Posting Aerial Mail Route to Pacific Coast.

Two Larsen all-metal monoplanes flew over Bellefonte yesterday with officials of the aerial mail service for the purpose of posting the airplane mail route through to the Pacific coast. Service has been established as far west as Omaha, Neb., and it is the intention of the two pathfinders that flew over Bellefonte yesterday to go through to San Francisco. "Slim" Lewis piloted the first ship and will make the round trip to the Pacific and back.

Seven men, all told, were in the party as follows: Mr. Larsen, the builder of the plane; Major Lent, of the aerial mail service; Col. Hartney, Eddie Rickenbacher, the American ace; Bert Acosta, "Slim" Lewis and the motion picture photographer. The ships left New York about 9:30 o'clock and passed over Bellefonte about 12:15. Their first stop was Cleveland, Ohio.

The Larsen monoplane is called a "junker ship" in airplane parlance, because it is built on the lines of the German monoplane. It is neither as heavy nor as fast as the DeHaviland but has a carrying capacity of one thousand pounds. If the "junker" proves a success on the initial trip, and does all that is claimed for it, which includes a gas capacity for ten hours continuous flight, the Postoffice Department may adopt them exclusively and make but three stops between New York and San Francisco.

Two Young Ladies Injured in Auto Mishap.

Misses Anna and Genevieve McDermott, two Cambria county young ladies who have been spending their summer vacation at the country retreat of Mr. and Mrs. G. Edward Haupt, on the state road between Bellefonte and Milesburg, were victims of an auto accident on Tuesday morning as the result of which Miss Anna McDermott sustained a slight fracture of the skull and Miss Genevieve is housed up with a badly sprained ankle.

The young ladies had been out for a walk, coming up to Bellefonte and had climbed on the side of a truck to ride down to the Haupt home. A short distance on the other side of the pike quarries of the American Lime and Stone company the truck swerved to one side and both young ladies were thrown off, rolling some distance along the hard road and finally landing against the embankment of stone and dirt hauled from the limestone quarry and dumped to the west of the road. The truck was stopped as quickly as possible and the young ladies picked up and conveyed to the Haupt home. Physicians were hastily summoned who found Miss Anna suffering a slight fracture of the skull and numerous contusions and body bruises, while her sister escaped with a sprained ankle and some bad bruises. At this writing, however, both are getting along very nicely and their early and complete recovery is anticipated.

Deals in Real Estate.

The following property sales were closed up during the past week through The McVey Co.:

The W. H. Baird house, on Howard street, now occupied by Willard Barnhart, to Eben B. Bower.

Mary C. Hill home on Beaver street to Albert Alters.

The W. D. Zerby home on Curtin street to James W. Herron.

Various telegrams, letters, etc., have been received by dealers in Bellefonte this week from sugar jobbers and stockbrokers offering sugar in carload lots at prevailing prices, which would indicate that a big drop in price is imminent. So far as could be learned, however, none of the Bellefonte dealers took the bait, as the town and surrounding community is pretty well stocked with sugar and if there is any possibility of a drop the consumers are looking for the short end of it.

CONLEY.—William J. Conley, better known to the people of Bellefonte and Centre county, as J. Will Conley, passed away at the University hospital, Philadelphia, shortly after seven o'clock last Thursday evening, following an operation the day previous for sarcoma of the intestines. Two months ago Mr. Conley was apparently in the very best of health without the faintest premonition of any ailment. The first symptom of his trouble naturally developed in his inability to assimilate his food, but at the time he believed it to be a slight derangement of his stomach. When his condition grew worse, however, he consulted his local physician and was advised to go at once and see a specialist. He later went to Philadelphia but returned home in a few days without any improvement and under the belief that his condition was not serious, but he had been at home only a day or two when he was taken worse and three weeks ago he returned to Philadelphia and entered the University hospital for an operation. His system was so weakened by that time that the operation was delayed until last Wednesday, and then it was only performed as a last hope. But it proved a false hope in the end, as the disease had progressed so rapidly that nothing could be done to stay its fatal results and he passed away at the time above stated. He was conscientious almost to the last and with him were his wife and daughter, and his son-in-law, W. B. Wallis.

