Hear the phonograph that baffled James Montgomery Flagg

Come in and test its marvelous realism for yourself

An audience of 2800 New Yorkers completely baffled. An Official Laboratory Model did it—actually rivalled Anna Case, one of the world's most brilliant sopranos, in a startling test at Carnegie Hall, on March 10th, 1920.

In our store, you can hear an instrument exactly like this famous Official Laboratory Model. You can test it for yourself—and see what a truly perfect realism it attains. We have equipped ourselves to give Mr. Edison's unique Realism Test.

The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul"

The instrument used on March 10th, 1920, in Carnegie Hall, New York, was an exact duplicate of the original Official Laboratory Model on which Mr. Edison spent three million dollars in research work.

We, too, have an exact duplicate of this three million dollar original. We guarantee that it is capable of sustaining precisely the same test made on March 10th, in Carnegie Hall, New York City.

This guarantee will be given in writing,—if you wish.

Our Budget Plan puts this guaranteed Official Laboratory Model within your reach. It's a thrifty way of buying. Ask about it when you come to hear the Realism Test.

Mr. Flagg's Story of the Miraculous Proof given at Carnegie Hall, New York, on March 10th, 1920.

"Miss Case draped her beautiful self against the phonograph. One of her song recordings was put on the instrument, and they, Miss Case and the phonograph, sang together. Then she stopped, and her other self continued. Then together again. "I looked away and then back again,—and it puzzled me to determine which was at the bat.

The Pianist

"Then the tallest pianist in the civilized world played a charming thing, accompanied by himself via the phonograph,—lifting his fingers away from the keys now and again. I could see him stop playing,—but I couldn't hear him stop.

The Dark Scene

"Then the big stun, of the recital. "Miss Case began singing with the phonograph. At a certain stanza the house was suddenly darkened. The song went on. I was shooting my ears out like periscopes to detect the second when she would stop. I was sure I got it. Then she seemed to be back again. The flood of lights came on,—but no Anna! Only the phonograph singing away.

It was quite wonderful,—and the audience applauded and laughed. Two girls behind me said 'Googracious'."

Read what the New York papers say:

"The twin-ship between Miss Case's singing, and the reproduction thereof, proved so close as to be often indistinguishable." —New York Globe.

"When the lights were lowered, it was impossible to tell when it was Anna Case, and when it was only her voice that was singing." —New York Evening Sun.

"The voice in the fluffy pink draperies and the voice in the mahogany box seemed one and the same." —New York Evening Mail.
