

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Freaks! freaks! freaks!!! at the sideshow, July 8th.

—The largest and oldest rattlesnake in captivity handled like a kitten, by the Princess Annesha, at the circus—Thursday, July 8th.

—The population of Tyrone has been announced as 9084, according to the 1920 census, which is 1888 more than shown by the 1910 census.

—The young people's singing class, under the direction of Mrs. Krader, will render a special selection at the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

—Albert Spengler, superintendent of the Pittsburgh Construction company, is now in Bellefonte preparatory to beginning work on the new cell house at the western penitentiary.

—Don't forget the recital next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the free dental clinic. You will have more than your money's worth and yet be contributing to a most worthy and progressive movement.

—William and Edgar Burnside, who have been living at the Brockerhoff house the past few years, moved on Monday to the home of Mrs. D. B. Newcomer, on east Curtin street, where they will be located in the future.

—On Tuesday morning one of constable Howard Smead's boys attempted to jump on a farmer's wagon, which was being driven in Allegheny street when the driver struck him with his long-lashed whip, cutting quite a gash over one eye.

—Don't forget the ice cream and strawberry festival to be given by the Women's Guild of St. John's Episcopal church on the lawn of the home of W. F. Reynolds this (Friday) evening, at seven o'clock. If it rains the festival will be given indoors.

—A special meeting of the Chittauqua guarantors will be held Monday evening at eight o'clock, at Coen & Co's store, Allegheny street, to meet the advance agent of the Association. It is very imperative for all the guarantors to be present at this meeting.

—Tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at one o'clock Mrs. W. A. Lyon will sell at public sale at her residence on east High street, opposite the court house, a piano, kitchen range, sideboard, carpet, matting, bedroom furniture, chairs, tables, dining room table and chairs, chinaware, glassware, cupboard, sink and various other articles.

—Allie Hammond, the Blair county convict in the western penitentiary who escaped from the Rockview institution and after being recaptured put up a plea that he didn't escape but just walked off, and on those grounds made application for a pardon, was turned down by the parolon board at its session last week and will have to serve his sentence.

—Among the graduates at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, last week was Chester Howard Barnes, son of Mrs. Howard Barnes, of Bellefonte, who took the educational course and did four year's work in two. Not only that, but he graduated with honors and was personally congratulated by Dr. Gray, of the University faculty, for his high standing.

—Thirty motorcyclists from Altoona, forty-five from Lewistown and vicinity and others from intervening towns joined in a run to Penn's Cave on Sunday. All told there were over one hundred "dare-devils" in line and the people along the way were all excited at the unusually large number of machines, probably thinking they were some belated delegates to the Democratic National convention looking for a short route to San Francisco.

—This week's health lesson is on typhoid fever. Until fifteen years ago Pennsylvania's death rate from typhoid fever was 4000. With the establishment of the State Department of Health came the campaign for the purification of the public waters. Today out of an estimated population of eight and a half millions of people, six millions are drinking filtered water and the deaths from typhoid fever last year numbered six hundred and thirty-three.

—Wetzler's Boys and Girls band of Milesburg made its second appearance in Bellefonte for the regular weekly outdoor concerts on Wednesday evening, given this week in front of the Bush house. Unfortunately the program was cut short by a steady downpour of rain, much to the regret of the large crowd which had assembled to hear it. But the numbers that were given before rain interfered were worth coming to hear, and that is the reason so many people motored in from miles out in the country.

—A rumor has been in circulation around Bellefonte that the new milk station will not be built before fall. The "Watchman" is in a position to state that the rumor is without any foundation. The blue prints of the buildings have not only been completed but copies of the same are now in the hands of the various Bellefonte contractors inviting bids on the erection of the buildings. Just as soon as these have been received and considered the contract will be awarded and work begun at once. The ultimate completion of the plant will depend, of course, on how fast the contractor will be able to rush the work.

BONDED IN WEDLOCK.

Well Known Young People of Centre County Set Sail on Matrimonial Sea.

