andrew Koshko; treasurer, Joseph J. Puhalla; secretary, Frank M. Brennan; store manager, Michael Koshko.

Susquehanna University Campaign in Full Swing. Susquehanna University's half million dollar campaign is now on full swing, and judging from the reports pouring into the office of F. M. Crawford, of Bellefonte, campaign leader in this district, Centre county is galloping over the top with her share of the great project.

Sweeping enthusiasm is being manifested in the drive and keen rivalry exists between various towns and districts. Bellefonte has issued a challenge that it will raise more dollars over a given quota than State College, and the workers in the college town have accepted the proposition. Reports for Monday and Tuesday follow:

Table with 2 columns: Location and Amount. Pine Grove Mills $1320, Pine Hall 400, State College 1285, Bellefonte 1595.

A total of 8,500 day old chicks were shipped from the Hockman hatchery at Hecla on Monday.

PATTERSON.—Mrs. Adaline Matern Patterson, widow of the late W. Calvin Patterson, of State College, passed away at her home in that place on Sunday afternoon. She had been critically ill for one month to the very day, although her health had not been good for some time.

Mrs. Patterson was a daughter of Jacob and Susan Fetterhoff Matern and was born in Huntingdon county on March 26th, 1844, hence had reached the advanced age of 76 years and 16 days. Her girlhood days were spent at the home of her birth but the greater part of her married life was spent at State College. In fact she went there with her husband about the year 1872, when there was little there but the main college building, and she has seen it grow into the wonderful institution it is today.

As a girl she became a member of the Methodist church and when the family moved to State College she became a member of the congregation in the old church at Centre Furnace. When the church was established at State College she formed one of the original congregation. She was not only a faithful member but she believed in the church as an institution for good as she believed in a Supreme being and any labor performed in its behalf was a delight to her. In her home she was all that any wife and mother could be. Her husband and children were foremost in her thoughts and love but she was just as considerate for her guests. During her active days she was identified with the social life of State College as well as its material welfare.

Mr. Patterson died in 1909 but surviving her are four children, namely: Mrs. A. Lawrence Miller, wife of the eminent pastor of the Bloomsburg Methodist church; Dr. Harry J. Patterson, director of the experiment station of Maryland State College at College Point, Md.; Mrs. Milton E. McDonald, of Hollidaysburg, and Mrs. Irving L. Foster, of State College. She also leaves one sister and two brothers, Mrs. Susan Gray, who made her home with Mrs. Patterson; Jacob H. Matern, of Warriorsburg, and John F., of Washington, D. C.

Funeral services were held at her late home at three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. J. W. Long, after which her remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband in the Pine Hall cemetery.

SHUGERTS.—Mrs. George Shugerts died at her home at Boalsburg last Friday night following an illness of two years with Bright's disease. She was a daughter of Adam and Lucy Felty and was born in Harris township forty-one years ago. She is survived by her husband but no children. She leaves, however, two sisters, Mrs. Ernest Hess, of Boalsburg, and Mrs. William Passmore, of Harrisburg, as well as the following half-brothers and sisters: John Felty, of Akron, Ohio; J. B. Felty, of Altoona; Mrs. H. S. Shugerts, of Altoona; Mrs. Kate Keller, of State College, and Mrs. Margaret House, of Selingsgrove. Funeral services were held at her late home at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning by Rev. E. F. Brown, of the Lutheran church, of which she was a member, after which burial was made in the Lutheran cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM. The following tribute of respect is paid to the deceased by the Zion Lutheran Sunday school of Boalsburg, of which she was a member: Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst another member of our Sabbath school and church;

Resolved, That we recognize the goodness of the giver of life, and the calling from her long, intense suffering, one who was always found in her place in the church and Sunday school as long as her health permitted; therefore be it

Resolved, That we bear testimony to her beautiful Christian life, which showed forth her beautiful actions and conversation that was a devout follower of her blessed Saviour; and further

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well, and that we extend to the bereft husband and friends our deepest sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the sorrowing husband, and that they be preserved by record on our Sunday school minutes.

Mrs. John Zechman, Mrs. Leinberger, Mrs. David John, Eugene Radel, Miss Mary Segner, Wm. Goben.