Mr. Conley was a son of John W. and Catherine Keller Conley and was born on the farm in Potter township on October 14th, 1861, hence had reached the age of 58 years, 9 months and 8 days. His boyhood days and youth were spent on the farm, attending school during the winter months and working on the farm in the summer. When the engineers laid out the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad through Pennsylvan, Mr. Conley, then a young man, got a job as a chain carrier and worked with the crew until the completion of the road. He then went out with the engineers into Butler county where he spent some months, finally returning home. He remained until the winter of 1886-7 when he went to Milesburg and went into the store of his uncle, Mr. Robert Holmes, later becoming a partner. Mr. Holmes went south on account of his health and Mr. Conley had charge of the store which was conducted under the firm name of Conley & Holmes. On March 8th, 1888, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Meese, only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Meese, of Bellefonte, the ceremony taking place in the Christian church in the Reynolds building, Rev. Mr. Ryan, of Williamsport, officiating. Coincident with his marriage, Mr. Conley severed his connection with the Milesburg store and entered the store of his father-in-law in Bellefonte, and ever since he had been connected with the John Meese store. In fact the burden of the business was gradually shifted onto his shoulders and for years prior to Mr. Meese's death Mr. Conley was the active head of the management of the store. The success of the John Meese store is a monument to his business ability and his courteous, gentlemanly manner at all times.

While Mr. Conley applied himself closely to his own business interests he was always ready to take an active part in any movement that would help Bellefonte in any way. One of the first of these, as now recalled by the writer was in 1895, when Bellefonte celebrated its one hundredth anniversary. Mr. Conley was a member of the executive committee at that time and again in 1900 when a celebration was held in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the county. Mr. Conley was one of the hardest workers, and ever since that time, whether it was a Fourth of July celebration or something of the magnitude of our Old Home Week, Mr. Conley could always be counted upon to do just a little more than his share of the work, and contribute of his money with just as much liberality as any man in Bellefonte.

Possessed of an extremely affable nature, with a cheerful word and winning smile for everybody, he made many friends and few enemies. He was possessed of an extremely social nature and enjoyed to the utmost the companionship of his fellowmen. His affection and solicitude for the welfare of his family was most profound, and this extended not only to his wife and child, but to his wife's mother and his own mother after the death of his father.

Mr. Conley was a life-long member of the Reformed church and never a call for assistance of any kind was made on him in vain. He was also a member of the Masonic fraternity, the Bellefonte club and the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks, in each of which he took a deep interest.

He was also one of the organizers and up until his late illness one of the most active members of the Business Men's association, and as a mark of respect to his memory all the merchants closed their stores during the hour of his funeral, or from ten to eleven o'clock on Monday morning.

His survivors include his widow and one daughter, Mrs. William B. Wallis, of Washington, Pa.; his mother, who makes her home in Centre Hall, and one brother, James W. Conley, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, who came east for the funeral which was held at his late home at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt was in charge and was assisted by Rev. W. P. Ard and Rev. Alexander Scott. Both the Masons and Elks attended in a body and the burial in the Union cemetery was in charge of his Masonic brethren.

KRAPE.—Mrs. Catharine Krape, one of the oldest women of State College, passed away at her home in that place last Wednesday morning as the result of general debility. She was a daughter of Jacob and Lydia Decker and was born at Farmer's Mills on November 11th, 1832, hence had reached the advanced age of 87 years, 8 months and 19 days. When she was a child her parents moved to the homestead on the Branch where she grew to womanhood and lived until her marriage on November 16th, 1880, to George Krape, of Spring Mills. The latter village was her home until the death of her husband in 1898 when she moved to State College. She was a member of the Lutheran church all her life and a good, christian woman. Funeral services were held at her late home last Friday afternoon by Rev. J. F. Harkins, after which the remains were taken to Boalsburg for burial in the Decker plot in the Boalsburg cemetery.