June has long been termed the month of roses and brides and from the number of both at the present time it would indicate that the month is well named. In fact it has been many a week since the "Watchman" has published such a list of weddings as appears in its columns this week and that is the reason we call special attention to the same in this way. Read them over and see if any of your friends are among the bunch:

Rowe—Noll.—William C. Rowe and Miss Rebbe T. Noll, two well known young people of Bellefonte, were quietly married in St. John's Episcopal church at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning by the pastor, Rev. Malcolm DePue Maynard. They had no attendants and the only witnesses to the ceremony were the bride's father and sister, Mr. Emanuel Noll, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Chauncey F. York, of Detroit, Mich., and a very few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rowe left the church and entered the bridegroom's waiting car and left on an automobile wedding trip, going wherever their fancy may lead them. Ever since her mother's death Miss Noll has had charge of her father's very comfortable home on north Allegheny street and those who have been fortunate enough to enjoy the Colonel's hospitality know of her accomplishments as a housekeeper and home-maker. The bridegroom is so well known in Bellefonte that he needs no introduction to "Watchman" readers. For several years past he has been clerk at the Bush house and will continue in that position.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Chauncey F. York, has issued invitations for a reception to be given Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, at the home of the bride's father, on north Allegheny street, next Tuesday evening.

Brooks—Coll.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Coll, at State College, was the scene of a pretty wedding last Wednesday when their daughter, Miss Mary Beatrice Coll, was united in marriage to Edgar Warren Brooks, of Altoona. The ceremony, which took place at six o'clock in the morning, was performed by Rev. N. L. Hummel, of the United Evangelical church, in the presence of a small circle of friends composed chiefly of the families of the contracting parties. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue tricolette, with lace hat to harmonize. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Swanson, of Austin, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Guy Coll, of Bellefonte, sister and brother of the bride.

The bride is a charming as well as accomplished young lady and during the past two years has been stenographer in the office of Dr. Tippery, in Altoona. The bridegroom is an industrious and energetic young man and holds a good position with the Pennsylvania railroad company in Altoona. Following the ceremony at State College a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home after which Mr. and Mrs. Brooks motored to Bellefonte and left on an extended wedding trip through western States. After July 18th they will be at home to their friends at No. 1706 Sixth avenue, Altoona.

Valentine — Silsbee. — Stanley B. Valentine, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Valentine, of Bellefonte, and Miss Deborah Silsbee, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Lyman Silsbee, of Syracuse, N. Y., were married in St. Paul's Episcopal church at Syracuse at eleven o'clock on Tuesday morning by the pastor. Only the immediate members of the family of the bride and a few intimate friends were present. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Edward Rosenfeld, of Madison, N. J., while the best man was Thomas B. Hodges, of Syracuse.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home and later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Valentine left on an extended wedding trip which will include a visit at Mr. Valentine's home in this place about the Fourth. Mr. Valentine is a member of one of Bellefonte's oldest families. He was educated at the Bellefonte Academy and State College, graduating at that institution in the class of 1908, in the course of mechanical engineering. He now holds a good position with the Semet-Solvay company in Syracuse and it is in that city they will make their home.

Kuhn—Rowe.—John H. Kuhn and Miss Emma K. Rowe, both of Boalsburg, were married in the parlors of the Bush house, Bellefonte, at eleven o'clock on Wednesday morning by their pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover. The bride is one of Boalsburg's very efficient school teachers while the bridegroom conducts a plumbing shop in that town. The young couple left on the 1:27 p. m. train Wednesday on a wedding trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and other places before settling down to married life in their home town.

Fromm — Boyer. — Theodore L. Fromm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Fromm, and Miss Martha J. Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyer, both of Bellefonte, were married at the Reformed parsonage on north Spring street last Thursday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. Dr.

Ambrose M. Schmidt. The ring service was used and the young couple were attended by Miss Mary Fromm and John L. Stover. They left the same afternoon on a brief wedding trip and upon their return will make Bellefonte their home.

Weaver—Kuhn.—Eugene Weaver, of Renovo, and Miss Audrey B. Kuhn, a grand-daughter of Andrew Kuhn, of Axe Mann, were married in the Methodist church at State College on Thursday of last week, at 10:30 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Long. The young couple were attended by Miss Dorothy Call and Wilbur Weaver, a brother of the bridegroom, and a Junior at State College. A wedding breakfast was given the bridal party by Mrs. D. G. Meek, with whom Miss Kuhn had lived for eight years, Mr. Weaver's family, who were at the College attending commencement, being among the guests.

Mr. Weaver was one of the first honor men of the class of 1920 at State College, graduating in electrical engineering. The same afternoon he and his bride left for Weaver's home in Renovo from where the bridegroom will go early in July to accept a good position in Atlanta, Georgia, Mrs. Weaver expecting to join him in September.