WEAVER.—George Weaver died on Monday at his home at Penn's Cave after a brief illness with heart trouble. He was born in Bellefonte and was almost fifty-two years old. He never married but is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Newton E., of Altoona; William H., who made his home with the deceased; Mrs. Emma Hall, of Lebanon, Ohio; Mrs. Charles Miller, of Tylersville; Mrs. Boyd Miller, of Jersey Shore, and Miss Clara, at home. Burial was made yesterday at Farmer's Mills.

FISHER.—Mrs. Carrie I. Fisher, wife of Willard S. Fisher, of Snow Shoe Intersection, passed away on Tuesday morning following two weeks' critical illness with neuritis. She was a daughter of Reuben and Elizabeth Iddings and was born at Unionville over fifty-five years ago. When a young woman she was married to Oscar Fisher and they had two children, E. Blair, who lives near Snow Shoe Intersection, and Raymond, of Tyrone. Mr. Fisher died thirty years ago, and a few years later she married his cousin, Willard S. Fisher, who survives with two children, Fred, who lives on the home farm and Elizabeth at home.

Mrs. Fisher was not only a loving wife and mother but a kind and hospitable neighbor. In fact her open-hearted hospitality was known far and wide and every person who crossed the threshold of her household was always sure of a warm welcome. The funeral will take place at ten o'clock this (Friday) morning, burial to be made in the Stover cemetery.

MCCOOL.—Following a lingering illness of over five years with yellow jaundice and other complications David M. McCool died at his home at Spring Mills last Wednesday morning. He was a son of Jacob and Rebecca McCool and was born in Gregg township sixty-nine years ago. He was married to Miss Malinda Witmer who survives with the following children: Charles and James, of Spring Mills; Harry, of Rebersburg; Roland, of Altoona; Anna R., at home; Lottie, of Millheim; Mrs. Kate Harshberger, of Altoona; and Mrs. Harry Wilkinson, who only recently lost her husband by death in Bellefonte. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: John, of Spring Mills; James, near Centre Hall; Mrs. Brown, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Snyder, of Glen Iron, and Mrs. Finkle, of Chicago. The funeral was held last Saturday morning, burial being made in the Georges Valley cemetery.

CRONISTER.—Jacob Cronister, a life-long resident of Centre Line, died on Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John C. Root, in Tyrone, following an illness of two weeks with acute Bright's disease. He was a son of Jacob and Margaret Cronister and was born at Centre Line on October 4th, 1838, hence was in his eighty-second year. He followed farming all his life until the death of his wife about five years ago when he went to Tyrone to make his home with his daughter. Mr. Cronister was a veteran of the Civil war, having served for three years in Company I, Fifth Pennsylvania reserves. Burial was made at Centre Line yesterday.

FURL.—Mrs. Martha Furl passed away at her home at Runville last Saturday of general debility, aged seventy-four years. She is survived by her husband, Samuel Furl, and the following children: Mrs. Sarah Lumberger, of Wingate; Mrs. Clara Lucas, of Harrisburg; John, of Runville; Alfred and Michael, at home. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mary Hall, of Fleming, and Mrs. Clara Bortoff, of Runville. Rev. J. C. Erb had charge of the funeral services which were held on Tuesday, burial being made in the Methodist cemetery.

DEHLINGER.—William H. Dehlinger, postmaster at Patton, died last Thursday morning following a prolonged illness, aged sixty-six years. Prior to moving to Patton in 1901 he was a resident of Phillipsburg for eighteen years and was well known throughout Centre county. He was a member of the Moshannon Lodge of Masons of Phillipsburg and the Methodist church. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter. Burial was made at Clearfield last Saturday.

TROUP.—William J. Troup, father of Calvin Troup, of Bellefonte, died at his home in Hanover on Monday as the result of a stroke of paralysis, aged about seventy-five years. In addition to his son living in Bellefonte, he leaves his wife and another son and daughter, Edward and Mrs. Catharine Thomas, living in Hanover. Mr. Calvin Troup went to Hanover for the funeral, which was held yesterday.

