PINE GROVE MENTION.

All of the A. G. Archey real estate will be offered at public sale on the 22nd inst.

Miss Myra Kimport will hold her winter hat sale today and tomorrow in the parlors of Mrs. Roop, at State College.

W. K. Corl, farmer, thresherman and leader of the Citizens' band, is housed up nursing a bad attack of neuralgia.

J. H. Everts, who has been confined to his room the past three weeks with a bad attack of sciatica, is slowly improving.

The three-linked fraternity of this place are arranging for a big banquet for themselves and friends on the evening of the last day of the year.

After a week's gunning on the mountain Walter Johnson returned to his job at Corning, N. Y., on Tuesday. He had a fine time but got no game.

The venerable Herman Harms, who spent the past year with relatives in the Sucker State, is back at his former home with the George Rossman family at Oak Grove.

A big reception will be tendered I. Eugene Irvin and bride at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Irvin, at Pennsylvania Furnace, at noon today.

R. P. Coombs, of Washington, D. C., is being initiated in the secrets of following the fleet-footed deer on the Pine Grove Mills Rod and Gun club.

Mrs. Homer N. Walker is visiting her mother at Williamsport and assisting her in getting comfortably located in her new home. During her absence Homer is baching in his own home.

John Mitchell Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Moore, recently enlisted in the U. S. aerial service and on Saturday received orders to report at the station on Long Island for training as a bird man.

Mr. H. C. Goss and daughter Louise, of Houtzdale, spent the early part of the week with his mother, Mrs. Cyrus Goss, on Main street. Of course he brought his trusty Marlin rifle along and is putting in part of his time with the Goss hunting party on the mountain.

Our mutual friend, Charles C. Gates, has closed his home at Pennsylvania Furnace and with his wife gone to Tyrone to accept a winter's job in the paper mill at that place. But when the bluebirds begin to warble next spring he will return and put in the summer on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Erb, of Brunswick, Md., are visiting at the F. W. Swabb home near town. Mr. Erb is an employee of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company and always takes his annual vacation this time of year so as to join in the deer hunt on Old Tussey. Charles C. Goss, of Harrisburg, another railroader, is with the Houtzdale crowd at the George A. Goss camp at the old Bowman place.

ORVISTON.

Mrs. Boyd Young was called to Howard by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Leathers.

Miss Elizabeth Gradel, of St. Mary's, paid her sister, Mrs. William Johnson, a short visit recently.

Rev. Walter T. Merrick was called to Wellsboro by the illness of his uncle, a brother of Dr. D. T. Merrick.

Mrs. J. H. Slaterbeck, who was very seriously ill, is some better and is trying to attend to her household duties, although far from well.

Robert B. Hume, who has been working in Jersey City, is with us once more. He came for the holidays, but has decided to remain.

Mrs. Frank Rupert, of Altoona, and her two children, William and Dorothy, have been spending several pleasant days with Mrs. Rupert's sister, Mrs. Harry Singer.

Mrs. Rebecca Womer, who has been ailing for some time past, is much improved. Owing to her advanced age (she is 88 years old) illness sits very heavily on the dear old lady.

William A. Walker and family have removed to their farm at Port Matilda. Both Mr. and Mrs. Walker are the best of good neighbors and are surely missed. The young folks are also missed by their many friends. Here's hoping they will find as many true and loyal friends in their new home, and that they will remember there are lots here who will be very glad to see them at any time.

James Delaney, of Nittany, and Miss Anna Dietz, of Orviston, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dietz, by Rev. Walter T. Merrick, on December 1st. Only a few immediate relatives were present. The happy couple went to housekeeping almost immediately. Their many friends wish them much well deserved happiness and prosperity. Mrs. Delaney is one of all our Orviston girls, and that is saying a whole lot. Jim is one of the best and most liked boys in our town of real fine boys.

Democrats Carried Only Three Counties in State.

Only three of the sixty-seven counties in the State produced Democratic majorities at the presidential election last month, and the majorities in those Democratic strongholds were materially reduced by the Republican landslide which gave Harding and Coolidge the unprecedented majority of 715,013.

Columbia, Greene and Monroe were the three counties that clung tenaciously to the tenets of Jefferson and Jackson, while such other Democratic strongholds as Berks, Sullivan and Elk cast aside the old idols.

Almost as amazing as the Republican landslide was the growth in the Prohibition and Socialist votes. The Socialists polled their biggest vote in the big industrial centers, Philadelphia, with slightly more than 17,000, and Allegheny, with more than 16,000 casting the greatest vote for Eugene V. Debs, who is serving twenty years in the federal prison in Atlanta for violating the espionage act.

OAK HALL.

A number of men from this place are hunting in the Bear Meadows.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Eiters and sons motored to Tyrone Sunday and spent the day.

Miss Grace Gramley, of Altoona, was a week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. R. C. Lowder.

The Woman's club of this community met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Ferree, Thursday.

William Fogleman, of Renovo, is taking charge of the Oak Hall station while E. C. Radle is hunting on the mountains.

Lester Korman, whose home is in Oseola Mills, but who has been employed at Cleveland, Ohio, spent a few days with his parents.

Among those who assisted at the butchering of N. J. Rishel on Monday were James and Luther Peters, of the Glades, and William Rishel, of Leont. Mr. Rishel, who has been seriously ill for the last month as the result of a stroke, is slowly recovering.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Chronic Catarrh

Follows Repeated Colds When Blood is Impure.

Your body suffering from a cold does not properly attend to digestion and elimination. As a result your blood becomes impure. It inflames the mucous membrane and brings about that condition in which chronic catarrh occurs and on which it depends.

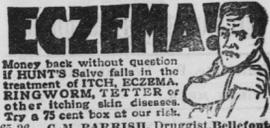

Purify your blood, make it clean, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and if your bowels are not healthfully active, take Hood's Pills. These medicines have relieved and prevented thousands of cases of chronic catarrh.

Economy is one of the strong points of Hood's Sarsaparilla—100 doses in a bottle. Why not get it today. 65-49
