Official Notice.

To the Taxpayers of Centre county who have Bell Telephones in their places of business and residences.
We, the undersigned, Commissioners of Centre county, have cancelled all contracts with the Bell Telephone Company and have removed their telephones from the various county offices on July 1, 1920, with the exception of the Judge's Chambers and the District Attorney's office. The Commissioners have taken this action because of the recent changes adopted by the Bell Telephone Company by which toll charges are imposed on calls between Bellefonte and the various towns and communities in the county, and for the reason that it is impossible for the Commissioners to keep strict account of all calls over telephones in the county offices and distinguish between private and business matters, the calls are charged to the telephone number from which the calls are made, without naming the parties holding the conversations.
The Commissioners regret the inconvenience this will cause the residents of the county, but it has been impossible to make satisfactory arrangements with the management of the Bell Telephone Company that will insure the keeping of satisfactory records. The Commissioners protest the imposition of toll rates according to the new zone system of the Bell Telephone Company.

H. P. AUSTIN,
GEO. H. YARNELL,
GEO. M. HARTER,
Commissioners of Centre county.

Attest:—
R. W. IRWIN, Clerk.

Coal Sense

Our idea of the Coal Market is that while it may not go higher it will surely not be any lower for a long time to come. Therefore it would be wise for you to lay in your winter coal supply now and forestall the danger of a rise in price when the regular fall demand sets in. Besides, you can get it free from ice and snow and now we will have time to screen it and deliver to you in the best condition.

Considering the uncertainties of the coal market the coal in your cellar is worth more than the money that would pay for it in your bank.

If you want coal let us know your needs and we will do our best for you.
