NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Altoona has six cases of smallpox. -The Bellefonte barbers have reduced the price of hair cuts to 35 cents and shaves 15, with 25 cents for bobbing children's hair. -The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will hold a home-Saturday, March 26th. -Our Lemont correspondent remarks that the penitentiary is laying not include the prisoners. ---The firm of Weaver Bros., grocerymen, has been dissolved by the withdrawal of Park Weaver. The latter gentleman has several openings in women in Bellefonte.

-The annual Easter market of street.

-Beginning April 7th the barber shops of Bellefonte will resume the custom, inaugurated last year, taking present structure is under way. a half holiday on Thursday. After that date none of them will be open on Thursday afternoon.

The Bellefonte Academy basket ball team will play the Susquehanna University five on the armory floor this (Friday) evening at 8:30 o'clock. As the basket ball season is nearing its close all lovers of the game should be sure to see this one.

-The Parent Teachers meeting will be held in the High school building Monday evening, March 14th, at 8 o'clock. Miss Bertha B. Wagner will speak on "The Nutrition of Children." public is cordially invited to these dustry in and around Bellefonte con- now is, will be a private office, or continues with no indication of a let up. sulting room for the secretary and of the young man who acts as inter-While some of the companies are op- treasurer. The lobby, instead of be- preter at the western penitentiary. erating on a small scale the major ing on the street will be almost in the The man in question was in Bellefonte part of the operations are at a stand-center of the room, and will be big and on Saturday night and walked down still. And so far as can be learned roomy, in fact 540 square feet in size. there is no indication at the present The floor of the lobby will be of mar- behind C. C. Keichline's store buildtime of an early resumption.

try districts. at Wrightsville, on Monday evening, Rev. E. B. Dunn, who has been pastor timore district, and Rev. Reed O. Steely, of Williamsport, assigned to the Bellefonte church.

-The Superior court last Saturday handed down its decision in the case of Howard township vs. Burdine Butler in which the judgment of the lower court was affirmed and the defendant refused a new trial. This is the case in which Mr. Butler was prosecuted for not sending his children to school, and his reason was refusal to have them vaccinated.

-Here's a tip for the kiddies of enty year olds as well as the seven year olds, Bellefonte is to have a circus on Monday, May 9th, and it will be Walter L. Main's big show of twenty-eight cars. The advance man was in Bellefonte last week looking up a location and he found one suitable to accommodate the show, so keep in mind the date and save your pennies.

time is on the way. Of course with micer weather everybody will feel betjoyment possible, and the one place to get it is at the Scenic. There is no better place in Bellefonte to pass away an hour or two each evening than at the Scenic. The motion pictures are always interesting and up-to-date and every evening there is something worthwhile watching. If you don't attend regularly you miss a lot of good ones.

—The scheming of a Japanese Hawaiian Islands is the pivot around house this (Friday) evening, is writdramatic situations and the play is presented with gorgeous scenic effects. The atmosphere of the islands by the ukelele are one of the delightful features. Don't fail to see it.

Gap, was ninety-three years old and Allegheny street side lowered about some day. the event was celebrated by a gather- two feet. ing of the most of her children at her home in that place. The aged lady is | urally mean that one of the present enjoying good health and took an ac- tenants in the building will have to tive part in the day's festivities. Her move, and at a meeting of the direcchildren are G. L. Baumgardner, of tors on Monday it was decided to give Allport, who is past seventy years of notice to George Carpeneto to vaage; Collins, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. cate and allow Mr. Hunter the privi-Calvin Kline, of State College; Mrs. lege of occupying the room now used your eyes, and no drops used. See the turn with the result that the car Alice Homan, of Pleasant Gap; Harry, as a pool room. From the above it Dr. Rubin if your eyes are giving you ran off the road and turned over on one of the garden spots in Centre county of California, and Miss Ella, a profes- will be seen that the plans for remod- any trouble. Office hourse are from its side, where it lay until Saturday

ENLARGED.