Muffley—Ross.—Harvey Paul Muffley, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Muffley, of Howard, and Miss Katherine Elizabeth Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Ross, of Williamsburg, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at 3:30 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon by Rev. J. E. Irvine, Ph. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, the ring ceremony being used. A wedding luncheon followed the ceremony and later the young couple left on a wedding trip east.

The bride is one of Williamsburg's best known young women and for several years has been one of the efficient teachers in the public schools of that town. The bridegroom served in the signal corps during the world war and later graduated at State College. The young couple will take up their residence in Lock Haven where Mr. Muffley has secured a good position.

Kerns—Williams.—Roy S. Kerns, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Kerns, of Altoona, and Miss Mildred E. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, of State College, were married at Cumberland, Md., on June 12th. The bride is a recent graduate of the State College High school. The bridegroom is a graduate of State College, class of 1917, in the railway mechanical engineering course. The young couple have been spending their honeymoon with friends in Altoona and at State College but expect to locate in Johnstown for the summer. In the fall they anticipate going to Calcutta, India, where Mr. Kerns will represent the Bemis Bag company, of Boston, Mass.

Misner—Wyden.—A wedding of interest to Bellefonte people took place in Philadelphia yesterday when Miss Frances Wyden, of Mt. Carmel, was united in marriage to Bernard J. Misner, of Philadelphia. The bride is a graduate nurse of the Bellefonte hospital, having completed her four year's course a year ago. Since that time she has made her home in Bellefonte with Mr. and Mrs. F. Hazel while following her profession in Bellefonte and vicinity. Miss Wyden left Bellefonte for the Quaker city on Monday. Mr. Misner, the man of her choice, formerly lived at Mt. Carmel but is now employed in the Philadelphia postoffice.

Whitmer—Whitehill.—On Wednesday afternoon of last week Weaver A. Whitmer, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay S. Whitmer, of Benner township, and Miss Helen R. Whitehill, of Leont, were united in marriage at the Reformed parsonage, Bellefonte, by the pastor, Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, the ring service being used. Mr. and Mrs. Whitmer left the same afternoon on a wedding trip to Detroit, Mich., and other places west, intending upon their return to settle on a farm near Bellefonte. The young couple have the best wishes of many friends for a happy married life.

Burley—Morrison.—George Burley and Miss Caroline C. Morrison, both of Tyrone, came to Bellefonte on Wednesday and were united in marriage at the Presbyterian parsonage by the pastor, Dr. W. K. McKinney. The bride formerly lived in Bellefonte and since her graduation from the Tyrone high school several years ago, has been employed in the First National bank of Tyrone. The bridegroom served in the world war and holds a responsible position with the Pennsylvania railroad in Tyrone.

Moyer—Bartges.—Stearl A. Moyer of Jersey Shore, and Miss Jennie Bartges, of Centre Hall, were married at Jersey Shore at noon last Thursday by Rev. A. E. Cooper, of the Lutheran church. The young couple will make their home in Jersey Shore.

—The freak of nature which produced a white and cerise peony on the same stalk, in the yard of Mrs. Richard Lutz last year, continued its variety of coloring by putting forth this year three cerise flowers, the remainder all white. The only explanation to be given is a red rose bush near the peony stalk.

—Stick a pin in the human pin cushion at the circus—Thursday, July 8th.

Pleasant Gap Boy Victim of Deplorable Accident.

LeRoy Knoffsinger, the thirteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Knoffsinger, of Pleasant Gap, was instantly killed on Monday forenoon, when he was run over by a heavily loaded lumber wagon which broke his neck and caused instant death. The Knoffsinger family lives a short distance above Pleasant Gap toward the foot of the mountain and the boy had gone up the road a few hundred yards to watch the steam shovel being used by the state road gang in grading for the state highway.

While there two teams of the McNitt Huyett Lumber company engaged in hauling lumber from Greens Valley to Pleasant Gap station came along and the boy undertook to climb onto a load of lumber to ride down to his home. He grabbed the brake stick and jumped up onto the brake beam, but as it happened the beam was covered with wet mud and the lad's feet slipped, and he fell to the ground right in front of the hind wheel which passed over his neck.

The driver of the team was David Weaver, but he was busy steering his team around several automobiles and did not see the Knoffsinger boy attempt to get onto his wagon or his fall therefrom; and the first knowledge he had of the accident was when he was overtaken by an automobilist and told of the tragedy. Naturally Mr. Weaver was terribly shocked over the unfortunate incident but no blame is attached to him in any way.

