Legal Holidays in Pennsylvania.

In Pennsylvania we have at present 11 legal holidays a year, 10 specifically designated by the Legislature and one (Thanksgiving day) the date of which is proclaimed annually by the Governor, so as to comply with the President's recommendation (which, of itself, has no mandatory force in any State, of course). Of the 10 still remaining ahead of us for this year you will notice that one-half will fall on days that will afford opportunities for an extended rest, thanks to their proximity to Sunday:

- New Year's day was Saturday this year. Lincoln's birthday, February 12 (Saturday), Washington's birthday, February 22 (Tuesday), Good Friday, March 25, Memorial day, May 30 (Monday), Independence day, July 4 (Monday), Labor day, September 5 (Monday), Columbus day, October 12 (Wednesday), Election day, November 8 (Tuesday), Thanksgiving day, November 24 (Thursday), Christmas day, December 25 (Sunday).

Steele—McDowell.—Miles O. Steele, a son of William Steele, of Axe Mann, and Miss Susan J. McDowell, a daughter of D. A. McDowell, of the same place, were married at the Lutheran parsonage, Boalsburg, at six o'clock last Friday evening, by the pastor, Rev. Elmer F. Brown. The young people were taken to Boalsburg by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley, of Bellefonte, who officiated as their attendants at the ceremony. Returning to Axe Mann a delicious wedding supper was served at the home of the bridegroom, and later in the evening the couple were given a rousing serenade by the young people of that locality. Mr. Steele is employed at the Titan Metal company and is an industrious young man. For the present they will make their home with the Steele family.

John Waite, who has been associated in the implement business with his brother, has sold his interest to Darius Waite, in anticipation of accepting a position with a large business firm in one of the eastern cities. Mr. Waite is advertising elsewhere in the paper a sale of household goods, which can be seen where they are stored over the implement store on Water street.

SHEFFLER.—Miss Kathryn R. Sheffler passed away at the Bellefonte hospital at six o'clock last Thursday evening following a brief illness with pneumonia. She contracted a cold the week previous and on January 12th was compelled to relinquish her work as an operator in the Bell telephone exchange. Her condition, however, did not become alarming until Tuesday of last week when pneumonia developed and she was promptly taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment. The disease, however, had already reached a critical stage and though everything possible was done to save her life it was of no avail, and she passed away on Thursday evening. Her death was the third to occur in the family in about six months. She was a daughter of J. R. and Frances Sheffler and was born at Pleasant Gap forty-two years ago last August. When a girl her parents moved to Bellefonte and most of her life was spent here. On June 18th, 1906, she entered the Bell telephone exchange as an operator and during the fourteen years of her service there she proved one of the company's most efficient and obliging employees. She was always courteous and polite to the patrons of the company and kind and thoughtful in her conduct with her fellow employees.

She is survived by her mother, in Bellefonte, and the following brother and sisters: Mrs. Asher Adams, of Sunbury; Mrs. Fearon Hughes, of Niagara Falls; Clyde, of Hyde City, but who will now make Bellefonte his home; Mrs. Frank Sasseraman, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. John Englebaugh, of Sharon.

Funeral services were held at the Sasseraman home at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, by Rev. Alexander Scott, of the Methodist church, of which she was a most faithful member for twenty-four years. Burial was made in the Union cemetery. Officials and employees of the telephone company carried her body to its last resting place, they including superintendent G. H. Heilhecker, Dale Musser, J. I. Young, Edward Brown, B. D. Tate and Mr. Meyer. All her immediate relatives were here for the funeral while among the telephone people who came to pay their last respects was S. H. Uriane, of Williamsport, head of the traffic department of the telephone company.

GLINZ.—Mrs. Amelia S. Glinz, wife of landlord August Glinz, died very unexpectedly at the Garman house shortly before twelve o'clock last Thursday night of angina pectoris. She had not been in good health the past eighteen months but was up and around the day before her death, so that her passing away was a great shock to her family and friends.

