Brief Meeting of Borough Council.

Six members were present at the regular meeting of borough council on Monday evening. Secretary W. T. Kelly reported that he had notified the Titan Metal company that beginning August first their assessment for water used would be the same as charged all large consumers for manufacturing purposes, five cents a thousand gallons for the first million gallons used and three cents a thousand gallons for all water over a million gallons used within any quarter.

A written request was received from Frank Sasserma that the borough extend the sewer along the Beaver and Hoy row to his new property, a distance of seventy feet. The matter was referred to the Street committee for investigation and report.

A communication was received from the Civic committee of the Woman's club protesting against the erection of the granite watering trough offered the borough by Thomas Beaver, in front of the soldier's monument, and suggesting as a more appropriate location either the upper end of Bishop street or the intersection of Bishop and Allegheny streets. President Walker stated that in his own judgment it would not be a wise move to locate the trough in front of the monument, owing to the congested condition there by the parking of cars, etc. No definite action was taken.

The Street committee reported various sewers cleaned out and minor repairs on streets.

The water committee reported a number of leaks in pipes repaired and recommended that exonerations totaling $301.15 on the 1918 water duplicate and meter bills be allowed, which council authorized.

The Fire and Police committee presented the burgess' check for $78.90 for fines and licenses collected, and also read a brief communication from that official stating that he had ordered additional silent policemen and "no parking" signs. The borough manager stated that he had just received a number of signs, and will have no use for those ordered by the burgess.

The Finance committee presented the request of the borough treasurer that a note of the Bellefonte Trust Co. due August 21st for $5,000 be renewed and increased to $7,000 to meet current bills, which was authorized. The committee also reported that the borough duplicate for 1920 had been completed by the secretary of council. It shows a total of $8,993.21 taxes for borough purposes, $17,981.09 for street purposes and $8,993.21 for interest, or a grand total of $35,967.61.

Secretary Kelly presented a resolution requesting the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania to install a telephone in the sheriff's office at the jail to be used for fire alarm purposes only, and all messages not relating to borough affairs to be paid for at regular rates. The resolution passed.

The borough manager reported to council that he had received requests for several crossings on Curtin street and the matter was referred to the Street committee and borough manager to secure bids on constructing the same and report at next meeting.

Bills to the amount of $2352.43 were approved and council adjourned.

Potato Blight May be Serious.

State College warns potato growers against the worst late blight epidemic in recent years. In many counties fifty per cent. of the crop is already infected. The loss will be enormous and another year of extremely high priced potatoes may result. Many fields can still be saved by immediate and thorough spraying with Bordeaux mixture. For immediate help on how to spray, growers should get in touch with their county agent. If you have been spraying at intervals of two weeks all summer, it would be well to shorten the intervals to ten or twelve days between sprays during the present dangerous period.

MRS. SUSAN WERTH.—Mrs. Susan Werth, relict of Jacob Werth, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Milton Keister, at Laurelton, on Thursday evening, August 12th, after an illness of seven weeks with cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Werth, who was a sister of former County Commissioner Isaac Miller, had been keeping house for him here since his wife died four years ago and only because of her own failing health did she leave here for the home of her daughter.

Mrs. Werth was born in Union county having been a daughter of John and Sara Miller, and was 78 years, 8 months and 28 days old. She was a devoted member of the Methodist church and a woman whose rare traits of friendliness and charity endeared her to all and made her life a blessing indeed. She is survived by four sons and four daughters, one sister, Mrs. Whaland, of Danville; and two brothers: Jacob Miller, of Pleasant Plains, Neb., and Isaac, of this place.

Interment was made at Lincoln Chapel, Union county, Sunday morning last.

MILLER.—Mrs. Nancy Brown Miller, wife of George C. Miller, of Bellefonte, passed away at the Bellefonte hospital at 7:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening. She had been ill the past two months and entered the hospital on August first for an operation which was performed on August 3rd, but her condition was such that her death followed.

Deceased was born in Bellefonte about seventy-three years ago and spent her entire life here. On June 16th, 1866, she was married to George C. Miller who survives with the following children: Mrs. Martha Evye, of Valley View; Mrs. Anna Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Abt and Mrs. Edward Brown, of Bellefonte; George E. Miller, of Indiana, Pa.; and William B., of Bellefonte. She also leaves one brother and a sister, Austin Brown and Mrs. Ellen Meese, both of Bellefonte. Mrs. Miller was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian church.