Workmen on the state road saw the accident, ran to the scene and picked the boy up but he was already past all help. In addition to the parents, a large family of brothers and sisters survive. Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at the Gap at ten o'clock yesterday morning by Rev. Brown, after which burial was made in the Lutheran cemetery.

Recital for Benefit of Free Dental Clinic.

To start a fund for free dental work in the public schools a benefit recital, under the direction of the Anti-Tuberculosis committee of the Woman's club, will be given in the Presbyterian chapel next Tuesday evening, June twenty-ninth, at eight o'clock. Mr. Lucius Duncan, pupil of Henry Schradick, Mrs. Ruth Altenderfer Duncan, of the Broad Street (Philadelphia) Conservatory, Mrs. Krader, and Miss Shuey will appear in the following program:

- Lucius Duncan, Violinist
Alberta Rachel, Mezzo-soprano
Ruth Duncan and Kader Shuey, Accompanists
I. Violin Solo: (a) Andante from Concerto in E minor... Mendelssohn (b) Minuet... Mozart (c) Cradle Song... Hauser (d) Serenade... Drlia
II. Vocal Solo: (a) Oh Dry Those Tears... Del Riego (b) Good Bye... Toast (c) Selected
III. Violin Solo: (a) Chansore Triste... Tchaikowsky (b) Moment Musical... Schubert (c) Cavatina... Raff (d) Orientale... Cesar
IV. Group of Character Songs
V. Violin Solo: (a) Viennese Popular Song... Krieger (b) Berceuse... Godard (c) Salut d'Amour... Elgar (d) Souvenir De Moscow... Wieniawski
VI. Reading with Piano
VII. Violin Solo: (a) Gavotte... Gossee (b) Elegie... Massenet (c) Souvenir De Moscow... Wieniawski

Our community is offered a rare musical treat in the above program and as the cause, in which these artists have so kindly consented to appear, is of vital importance let us see that even "standing room only" is at a premium next Tuesday evening.

Blame it on the "Bloody South."

Last week the "Watchman" published the comparative census of Bellefonte for the past twenty years, which showed a decrease of 220 in the population of Bellefonte since 1890, and 149 in the past ten years. In 1910 the population of the town by wards was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Ward and Population. North Ward: 1794, South Ward: 1626, West Ward: 715. Total: 4135. The 1920 census by wards is as follows: North Ward: 1794, South Ward: 1626, West Ward: 676. Total: 3996.

From the above it will be seen that in the past decade the North ward showed a gain of 26 in the population, the West ward decreased 39 while the big loss was in the South ward where the decrease was 136. The peculiar part of it is that the voting population in the South ward has been steadily increasing in the past ten years until it is fast catching up to the poll strength of the North ward, and just how it happens to show such a decrease in population is one of the unexplained problems that is open to speculation.

"Watchman" readers in various parts of Centre county will be interested in the announcement that Joseph Keefer Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fisher, of Sunbury, but who was born and raised at Boalsburg, this county, graduated at Temple University, Philadelphia, yesterday with high honors as a full-fledged physician. Among the honors won was the W. W. Babcock prize, which consists of a gold medal, and the winning of which is considered a mark of great distinction. Dr. Fisher has already arranged to accept the post of interne at the Harrisburg hospital, where he will be located during the ensuing year.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

—Francis Thal is spending a week of his vacation with friends in Renovo.

—John Holt, of Fleming, has been a member of a fishing party in Canada this week.

—Miss Jennie Miller and her sister, Mrs. Noll, spent the week-end with their brother in Williamsport.

—Miss Anna Taylor is home from Newark, N. J., to spend her vacation with her father, R. B. Taylor and the family.

—Miss Caroline McClure went to South Orange, N. J., the after part of last week for a visit of several weeks with her mother's sister.

—Mrs. Borden, who has been in Bellefonte since the death of her cousin, Miss Mary Ammerman, left Wednesday to return to her home at Portage.

—Mrs. George L. Goodhart returned to Centre Hall Friday of last week, after spending a week in Bellefonte with her daughter, Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss.

—Mrs. Wells L. Daggett went to Elmira Saturday, called there by the illness of Miss Carpenter, who is well known in Bellefonte, through her frequent visits at the Bush house.

