ORVISTON.

The little daughter of Russell Rine has been very ill, but is improving.

Miss Celia Lucas is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Williams, of Howard.

Korman, the little son of Philip Dietz, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is recovering.

Mrs. Rachel Walker and two children, of Bigler, visited her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Rickard, of Orviston.

Misses Lois and Doris Young, who are attending High school at Howard, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Barnhart are rejoicing over the arrival of a dandy ten pound boy. Believe me! Dilbert is the proud and happy man.

Mrs. Thomas Spangler and her little sons, George and William, of Blanchard, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Slaterbeck, over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank L. Bartlow is very ill with a severe case of congested lungs, and is quite serious. We can hardly spare Mrs. Bartlow, as she is one of the most faithful when others are ill, staying night and day. Now her neighbors are trying to repay her.

John Hume Sr., with his little grandson, William Hume-Jones, visited his daughter, Mrs. Louis E. MacDonald, at the Lock Haven hospital, where she is recovering from a very serious operation. She has been very low, and although doing as nicely as her doctor can expect, is not "out of the woods" as yet.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shearer and son Archie have been visiting Mrs. Shearer's brother, Bion Nelson and family. George and his son Archie gave Orviston church goers a treat on Sunday. Mr. Shearer played the slide trombone and Archie the cornet. As Archie is only nine years old, and spent quite a period of his babyhood and part of early childhood here, the Orviston people feel very proud of the clever little fellow and his excellent playing.

In the evening Mr. Newton Cameron with his flute, Rev. Merrick with his violin, Mr. Shearer and Archie with trombone and cornet, and Miss Thelma Nelson at the piano, rendered an excellent program.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Poorman, of State College, paid an over night visit with Mr. Poorman's parents, and visited their aunt, Mrs. Cyrus Lucas.

Mrs. Samuel Schroyer and little daughter Ruth, of Vermont, departed for their home last Monday, after having spent a week with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Kunes, in this place.

CENTRE HALL.

The sale of Mrs. Huldah Meyer was well attended, and everything brought a good price.

Thomas Hosterman is now a resident of Centre Hall, having moved into his recently purchased house.

Many of our Odd Fellows went to Milton on Tuesday to the "Big Day," and incidentally had anything but a dry time.

The people of our town are working on the regular spring cleaning up, and as a consequence the town is growing more attractive.

Warren Krise, of Johnstown, was here to attend Masonic Lodge on Monday evening, and to visit his father, Prof. W. A. Krise, whose physical condition does not change very much.

The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows who reproduced their play at Pine Grove

Mills last Saturday night, pleased the people and realized a neat amount. They got back to Centre Hall before Sunday morning, too.

SOUL'S ORDEAL AFTER DEATH

Old Volume, Known as "Judgment of the Dead," Is a Fancy of the Ancient Egyptians.

"Book of the Dead" is a very old book, known in ancient Egypt as the "Judgment of the Dead," and it contains the funeral ritual of the Egyptians, describing in mystical language the experiences of the soul after death and the text it must quote to escape the torments and trials of the lower world. In one chapter, the longest in the book, is a picture showing the judgment which the defunct, before entering into the fields of the blessed, will undergo in the lower world, in the presence of Osiris and 42 Judges of monstrous form, who are on hand to devour the guilty and drink his blood. Anubis, the god of the dead, and Thoth, the god of wisdom, examine the deceased by weighing his heart in the "sacred" balances of Justice. The famous "negative confession" enumerates 42 capital sins from which the deceased must be free. Should he fail to pass the ordeal, he is either handed over to be devoured by the monster, part hippopotamus, part crocodile and part lion, which represents the Egyptian Cerebus, or is thrown into the fiery lake.

Queer Wedding Presents.

The following are a few of the many curious wedding presents that have been received by those about to enter the bonds of matrimony.

A well-known author received on his marriage, from a rival man of letters, a scrapbook containing a collection of all the adverse criticisms his works had ever received; while a popular artist was on similar occasion presented with a set of elementary works upon self-instruction in drawing and painting.

Unusually vexatious was the gift received from his neighbors by an infirm octogenarian who had married a pleasure-loving woman more than fifty years his junior. It took the form of a large brass cage, "intended" so ran the accompanying note—"to restrain the wayward flight of a giddy young wife who had married a decrepit old fool for his money."

Timid Old Soul.

My aunt was a timid old soul and was quite afraid of holdups. For safe keeping she always put her money in her stocking. One day when she was going to do some Christmas shopping she thought she would play a joke on the holdups. She put the money in her pocket and carried her purse. In the purse she put newspaper crumpled up. She kept her hand in the pocket that had the purse and walked along merrily. But to her surprise when she had purchased her needs she reached for the money, but it was missing. Then, forgetting, she reached for her pocketbook and pulled out the paper. She had to give back all the articles and walk home empty-handed.—Chicago Tribune.

Loss of Appetite

Pimples and Other Eruptions—Mental and Physical Weariness.

They are all common at this time of year, and are all indications that the blood is wanting in the power to defend the body against infectious and contagious diseases, because they are all indications that it needs cleansing, enriching and vitalizing.

It is important to give them attention—it is in fact hazardous to neglect them.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today and begin taking it at once, regularly after eating and if convenient in a little hot water.

Remember, this medicine has given satisfaction to three generations, for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys. It builds up the whole system. It makes food taste good.

For a gentle laxative or an active cathartic, take Hood's Pills. You will like them. 65-18

How much should I give to make this a better world?

A CERTAIN man in New York filled out his income tax report.

It showed an income so large that his tax was 53%. And his total gifts to church and charity for the year were $148.

Think of it—thousands spent for luxuries and pleasure for himself; and $148 to leave the world a little better than he found it!

Most of us do better than that; but not so very much better.

Our average daily gift for all church causes is

- less than we spend for daily papers
—less than a local telephone call
—less than a third of the day's car fare
—less than 3 cents a day

No wonder that 80% of the ministers of America are paid less than $20 a week. No wonder that the church hospitals turn away thousands of sick people a year. No wonder that China has only one doctor for every 400,000 people. No wonder that every church board and charity society is forever meeting deficits, forever passing the hat.

It isn't because we are selfish; it isn't because we don't want to help. It's just because no one has ever put up a great big program to us, and asked us to think of the work of the church in a systematic businesslike way.

The Interchurch World Movement represents the united program of thirty denominations. They have surveyed their whole task, no business could have done it better.

They have budgeted their needs; no business could have a more scientific budget. They have united to prevent the possibility of waste and duplication. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

And they come to the men or women who love America—to you—this week asking you to use them as the channel through which a certain definite part of your income can be applied to make this a better world.

Only you can determine what part of your income that should be.

It's a good time right now to answer that question. We're passing through the world just once; how much better will the world be because you passed through?

Keeping the wolf from your door is often taken too figuratively. But it is not an idle joke, to be ridiculed or ignored.

To save is to insure yourself and your family protection.