HALL.—Sarah R. Hall died on Friday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Schiele, in Phillipsburg, following an illness of some weeks with a complication of diseases. She was born in Clearfield county and was 61 years, 10 months and 28 days old. Her survivors include one son, Philip, of Harrisburg, two sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. Fred Schiele, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. J. M. Iddings, of Unionville; and George B. Hall, of Snow Shoe Intersection. The remains were taken to the Iddings home at Unionville on Sunday where funeral services were held on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the lower Dix Run cemetery.

CALHOUN.—Mrs. Clara Calhoun, of Unionville, died on Friday morning at the home of her son, T. L. Calhoun, in Altoona, having been taken ill while visiting her son and family. She was the widow of Harry Calhoun and was sixty-five years old. Three children survive, T. L. Calhoun, of Altoona; Mrs. Harry Kerschner, of Unionville, and Miss Keziah Calhoun, of Altoona. The remains were taken to Unionville on Saturday evening where funeral services were held on Sunday, burial being made in the Unionville cemetery.

DAWSON.—Miss Beulah Dawson, of Halfmoon hill, died at the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday afternoon following an operation for appendicitis. She was a daughter of John and Eva Dawson and was born in Bellefonte. She is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Victor Dawson and Mrs. Charles Chandler, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Blanche Johnson, of Johnstown; Sarah, Charles and John at home. The funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon, burial to be made in the Union cemetery.

Poultry Culling Demonstrations.

The Centre county Farm Bureau, cooperating with the poultry extension department of the Pennsylvania State College, will hold a series of poultry selection meetings this summer to demonstrate the common methods of determining whether a hen is laying or not, and whether or not she has been a profitable asset to the farm flock and has earned the right to stay in the flock another year.

County agent J. N. Robinson is planning these meetings so as to reach as many people as possible. If you want to know how to detect the "boarder" in your poultry flock, attend one of these meetings. Every one will be given an opportunity to handle a number of birds, thus securing actual experience and real knowledge of the principles of selection under the direction of a poultry specialist.

Proper culling of any flock of hens will keep the egg production to fifty per cent. better during the summer months. Why feed a loafer? With the price of grain as high as it is, no one can afford to feed hens that are not producing. Every flock has hens in it that are unprofitable. Learn how to cull your flock and make it a real money producer. Don't feed loafing hens high-priced grain.

—W. H. Burrows, veteran mail agent on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, was placed on the retired list yesterday after serving fifty-five years.

—Troop L will be officially inspected on Thursday evening of next week.

Big Picnic at Warriorsmark.

Upwards of a thousand people attended the annual Granger's picnic at Warriorsmark last Saturday, which was held in the Harry Grazier grove near the Cross Roads. This is one of the big gatherings for that section of Huntingdon county and naturally attracts attendance not only from that immediate locality but from the western end of Centre county, from Tyrone and portions of Blair county.

W. Harrison Walker Esq., of Bellefonte, was one of the speakers, and the local editor of the Watchman was his motor guest on the trip up and back. Quite naturally that well known Granger and agriculturist, George G. Hutchinson, of Warriorsmark, was the big mogul in charge, and this in itself was assurance that nothing was lacking in the way of making the picnic a success. The Warriorsmark band was on the ground and conclusively proved that they were not there for show purposes only. In fact, they were extremely liberal in exploiting their musical ability, which proved one of the greatest pleasures of the gathering.

The meeting in the afternoon was presided over by Mr. Hutchinson, who spoke briefly of the various reasons why everybody should take a day off once a year or oftener and spend the time in such a harmonious gathering as a picnic in the woods always proved to be, and when he had exhausted his stock in trade he introduced district attorney M. D. Patterson, of Altoona, who entertained the crowd with an interesting and delightful talk.

The next and last speaker was W. Harrison Walker, Esq., who naturally spoke on the subject nearest his heart, war savings stamps and certificates. Mr. Walker explained to his hearers just why the purchase of war savings stamps and certificates is a profitable way to invest money and from results obtained before he left the ground his talk must have been convincing.

While the writer did not have the pleasure of sampling the dinner, as our visit to the picnic was only for a brief time during the afternoon, we'll venture the assertion that it was the most enjoyable part of the gathering, judging from the piles of hugh hampers and baskets in evidence throughout the grove. Of course it wouldn't have been a picnic without the dinner, and having a personal knowledge of the culinary abilities of the women of that locality leads us to define it as big.