—Miss Mary McSuley went to Pittsburgh last week, called there by the critical illness of her brother John, who had been a patient at the Mercy hospital since leaving Bellefonte some time ago.

—Many of Maurice A. Jackson's friends in Bellefonte will be interested in learning that Mr. Jackson recently accepted the position of accountant with the B. F. Goodrich Rubber company, of Pittsburgh.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, will be in Bellefonte next week, coming for a two week's visit with Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. William Dawson, and Mrs. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown. Mr. Moore expects to spend most of his time fishing on the streams of the county.

—Mrs. William A. Lyon having changed her plans for leaving Bellefonte, has created and shipped the furniture she will keep, and will sell the remainder at public sale tomorrow at one o'clock, and go to Buffalo Monday. The Lyon home on east High street will be rented for the present.

—Owing to ill health, H. M. Hildwell will close his house on south Allegheny street early in July, leaving then for Buffalo, N. Y., where he contemplates visiting with his daughter, Mrs. John C. Matthews, for an indefinite time. His son Morton will leave at the same time to visit with his sister in Ithaca, during his father's absence.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bible went to Milesburg Monday, visiting there for a day or two with Mr. Bible's niece. From Milesburg they went to Pottsville for the wedding of another niece, Miss Anna Wolverton Bible whose marriage to Ralph Leonard took place Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bible were guests of Mr. Bible's brother during their stay in Pottsville.

—Mrs. Lew Wallace left here this week to return to her home in Akron, Ohio, expecting to stop for a week with friends in both Tyrone and Pittsburgh. The five weeks Mrs. Wallace spent in Centre county, were divided between her sisters and friends in Milesburg, and her sisters, Mrs. J. M. and Mrs. Peter Kelchline; and Mrs. M. B. Garman, in Bellefonte; a short time being given to friends at State College.

—Mrs. W. C. Shively, of Glen Iron, with her son Walter, and her sister, Mrs. Frances Mayes, of Sunbury, spent Tuesday and Wednesday here with Mrs. Shively and Mrs. Mayes' mother, Mrs. Werth. Mrs. Werth has made her home in Bellefonte with her brother, Isaac Miller, for several years, her grand-daughter, Gladys Shively, being at Mr. Miller's with her for three weeks. The mother and aunt had come up for the child, taking her with them to Glen Iron Wednesday.

—Ralph M. Musser spent a part of a week recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Musser, on the farm near West Virginia, where he has accepted the position of County Agent of Greenbrier county. Mr. Musser, before going overseas held the position of cow tester of Blair and Tioga counties, which work he resumed before being discharged from service. This position he resigned to accept the one in West Virginia.

—Mrs. Harry T. McDowell, of Howard, and her sister, Mrs. G. D. Robb, of Altoona, are in Atlantic City for a week or more. While Mrs. McDowell is away Harry is keeping bachelor's hall in their comfortable home in Howard and he has invited us down to partake of what he calls "good cooking." We are not going because we know that when Harry might have been getting a few pointers on how to boil an egg he was running over Marion township talking politics to all the Democrats he could find and depending on his good wife for his meals, so we're taking no chances.

—Perdue Dorsey, of Cameron, Missouri, visited from Thursday until Monday with his aunts, Mrs. Lucy Harbacher and Mrs. P. A. Sellers, up Buffalo Run; the visit being his first since he was a lad of six years, and at that time was a guest of his grandfather, Jacob Gray. Mr. Dorsey had been in Chicago for the convention, going from there to New York on business and had stopped in Centre county on route home, but decided while here, to return to Philadelphia to a missionary convention of the Methodist church, postponing his trip west and leaving for Philadelphia Monday night.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Swartz, of Punxsutawney, with their daughter and son, Ellen and Edgar Jr., and their niece, Miss Mildred Caswell, of Coatesville, spent Tuesday night at the Bush house. The party stopped here on the drive home from Swarthmore, where they had been for Miss Ellen's graduation, she being a member of the class of 1920. Miss Swanzell, who is a teacher in the government musical schools of New York, accompanied them to Punxsutawney, expecting to leave from there to spend a part of her vacation with a friend in Chicago, and in travel through the west.

—Charles S. Laird, one of the many of our boys who have made good since leaving Bellefonte, spent several days the part of last week visiting with his cousin, John Gross and his family. Mr. Laird's success has come through the development of his voice, which is now attracting the attention of the musical critics of New York city, where his work includes concert singing and making records for four companies. With his studio leaving Minneapolis to make his home in the east, and it was principally for the reason of looking for an attractive location that he and Mrs. Laird stopped in Bellefonte last week.