She was a daughter of Michael and Elizabeth Hert Mall and was born in Allegheny county on June 20th, 1875, hence was 45 years and 7 months old. On April 17th, 1893, she was married to Mr. Glinz in Pittsburgh and prior to coming to Bellefonte in 1914 the family resided in New Kensington. Mrs. Glinz was a member of the Lutheran church and a kind-hearted, home-loving woman. In addition to her husband she is survived by two children, Mrs. Walter Krytzer, of New Kensington, and Lloyd, at home. Another daughter died about a year ago. Funeral services were held at the Garman house at 8:30 o'clock on Sunday evening by Rev. Wilson P. Ard, and burial in the Union cemetery was made at 2 p. m. Monday.

BARGER.—Mrs. Mary G. Barger died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Griffith, at Curtin, on Monday morning, January 10th, as the result of an affection of the heart, aged 75 years, 10 months and 21 days. When a young woman she was united in marriage to James Barger, who preceded her to the grave several years. In addition to the daughter mentioned above she is survived by these children: Mrs. Irvin Bryan, Mrs. John Bryan and Eliza of Curtin; John, of Williamsport, and William, of Chicago. She also leaves one brother, John Graham, of Los Angeles, Cal. Funeral services were held on the afternoon of January 10th. Rev. M. S. Melot, of the Methodist church, of which she was a faithful member, was in charge, and burial was made in the Curtin cemetery.

STEPHENS.—Rev. W. A. Stephens, a former pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, passed away at his home at Carlisle on Sunday, aged 85 years. He began his work in the Master's vineyard in 1870 in the State of Missouri, coming to Pennsylvania in the fall of 1876. His first charge was at Ennisville, and his subsequent assignments were Jersey Shore, 1879-'81; Renovo, 1882-'84; presiding elder Williamsport district, 1880-'90; Shamokin, 1891-'92; Clearfield, 1893-'96; Bellefonte, 1897-'99; secretary Twentieth Century thank offering, 1900-'03. In 1904 he was placed upon the list of supernumeraries, owing to defective hearing and had since made his home in Carlisle. Burial was made at Carlisle on Tuesday afternoon.

COMPANI.—Frank Compani, who has been a resident of Bellefonte for more than thirty years, died on Tuesday night at his home on south Allegheny street as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained the day previous. He was seventy years old and was born in Italy, coming to this country thirty-two years ago. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Anthony and Joseph, both at home. Funeral services will be held in the Catholic church this morning, burial to be made in the Catholic cemetery.

OSMAN.—Another old-time resident of Ferguson township, and a veteran of the Civil war, Lemuel H. Osman, passed to his reward at his home near Pine Hall at 10:15 o'clock on Monday evening. Though he had been in failing health the past year he was able to go about and last September attended the soldier's reunion at Centre Hall. About ten days ago he contracted a cold and pneumonia developing his death ensued.

He was a son of David and Margaret Fulton Osman and was born at old Monroe Furnace on January 12th, 1846, hence had reached the age of 74 years and 12 days. When he was a boy his parents moved to State College and because of his faithfulness he soon found plenty to do as errand boy at the old farm school. When he grew older he helped to lay the foundations of the college building now familiarly known as "Old Main." When the war broke out in 1862, though less than seventeen years old, he enlisted in August, 1862, in Company C, 148th regiment, under Capt. Robert M. Foster. He took part in some of the fiercest engagements of the Virginia campaign and was severely wounded at the battle of Cold Harbor. After his recovery he was given an honorable discharge and returned home and resumed his work as a carpenter at the College. He followed that occupation all his life and was a conscientious, faithful workman. He was a zealous member of the Lutheran church and a member of Capt. Foster Post, G. A. R., of State College.

On September 12th, 1867, he was united in marriage to Miss Hannah McCormick, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Shannon McCormick, of Pine Hall, and they at once went to house-keeping in that locality, where they have spent all their married life. The aged widow with the following children survive: Mrs. H. C. Bloom, of Centre Line; Mrs. Gertrude Sankey, in the State of Washington; Mrs. C. M. Fry and Mrs. Theodore Ritchie, of Altoona, and J. Shannon, at home. He also leaves two brothers, Jesse, of Altoona, and John H., of State College, as well as nine grand-children.

