

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Next week the Chautauqua. The farmers are now in the midst of the harvest season. Cherries have been so plentiful this year and the help to pick them so limited that bushels and bushels of them have gone to waste.

The many friends of G. Fred Musser will be glad to know that he is slowly improving from quite a serious attack of pleuro pneumonia.

The Henrietta K. Allison property, at State College, was recently sold through the McVey company to William H. Strohecker, the consideration being $6,500.

Just 1325 teachers are enrolled at the summer school for teachers at State College, the largest number that has ever attended a summer session at that institution.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church at Pleasant Gap will hold an ice cream festival at the Gap on Saturday evening, July 24th, to which the public is cordially invited.

Second class townships in Centre county have been apportioned $8,693.16 for construction and improvements of roads and bridges, with an unexpended balance of $4,315.18 awaiting additional applications.

A good part of the steel frame work for the new silk mill is now on the ground and being assembled for the roof and north side of the building. As soon as it is in shape the big structure will be completed as quickly as possible.

Don't forget that the Flying Parson will be one of the lecturers at the Bellefonte Chautauqua this year. Another big attraction will be the Belgian Veterans' band. In fact the entire program is one that should appeal to all lovers of good entertainment.

Now that the Fourth of July is a thing of the past the Scenic makes a bid for your patronage. Always an interesting place to spend an evening, you will find it even more so as the evenings grow longer and you are anxious for some place to pass the time.

Warren Wood, one of the guards at the western penitentiary at Rockview, this week moved his family from the Schad house on Reynolds avenue to one of the penitentiary houses adjacent to the old bungalow on the western boundary of the penitentiary lands.

D. I. Willard closed the deal this week for the purchase of the double brick house of Dr. Edith Schad, on North Thomas street. The house is now occupied by the Willard and R. B. Taylor families, so that the change in ownership will not mean a change in tenants. The price paid was $4,100.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Capers and Mr. and Mrs. James Craig have taken the Schad house on east Linn street recently vacated by the McCurdy's. Mrs. Frank Warfield expects to give up her lease on the Harris house in the fall and will move in with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Craig.

On Monday afternoon pilot Hopson was in the act of taking up a DeHaviland plane for testing out but he had hardly left the ground when his motor stopped dead and the result was he took a tumble in a wheat field on the Valentine farm. The plane was pretty badly wrecked but fortunately the pilot escaped without a scratch.

The annual Sunday school picnic of St. John's Episcopal church will be held Thursday, July 29th, at Hecla park. It is planned to make this a parish picnic with all members and friends of the parish, children and grown-ups, urged to be present. St. Paul's parish, of Lock Haven, and St. Andrew's mission, of State College, will picnic at the same time at Hecla.

Thomas G. Norris, of Phillipsburg, was one of the ten successful candidates for admission to the State Forest Academy at Mont Alto, he having successfully passed the examination held on June 17th and 18th. Eighteen candidates were examined but only ten were able to pass. The men will be given six weeks practical work in state forests before being admitted to the Academy in the fall.

D. Paul Fortney resigned his position as special delivery man and substitute post office carrier in Bellefonte post office last week to accept a more lucrative position in the wholesale department of the Potter-Hoy Hardware company. His resignation left a vacancy in the postoffice force which has been filled by Roy Colderen being put on the outside work and Miss Rebecca Cruse put on as stamp clerk.

The many Centre county friends of Mr. J. Will Conley will regret to learn that he is considered a very sick man by the staff of physicians at the University hospital, Philadelphia, where he went last week for treatment. Shortly after reaching the hospital a minor operation was performed in the hope of giving him temporary relief and permit of his gaining sufficient strength to undergo a major operation, but a letter received in Bellefonte on Wednesday from Mrs. Conley did not contain very encouraging news. Mr. Conley has not responded as satisfactorily as it was hoped he would, and until he does so it will be hazardous to attempt a second operation.

Soldiers' Monument Dedicated at Millheim.

The people of Millheim, Brush and Pennsylvanians did themselves great honor July 5th, when they dedicated a monument to the soldiers from that portion of the county who served in the war of the rebellion and in the late world's war. The movement for the erection of a suitable monument was started over a year ago, and the money to pay for the same and defray all expenses incident thereto was contributed principally by residents of that end of the county.

The very favorable weather on the fifth of July drew a big crowd to Millheim and the committee in charge of the unveiling and dedicatory ceremonies, composed of Messrs. John R. Miller, Philip Musser, A. E. Bartsch and N. S. Swabb, had perfected such a good schedule that there wasn't a hitch in the proceedings. The Beaver-town band had been secured for the day and led the parade which was marshalled promptly at two o'clock by Charles Stover and aids. In addition to the band the parade included soldiers of the Civil War, veterans of the world war in their natty khaki uniforms, Red Cross, numerous floats and various civic organizations. After parading through the principal streets of the town the crowd halted in front of the monument in the old town hall square.