In the afternoon there was a ball game between the Warriorsmark and Sandy Ridge teams, the latter winning by a decisive score.

"Bobby" Lyon's Generous Hospitality.

Prof. James R. Hughes, who is making at this time his regular summer scouting and pleasure trip through northern Pennsylvania and portions of New York State, recently wrote a letter to one of his relatives in Bellefonte emphasizing the wonderful spirit of cordiality always manifested by former Bellefonters. Recently Mr. Hughes and party, consisting of Mrs. Hughes, Miss Emma Green and Miss Daisy Graham, arrived in Buffalo and decided to visit Niagara Falls then take the boat trip over Lake Erie, from Buffalo to Detroit, Mich.

"Bobby" Lyon, son of the late W. A. Lyon, now superintendent of the American Palace laundry, of Buffalo, met the party at the station with his Packard car and took them to the fine apartments which he had kindly selected for them. The next day Mr. Lyon, with his wife and two little boys, and his mother, Mrs. W. A. Lyon, took Mr. Hughes and party to Niagara Falls, thence to Fort Niagara, through the most beautiful fruit belt in that part of the State, and back to Buffalo, making a one hundred mile trip. And then to cap the climax of his hospitable spirit, he entertained the entire party at dinner at the Hotel Lenox. It is interesting to note that Mr. Lyon is an enthusiastic reader of the Watchman.

Three Cases Disposed Of.

At a brief session of court this week the case of E. L. Remsnyder, of Phillipsburg, charged with operating an automobile while intoxicated, was disposed of by the court suspending sentence upon the payment of costs. Remsnyder declared that the only thing he had taken was a bottle of lemon soda, but admitted that it had gone to his head and he believed it had been loaded.

Charles Garber, of Osceola Mills, arrested in connection with the shooting of Adolph Ciesla, was given a suspended sentence upon the payment of the costs.

James Parks, of Bellefonte, arrested for larceny and carrying concealed deadly weapons, was sentenced to three months in the county jail and warned that if he ever came before the court again on a criminal charge he would be given the maximum sentence allowed by law.

Marriage Licenses.

Albert Robert Wingard and Ronna Susan Steiger, both of Coburn.
Antonio Gianfelico and Leonora Ganiceti, both of Bellefonte.
James Lawrence Dixon, of Edendale, and Rose Ellen Moore, of Sandy Ridge.
Henry C. Turner, of Cambridge, Mass., and E. Pauline Way, of State College.
John Huska and Martha E. Hall, both of Osceola Mills.
W. H. Sheats and Mary Bowmasler, both of Howard.

BEAUTIES OF UNIONVILLE.

As Depicted by that Loquacious Gentleman, J. Miles Kephart.

Unionville is a Quaker settlement on the banks of the Bald Eagle creek as it flows along the base of Muncy mountain. It was incorporated into a borough in 1859 by the Hickites, a branch of the Quaker church which included such families as the Hicklands, Underwoods, Fishers, Rich's, Griests, Russells and Cleves. The old founders of the village are long since sleeping in their ancestral tombs. Only a few of their offspring are left. Among them are Mrs. Thomas Fisher, Miss Jennie Fisher, Dr. Russell and wife and Budd Griest, wife and daughter. The old meeting house and the old seminary building are still standing. The latter was quite a prominent school at one time, especially under the supervision of such teachers as Miss Cleaver and Miss Wright, the latter now the wife of Dr. Russell.

Unionville is a very active, beautiful and pleasant village, and an ideal place to live. There is a beautiful view from the top of Muncy mountain, but it is impossible to see the dense foliage of the many shade trees. The town is almost completely hidden by the trees. The sun rarely reaches the streets, hence there is no dust and the earth at all times is cool and moist. It is a healthy location and there is little call for a resident physician.

The town has an abundant supply of pure mountain water, supplied through the splendid borough system of mains and pipes. It has electricity for lighting and power purposes, telephones, good railroad service and ample fire protection. Its stores are large and attractive and well supplied with anything and everything to supply the purchaser's needs or desires. The Bald Eagle Creek furnishes deep water for boating, bathing and fishing. Moonlight boatrides on its placid waters and mountain climbing are favorite amusements of the young people.

