PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. Alice Meyers is quite ill with tonsillitis and other ailments. Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Gates were in Tyrone on a shopping tour on Saturday. Miss Verna Tabb, of Newport, is a guest at the 'Squire Miller home in the Glades. Mrs. Nannie Bailey, of Fairbrook, spent last week in town with her daughter, Mrs. Glenn. Rev. David Y. Brouse, of Houtzdale, has been here this week visiting his many old-time friends. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Smith came down from Altoona and spent Monday among friends in town. Mrs. John Duff, of Clinton county, is visiting her aged mother, who is past eighty-six years old. Mr. and Mrs. William Yocum motored to Bellefonte on Saturday on a business and shopping trip. Miss Mary Norton, of Frankstown, is a guest of Rev. and Mrs. I. E. Fisher, at the Methodist parsonage. Miss Clara Trostle is plying her scissors and needle this week at the Mac Fry home at Rock Springs. Farmer Will Stuart lost one of his thoroughbred Holstein heifers on Sunday night as the result of pneumonia. Prof. George R. Dunlap spent last week with his wife at Wallacetown, where she is under medical treatment. Some of our farmers have started their hay making, though the weather has not been very favorable the past week. Another little boy arrived during the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Homan, making seven in the family. After a month's visit among her many friends in the Mountain city, Mrs. Will Kuhn returned home last Friday. Miss Nannie McWilliams was in Altoona last Thursday attending the marriage of her friend, Miss Anna Simonton. Clifford Close, tenant on the D. G. Meek farm at Fairbrook, is taking out timber to build a garage to house his Buick Six. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker and Mrs. Roy Barto motored to Bellefonte on Saturday and visited several days among friends. Mr. and Mrs. Jack McWilliams and Mr. and Mrs. Haslet, of Johnstown, have been guests this week at the W. H. McWilliams home. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams motored to Tyrone on Sunday and spent the day at the Fred Williams home. Lester Krebs, of State College, was a recent caller at the home of his uncle, W. E. Reed, on Main street, who is housed up with rheumatism. J. Herbert Ward came up from Philadelphia to spend his vacation among old friends and in whipping the mountain streams for trout. Mr. and Mrs. Will Glenn and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Shirk motored up from Lemont and spent the Sabbath at the W. H. Glenn home on Main street. Having purchased the old home farm John Henry Bailey is now monarch of all he surveys. His mother will continue making her home with her son. William Everts, one of Tyrone's wide-awake business men, spent the Sabbath with his brother, J. Neff Everts, who is convalescing from a recent surgical operation. Don't miss the social at Baileyville tomorrow (Saturday) evening. It will be given by the I. W. T. band and strawberries, ice cream, cake and coffee will be served. H. M., George and Philip Grenoble, accompanied by their wives, motored to Marklesburg on Sunday to visit their aunt, Mrs. Kate Young, widow of the late D. H. Young. Merchant Elmer C. Ross, of Lemont, took a spin down the state highway on Sunday afternoon to look over his farm west of town, now tenanted by the Shoemaker family. 'Squire James Swabb, who has been housed up some time with a bad leg caused by the kick of a horse, is now able to be around and administer justice by the aid of a cane. The State College Lodge Modern Woodmen of America accompanied by a delegation of Royal Neighbors, held memorial services and decorated the graves of their departed members in the new cemetery here on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Prof. J. W. White was in charge. Dr. Frank Bowersox, the popular druggist at Millheim, accompanied by Mrs. Bowersox, spent the Sabbath with his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bowersox. His mother, who was eighty-three years old yesterday, is quite frail but her wants are well looked after by a competent nurse. Rev. Mr. Miller presided at a congregational meeting held in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday evening when the congregation voted on the question of extending a call to Rev. William M. Steele, of Gallitzin, to become pastor of this charge. The charge consists of Centre Hall, Lemont, Boalsburg and Pine Grove Mills, and while the congregations at the two first-named places voted to extend the call the latter two failed to concur. All roads led to the J. A. Fortney home on Monday evening, the occasion being a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Fortney in celebration of the fiftieth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Brittamart. The young lady received many valuable presents, and with delicious refreshments, music and various games it proved a delightful evening for all concerned. Mrs. H. N. Walker spent last week with relatives in Williamsport and when she returned home was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Franks, and her brother, Sergt. James Franks, who has served twenty years in the U. S. regular army, mostly in Panama, and is now home on a furlough. If he serves six more years he will be automatically placed on the retired list. Last week 'Squire Watt took grandmother Nelan, of Pittsburgh, on a sight-seeing trip, going down to Pottery Mills, crossing the Seven mountains, thence through the beautiful Kishacoquillas valley to Huntingdon and from there home by way of Spruce Creek valley, arriving in time for dinner. Mrs. Nelan was much impressed with the scenery along the way. On Monday Thomas Fronk and mother, Mrs. William Fronk, of Baileyville, motored over to the vicinity of Loveville to gather wild strawberries which grow quite plentifully in the woodlands of that section. In driving along an unfrequented road Mr. Fronk hit a stump and upset his machine. His motor was thrown out and sustained a bad gash across her throat that extended almost from one ear to the other. Fortunately it was not deep enough to reach any vital spot, but it was a very close call. She was also badly bruised and shaken up, but is thankful she escaped with her life. While returning home from State College last Thursday evening in his Ford car, Orvis Taylor, who is working for H. A. Elder on the Branch, had motor trouble along the way and was compelled to leave the car by the road side, intending to return for it the next morning. But when he went back on Friday morning the car was gone. Some person or persons had evidently come across the abandoned car and in some way managed to get the motor going and started for parts unknown. The trail led east and securing the assistance of A. B. Musser and his Buick Six the two men started on the trail. They found the car ditched near Boalsburg with the motor and most of the machinery out of commission. The thieves evidently took to the woods as no further trace of them could be secured.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoy and family, of Blanchard, attended church here on Sunday and spent the balance of the day among friends. Miss Mary Stover and mother, who spent the past nine months at State College, have returned to their home here for the summer months. The annual Kling family reunion was held at the George Ertley home last Saturday. About sixty of the clan were present and all report a pleasant and profitable gathering. On Sunday morning Mrs. William Weaver accidentally fell down a flight of stairs, and though she was fortunate in escaping without any serious injury she was pretty badly shocked and bruised. The congregation of the Reformed church is arranging to replace the old