S. Ward Gramley was master of ceremonies and after a brief explanatory talk called upon Rev. Miller who offered a prayer. The chairman then introduced Rev. Ralph Illingworth as the principal speaker and he was followed by W. Harrison Walker, Esq., Colonel Theodore Davis Boal and Capt. Pierre Boal.

The monument is of cut stone 6x6 feet square and 9 feet in height. It contains four bronze panels on which are the names of the soldiers honored by the people of that part of the county. Close to the monument stands a sixty foot steel flagstaff from which floats a 6x10 foot flag. The names of Civil war veterans inscribed on the panels are as follows:

Major Robert H. Foster, 48th regiment, Sergeants—G. W. Leitze, Henry Miller, E. Miller, J. Louck. Privates—D. Bressler, John Clapham, A. L. Delinger, J. Emerick, H. Meyer, M. Grove, C. Held, S. Kerstetter, Jacob Kessler, Orvis S. Kanarr, Moses B. Krader, W. H. Lauer, P. W. Meyers, R. A. Miller, L. E. Musser, G. O. Musser, R. E. Musser, C. E. Musser, Samuel Rider, E. R. Schreckengast, J. C. Smith, C. R. Stover, A. H. Stover, J. P. Wilbur, A. C. Wilson.

Back from Sunny Italy.

Nicola Lalli, the enterprising shoemaker, who went to Italy upwards of a year ago to bring to this country his wife and little daughter, arrived in Bellefonte on Sunday with his little family and he literally oozed happiness from every pore over the fact that he was again back under the Stars and Stripes safe and sound.

When Mr. Lalli left Bellefonte he fully expected to be back within a few months and he sold his shoe repair shop in the room next to the Gazette office to Charles Nelo, with the understanding that he was to have it back if he returned within a specified time. But unfortunately he didn't get back for the reason that he couldn't get out of Italy. In fact he was held up for three months under pain of arrest if he attempted to leave the country, but he finally got matters straightened out to the satisfaction of the Italian authorities and was permitted to sail. But he arrived here too late to exercise his option on the repurchase of his shoe repair shop and now he will have to look for another location.

But is he down spirited and gloomy over that fact? He is not. He naturally is looking for a location in Bellefonte but if he can't find one he will locate "maybe in Milesburg, maybe Howard, and maybe some other near town" until he can get a location here, then back to Bellefonte he'll come.

Fines Imposed on Milkmen.

Yesterday's Altoona Times-Tribune contained the following item: Myrven H. Neaffer, local agent for the state bureau of foods, returned to Altoona last night from Bellefonte, where he collected six fines for adulteration of milk and cream. The hearings were conducted on Monday night in the office of Justice of the Peace Kline Woodring.

In several of the cases prosecutions had been brought after investigations which disclosed the fact that cream was being sold which was below the standard of butter fat required by the state regulations. In others resort had been had to the "town pump" to assist in filling the cans. All of the defendants were farmers and dairymen.

Only two weeks more of the trout fishing season and then the rods and lines will be packed away for another nine months and it won't be long until the enthusiastic sportsman will be rubbing up his gun in anticipation of the hunting season.

Harry Franks and John Kaleck, the two Wilkes-Barre men captured on June 29th by the State cops while transporting three barrels of whiskey smothered with onions, were taken to Williamsport on July first where they were held in one thousand dollars bail for trial before the United States district court. Bond was furnished and the men returned to Wilkes-Barre. The whiskey is still in the custody of postmaster P. H. Gherriety, of Bellefonte, while the automobile is also held in Bellefonte awaiting the disposition of the U. S. Court.

A bountiful apple crop is in prospect in Centre county this year and many farmers are wondering if the prohibition law will interfere with the making of cider, as heretofore. According to reliable information it will not. Make all the cider you want to make either for your own use or for sale as fresh, sweet cider, but do not allow it to ferment and then sell it as hard cider. That might be an infraction of the Volstead law as it now stands on the statute books. But there is nothing in the law to prevent the making of cider and boiling apple-butter as has been the custom for generation after generation.

At a meeting of the Union Cemetery Association last Friday afternoon, Miss Olive Mitchell temporarily resigned as secretary of the Board, and S. Kline Woodring was selected to take charge of the work. Miss Mitchell has been secretary of the board for sixteen years while for ten years prior to that she did the work for the late J. M. Dale Esq. She was a capable and conscientious official and carefully looked after the interests of the association as well as of lot owners. In the future all business communications in connection with the cemetery should be addressed to S. Kline Woodring.