IRVIN.—James Irvin, a well known railroad engineer, died at his home at Osceola Mills on Wednesday evening of last week following four days' illness with pneumonia. Deceased was a son of Henry and Mary Irvin and was born in Bellefonte on March 17th, 1855, making his age 65 years, 4 months and 4 days. When a young man he went to work for the Pennsylvania railroad company and finally became a locomotive engineer, and for thirty-eight years had driven the iron horse on the Tyrone and Clearfield division. He was a resident of Philipsburg for twenty-five years prior to moving to Osceola Mills.

Mr. Irvin was twice married and is survived by his second wife and four children. He also leaves three sisters, two of whom are Mrs. George Robb and Mrs. Scott Lose, of Bellefonte. The funeral was held at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, burial being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

MULHOLLAND.—Miss Catherine Mulholland, an aged maiden lady, died last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hall, near Unionville, following a comparatively brief illness. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mulholland and was born near Pine Glenn, in Burnside township. Had she lived until September she would have been sixty-three years old. For a number of years past she had made her home in Bellefonte and was on a visit to the Hall home when taken sick. She is survived by two brothers, David, in Altoona, and John, who is believed to be in Ohio. Rev. C. C. Shuey had charge of the funeral services, which were held on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Askey cemetery.

WINKLEBLECK.—Mrs. Mary Ann Winklebleck, widow of the late George Winklebleck, was found dead in her home in Aaronsburg last Thursday evening, heart failure being assigned as the cause. She was 60 years, 4 months and 5 days old and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Charles Lingle, of Huntingdon, and Mrs. Calvin F. Gilbert, of Aaronsburg. She also leaves two brothers and two sisters, McClellan Greninger, of Freeport, Ill.; Edward K., of Millheim; Mrs. John Graden, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. George E. Wise, of Rebersburg. Burial was made at Wolf's chapel on Saturday afternoon.

MARK.—Henry Mark, a life long resident of Gregg township, died last Friday as the result of a stroke of paralysis, aged 80 years, 3 months and 10 days. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. William Fielder, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Harry Weaver, of Middleburg; William Mark, of Avis; Harvey and Albert, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. Agnew Limbert, of Wolf's Store. Burial was made at the Heckman cemetery on Tuesday.

McMAHON.—John W. McMahon, one of Huntingdon county's oldest school teachers, died on July 15th at his home at Charter Oak, aged seventy-one years. He taught school for forty-five years and during the past sixteen years served as a justice of the peace. He is survived by his wife and five children, one of whom is Mrs. Deemer T. Pearce, of State College. Burial was made in Mooreville cemetery on Sunday, July 18th.

Troop L to be Mustered In.

Troop L will be mustered into the State service Monday evening at 8 o'clock, by Lt. Col. Zierdt.

All members of the troop are required to report at the armory Saturday evening between 7:30 and 9, to sign their duplicate enlistment and physical examination papers. As these papers will be inspected at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, it is imperative that all men report on Saturday to complete them.

All men will report at the armory Monday evening at 7 o'clock sharp for roll call. Every man is required to be there at that time. Muster will be held at 8 o'clock.

If the weather permits the formation will be held on the school commons, otherwise the armory will be open to the public at 7:45.

—A delightful party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Garner, at Pine Hall on Tuesday evening, in celebration of the nineteenth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Julia. About fifty of the younger set of that community were present and the young lady received many very handsome presents. Games and music, as well as choice refreshments constituted the program for the evening.

Soldier's Body Brought Home and Buried.

The body of Lloyd J. Harnish, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harnish, of Moshannon, who died of lobar pneumonia on December 21st, 1918, while serving with the army of occupation at Coblenz, Germany, has been brought back to this country and arrived at Snow Shoe last Thursday morning, being the first of the Centre county soldiers who gave their lives in the great cause to arrive home and be laid to rest in the home cemetery. The departed soldier was honored with a military funeral. Services were held in the Methodist church at Snow Shoe at 4:30 o'clock last Thursday afternoon, Rev. M. J. Runyan being in charge. From the church the body was escorted to the Askey cemetery by double ranks of his brothers in the service—ex-soldiers who served in the world war.

