ORVISTON.

Miss Celia Lucas is visiting her randmother, Mrs. Isaac Williams, in Howard.

Miss Cora Moore has returned from very pleasant visit with friends and relatives in Renovo.

Mrs. Jane Yarnell, who makes her home with her son, Ira Condo, of this place, is visiting old-time friends and a few relatives in Howard, Jacksonville and vicinity.

Miss Elizabeth Gradle, of St. Mary's, who spent several pleasant days visiting her sister, Mrs. William Johnson, has returned home. Mrs. Johnson expects to visit her parents soon. Mrs. Amelia Rickard, who has been "vacationing" all around, has returned, looking fine. All the little folks (as well as most big ones) were delighted to see "Aunt Millie" again. Misses Fay and Edna Poorman, of Morrisdale, who have been visiting their cousins, the Misses Margaret and Josephine Poorman, have left for home with a hearty invitation to re-

Harry M. Redfield, of Covington. Pa., and Miss Marie L. French were united in the holy bonds of matrimony August 26, 1920, at the home of Mr. Redfield's sister, Mrs. Walter T. Merrick, Rev. Merrick officiating.

Frank L. Bartlow, who has been very ill, is now able to be about, but is far from well. He and Mrs. Bartlow were ill at the same time, but she was so worried about his condition that she got up to care for him. Both are improving, we are glad to state. Our genial young pastor, the Rev. Walter Merrick, must surely be popular with Mrs. Merrick's brothers. In the spring a brother came and had Rev. Walter tie the "knot that should never be loosed," and now a second appeared, with the lady of his choice, to have his brother-in-law perform the same service for him.

Miss Nennie Hagen, of Farrandsville, and Frank Jodon, who is employed on the John Watson farm at Yarnell, were visitors at the home of Harry Jodon, Miss Hagen spent several pleasant days with her friend, Miss Nora Jodon. Frank could only spare the week end to his parents, who were very glad to see him looking so fine and well. Frank enjoys farm life much better than he does brick loading.

CENTRE HALL.

H. W. Kreamer spent several days at the home of his son, S. S. Kreamer, at Lewistown.

The campers are moving onto the picnic ground. It begins to look like a real settlement. Mrs. Kate Dale and Miss Mollie Hoffer visited Mrs. Kate Conley for several days this week.

Mrs. S. W. Smith is again around; but not regaining her strength as rapidly as she would like.

Elston Snyder, son of the one-time Evangelical pastor at this place will help Barber Geary over the picnic rush.

F. P. Geary, wife and daughter, went to Newport on Sunday. He returned on Tuesday. The ladies returned the latter part of the week. Miss Mary Weaver, daughter of H. E. Weaver, who was with her uncle, Joe Herman, at the club house at Hec-le Park, returned to her home on Wednesday. Mrs. Dunlap, of Kentucky, and Mrs.

Is a Burden

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Bellefonte women. Read what Mrs. J. T. Gordon, 130 E. Beaver St., Bellefonte, says: "I and another member of my family, have found great benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills which were procured at Parrish's Drug Store. My trouble was a dull, con-stant bachache which kept me in mis-ery at times. Mornings I was so sore and lame I dreaded to begin my housework, for it was a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills, taken according to directions restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I have had no return of the backache or kidney disorders. Doan's surely have my gratitude for the lasting benefit they brought me."

(Statement given April 12, 1914) On October 19, 1918, Mrs. Gordon said: "I gladly confirm my previous state-ment for Doan's Kidney Pills, as I certainly have found them to be all that is claimed for them. Doan's cured me, for which I am very thankful."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gordon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 65-35

Elbowing the Great.

A certain House employee, who makes very little money, has just returned from a buzz around the Florida health resorts. Other employees, at a loss to understand why he should spend his money in such riotous living, asked him to explain.

"Well," he said, "I like the association of big men."
"What do you mean association?"
Bill Kenny, one of the doorkeepers,

"Well," he replied, 'one day Boies Penrose's automobile almost ran over me and another day, when I was in swimming, I kicked Mayor Hylan on the ankle."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