The circus which was so widely advertised by the "Watchman" for several weeks was held on the High school grounds last Thursday evening by the Woman's club and Patriotic League combined and proved a delightful diversion. The big side show was filled with freaks—not freaks in reality but so splendidly made up that they looked like the real thing, and it proved a wonderful attraction for old and young. The Japanese garden inside the school building did a good business and two fortune tellers added to the interest and mysteries of the circus. During the evening the Odd Fellows Band marched to the circus grounds and helped to entertain the crowd with some entertaining music. All told the snug sum of $160.00 was realized which will be equally divided between the Woman's Club and the Patriotic League.

The new nurses home at the Bellefonte hospital was formally opened with a house warming last Friday evening given by the nurses. About thirty guests were present and the evening was spent in a social way, music and cards predominating. Refreshments were also served. The continued growth of the hospital made it imperative that some permanent place would have to be provided to accommodate the nurses at the institution, who now number thirteen. About a year ago the Hess property, adjoining the hospital grounds, was purchased through the cooperation of the Ladies Auxiliary and it has been almost completely furnished with furniture donated by friends of the institution. It was opened last Friday as a permanent home for as many of the nurses as it will accommodate and that was the excuse for a house-warming in the evening.

In Society.

Mrs. James Seig was hostess at a card party Saturday night at her home on east High street, given in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Lieby, of Newport, Pa., who has been her guest for a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Funk entertained at dinner Sunday night, at their bungalow on Curtin street. Thirty of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mensch's friends were their guests at the dinner dance, given at the Country club Tuesday of last week, in honor of their house guest, Mrs. George Klump, and in celebration of their seventeenth wedding anniversary. Mrs. Klump was honor guest at the dinner of fifteen covers, given by Mrs. C. M. Parrish, at the Country club Monday evening.

Mrs. Edwin Earl Sparks, state regent of the D. A. R., entertained at the President's House at State College, Wednesday afternoon, with a tea given for the members of the D. A. R. who are at Penn State Summer School.

Col. and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds will give a dinner tonight for Col. Theodore Davis Boal, Capt. and Mrs. Pierre Boal and Mrs. Boal's mother, the Countess de Menthan and her daughter, the party will be entertained during the evening at the pictures of the 28th Division. The Countess and her daughter have been in America for a month or more, coming over for the christening of Mr. and Mrs. Boal's daughter, which took place in the private chapel on the Boal estate at Boalsburg, on Sunday, July 4th. They expect to sail next week for their home in France.

Automobile Accident Results Fatally.

William McManus Dunlap, only child of George R. and Bessie McManus Dunlap, of Ferguson township, was the unfortunate victim of an automobile accident which occurred on the state highway about a mile east of Pine Grove Mills at 2:40 o'clock last Saturday afternoon. The boy and his father had been guests of Mr. Elmer Long on a little automobile ride and had just returned home. They got out of the car in front of their home and walked around the back of the car to cross the road to their house and just as they stepped from behind the car they were struck by an automobile carrying the U. S. mail. The boy was a little in advance of his father and was struck on the head and knocked down, Mr. Dunlap, who had hold of the child's hand, being thrown violently down by the force of the impact.

Both father and son were rushed to the Bellefonte hospital as quickly as possible where it was found that the boy had suffered concussion of the brain, and was badly injured about the upper part of the chest and cut on the head and face. The father was badly bruised on the legs and body but had no bones broken. The boy lingered in a semi-conscious condition until noon on Monday when he passed away.

A pathetic part of the tragedy is the fact that the boy's mother is an invalid and has been in a private sanatorium at Wallaceton most of the summer. Mr. Dunlap taught school at Wallaceton the past year and at the close of the school term returned to Ferguson township with his son and had been staying at his own home intending to return to Wallaceton for the opening of school in September. The bereaved mother was taken home on Tuesday and is almost heartbroken over the loss of her only child, who was an unusually bright boy, and who was nine years old on the 18th of last December.

The funeral was held at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was one of the largest held in Pine Grove Mills in a long time. The floral offerings were most profuse, the casket being literally covered with flowers. The Presbyterian Sunday school attended in a body, the Citizens band turned out as well as the United Order of Junior Mechanics. Rev. W. K. Harnish officiated and was assisted by Rev. Ira E. Fisher. Burial was made in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills.

Centre Countian Killed on Railroad.

James Newell McCalmont, a native of College township, was instantly killed on July 4th, in the Conway yards of the Pennsylvania railroad. He was foreman of car inspectors and while at work about nine o'clock on the morning of the Fourth accidentally got caught between two cars and crushed to death.

