Bellefonte, Pa., January 21, 1921.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The kind of weather we have had this week makes both the coal men and the ice men smile, but there is no grin on the face of Mr. Public.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church will hold a sale in the basement of the church Friday afternoon and evening, January 28th.

Thomas Murray, section boss at the Snow Shoe Intersection, is seriously ill at his home at that place, having suffered a stroke of paralysis Tuesday.

A verdict for $26,729.30 in favor of the Bader Coal company, of Boston, was rendered in the federal court for the middle district of Pennsylvania, sitting in Harrisburg last Thursday, against the H. B. Scott company, operating in Clearfield county. Failure to fill contracts for coal was the basis of the suit which was brought for $75,000.

This (Friday) evening the local High school team will play the strong Mount Union High school team. The game will be played in the armory and will be called at 8 o'clock. During the past week victories have been registered over Phillipsburg, Lock Haven and the local American Legion teams, so the local boys will be counted on to put up a strong fight.

Clarence Dauberman, of Lewisburg, who on August 21st, 1920, shot sheriff Renner, of Union county, and parole officer J. T. Twagmyer, of the western penitentiary, because they refused to pay eight dollars for a bottle of whiskey the sheriff took from Dauberman, was sentenced last week by Judge Johnson to serve not less than six years nor more than eight years in the eastern penitentiary.

Lock Haven will entertain the annual meeting and reunion of the Odd Fellows association of central Pennsylvania this year, which will be held on April 27th. At last year's gathering at Milton the association accepted the invitation of Renovo Odd Fellows to hold the meeting there this year, but for various reasons it has been decided not to go there this year but to accept an invitation to hold the gathering in Lock Haven.

The high quality motion pictures now being shown by manager T. Clayton Brown at the Scenic and opera house are drawing large crowds nightly to both these places of amusement. The people of Bellefonte and surrounding community realize that manager Brown is giving the very best in movieland and only the regular attendant gets the benefit of all of them. Therefore, be a regular.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Hoy, of New York, will be interested in knowing that a second daughter, who is to be called Louise Harris Hoy, was born to them on January 6th. They are at Chester, the home of Mrs. Hoy's parents, for the present but expect to go to Atlantic City for a month or so later. Nanette, their eldest child, is here visiting her aunts, the Misses Nan and Mary Hoy, of north Spring street.

The speedy basket ball team of the Bellefonte Academy will have as their opponents on the armory floor this (Friday) evening at 8:45 o'clock, the Wyoming Seminary five of Kings-ton, the fastest quintette in the entire Wilkes-Barre section. An exciting contest is assured all who attend and inasmuch as it will be one of the best games of the season a large crowd should be present. The regular admission price of 25 cents will be charged.

The wedding of James Alexander Straub, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Dorothy Cump, of Buffalo, N. Y., will take place in the German Evangelical church of Buffalo, Wednesday, January 26th, at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Straub, who is chemist for the Glidden Varnish company, of Cleveland, is the only son of Elmer Straub, of Bellefonte, having left here two years ago to go with the General Electric company, of Erie, immediately after his graduation from Penn State.

COUNCIL PASSED ORDINANCE.

Providing for Licensing of All Vehicles for Hire in Bellefonte.

Borough council on Monday evening passed the much discussed ordinance providing for the licensing of all horse drawn and motor vehicles used on the streets of Bellefonte for hire, either in hauling freight, express or passengers. The complete text of the ordinance with its provisions and fees for the various classes of conveyances will be found in another column of this paper. Seven members of council were present when the vote on the ordinance was taken and all voted in favor of its passage.

Contractor Snyder and superintendent Henry A. Reed, of the Bellefonte silk mill, appeared before council and requested permission to construct a foot bridge eight feet in width across Spring creek, from north Water street to the silk mill, for use of the employees of the plant in going to and returning from work. The gentlemen presented a blue print of the proposed bridge which will be sixteen inches higher than the concrete walk on Water street and will be constructed without the aid of any abutments or any other obstacle in the water course of the creek. Council granted permission providing no objections were raised by the State Water Commission.

Secretary Kelly read a communication from the conferees of the Logan and Undine fire companies relating to the election of John J. Bower, as chief fire marshal; Louis A. Hill, first assistant, and Harry Haag, second assistant, and the same were approved by vote of council.

