Lodge, No. 276 I. O. O. F., will be held in the lodge hall on Friday evening, the last day of the month. Each member is entitled to take one guest. The committee in charge is striving to make this one of the best ever held.

Last Sunday as Mr. Detwiler, of Tyrone, was motoring up the state road in his Ford truck, he lost control of the steering wheel in the neighborhood of Rock Springs and crashed into a post. He was thrown through the windshield and over a fence, and those who saw the accident surely thought the man was killed outright. He was picked up and carried to the nearest house where an examination disclosed the fact that his injuries were not even serious. His truck was badly wrecked.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was held last Friday at the Fairbrook Country club, at Pennsylvania Furnace, it being a public reception to Robert E. Irvin and bride and Frank V. Goodhart and bride. Friends of the former met at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Irvin and marched from there to the club house. Mrs. Irvin Sr. was hostess of the occasion and had a number of able assistants. About one hundred guests were present and the interior of the club house presented a charming picture with its elaborate decorations, beautifully gowned ladies and the two large tables lavishly spread with all the seasonable delicacies. Everybody present had a delightful time and it was a late hour when the guests took their departure for their various homes.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. C. G. Bright was again called to Northumberland by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Miller Orwig.

'Squire A. S. Stover returned home on Friday, from Harrisburg, where he was a juror in United States court in session there.

Mrs. Henry Mowery has gone to visit her daughters, Mrs. Charles McVey, of Altoona, and Mrs. William Nevel, of Snow Shoe.

CONDO.—Sunday morning about eight o'clock the death angel again visited our quiet village and entered the home of ex-Sheriff John P. Condo, taking the wife, who was devoted to her husband and family. Mrs. Condo has been a sufferer for about one year, and for a considerable length of time her ailment baffled her physician, but during the summer her trouble was diagnosed as Bright's disease. About ten days ago there came a marked change for the worse and she sank rapidly until Sunday when her spirit took its flight. She will be greatly missed in her home and in the neighborhood, for she was a devoted wife, mother and neighbor. She was a lifelong and consistent member of the United Evangelical church and tried to serve her Master as she best knew how. She leaves her sorrowing husband, seven grand-children, one brother and several sisters. In November, 1906, her son, Harry Condo, of York, died, and in October, 1920, her last child, Mrs. John R. D. Bowersox, of East Prospect, Pa., passed away, leaving the parents childless, except for their adopted daughter, Lucretia. Funeral Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, burial in the Reformed cemetery.

Not now, but in the coming years, It may be in the better land, We'll read the meaning of our tears, And there, sometime we'll understand.

Then trust in God through all the days Fear not for He doth hold thy hand, Tho dark thy way, still sing and praise: Some time, some time, we'll understand.

God knows the way. He holds the key, He guides us with unerring hand! Some time with tearless eye we'll see; Yes, there, up there, we'll understand. —Selected.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Chronic Catarrh

Follows Repeated Colds When Blood is Impure.

Your body suffering from a cold does not properly attend to digestion and elimination. As a result your blood becomes impure. It inflames the mucous membrane and brings about that condition in which chronic catarrh occurs and on which it depends.

Purify your blood, make it clean, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and if your bowels are not healthfully active, take Hood's Pills. These medicines have relieved and prevented thousands of cases of chronic catarrh. Economy is one of the strong points of Hood's Sarsaparilla—100 doses in a bottle. Why not get it today. 65-49

BOALSBURG.

Matthias Derner, of Oak Hall, was in town on Tuesday.

Miss Virginia Hess, of Shingletown, was the guest of Miss Ellen Dale on Sunday.

John Stover, of Altoona, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stover, recently.

Miss Mary Hazel came home from Irving College on Friday for a ten day's vacation.

Messrs. Linn Musser and Hamill Glenn, of Pine Grove, repaired the state road through town this week.

Mrs. Mabel Mothersbaugh and son Daniel and Mrs. Sarah Shuey, of State College, were visitors in town on Sunday.

Mrs. Edwin Tussey and son, of Arch Springs, visited from Thursday until Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Goheen.

The Reformed Sunday school will hold their Christmas entertainment on Friday evening and the Lutheran school on Saturday evening.

Cyril Zechman, a student at Susquehanna University, and Fred Brouse, of the Mont Alto forestry school, are spending their vacation with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Homan and son Forest, of State College; Mrs. Tammie Keller, of Linden Hall, and Miss Nelle Holter, of Howard, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh on Sunday.

Mrs. Davidson, of Lewistown, and Mrs. Lutz, of Centre Hall, spent several days at the home of their brother, David Snyder. Walter Korman and family, of Millbrook, were also visitors at the Snyder home recently.

CENTRE HALL.

Many people are suffering with severe colds.

Miss Adaline McClenahan and Miss Belle Meeker are at home for Christmas.

J. Frederic Moore is home from Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, to spend his Christmas vacation.

Elliot Smith and wife, of Pittsburgh, are visiting at their respective homes—the homes of D. F. Smith and Harry Dinges.

The schools will close on Friday for a week's vacation. The primary school closed on Wednesday for a little longer vacation.

Miss Miriam Huyett is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, for her Christmas vacation, having come from Selinsgrove last Friday.

Several of the churches will give Christmas entertainments—the Evangelicals held theirs on Thursday evening; the Lutheran cantata will be held this (Friday) evening and the Reformed service on Sunday evening.

The Methodists of Centre Hall and Sprucetown met in the Centre Hall church last Friday evening as a social body. They had the social as a reception for their pastor, Rev. C. F. Catherman, and his new bride. About one hundred and twenty-five were present. A fine donation of good things to eat was given to the pastor. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee were served. A program of recitations and songs was rendered. Every one seemed to enjoy the occasion, especially Rev. and Mrs. Catherman, to whom it came as a complete surprise.