Deceased was a son of James and Emily S. McCalmont and was born in College township about fifty-one years ago. His boyhood life was spent on the farm and when he grew to manhood he engaged in farming for himself. Later he gave up farming and moving to State College engaged in the livery business. About fourteen years ago he disposed of his business at State College and moved to Baden, Beaver county, where he went to work for the Pennsylvania railroad company. In the fourteen years he had been in the company's employ he had been advanced to foreman of car inspectors in the Conway yards.

Mr. McCalmont was married to Miss Dolly Fye, of College township, who survives with five children, namely: Mrs. Alexander Brown, of Baden; Isabel, Dorothy, Robert and Betty all at home. He also leaves his aged mother, who makes her home in Bellefonte, as well as the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. John Hartswick, of Bellefonte; Edward, of Philadelphia; Mrs. J. C. Meyer, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Roy and Dr. William McCalmont, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Mary Holmes, of State College.

Funeral services were held at his late home in Baden at three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, July 6th, after which burial was made in the cemetery at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Green are entertaining Mrs. Green's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Forney and their son, George, who came here from Texas within the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Green will spend the summer in the north.

Mrs. Joseph Metz, of Trenton, Kentucky, and her son Horace, arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday, coming to Pennsylvania for a month's visit with her sisters and brothers here and at State College. Mrs. Metz, before her marriage, was Miss Fannie Baum.

Mrs. R. S. Brouse left Monday afternoon for Portland, Oregon, from where she will sail on July 30, for a four months trip through the Orient. Mrs. Brouse expects to make several stops on her way to the coast, five days in the Yellowstone Park being included in her plans.

Mrs. J. Y. Dale returned to Bellefonte the early part of last week from Norris-town, where she had been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Crossman. Mrs. Dale had spent the greater part of the winter in Florence, N. C., with her elder daughter, Mrs. S. M. Wetmore, going to Norris-town from there.

Miss Margaret Nighthart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Nighthart, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nighthart and other friends in Philadelphia. As this is her first trip east she is naturally having a delightful time taking in the sights of the Quaker city with side trips to the Shore.

Mrs. M. L. Valentine is expected in Bellefonte this week, returning east from Omaha, where she has been with her sister, Mrs. Weatherly, since early spring. Mrs. Valentine's visit was prolonged by the very serious illness of her nephew, Joseph Woodward, who is now convalescing from his three months' illness.

Owing to her critical illness, Mrs. Jacob Wert was taken to her home at Laurelton, Wednesday morning, where she will be cared for by her four daughters, Mrs. Shively, Mrs. Mayes, Mrs. Keister and Mrs. Sampsel, all of whom live in that locality. Mrs. Wert had made her home in Bellefonte with her brother, Isaac Miller for almost four years.

Among the former natives of Ferguson township who are at present visiting their old homes at Pine Grove Mills are G. W. Ward, of Pittsburgh; Miss Helen Burwell, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Lizzie Mallory, of Altoona; J. C. Dunlap, of Twin Rocks, and Randall Dunlap, of Cherry Tree, the two latter called home on account of the tragic death of their nephew, William McManus Dunlap.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hartswick, their son Millard and daughter Mary, motored to Baden, Beaver county, last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hartswick's brother, the late James Newell McCalmont. Returning to Bellefonte they were accompanied by Dr. William and Roy McCalmont, who spent most of Wednesday here with their mother before proceeding to their home in Philadelphia.

James Riley, of Huntingdon, W. Va., was a business visitor in Bellefonte over Sunday and the fore part of the week. During the palmy days of the old glass works in Bellefonte, Mr. Riley was one of the best blowers at the plant, but when the works closed down for good he naturally migrated elsewhere, finally landing in Huntington, W. Va., and it has been sixteen years or longer since his last visit to Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Fink, of Altoona, made a Fourth of July visit in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eberhart and D. W. Eberhart and his daughter, Miss Mary. Mr. and Mrs. Fink were on their way home from a week's visit in Toronto, Canada, with Mrs. Fink's niece, who accompanied them to Centre county, and with her two children is now visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Krebs at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Derstine and two young daughters came to Bellefonte last Thursday, Mr. Derstine spending several days here and Mrs. Derstine and daughters remaining for the week. Mr. Derstine is now located at Ambridge, Pa., but his family have been living at Juniata until last week when they shipped their household goods to Ambridge and then took advantage of the time it would take them to reach there to visit their Bellefonte friends.

Capt. E. R. Taylor, better known to his Bellefonte friends as "Dick," spent the Fourth at his home in this place. The Captain is now in government service and spent the past six months or more in the United States. His latest assignment transferred him to Pittsburgh and it was owing to that fact that he was able to spend a day at his home here, and will probably be able to visit Bellefonte more frequently in the future.
