The camps of the Third district are all in good shape for a successful fall campaign. All have applications to act on at this time. Woodward camp is growing rapidly, financially and numerically. It will do other camps of the valley good to visit them and get some of their "get there" spirit. They have admitted forty-two during the past two years, with more applications on the way to act upon. Aaronsburg is going along in good shape. Woodward had a delegation of eleven present at Aaronsburg's installation. Spring Mills is likely to show a good increase, having had four applications that were acted upon on installation evening. Centre Hall has done good work the past six months. They have had a nice increase, have three elected for initiation, one for reinstatement, and have very good prospects for a large class in the near future. They have a set of the youngest presiding officers in the district, and probably in the county.

LADIES TEMPLE INSTALLATION. On the evening of the 13th, Mrs. Jennie Bradford, of Centre Hall, Pa., District Deputy Noble Templar, installed the following officers for this term in the Central Queen Temple, Centre Hall, Pa.

After the regular business had been dispensed, sandwiches, potato salad, ice cream, cake and coffee were served. The evening passed to the entire satisfaction of all present. Central Queen is prospering, and thus it should be.

Last Friday evening a large delegation from Central Queen Temple visited Crystal Stream at Millheim and assisted Mrs. Jennie Bradford, the installing officer, to install the officers at that point for this term.

While counting up the casualties of the conventions Bryan, Johnson, LaFollette and Hoover will readily come to the mind, but the list will not be complete if the name of William Randolph Hearst is omitted.

Vance McCormick was deprived of the valuable counsel of Charlie Donnelly in San Francisco but Billie Brennen, of Pittsburgh was present and his voice was always available in emergencies.

Mr. Harding's announcement that if elected he will call the Vice President into council is simply a recognition of the popular belief that the Republican ticket ought to be reversed.

SHEARER.—Mrs. Mary Butler Shearer, widow of the late Thomas L. Shearer, of Spring township, died very suddenly and unexpectedly on Sunday morning at the home of her son George, in Lock Haven. She was in her customary good health when she retired on Saturday night and had no premonition that her course of life was so nearly run. About nine o'clock Sunday morning her son Leonard called her for breakfast, but she failed to answer and going into her room he was horrified to find that she had passed away. Heart failure was assigned as the cause.

Mrs. Shearer was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Butler and was born in Milesburg on May 4th, 1861, hence was 59 years, 2 months and 7 days old. Her girlhood days were spent in Milesburg, but most of her married life was spent at the Forge in Spring township. Her husband died eleven years ago, since which time Mrs. Shearer had made her home with her son George, in Lock Haven. Shuey officiated and burial was made beside her husband in the Union cemetery.

Mr. Baker was a son of Reuben and Linda Landbeck Baker and was born in Snyder county on May 2nd, 1863, making his age 57 years, 2 months and 6 days. He is survived by his wife and the following children: William, Roy and Howard Baker, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Jennie Rhine, of Mill Hill; Retta, Annie and Edna at home. Waddle, of Belleville; William, of South Dakota; Mrs. John A. Long, of Altoona, and Mrs. Amos Ross, of Hollidaysburg. Funeral services were held in St. Mary's Catholic church at Hollidaysburg, of which she was a life long member, at ten o'clock last Friday morning, burial being made in the Catholic cemetery at that place.

BOAL.—Mrs. Ada Boal, widow of Franklin A. Boal, died at her home in Tyrone on July 5th, following a month's illness. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Musser and was born on the Branch, in College township, August 4th, 1865, hence was not quite fifty-five years old. Her entire life was spent on the Branch until the death of her husband some fifteen years ago, when she went to State College and took charge of one of the fraternity houses. Three years ago she moved to Tyrone. She is survived by one son, Earl Boal, of Tyrone, and one brother, Wallace Musser, on the Branch. The remains were taken to Houserville for burial on Wednesday of last week.

HOUSER.—Mrs. Lida Shreffler Houser, wife of Charles M. Houser, died at her home at Rockview on July 3rd, of pulmonary tuberculosis, the result of an attack of influenza during the epidemic of 1918, at which time her son James died of the disease. She was a daughter of John and Frances Harrison Shreffler and was born in College township on November 26th, 1880, making her age 39 years, 7 months and 7 days. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: Mrs. P. B. Yorks, of Saginaw, Mich.; Ruth, Charles, Jr., Jean, Ellen and Martin Luther, an eight weeks old babe who will be taken care of by Rev. and Mrs. McHenry. She also leaves the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. M. V. Mapes, of Clearfield; Mrs. Asher Adams, of Sunbury; Mrs. Ferron Hughes, of Niagara Falls; Clyde Shreffler, of Clearfield; Mrs. Frank Sasserman, and Miss Katharine, of Belleville, and Mrs. John Englebaugh of Sharon.

Funeral services were held at her late home last Saturday morning by Rev. Goss, after which the remains were taken to Madisonburg for burial.

SWARTZ.—Henry Swartz, a life-long resident of Centre county, died on Saturday, July 3rd, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Fish, in Philadelphia, of apoplexy. He was a son of John and Hester Shook Swartz and was born at Huhlersburg, being at his death 81 years, 3 months and 19 days old. As a young man he learned the trade of a cabinet maker and also the profession of an undertaker which he followed until the outbreak of the Civil war when he enlisted for service in Company C, 148th regiment and served throughout the war. Returning home he located in his native town where he remained until 1889 when he moved to Philadelphia and continued his work as a cabinet maker.

Moving Pictures of the 28th Division in France.

Men and women, boys and girls, should go to the opera house this (Friday) evening and see the moving pictures of the glorious Twenty-eighth division in France. This is the division of which old Troop L was an integral part and in which many other Belleville and Centre county boys served with undaunted bravery.

The pictures will be shown by Capt. C. P. Fitcher, who served in France as chaplain of the 109th infantry. He has lately been assigned to duty by Governor Sproul and will assist in recruiting the new National Guard. The pictures to be shown were specially selected from those on file with the signal corps at Washington and as they are unfolded upon the screen, Capt. Fitcher will explain them in detail.

The pictures include the unloading of the division at Calais, the 103rd engineers building pontoon bridge over the Marne; panorama of last stand of the Germans at Condie-en-Brie, Dravigny, Fismes, Abbe l'igny, Bourevillas, Montblainville, Verennes, and Apremont; review of the division by Gen. Pershing at Colombey-les-Belles—the only parade picture to be shown. In addition to above a dozen or more interesting still pictures in natural color will be shown, among them the grave of Colonel Fetzer.

The pictures will start at 7:15 o'clock, as it takes almost two hours to give the complete program. Price of admission will be 35 cents, and it is well worth it. In fact the opera house should be crowded to standing room.

Belleville Chautauqua Will Open Next Tuesday.

The complete program for the Belleville Chautauqua was published in the last issue of the "Watchman" so that it is unnecessary to repeat the various numbers this week. This will be the ninth successive year for the Chautauqua in Belleville and the people of the town and surrounding community know that it generally means a week's feast of good entertainment. The "Watchman" has no hesitation in saying that the program for this year is one that should appeal to old and young. It contains some very promising numbers and the only way to be sure of enjoying them all is to buy a season ticket and attend as many of the entertainments as possible.

These lectures are being held at the home of Mrs. Randolph F. Glenn, of Buffalo Run, at 2:30 on Fridays during July and the first week in August. Practical work will be taken up and demonstrations made as to the proper method of caring for the sick in the home. The first meeting, which was held the first Friday in July, was attended by fifteen members, some coming from a distance of four miles. Buffalo Run valley is a wide awake community and ready to accept anything that will be of a benefit to themselves and others.