The secretary also read a notice that the state association of boroughs will hold a convention at the Penn Harris hotel, Harrisburg, on February 15th and 16th, with a request that Bellefonte send representatives. No action was taken.

The Street committee presented the report of the borough manager which included the statement that during the year he had collected and turned over to the borough treasurer the sum of $855.32 for use in the street department.

The Water committee reported that during 1920 the borough manager had collected and turned over to the water department the sum of $365.60. The committee also presented receipts for $22.05 collected since last meeting.

The Finance committee presented the borough treasurer's request for the renewal of notes for $1,500, $2,000, $2,500, $7,000 and $3,400, and a new note for $3,000 to meet a deficit of $713 and pay current bills, all of which were authorized.

Mr. Cunningham called the attention of the president of council to the fact that a date should be set for the hearing of appeals for the 1920 water taxes, and Monday evening, January 24th, was named as the time.

The question of the proper adjustment of the bills of the State-Centre Electric company for pumping water was discussed at some length but no satisfactory solution being reached the matter was referred back to the Water committee and borough solicitor.

It was at this juncture of the proceedings that the ordinance for the licensing of vehicles was taken up and passed finally.

Burgess Walker called attention of council to the fact that one street in the borough should be set aside for coasting between the hours of four and nine o'clock in the evening and that a policeman be on guard during those hours as a safeguard against accidents. Council decided to leave the matter up to the burgess and he promptly designated Howard street as the best coasting thoroughfare.

Bills to the amount of approximately $8,500 were approved after which council adjourned.

Foot Passengers Debarred from Railroad Bridge.

Now that the new iron bridge has been completed on the line of the Lewisburg railroad over Spring creek, just south of the passenger depot in this place the Pennsylvania railroad company has placed a ban on all foot traffic across the bridge. A railroad policeman was in Bellefonte on Monday morning warning all persons crossing or attempting to cross the bridge that they must desist in the future under penalty of arrest for trespassing on railroad property. When the Lewisburg railroad was built in 1885 a walk was laid alongside, fully protected by a railing, which has been used by pedestrians ever since. The walk has always been maintained by the railroad company and while on one or two occasions efforts have been made by the railroad company to suppress travel across the walk, the matter was never enforced and the bridge was used to a great extent by persons living in the southwestern part of town and by the employees of the Pennsylvania Match company going to and from work. The new order will necessitate all persons walking around on south Water street, unless the match company or the borough construct a footbridge across Spring creek in that immediate vicinity.

Accidents in Centre County During 1920.

Centre county industrial workers were victims of thirteen fatal accidents during 1920, according to figures issued by Dr. Clifford B. Connelley, Commissioner of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry. Of that number four were killed in manufacturing plants, two in public service work, and seven in mines.

In the "Watchman" item regarding the election of officers of the Business Men's association of Bellefonte last week it was stated that John M. Bullock had been elected president for the ensuing year. This was a mistake. George Hazel was elected president and Mr. Bullock vice president.

Quite a number of people have remarked on the up-to-date way in which Nathan Ichkowitz is fixing up his coal yard. Not content with constructing a roof and large shed he is now enclosing it on all sides with large, double doors in front of each bin. But these improvements are not being made just for the looks, but because Nathan believes that somebody is stealing his coal and he is boarding up his bins as a means of protection.

Inaugurated on Monday morning calisthenics will hereafter be a part of the daily routine of the office force on all the eastern lines of the Pennsylvania railroad company, in accordance with an order issued last week by General Atterbury. Five minute exercises will be given both morning and afternoon, at ten and three o'clock, during which time windows and doors will be opened and the entire force take a course in gymnastics.

The stockholders of the Bellefonte Trust company had their annual meeting on Tuesday and later, with the members of the Bellefonte bar as their guests, partook of a luncheon at the Bush house. The Trust company, by the way has in contemplation the remodeling of its building this spring. The plans and drawings are nearing completion and when they are finally submitted to the board of directors definite action will be taken as to when work will be started.

At the annual congregational meeting held in St. John's Reformed church, Bellefonte, last Friday evening officers were elected and the reports of the several treasurers read. The receipts for the year amounted to nearly $4,500.00. This does not include $2,225.00 paid during the past nine months on the Forward movement pledges. A new heater was installed. All bills paid and a balance in the treasury. The communion offerings last Sunday for benevolence, amounted to $137.00.