The town is favorably located for automobile excursions to State College, Penn's Cave, through the various fertile valleys on the South Side, down Bald Eagle valley to the Susquehanna river or up the valley to the blue Juniata, with shorter trips over Muncy mountain into Buffalo Run and Halfmoon valleys, north to Dix Run and Rattlesnake Spring in the foothills of the Allegheny mountains, or over the mountains to Snow Shoe and the coal mining district. The waters of Rattlesnake Spring above referred to are said to be possessed of health-restoring properties.

The Hotel Union, of which John Holt is proprietor, is a credit to the town. The kitchen is in control of a professional chef and the wants of man are liberally supplied in the dining room while there is ample accommodation for animals in the large hotel barn. Landlord Holt and his good wife make the admirable host and hostess, always kind and considerate of the wants of their guests. The writer has been a summer guest at this hotel and has passed the time in supreme contentment, having everything nice and comfortable, even luxurious, with all the good things to eat that any person could wish for. The town also has a well-equipped restaurant, with a quick lunch counter, good schools and four churches to look after the spiritual welfare of the people of the town and community.

As a little bit of history it might be mentioned that in the year 1835 John Smith, the celebrated Mormon elder, on his trip from New York State to Ohio, tarried a few days at Unionville and preached a sermon in the old log church on Mormonism. Quite a number of people came to Unionville from Bellefonte and other places to hear him.

In retrospect our life here is one of perpetual bliss. We "eat, drink and are merry," and do not "die tomorrow," but live on in one of the healthiest spots on the face of the earth. We draw in full, deep breaths of rich, pure air and thank God we are alive. We pass hours in walks along the banks of the Bald Eagle and enjoy unrivalled views, forgetting for the time the world's contentions and revolutions.

LEMONT.

We have been having lots of rain in these parts of late.

Mrs. Carl Bradford, who has been very ill, is improving.

Pearl Martz came home this last week to spend her vacation.

Mrs. Thomas Grove visited with her daughter a few days last week.

Dr. H. H. Long and family, Sundayed at the home of James E. Lenker.

Mrs. C. D. Houtz, who has been on the sick list for some time, is able to be out again.

Miss Sara Nickleson, of Meyersdale, is spending a few weeks among friends in these parts.

Daniel Krumrine and wife are busy taking care of their fine little lady who came to make her home with them.

While Charles Getz was working on a porch roof in State College one day last week, he had the misfortune to fall to the ground and break one of his arms and injure his wrist and ankle.

The new concrete bridge across Spring creek is open for traffic, for those who wish to or can go through the mud at their own risk, as the roadway has not been completed as yet, but the contractor is doing his best to get through.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Two More Prisoners Escape.

Two prisoners made their escape from the western penitentiary last Friday afternoon. They were Howard Martin Keavin, sent up from McKean county for from three to four years for breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony. Keavin is 25 years old, five feet nine inches in height and weighs about 138 pounds. He was a trainman by occupation and when he left the penitentiary was dressed in jean trousers and a striped shirt.

The other man was Thomas Gorman, aged 37 years, five feet six inches tall and weighs 154 pounds. He was sent up from Erie county and was serving a sentence of from two years and three months to five years for larceny. He also wore jean trousers and a striped shirt. Fifty dollars reward will be paid for the capture and return to the penitentiary of each prisoner.

Anent the escape of the above prisoners an automobile party stopped at the Thomas Beaver farm to get water for the radiator of the car, and the man in the party stated that he had seen a man along the road which he believed to be one of the prisoners, but he made no effort to detain him. In fact, he stated that his sympathies were inclined to be with the prisoner. The man was from Johnstown and in qualifying his statement he said that he worked for one of the big steel companies in the Flood city, went to work at 8 o'clock in the morning, had an hour and a half off for dinner and quit at 5 o'clock, and then characterized that as equivalent to being in the penitentiary. Of course he gets two weeks off every year with full pay and his wages are sufficient to enable him to maintain a nice home and keep up a good automobile.

Mr. Beaver told the man that if he considered his job equivalent to being in the penitentiary he ought to go to farming. Then he would have to get up and go to work at five o'clock in the morning and work until dark if he wanted to make a living.

Consignment Sale of Pure Bred Live Stock.