The funeral was held at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. After brief services at the house the remains were taken to the church where final services were held by his pastor, Rev. A. M. Lutton, after which burial was made in the Pine Hall cemetery.

ORBISON.—Mary Elliott Orbison, of Huntingdon, passed away at the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday afternoon. On November 10th she came here to visit her cousin, Mrs. James A. Beaver, and eleven days later suffered a stroke of apoplexy. She was removed to the Bellefonte hospital where every care and comfort were given her but she passed away at the time above mentioned. Deceased was a daughter of William P. and Lydia Allison Orbison and was born at Huntingdon, having lived all her life in the house built by her grand-father, William Orbison, in 1816. She was 76 years, 4 months and 3 days old, and is survived by one brother and a sister, Robert A. and Miss Ellen Orbison, both of Huntingdon. The remains were taken to Huntingdon on Sunday and the funeral held on Monday afternoon. Rev. R. P. Daubenspeck officiated and burial was made in the Riverview cemetery.

HOLTER.—Word was received in Bellefonte on Monday of the death of George L. Holter, at his home in San Diego, Cal. He was a native of Centre county, having been born in the vicinity of Curtin about fifty-five years ago. He graduated in physics and chemistry at State College in the class of 1886, and for a number of years thereafter was an instructor in the agricultural department at the College. Leaving there he went to Oklahoma, where he held a responsible position in the agricultural college of that State finally resigning his position to go as chemist with the Hercules Powder company, and has since been stationed at San Diego, Cal. Burial was made at that place.

BARTON.—Mrs. Ida Barton, a native of Centre county, died on Sunday morning at her home in Pittsburgh following two months' illness with dropsy. Her maiden name was Ida Knopf and she was born at Oak Hall. She had been a resident of Pittsburgh about ten years, her husband being an engineer on the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Irvin, living in Snow Shoe, and another living in Altoona. The remains were brought to Centre county on Wednesday and taken to Boalsburg for burial.

Thirty-Second Degree Masons.

The Masonic fraternity of Central Pennsylvania have been well represented in Williamsport this week, the occasion being the initiation of a class of about seven hundred candidates into the mysteries of the thirty-second degree as members of the Williamsport Consistory. Those from Bellefonte and Centre county who went down to take the degree were Hon. Henry C. Quigley, Col. J. L. Spangler, Dr. W. K. McKinney, Rev. W. P. Ard, Thomas H. Harter, William W. Henry, W. E. Hurley, Alex. G. Morris Jr., Fred W. Hollabaugh, Walter I. McCullough and Earl P. Grove, of Bellefonte; C. L. Goodling, Floyd H. Snyder, and Raymond Parks, State College; Harry J. O'Brien, Snow Shoe; Dr. H. S. Braucht, Spring Mills, and D. A. Holter, of Howard.

Lutheran Church at Pine Grove Mills to be Rededicated Sunday.

On Sunday, January 30th, the Lutheran church, at Pine Grove Mills, will be rededicated with appropriate services. Dr. Boslin, of Harrisburg, will preach the morning sermon at 10:30 and Dr. Charles T. Aikens, president of Susquehanna University, will officiate at the evening service at 7.

The church has been closed since November and in the interim handsome oak pews have been placed, a new carpet laid and the entire interior of the building, both the Sunday school room and the auditorium redecorated. They have spent about three thousand dollars in improvements so that very pleasing changes will be apparent to those who attend next Sunday's services there. It is unusual that the public is invited to a rededictory service without a hint that a fat pocket book would be a welcome guest also. But it is to be understood that the bills for this work are all paid or provided for and you are invited because it is to be purely a spiritual feast and no special collections or pledges will be taken. We congratulate the Lutheran congregation at Pine Grove Mills. They must be cheerful givers.

NO WORRY FOR OFFICE SEEKERS. From the Philadelphia Record. The fire in Mr. Harding's offices in Marion is believed to have destroyed no applications for office and no indorsements by "original Harding men" in every State in the country. The damage done by the flames cannot have been of much consequence if the tons of documents filed by office-seekers were rescued. The results of Mr. Harding's conference with the best minds are locked up in his brain, and are therefore saved to the country.