MYERS.—Charles Myers, a retired P. R. R. flagman who has been making his home at Snow Shoe Intersection the past two years, dropped dead of heart failure on Tuesday morning, aged sixty-five years. He is survived by his wife, who prior to her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Ertight, but no children. Burial will be made this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Y. Elder, of Ferguson township, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Viola Elder, to Randall Rossmann, on Wednesday, April 21st, at high noon. The wedding will take place at the Elder home on the old Watt farm in the Glades. The ceremony will be followed by a wedding breakfast after which the young couple will take a brief wedding trip before locating in their already furnished home at Rock Springs.

A telegram was received in Bellefonte yesterday from William Marshall, of Buffalo, N. Y., conveying the information that his mother, Mrs. George Marshall, had suffered a stroke of paralysis and was in a serious condition.

Ray Brandman has sold the balance of the stock in his store on Allegheny street to a Philadelphia firm, and expects to follow his family to the Quaker city in a week or two.

Max Kalin, the shoe dealer, has purchased the four houses of the Joseph estate located on Spring street, at the intersection of Logan. There are a double and two single dwellings, one of the latter of which Mr. Kalin will occupy himself. The consideration was $8250.

The dwelling house of Sylvanus Lucas in Bush Hollow, back of Unionville, was totally destroyed by fire last Thursday morning while Mr. Lucas was on a trip to Unionville. Seventy-five bushels of potatoes stored in the cellar of the house were ruined. The loss is estimated at several thousand dollars, with one thousand insurance.

Persons traveling across Nittany mountain during the past week were attracted by the unusual sight of a big truck loaded with household furniture anchored in the mud. The truck had gone into the mud over the hubs and it stood there for a number of days unguarded. The truck belongs to J. Paul Rearick, of Martinsburg, who was moving a Smith family to Williamsport.

The tenant house on the farm of David R. Foreman, at Potters Mills, was entirely destroyed by fire on Thursday. The house had been occupied last year by Miles C. Barger and family, who vacated it Thursday morning to move to the Red Mill. Later in the day the house caught fire and burned to the ground. Just what caused the fire is not known. The house was in very good condition, hence the loss is considerable.

On Monday evening some sixty or more friends of Mrs. Harry Johnson, of Valentine street, gathered at her home as a birthday surprise for her, and during the evening the family was given a double surprise by the arrival home of the oldest son, Claude Johnson, better known as "Buckie" and his bride, from Atlanta, Ga. "Buckie" was one of the old Troop I boys who went to Camp Hancock in September, 1917, to train for the world war. At the camp, however, he failed to pass the physical examination so went to work in Augusta and has lived there ever since. Last Saturday he took as his bride Miss Mary Kennedy, of that place, and the young couple came to Pennsylvania on their wedding trip. Their arrival home on the night of the surprise party for Mrs. Johnson was of course a very pleasant feature of the evening.

ORVISTON.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ryan has been very ill, but is improving.

Barnhart Marshall, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Slatterbeck, of Blanchard, have removed to Orviston, to the upper works, where Mr. Slatterbeck is employed. Welcome!

We were sorry to part with Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Wellers, but as Mr. Wellers has a situation he likes better he removed his family to Mill Hall. We hope their new neighbors will appreciate them as much as their neighbors left behind.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis MacDonald and little son, William Hume Jones, of Lock Haven, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hume. Mrs. MacDonald was taken to the Lock Haven hospital Monday for surgical treatment. William will remain with his grandparents until she is well.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shearer, of Evrona, who came to Orviston to attend the last rites over their little niece, Kathryn Shearer, returned home. They were pleased to find their mother, Mrs. Belle Shearer, much improved. We hope their next visit will be a happier occasion and last longer.

J. Ellis Harvey, who has been quite ill, is much improved. Sickness has been so prevalent in Orviston that those who were fortunate enough to escape the scourge of flu and pneumonia, nearly worried themselves sick trying to keep well. We learn that our efficient little assistant postmistress, Miss Gladys Daugherty, who was hurt so badly in the auto accident near Bellefonte, is improving. As Mr. Johnson spent a lot of his time in our little town and was employed here, we all feel a deep interest in his case, hoping he will recover.