—Miss Mary Sterrett is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker.

—Hard P. Harris, chairman of the Street committee of borough council, represented Bellefonte at the annual meeting of the association of boroughs at Stroudsburg this week.

—Mrs. Earl B. Snavely, of State College, accompanied her mother, Mrs. James Markle to her home in Pitcairn this week. Mrs. Markle had been spending several weeks with relatives in Centre county.

—Mr. J. Will Conley, who has been suffering with stomach trouble the past few weeks, went down to Philadelphia yesterday to consult Dr. Fussell regarding his trouble. He was accompanied by Mrs. Conley.

—Hugh Hiller, a student at the Harvard Law school, has been spending this week in Bellefonte, a guest of his uncle, Dr. Hiller Hiller and family. Mr. Hiller is on his way west to spend the summer vacation at his home in Missouri.

—Charles A. Schreyer, of Chicago, stopped over night in Bellefonte this week, for a short visit with his relatives and many friends about town. From here Mr. Schreyer went to Harrisburg and then for a short time at Gettysburg before going on east.

—Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy, Jr., returned early in the week from a short visit with her father, Joshua Phessant, in Altoona, having gone over to join the celebration of his eighty-third birthday anniversary. Mr. Phessant expects to come to Bellefonte next week for the summer.

—Miss Nora Reynolds, of Lancaster, and Miss Olivia Johnson, of Washington, have been guests at the Reynolds' home on Linn street, during the past week. Miss Johnson, who is the eldest daughter of Owen Johnson, is spending the summer at Boalsburg, a guest of Col. Theodore Davis Boal.

—Harry Holz is arranging to go to New York within a few days to accompany his niece, Irene Freidman, to Bellefonte. The child is coming to spend the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Herman Holz, and will be joined here the first of August by her mother, Mrs. Louis Freidman, and her younger daughter.

—Miss Josephine Maier, who had been teaching in the vocational school at Spring Mills, returned to her home at White Haven early in the week, after a week-end visit with the Cruse family at Edgemoor. Mrs. Charles Cruse and her family are spending the month of June at the Garman summer home at Edgemoor.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer, of Centre Hall, drove to Bellefonte Tuesday with Hon. William Allison and his daughter, Miss Mabel, to spend a short time with Mrs. Alexander, who is ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank McCoy. Mrs. Alexander came to Bellefonte from Pottsville, shortly after the death of her brother, Edward Allison.

—Mrs. W. H. Miller, of Spring street, was quite surprised on the 8th when her brother, Harvey Noll, of Chicago, walked in unannounced. He had not been east for six years so that his visit with his sisters here and other relatives about Pleasant Gap was as agreeable as it was surprising. Harvey is superintendent of a large soap manufacturing in Chicago. He returned home last Sunday.

—Miss Wentzel, state supervisor of nursing activities in Pennsylvania, has been looking over the work of the organization in Centre county this week, spending several days in Bellefonte with Miss Peterman, the Red Cross community nurse. Our people should be doubly interested in Miss Wentzel, both as to her present work and through her brother, who was so prominently identified with the musical element of State College and Bellefonte, while a student at Penn State.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Piper, of Alexandria, Pa., but who are well known by many Centre county people, left last Saturday on quite a trip through this and other States. Going to Pittsburgh they will spend several days with friends there then journey to Cleveland, Ohio, from where they will go by boat to St. Ignace, Mich., their objective point west. Returning they will visit Detroit, then cross the lake to Niagara Falls and Buffalo and wind up their trip by visiting their daughter in Newark valley, N. Y.

—The "Watchman" office was favored on Monday evening with a quartette of lady visitors under escort of a well-known young editor from the middle west. The ladies in question were Mrs. Esther Sellers and two daughters, Misses Myrtle and Inez, of Waddle, and Mrs. Harry Sellers, of Altoona. The gentleman was C. P. Dorsey, editor and owner of the Caldwell county Printing Co., which also publishes the Hamilton, Mo., Advocate-Hamiltonian and the Kingston, Mo., Mercury. Editor Dorsey, whose mother was a daughter of the late Jacob Gray, of Halfmoon valley, has a number of relatives through the Buffalo Run section and is back on the first visit he has made to the home of his ancestors in a number of years.

—If you see it in the "Watchman" you will know it's true.