$75,000 to be Spent in Remodeling and Refurnishing Banking Institution.

Just about a year ago the board of directors of the Bellefonte Trust Co. voted to expend $75,000 on remodeling their banking house and equipment into an up-to-date institution and the proposition was put in the hands of New York architects to prepare plans for same. In due time the plans were prepared and submitted made food sale in Sourbeck's store on of money the directors had voted to and to stock it with game and game expend on the improvements. The birds. matter was allowed to lie dormant a few months and then the firm of Dennison & Hirons, bank architects, of off a number of men. Hope it does up plans. They did so, kept them within the limit of the amount of moncepted and the contract for the awarded to the Shamokin Lumber & Construction company, the same the ladies of the Reformed church will company that built the Bellefonte the house by the first of June. Acbe held on Saturday before Easter, at silk mill. Most of the contracts the new Brouse store on Allegheny for the interior finishing, furnishing and equipment have also been -Miss Cooney, of The Hat Shop, awarded and according to present has a very attractive announcement in plans work will be begun about April the advertising columns of this week's first. The Trust company has leased paper which should be read by all the rooms in the Harter building across from the court house, which they will occupy as temporary banking quarters while the work of remodeling the

The plans for remodeling the building provide for taking in the room now occupied by The Index stationery store, both first and second floor. The main entrance to the bank will be on Allegheny street, just about where the north window in the stationery store is now located. The present entrance will be changed into a window. The main entrance leads into a hall, to the right of which is a laides' waiting room, with toilet and lavatory. and to the left the president's room. North of the president's room and on the Allegheny street front will be the office of the secretary and treasurer, Refreshments will be served. The which will be divided from the main lobby in the rear by a marble counter and bronze grill, while right on the the G. M. Gamble mill or floating -The depression in the lime in- corner, where the present entrance down the creek somewhere are thirty ble with marble wainscoting, etc.

real thunder storm between eleven on the High street side and will be there was no guard rail and he stepand twelve o'clock on Monday night. equipped with marble counters and ped right off of the wall into the race. heavy and the lightning as vivid as if the windows. There will be six tel- cold water gave him the fright of his lishing the line of south Potter street, In fact the thunder was about as bronze grills, with plate glass between it were mid-summer, instead of the ler's windows in the main lobby and life and he left out a few yells that and they are making progress. He seventh of March. And the rain also in the rear of the lobby will be a small quickly brought help and he was pulled also stated that while in Harrisburg descended in torrents badly washing room, with a table and chairs for la- out of his impromptu bath by several fields and roads in some of the coundies, a teller's window and a lady tel- young men who happened to be in that ler. East of the main room, or where neighborhood. Once on solid ground -In the list of appointments dol- the director's room is now located, again he took stock of himself and ed out at the annual conference of the will be the machine room, where all United Evangelical church, in session the machine tabulating and book- lars. keeping will be done. The vault will be in the rear, taking in a portion of of the Bellefonte church the past sev- the present director's room and part cities have pronounced the Bowman eral years, was transferred to the Bal- of the rear of the Index store. It will Bro's minstrels, which will appear at Bellefonte and Centre county, the sev- the vault from the rear part where the vaudeville, each act a feature. Then door in front. The vault will be eight | joyment. feet wide, twelve feet deep and eight feet high. It will also extend into -The robins are here and spring- the basement, where the bank records will be kept. To the right, in the rear of the second lobby will be a room, ter and more like getting all the en- that will be specially designed for the public, such as school boards, insurance companies, and such like to hold meetings in. Of course in the remodeling the ceiling will be taken out of the room now occupied by the Index so that the ceiling in the entire banking room will floor will be lowered one foot, so that there will be only one foot up into the hallway at the main entrance. In the villain to secure the possession of the rear, or over what is now the director's room and the rear part of the Inwhich the story of "A Daughter of the dex the ceiling will not be removed, Sun," the attraction at the opera as on the second floor of this space will be a mezzanine room for the dioverlooking the banking room, a toilet and a small bed room for the night watchman. The present hallway in

Of course all these changes will nateling the building are quite elaborate 8 a. m. until 9 p. m.