Private Harnish was called for service in July, 1918. He trained at Camp Lee, Va., and sailed overseas in September. In France he was assigned to Company K, Twenty-eighth infantry, First division, and got into service at the front just on the eve of the signing of the armistice. With the First division he was sent with the army of occupation into Germany, and stationed at Coblenz, and it was while on duty there that he contracted the disease which caused his death.

—Don't overlook the fact that the L. O. O. F. band will inaugurate its series of block dances on the pavement in front of the High school building this (Friday) evening. The small sum of five cents a dance will be charged.

—There is one thing Bellefonters have to be thankful for this summer, and that is a plentiful supply of ice; but the extreme coolness of the nights the past week made everybody think more of extra "kivers" than of an abundant supply in the ice box.

—The work of pouring the concrete on Bishop street is moving along slowly, but so slowly in fact, that at the rate the work is being done now it will be a month or more before the work is completed. As to Spring and Pine streets, it is beginning to look as if the work there will not be completed this fall.

—Just a tip to candidates Naginey and Beaver. The first big picnic in Centre county will be held at Pine Hall tomorrow when ten Sunday Schools will combine in their annual outing. It will be a rare opportunity to make the acquaintance of the ladies against the probability of their getting the ballot this year.

—Rev. Hugh Strain, a well known minister of the Central Pennsylvania conference, died on Monday at his home in Littlestown, aged fifty-six years. Rev. Strain at one time preached on the Halfmoon circuit in this county. His widow and five children survive. Burial was made at Beach Haven on Wednesday.

—On Tuesday evening Mike Hazel attempted to jump from the torn up terrace in front of his home on Pine street across the ditch dug by the state highway people for the curb for the new state road; slipped and fell, tearing the ligaments in his right ankle; and the result is he will be housed up for an indefinite time.

—Arthur Hilton, a colored gentleman from Harrisburg who was working in one of the state road gangs near Pleasant Gap, was arrested last Saturday by sheriff Harry Dukeman and constable Howard Smead on word from Harrisburg where he was wanted in connection with the theft of an automobile last October. When the officers went after their man he attempted to get away by running but after the sheriff fired several shots in the air and one pretty close to him he stopped and offered no further resistance. Harrisburg officers came here and took him back to that town on Sunday.

Sourbeck—Wallis.—Joseph Martin Sourbeck, grandson of Mr. John D. Sourbeck, of Bellefonte, and Miss Thelma Eva Wallis, of Williamsport, were married at Frederick, Md., on July 6th. The young couple have gone to housekeeping in Williamsport where the bridegroom has a good position.

Marriage Licenses.

Clarence A. Breen and Phoebe A. Yarnell, both of State College.

LeRoy B. Love, of Orriston, and Candace I. Leathers, of Howard.

No Style to Them.

Mrs. Warbucks (trying to select a gift for her son)—Why, all of these fiddles look alike to me!

Salesman—But they differ greatly in tone, madam, to say nothing of price.

Mrs. Warbucks—Oh, hang the tone and price! Haven't you something in a period design?—Buffalo Express.

Masculine Conceit.

Miss Simpkins was a lady of uncertain appearance and age, and rather frightened De Vere, who was a young assistant in a chemist's shop, by her persistent demonstrations of friendship. He flattered himself that every girl and woman fell madly in love with him. He felt sure she meant to hook him. But chance threw them alone one day, and De Vere felt that his hour had come.

"Mr. De Vere," she said, "I can no longer bear this unspeakable anguish. I have at last plucked up courage to ask you a question which concerns my future happiness and comfort. Will—will you be—"

"My dear lady," gasped De Vere, breaking out in cold perspiration,