The State institution for women at Muncy has offered the position of musical instructor to Miss Sallie Fitzgerald, of Williamsport, but formerly of Bellefonte. She goes to the home one evening a week to play the piano and violin and sing to the girls, and to teach them to sing. The proposition came to Miss Fitzgerald unsolicited and unheralded and there is no doubt about her filling the place most acceptably. She already holds an enviable position in the musical life of the public schools of Williamsport.

Mrs. William Dawson has decided to make a division of her property on Spring street by giving the vacant piece of ground between the present residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown and the W. R. Brachbill property to Mrs. Brown, while the rear half of the property will be given to Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia. The latter is already contemplating the tearing down of the old stable on the property and the erection of a comfortable bungalow facing the Snyder property, which would be a wonderful improvement to that locality.

In remitting for her subscription to the "Watchman" Miss M. V. Thomas, of Heleta, Oregon, says: "With the roar of the old Pacific in my ears every day it is good to get the weekly visitor from the quiet, protected home land." Miss Thomas is originally from Milesburg, this county, where she taught school before going west a number of years ago, and has lost none of her love for the home land of her girlhood. At various times she has contributed to the columns of the "Watchman" and her effusions in both prose and poetry were always gems worth reading.

Loanger C. Wion, manager of the Bellefonte station of the Atlantic Refining company, received a notice last week that a life insurance policy for one thousand dollars had been taken out for him by the company. Several years ago the company inaugurated the policy of insuring its employees for an amount commensurate with the years of service rendered, the maximum policy being for $1000 for those employees who have been with the company twenty years or more. Inasmuch as Mr. Wion has been with the company over twenty years he is now in the one thousand dollar class.

The Gazette last week announced that Miss Verna Chambers had returned to Bellefonte for the purpose of assisting with the audit of the county accounts. As a matter of fact Miss Chambers has returned to accept the position of assistant to L. Frank Mayes, county treasurer. A. Clyde Smith, who had occupied the position, has resigned to resume his tailoring business, and Miss Chambers, because of her experience in conducting the office under her father's administration and her acknowledged capacity for the work, was appointed to succeed him. She would have assumed her duties a week earlier but was not sufficiently recovered from a slight throat operation.

Brakeman John Davis Dead as Result of Accident.

John Davis Jr., of Coleville, died at the Bellefonte hospital at three o'clock on Tuesday morning as the result of an accident on the Bellefonte Central railroad at nine o'clock on Monday morning. Davis, who had been in the employ of the company for eight years and had worked as fireman and extra brakeman, went out on the train Monday morning as brakeman. Conductor G. Ross Parker was in charge of the train with Edward Nolan as engineer. The other brakeman was Frank Downing. Both Downing and Davis rode the engine up the valley until the train neared the plant of the Chemical Lime company when it slowed down to shift a car of coal onto the Chemical plant siding. Downing jumped off to cut the car out and Davis ran back over the tender for the purpose of getting on the car to set the brakes. While no one saw the accident it is evident that in attempting to jump from the tender to the car he slipped and fell between the two. He caught hold of the running board of the tender with his right hand and one of his legs caught over the coupling but his head went down and evidently struck the track as he had quite a gash on the left side of his head while his left arm was run over and almost severed from the body. First aid was promptly administered and he was hurried to the Bellefonte hospital where everything possible was done for him but he passed away at three o'clock on Tuesday morning.

The unfortunate man was a son of John and Anna Eliza Davis and was born at Coleville thirty-nine years ago, having lived there most all his life. He was married to Miss Jennie Campbell, of Newport, who survives with eight small children, the oldest less than thirteen years, as follows: Gertrude, Donald, Clifford, Lester, Richard, Herman, Eliza and Merrill. He also leaves his father and the following brothers and sisters: Clyde, of Osceola Mills; Floyd, of Tyrone; Joseph, of Johnstown; Mrs. C. R. Minnemyer and Thurman, of Coleville; Oscar and Eleanor, at home.

The funeral will be held at two o'clock this (Friday) afternoon, burial to be made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

Preparing for the Motor Show.