BELLEFONTE TRUST CO. TO BE but the Trust company officials hope that the work will all be done this summer so that they can get back into the building by the first of October.

-On February 24th the Huntingdon county Conservation Association was organized and adopted the constitution of the Centre county Conservation Association. Huntingdon county has been divided into fourteen Conservation districts which are rapidly being organized. At one of their conservation meetings over six hundred people were present. The Association but the estimates exceeded the amount has decided to form a game preserve

-The double brick dwelling house on Spring street, formerly the prop-New York, was commissioned to draw erty of the Harris estate, has been sold, Dr. S. M. Nissley buying the side now occupied by Mrs. J. A. Woodcock ey to be expended, the plans were ac- and Dr. W. U. Irwin purchasing the side now occupied by Dr. Nissley. remodeling of the building has been Mrs. Woodcock is now with her son Lee in Scranton but expects to return to Bellefonte in time to vacate cording to her plans now she will seil her surplus furniture, simply retaining sufficient to furnish a flat in Scranton where she expects to locate so as to be near her son.

> -A flower belonging to the lily of Mrs. Patsy Stewart, has been creating much interest among Mrs. Stewart's friends for the past few weeks. stalk, thickly dotted with white, grew a day until it attained a height of about four feet, then put forth a dark wine colored bloom of enormous size, omewhat in the form of a calla, the tal foliage appears. This Amorphophallus Rivieri is most curious and no doubt a native of the tropics.

-Lodged in the race leading to dollars in bills, formerly the property Race street and attempted to step in ing, evidently under the impression Centre county was treated to a The work room of the bank will be that there was a guard rail there. But Naturally the sudden plunge into the discovered that he had lost thirty dol-

-A hundred critics in a hundred in fact be a double vault, one side of the opera house Tuesday evening, which will be used entirely for the March 15th, the laugh show of many books of the bank. The other side will seasons, and to give new meaning to be the main vault and will contain ap- the joy of living. No funnier comeproximately one thousand safety de- dians have been seen upon the Amerposit boxes, and the trust department. | ican stage in the delineation of south-From the main lobby an open passage ern negro comedy than these stars, leads right back to the vault and per- not even McIntyre and Heath. And in sons having safety deposit boxes can the organization presented here will go in and get them, take their boxes be seen ten of the funniest end men, to either one of two small rooms to twenty singers, including one of the the right of the rear lobby and clip finest singing choruses ever heard, their coupons then return their box to ten of the greatest dancers, all Metroits proper place. A heavy grill door | politan favorites of the minstrel stage, separates the deposit box section of also new and original acts of minstrel bank's money will be kept and this there is a gorgeous first part, the mudoor closes by gravity and can only be sic being adapted to same. It is one opened by an employee of the bank. of those delightful shows with the The vault itself will be of reinforced heartiest kind of laughter throughconcrete with an inch thick steel vault out, tinkling with melodies and songs inside and an eight ton, burglar proof | that gives one an evening of real en-

-At the last meeting of the Woman's club, it was voted to give twenty-five dollars to the Home Economics department of the High school in recognition of numerous courtesies extended to the club by that department. The money was used to purchase various necessary articles found at the Potter-Hoy store and, when Mr. Potter learned whence the money came and for what purpose it was being used, he added ten dollars to the be 22½ feet in height. The present donation making it thirty-five. With this, the following articles were added to the outfitting of a complete diningroom: Coffee percolator, water pitcher, vinegar and oil cruets, salt and pepper shaker, bread tray, casserole, carving knife and fork, cold meat fork and soup ladle. Soup spoons and salad forks are needed and if any generten. The plot scintillates with tense rectors, with glass panels or windows ous-minded person cares to contribute these, it would add much to the convenience in properly serving a dinner. This department means a small is retained and native Hawaiians in the building will remain as it is, and house keeping outfit and every housetheir songs and dances accompanied a door cut through into the main lob- keeper knows many, many articles are by for use after the main entrance is needed to successfully and convenclosed for the day. The side door on | iently prepare and serve a meal. Bear -On Friday of last week Mrs. High street will also be converted in- this in mind, and give Miss Wagner Catherine Baumgardner, of Pleasant to a window and the window on the and her pupils a surprise shower

Special Notice.

