THE MARCH TO THE WOODS. Wednesday.

Before the next issue of the "Watchman" reaches its readers the NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. annual deer hunt will be on in full swing. The deer season will open next Wednesday, December 1st, and from present indications there will be no decrease in the number of hunters -The public schools of Bellefonte who will go out on the trail. Up to will close December 17th for Christ- date over four thousand hunters' licounty and the majority of this number will go out after deer. But the family was held at the home of Mr. fame of Centre county mountains as and Mrs. Miles Dukeman, at Curtin, a paradise for deer hunters is known all over the State and the consequence is that every fall hundreds of hunters come into Centre county from other sections, so that the total out after deer will run up into thousands.

Last year over two hundred buck deer were killed in Centre county, the best season in many years, and the result is already manifest in the eagerness of old hunters to get into the woods this fall. As by far the larger -Matches have dropped one hun- number of deer were killed in the Sevdred per cent. in price-at least it is en mountains that vast stretch of now possible to drop a penny in the mountainous country will be the mecslot and get a box whereas it took two ca sought by most of the hunters this year. But the Seven mountains are not the only good hunting grounds in the county. The Barrens, Brush mountain and little Sugar valley are deer countries, and more deer have been seen on the Alleghenies during the summer than have been in evidence for several years. Bear hunting goes with deer hunting as a matter of course, but as bruin is not as plentiful as deer, and harder to trail, hunting him is not the attractive sport