Work has been well under way for a week or more in preparing for the first of the annual motor shows that is to be held in the armory in Bellefonte during the week of January 29th to February 6th.

Major E. H. Lederer, of State College, who is the director of the show, was in town last week with the floor plans and all of the exhibitors have drawn lots for the space.

The department of landscape gardening at the College is preparing the decorative plans so that as soon as the booths are ready a general scheme of decoration will be begun with a view to making the show a miniature of what may be seen in the big city exhibitions.

An orchestra will be engaged for the entire week and all the plans are being made with a view to lifting the show to a plane far above the usual small town undertaking.

Few people fully realize the enormity of the automobile industry. Last year approximately 8,500,000 automobiles were registered in the United States and of this total 7,600,000 were passenger cars. As the population of this country taken at the last census was 105,708,771 persons, this means that one person out of every thirteen owns a passenger car.

The automobile showed the best progress on the farm. More than 60 per cent. of last year's production in rural districts. The farmers own and operate 2,500,000 motor vehicles. The outstanding feature of the motor-truck on the farm is that it annually saves the farmer $150 in labor and $240 in transport charges.

It is very important to note that with the great manufacture of cars and trucks last year, the fuel to keep these vehicles in operation also increased. The 1920 output of gasoline was increased 19 per cent. over the 1919 production.

Among other features for the show will be the Penn State quartette that is just returned from a tour of the Canal Zone. It will probably appear on what is to be called Bellefonte night. The State College exhibitors will bring the State College band and in all probability the engineering department of the College will make a practical exhibit of the fundamental operation of gas engines. This latter will be especially for farmers, since the gas engine has come into such general utility on the farm.

In connection with the State-wide tuberculosis conference held at the Adelphi hotel in Philadelphia this week, a health play was produced yesterday afternoon by health fairies connected with the Philadelphia health council and tuberculosis committee, aided by "San Tam," (Miss Eleanor Weston.) ## Students Charged With Robbery.

Harold Bowman, a fourth year student at State College, is now a prisoner in the Centre county jail on a charge of committing a series of robberies at the college, while officers of the law are searching for J. B. Sparrowhawk, another student, whom Bowman implicates as an accessory in the various thefts.

During the latter part of the year various tools were missed from the engineering building and several of the laboratories and suspicion pointed to the two students mentioned above. Consequently a watch was set upon the young men and they were detected in removing tools. They were taken before members of the student council and after being charged with the theft, confessed, it is alleged, and restored the tools. The college authorities decided not to prosecute and Sparrowhawk left the college.

In the meantime two or more stores had been robbed at the college and Bowman was charged as being implicated. It is also alleged that he confessed to the charge and implicated Sparrowhawk. Bowman was arrested and jailed while Sparrowhawk has disappeared. More than the ordinary interest attaches to the case because of the fact that Bowman, whose home is in Clarion, Pa., was recently married to a Bellefonte young lady.

Hard on the Horse Shoes.

Every day we find out something new. On Tuesday a young Spring township farmer, who lives along the newly laid highway to Pleasant Gap, informed us that the road surface there seems to have an unusually bad wearing effect on horse shoes. He stated after having had his team shod with winter calks he made two trips to Bellefonte for coal and though the round trip is only six miles he was compelled to put new calks in his team's shoes before he could make the third trip in safety.

We have never heard any one discuss the wearing effect of brick, concrete or macadam-asphalt road surfaces on horse shoes, but if the calks that this farmer was using were not unusually soft the new bitu road to Pleasant Gap must be exceptionally hard on them.

Fred Hendershot and Richard Packer were given a hearing before Squire Woodring on Tuesday evening on the charge of assaulting Donald Snyder, a driver of one of the Emerick busses on Saturday evening, found guilty and each one fined. Hendershot was also required to pay Snyder the sum of $25.00. The assault was committed shortly after the bus left Pleasant Gap on its way to State College.

Week after next should be a big time in Bellefonte, when the Centre county auto show will hold forth in the armory. Owners of cars and prospective purchasers should make it a point to attend.

The House committees were announced Tuesday night but we have been unable to ascertain just what assignments have been given the Centre county Member, Hon. Thomas Beaver.

The Bellefonte High school basketball team won a league game from Phillipsburg on the armory floor last Friday night by the score of 30 to 22.