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Build Yourself Up So as to Feel Better. Eat and sleep better, as well as look better, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is an all-the-year-round medicine, good in all seasons. It purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood, creates an appetite, aids digestion, assists assimilation of the food you eat, and wonderfully builds up the whole system. In many cases it succeeds where other medicines fail to do any good. If you need a mild effective cathartic, get Hood's Pills. 65-26.

Bellefonte Trust Company Bellefonte, Pa. Why You Should Make a Will To protect your loved ones. To safeguard your estate. By making a Will you can appoint the Bellefonte Trust Company as your Executor or Trustee. You can thus assure to your heirs the business management and financial responsibility which this institution affords. Your wishes can be observed in the distribution of your property, for if you do not leave a Will the law may divide up your possessions in a way that you might not desire. How Have You Made Your Will? Do not write your own Will. "Home-made" Wills are dangerous and often cause law-suits, because, when drawing a Will the law must be known, both as to wording and terms. Consult a lawyer today about the making of your Will and have him name the Bellefonte Trust Company to act as your Executor and Trustee. J. L. Spangler, C. T. Gerberich, N. E. AARONSBURG.

Miss Florence Orwig, of State College, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Walter Orwig. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rachau have returned home from Philadelphia, where Mr. Rachau had been employed in a bank since the close of school. Miss Sue C. Lenker, of Lemont, has been in town the past week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crouse. Miss Lenker formerly lived here. Mrs. Paul Stover and daughter Elizabeth, of Duncannon, spent a short time, Monday evening, with her parents-in-law, 'Squire and Mrs. Stover.

Miss Margaret Nevil and brother, Master William Nevil, of Snow Shoe, are spending part of their vacation with their grandmother, Mrs. Henry Mowery. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Harter have gone to visit their son Forrest, who lives in Nittany valley. They make this trip annually during the strawberry season. Miss Anna Taylor, of State College, is the guest of her great-uncle, Z. D. Thomas, and her aunt, Miss Rebecca Snyder. Mr. Thomas, who has been seriously ill, is improving rapidly, considering his condition. Clayton Leitzell, of Harrisburg, was brought to his mother's home last Thursday evening. He has been very ill in a Harrisburg hospital for several weeks, and the doctor advised his going home. Acute Bright's disease is the cause of his present illness. Mrs. H. M. Coll and son Donald, of State College, and Mrs. R. G. Swanson and two interesting children, Gwendolyn and Richard, of Austin, Pa., arrived in the village Monday evening and are guests at Mrs. Coll's old home, with their aunt, Miss Lydia Walter.

MEDICAL.

Brace Up! Do you feel old before your time? Is your back bent and stiff? Do you suffer urinary disorders? Don't despair—profit by Bellefonte experiences. Bellefonte people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's a Bellefonte resident's statement. Mrs. Christ Young, 16 Potter St., says: "For more than a year I suffered with a dull pain in the small of my back. My back was always sore and when I bent over, I could hardly get up again. I didn't feel able to do anything about my house. I had a dull, drowsy feeling all day long and when I got up in the morning, I could hardly dress. I was troubled a lot with dizzy spells and my kidneys acted irregularly. I read in our town paper where Doan's Kidney Pills had helped so many people to give them a trial. The first box I got at the Green Pharmacy Co., cured me and it has been about three years now since I have had any trouble with my kidneys." (Statement given April 22, 1914.) On October 18, 1918, Mrs. Young said: "I am very glad to confirm my former endorsement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no kidney trouble since I used Doan's and am now a well woman and owe it all to Doan's." 60c at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 65-26

Mr. and Mrs. Brutus Witherite, of Osceola Mills, visited Mr. Witherite's parents, over Sunday. Miss Rebecca N. Rhoades, of Bellefonte, made a call on Mrs. Ida Witherite one day last week. Miss Madge Poorman returned home last Saturday after spending two weeks at State College. Mrs. Ellen Witherite, who has been on the sick list for several months, is very poorly at this writing. Mrs. Ada Packer and two children, of Milesburg, spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. Packer's sister, Mrs. Lloyd Walker. Mrs. Martin Brower and daughter went to Phillipsburg on Wednesday for a week's visit with friends. Luther Brooks spent Sunday at Pleasant Gap with his sister. Arthur and Russell Lucas, of Phillipsburg, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Dora Mayes, in this place. Children's day services were held in the United Brethren church here last Sunday evening, and a large crowd was in attendance. Miss Edna Rodgers returned to her work in Pittsburgh on Sunday after spending two weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rodgers.