Dr. David B. Rubin, eyesight specialist of Rubin and Rubin, Harris- at the Moose lodge. Some time later burg, will be at the Mott Drug Store, a friend borrowed his car to take a Bellefonte, on Wednesday, March 23. ride out the new state road and at one There is no charge for examining of the sharp curves he failed to make

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Considerable Miscellaneous Business Transacted by Borough Fathers.

Seven members were present at the regular meeting of borough council on Monday evening. Burgess W. Harrison Walker appeared before council and made a report of the deliberations of the Association of Boroughs held in Harrisburg recently, stating that the special law committee had gone over all the bills introduced in the present session of the Legislature affecting the rights and equities of bor- Daggett, at the Bush house. oughs, had approved what in their judgment would be wise legislation and had disapproved all bills which were deemed as merely salary raisers or pernicious in other ways. He also stated that he had been appointed a member of the law committee to pass upon any future bills that may be introduced and if council would sanction his appointment so far as defraying his expenses (if the same are not paid by the association) he would be glad to serve. Council approved the appointment and authorized him to attend the meetings of the committee.

Robert F. Hunter, representing the Bellefonte Business Men's association, Tuesday with her, at Mrs. Stewart's, on appeared before council and stated that at the last meeting of the association that organization went on record as endorsing the opening of north Water street from Rhoads' corner family and commonly known as a down to the present McCalmont & Co. snake lily, which is in the possession office building. The matter was referred to the Street committee. Mr. Hunter further stated that the association had carefully considered Coming from a bulb the dark green the housing situation in Bellefonte, which is very much short of the presat the rate of three and a half inches ent demand, and went on record as favoring the exemption of taxes for a period of three years on any and all tion of new homes during the year pistle being a foot and a half long, 1921, and he had been commissioned heavy and dark. At times the flower to ask the co-operation of council. exudes a most disagreeable odor, The matter was referred to the Fiand as the bloom fades the ornamen- nance committee and borough solicit-

Nelson E. Robb, secretary and treasurer of the Bellefonte Trust company, stated to council that the Trust company expected to begin the three weeks, stopping in Bellefonte on her remodeling of their building on or about April first, and as the work pro- where she had spent the winter. gressed it would mean the blocking of traffic at that corner to a certain excil to exercise that right. Permission was granted according to the law regulating the rights of builders and contractors, and the matter was referred to the Street committee.

Mr. Harris, of the Street committhe borough solicitor the committee recently he took up the matter of the repair of the state road on Allegheny, Linn and Bishop streets, with the State Highway Department and he has had assurance that the Depart- John Harrison's household goods, which ment will bear half the expense of repairs, the borough to bear the other

The Water committee reported the 1920 duplicate and meter bills as aggregating $12,300, and that new meters had been installed at the Garman opera house, Beatty's garage and the silk mill. The Fire and Police committee reported the burgess' checks for $45.00 for licenses collected. The committee also recommended the purchase of 600 feet of new hose, 300 feet for each company, and the recommendation was approved by council.

The Finance committee presented the report of the borough treasurer showing a balance on hand on March first of $416.43. The committee also requested the renewal of notes for $3,000, $2,000 and $1,000; that a note of $700 be increased to $1,000; that one of $12,000 be increased to $18,000, and that a new note for $2,000 be authorized to meet current expenses, all of which were authorized. The committee further reported that they had not approved any of the exonerations requested by the tax collector for the to his last resting place. Of a sudden the reason that on each list presented there are taxes that should have been collected.

The Finance committee presented the auditor's statement for the year 1920 and recommended that a copy of the same be filed and the report printed for distribution, which was ordered done. stated to council that some months about the stopping up of the sanitary sewer at his home on east Linn street and he had examined the same and found that the sewer on the street was the connection from the house to the street, where the pipe was probably ten inches to a foot lower than the pipe at the proper grade and now Mr. done. The matter was referred to the Street committee and borough soliitor to ascertain if Mr. Orvis is legally liable to pay the bill, and if so, to collect same.

Bills to the amount of $7,002.52 were approved for payment, after which council adjourned.

-Last Friday evening a resident of Pleasant Gap drove to Bellefonte in his Overland car to attend the dance 10-2t | morning.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Father Downes returned Wednesday night from Renovo, where he had been assisting in the forty hours' devotion.

-Mrs. P. H. Gherrity, who had been with her daughter, Mrs. James Davis, in Tyrone, for three weeks, returned home Monday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane passed through Bellefonte Saturday on their way to Martha Furnace for a week-end visit with Mrs. Budd Thompson.

-Miss Georgie Daggett, of New York city, has been a guest during the week of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs, Wells L.

-Mrs. Joseph Lose, of Philadelphia, has working at Clearfield. been visiting in Bellefonte, her time while here being spent with her sisters, Mrs. Jacob Gross and the Misses Curry.

-Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Emma Eyre, and her sister, left on Monday for a two week's visit among relatives at Ithaca and Buffalo, -Judge Henry C. Quigley went down to Philadelphia on Sunday where he will be one of the presiding judges in quarter sessions court during the greater part of this month. -Edward Lyon, of Providence, R. I., was the guest for a day this week of his of her frequent visits with her grandmother, Mrs. William Lyon, spending father, Isaac Miller, at the Toll-gate. Linn street.

-Mrs. J. M. Curtin came in from Pittsburgh Saturday, returning home Tuesday. Her short visit to Bellefonte being made to be with her mother, Mrs. George Harris, on her birthday, Monday.

-Arthur L. Sloop, supervising principal of the Bellefonte schools, spent last week in Atlantic City, attending the annual meeting of the department of superintendents of the National Eeducation Association. -C. D. Casebeer spent Friday at his former home in Somerset, going over as has been his custom for a number of years, to be with his mother on her birthday. Mrs. persons who would begin the erec- Casebeer celebrated her eighty-ninth birthday Friday. -Mrs. W. F. Reynolds returned to Bellefonte this week from a three week's visit east, with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoy, of New York, stopping enroute to spend a short part of the time in Philadelphia. -Miss Margaret Cassidy has been the guest of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Cassidy, for the past way home to Canton, Ohio, from Florida,

-W. E. Homan and two little sons, of Oak Hall, were "Watchman" office callers tent, and he asked permission of coun- on Tuesday, having motored over to look after some business matters. The boys, and especially little Blair, were very much interested in watching the typesetting machine at work in this office, though just a little backward in going very close to it.

-C. D. Moore, of State College, or Williamsport, or wherever he just happens to tee, reported that in conjunction with be, was a pleasant caller at the "Watchman" office on Tuesday. His visits in was working on the problem of estab- Bellefonte have not been very frequent of late as his time has been pretty well occupied since returning east from Missouri, where he spent the fall and part of the winter.

-Mrs. Carl Beck, of Canton, Ohio, expects to be in Bellefonte within a short time, coming here from Canton, Ohio, to arrange for the sale of her mother's, Mrs. have been stored since Mrs. Harrison went to live with her daughter several years ago. Ill health prevents Mrs. Harrison's return at this time.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, of Altoona, spent last Sunday visiting with relatives and friends here. While in town they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Love, on Reynolds avenue. Both Frank and his wife are former residents of Bellefonte. As a young man he learned the electrical business here and later became superintendent of the Edison Electric Illuminating company, of this place; a position he filled most satisfactorily until a broader field opened in Altoona where he has been ever since. He is now in the electrical department of the P. R. R. there, but says that at the rate men are being laid off there he doesn't know how long he will have a position at all.

-Frank Wetzler, of Milesburg, was in town Monday and instead of marshalling one of his three or four bands around our streets was calling on his friends and telling good stories. One of them had to do with the retrenchment policy of the Pennsylvania Railroad company which is now in such full swing that thousands and thousands of men are being laid off. In the story Gen. Atterbury, of the Pennsy is supposed to be dead and being carried pall bearers hearing rapping on the casket lid and upon opening it to ascertain the cause the General is found to be reclining peacefully enough, but he asked: "How many pall bearers have you?" Upon being assured that there were the usual number, six, he said: "Lay off two and go on with the funeral."

-Twenty years ago Ernest Kitson was saying farewell to a host of friends in Borough manager J. D. Seibert Bellefonte for he and his little family were Katherine, who was entered as a patient moving away from Bellefonte after a res- at the Orthopedic hospital, the child havago Judge Orvis made complaint idence here that had proven them very de- ing slipped and fallen in the hall of the sirable members of the community. Mr. High school building, breaking her hip; Kitson had been identified with the electric this accident following one of several years installation of the Bellefonte Furnace Co's. ago when the other hip had been broken. properties and afterwards superintendent The unusualness of the case will probably of the local electric lighting plant. His attract all the skill of the cities' foremost all right but that the stoppage was in health failed, however, and he was advised surgeons, giving the child her opportunity to go to England, which he did only to for a recovery. Mr. Gross and Katherine find himself growing worse. He returned were accompanied by Miss Peterman, to the States, got another doctor and was Bellefonte's district nurse. sewer on the street. He relaid the here last Saturday so chirked up as to belie ever having had anything serious the Orvis refuses to pay for the work matter with him. Many changes have been wrought in those twenty years. The lads who moved away from here were not all here yet. There are three of them now. Percy. Arthur and Ernest. All men and all veterans of the war, in fact one of them was in every engagement our armies fought on the other side. He was over thirteen months and fought first with the French. Mr. Kitson is with the Hollister, White & Co., investment bankers of Philadelphia, and in his capacity as a traveling representative we see possible opportunity of seeing more of him.

-Jacob Deitrich, for years a well known farmer of Miles township, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Monday, it being one of his rare trips to Bellefonte, as he acknowledged that he doesn't get over the mountain very often. Of course, he has a nice home in Brush valley and as that is he can't be blamed for sticking pretty close to it.

-Miss Anne Keichline is in Philadelphia on a business trip.

-Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler will return to-day from Atlantic City, where they have been at the Chalfonte for a month or more.

-Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haines, of Akron, Ohio, are spending ten days with Mr. Haines' mother, Mrs. Mary S. Haines, on Curtin street.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sherry left Saturday to see their new grandson, Edmund, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sherry, of Pittsburgh.

-Frank Stevenson is home at Waddle on a sick furlough. Frank is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson and had been -Dr. H. M. Hiller left Tuesday for Key West, Florida, to go from there to Cuba where he will spend several weeks looking after some business interests. -Mrs. Frank McDonald returned to her home in Altoona, Wednesday afternoon, after a two week's visit in Bellefonte, as a guest of Mrs. Frank Bartley. -Mrs. Jerome Harper returned home a week ago from a month's visit with her sisters, Mrs. Seixas, in Philadelphia, and Mrs. James Harris, in Reading. -Miss Katherine Moore returned to her home in Tyrone, Wednesday, after one

-Miss Jane Austin, who had been visiting in Bellefonte as a guest of Miss Elizabeth Eckenroth, returned to her home in Pittsburgh the early part of the week. -Mrs. Clevan Dinges will leave Tuesday for a six week's visit with friends on Riverside Drive, in New York city, stopping for a few days enroute, in Philadelphia. -The Misses Mary and Maude Dreible-bis, of State College, spent yesterday in Bellefonte, driving down in their Buick car, to do some of their buying for the -Mrs. F. G. Weaver, of Strasburg, visited for several days during the past week with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weaver, at their apartment in the Kelley flats. -Hickman Kellerman and son Jack, of

Cresson; Mrs. S. R. McClintic, of Lewistown, and George Symmonds, of Altoona, were in Bellefonte on Tuesday for the funeral of the late Morgan Reynolds. -Clarence Hamilton left to return to New York, Monday, after a visit of two weeks in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Hamilton, and with his sister, Mrs. E. M. Broderick, at State College. -Mrs. Frank Bartley was called to Watsontown yesterday by the illness of her sister, Mrs. John Levan, who is to undergo a slight surgical operation. Mrs. Bartley will remain with her sister for a week or -Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Beatty have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Secrest, of Cleveland, Ohio, who stopped in Bellefonte on their way home from the Bermudas. Mrs. Secrist is a sister of Mrs. Beatty. -Eugene Gray Mattern, who is assisting his mother, Mrs. B. M. Mattern, on their farm near Unionville, was a business visitor in Bellefonte yesterday, spending a part of the day here doing some buying for the farm and transacting their ac -Hardman P. Harris returned Saturday from a week's stay in Harrisburg and Philadelphia, with plans made for leaving this week on a two week's trip to the Bermudas. The health of Thos. Kelley, who has been ill in Philadelphia for the past week, and with whom Mr. Harris is going, will be considered in deciding their date for -Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cromer, who have been spending the winter in Paris, will return to America this month. Mr. Cromer was sent to Europe last fall to look after some interests of the James Stewart Co. with whom he has been associated for a number of years, during which time his work has taken him to all parts of the United States and Canada. Mrs. Cromer, who was Miss Eva Crissman, has accompanied her husband on all his changes of location.

-Daniel L. Poorman, one of the oldtime residents of Runville, was a Bellefonte visitor vesterday and a caller at the "Watchman" office. Traveling from Runvlle these days is not a very easy task with the new state road in such an unfinished condition but the people up in that section are patiently waiting the time of its completion, which will probably not be until the late summer, and then they will be right in the swim, so far as roads are concerned.

-James B. Stein Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. James B. Stein, of Altoona, has been spending a part of the week in Bellefonte visiting with friends of the family and looking after some business interests, which includes the sale of conveying machinery. It is James' first visit to his former home since his over seas experience. Being with the first engineers he had an enviable record on the firing line, but escaped with shell shock and a wound in the shoulder.

-Edward Gross went to Philadelphia Tuesday, taking with him his daughter

-Only a little more than two weeks until Easter.

Sale Register.

MARCH 19th—At the residence of Jared Evey, on the T. E. Jodon farm, near Axe Mann, 5 horses, 25 head of cattle, 55 hogs and farm implements. Sale at 10 o'clock a. m. L. Frank Mayes, Auctioneer.

Wednesday, March 23.—2 bed-room suits, hall rack, book case, a lot of household articles. Sale at 1:30 p. m.—Mrs. Jennie E. Harrison, 237 E. Bishop St., Bellefonte. S. H. Hoy, Auc.

Wednesday, March 23.—At residence of Mrs. T. W. Romick, 314 E. Bishop St., Bellefonte, dining table and chairs, sideboard, Morris chair, stoves and other household articles. Sale at 3 p. m. S. H.

Hoy, Auct.

Monday, March 21.—The sale and exchange at Gelss' livery was a decided success on March 7th. Everything was sold at good prices. Another one will be held on Monday, March 21st. Any person having horses, cows, shoats, apples, potatoes, furniture or other articles to sell is urged to have them there early on that date.

66-10-2t