In order to promote the interests of pure-bred live stock in Centre county, the directors of the Grangers' encampment and exhibition, Centre Hall, have planned a consignment sale for Friday, September 10th, 1920. This movement merits the support of every present and prospective breeder of pure-bred live stock in Centre county.

If you have any first-class, pure-bred animals that you wish to consign to this sale, please notify J. N. Robinson, county agent, Bellefonte, Pa. not later than August 28th. If you wish to buy any pure-bred stock, be sure to attend the consignment sale on Friday, September 10th. The animals consigned will all be of good quality and breeding. This will be a splendid opportunity to get started in the pure-bred business.

—Watchman readers and the public generally throughout Halfmoon and Buffalo Run valleys are urged to attend the rural church and Sunday school intuite which will be held at Gray's church beginning this evening and continuing over Sunday. An elaborate program has been prepared by Rev. H. F. Babcock, the pastor in charge, and every person who can do so should attend every session. Prominent speakers will be in attendance throughout the conference.

Ambrose M. Schmidt, Minister.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Bible school 9:30. Sermon at 10:45 by Rev. O. J. Rishell. Rev. Rishell is a native of Bellefonte, leaving here at eight years of age and is now pastor of the M. E. church, of South Greensburg, Pa., and a member of the Pittsburgh conference. His many friends will be glad to welcome him on Sunday morning. No evening service. Coleville, Bible school 2 p. m.

Alexander Scott, Minister.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mr. R. S. Melroy and wife left last Tuesday for a two weeks outing in the Lewistown Narrows.

The P. O. S. of A will hold their annual festival in Noll's grove tomorrow (Saturday) evening. Everybody is invited.

The Pleasant Gap hotel, under the management of Mrs. John Myers, is doing a lucrative business, and is deserving of success.

Mrs. Elmer Musser and daughter, Natalia, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Musser's father, Mr. William Hoover.

Mrs. E. W. Sommers and little daughter, of Altoona, were week-end visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gettig.

Miss Margaret Dunkelberger, a nurse in the Williamsport hospital, is spending her vacation at the home of her father, Grant Dunkelberger.

Mrs. J. V. Yokey and Mrs. W. M. Hector, two very interesting ladies of Dayton, K. Y., are spending a week at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Bilger.

After spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Florey, at the Gap, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Irwin and children left for their home in Akron, Ohio, on Monday.

Clayton Reish who has been an employee of the Bellefonte fish hatchery for some years past, left on Thursday for Allentown, where he will have charge of a private hatchery.

The Whitcomb Quarries are about completing a most attractive and up-to-date brick residence on their farm adjacent to Pleasant Gap, which will shortly be occupied by farmer E. E. Sunday and family.

The Misses Helen and Henrietta Gettig are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. E. W. Sommers, of Altoona.

Miss Hilda Ramsey, of Harrisburg is spending her vacation at the home of her uncle, J. Abner Noll.

The Pleasant Gap Water Supply company has notified all patrons to discontinue the use of water motor washing machines and the use of hose for sprinkling. Looks like locking the stable door after the horse has been stolen.

Pleasant Gap now has a first-class barber shop, conducted by Harry Crissman, who plied his trade in the 31st ward of Pittsburgh for sixteen years, but tiring of city life came here, leased the Noll Bros. building and has all the trade he can handle.

The "boys" who hang around our stores in the evenings seem more or less disappointed because the political pot is so close coming to the boiling point. They have all anticipated friendly calls, ere this, from candidates Naginey and Beaver and are at a loss to understand the delay.

E. H. Ziegler, one of Brush valley's progressive farmers, spent a day at the Gap recently looking after his real estate interests. Through close personal attention to whatever he undertakes to do Mr. Ziegler has attained quite a reputation as a successful farmer, banker and financier.

Overseer of the poor Thomas J. Jodon is a very efficient officer. When the poor call upon him for aid he very generously volunteers to call upon them the following morning. And this he invariably does, going in his big Franklin car and promptly offering to convey them to the poor farm. Nine out of ten applicants as a rule refuse Tommy's hospitality, as most people have a profound dread of the poor farm. As a rule the applicants for charity return to their homes disappointed and immediately begin to hustle and earn a living like the rest of us. Even subjects of charity disdain to accept poor house assistance.

—A Delaware chemist declares that buttermilk contains three per cent. alcohol, and we look for an increased demand and a considerable advance in the price of buttermilk.
