NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-The Bellefonte Academy closed yesterday for the Easter vacation which will last until April 4th.

-Just think! Only twenty-two more days until trout fishing season opens, and it will be on Friday, too. -The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church of Bellefonte will hold a home-made food sale in Sourbeck's store tomorrow, March 26th. -A family of two, no children, would like to rent three or four furnished rooms, with bath. Communicate with Albert Spengler, Bellefonte. -There are now two cases of smallpox in Bellefonte and unless greater vigilance is maintained in enforcing a strict quarantine the end may be not yet. -Seven thousand bottles of Ja-

a home made still were confiscated in the property. This also brought up the all an opportunity to get a close-up of raids on two houses in Houtzdale on Saturday night.

Bellefonte, were guests for a part of nection with all liens, and collect the the past week of sheriff Harry Duke- money.

is invited. -The ladies of the Reformed church have postponed their bake sale until some time after Easter, owing to the many other sales being held by the women of the different churches this week. For Sale.-Mrs. John A. Woodcock is offering at private sale an exceptionally good Crystal Andes No. 8 range, a Knabe piano, in excellent condition, and furniture that is usable and necessary in all homes. -Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daley, of east Lamb street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Stella M. Daley and Joseph R. Hogentogler, of Harrisburg. Arrangements are being made for a summer wedding.

-Even in the days of slavery you couldn't buy a boy or girl for ten dollars, but it is possible today for you of a child over in Europe. Mail a contribution to W. Harrison Walker, Bellefonte, today.

-Philipsburg has taken the pre- guarded. liminary steps toward the organization of a baseball team for the sum- the fact that after 8:10 p. m. train had Miss Jennie Reifsnyder, though the mer season. Clearfield is already in the field with guaranteed subscrip- o'clock, the lights at the railroad has been for several months. The fire tions totalling $8000 toward the sup- crossing are turned off and that sec- originated in the upper part of the port of a team for the 1921 season.

money, and naturally he or she will go ston and hopes to make some arrange- id headway that nothing could be gotto the place where the best pictures ment whereby the lights will be kept ten out of the second floor of the are shown. That is why the Scenic is on. movie world.

street, in the presence of members of fined. the immediate families of Miss Walker and Mr. Numbers. Following the the renewal of notes for $800, $1500, Pennsylvania Methodist Episcopal ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Numbers will $1200, $5500, $1000, $500 and $2000, conference came to a close in the leave at once for their home in and for the execution of two new church at Newberry on Monday night Charleston, W. Va.

-In a statement to a delegation of Jefferson county citizens on Monday highway commissioner Lewis S. Sadler, said that he favored an "all seasons highway" from Erie to Harrisburg by way of Meadville, Franklin, Clarion, Brookville, DuBois, Clearfield, Bellefonte and Lewistown. Mr. Sadler further stated that the State will back the movement for such a highway.

—The condition of the weather at this writing (Thursday) is not very encouraging for a warm, sunshiny day on Sunday, and naturally every woman in Bellefonte who has her Easter suit in readiness is anxiously wondering if she will get a chance to show it off. Of course, we hope they all will, because that is the day the women generally bloom forth like birds of paradise, and would be grievously disappointed if the day were not favorable for their annual display.

- A local statistician has figured out that there are in the neighborhood of fourteen hundred men in Bellefonte and vicinity who are either out of work or working only about half time, which is a large number for a community such as this. If these figures are anyways near correct farmers should have no trouble in securing all the help needed this spring. Of course, it is just possible that some of the lime industries may pick up ere long, but at this writing there is no indication of it. women, at Ambler, Pa., who was to address the Woman's club at their regular meeting Monday evening, March 28th, was obliged to cancel this enillness of her sister. Miss Peterman, Linn street and asked for instructions. alongside of him. the Red Cross nurse of Bellefonte, Inasmuch as there is a large bill of will take Miss Lee's time, having failed to appear at her date in February. A musical program has been arranged by the committee. Miss Russie Cole the water on until the back taxes are fired the shot, but as they were the pitiful cry of millions of starving and Miss Marion Waite will sing and paid. instrumental music will be furnished | Bills to the amount of $4781.37 at once started on their trail to inves-

Borough Council to Go After Tax Delinquents.

At the regular meeting of borough council on Monday evening secretary W. T. Kelly reported that a contract has been entered into with the Fabric Fire Hose company for 600 feet of new hose at $1.25 per foot, payment to be made four months after receipt of

Mr. Harris, of the Street committee, reported that the State Highway Department has already negotiated for the material for resurfacing Bishop, Allegheny, Linn and north Water streets and it is quite probable they will begin the work at an early date. In this connection he called attention to the fact that the various boxes and ed. coverings of the old Steam Heating company on the street are a nuisance and recommended that in repairing the street they be removed. This recommendation brought up the question the company has not been forfeited borough has against properties in -Landlord Henry Kline, of the town for taxes and it was the unani-Haag hotel, and Walter Krytzer, of mous decision of council to have the New Kensington, but formerly of borough solicitor take action in con-

Mr. Fauble, of the Finance commit--The ladies of the Lutheran tee, called attention to the fact that church at Pleasant Gap will hold a so- there is still in the neighborhood of a cial in the basement of the church this thousand dollars due the borough (Friday) evening. Oysters, ice cream from property owners on the construcand cake will be on sale. The public tion of the state highway on Water street, and that those who have not yet paid simply ignore all demands for the money. The Finance committee was instructed to consult with the borough solicitor and proceed to collect the money.

Mr. Knisely, of the Fire and Police committee, reported the fact that burgess W. Harrison Walker is authority for the statement that more or less stealing of packages from automobiles is being done in Bellefonte, especially on Saturday nights, and sug- of unquestioned financial standing, gested that a plain clothes man be secured to catch the thieves. Several old help will need some twenty-five or her home. members of council expressed the opinion that the present police force silk mill equipped and running to full is ample if the police would exert! themselves to do the work, instead of And, further, that it would be an utter impossibility to place a guard over every automobile to see that nothing is taken therefrom. In fact, it was to give ten dollars and save the life the sentiment of some of the councilmen that shoppers should not place packages in autos or other vehicles Reifsnyder family in Millheim was enand then go away and leave them un-tirely destroyed by fire yesterday

T. Clayton Brown makes it a point to fact that employees of the American The house and contents were, of get the best that's going, and get them Railway Express company persist in course, insured but not sufficiently to before they are "has beens" in the blocking the pavement in front of cover the loss. Word of the fire was their office with their horse and wag- promptly telegraphed to Miss Reif--The Walker-Numbers wedding on and big truck, and the secretary snyder in California. will take place next week at the home was instructed to notify the company of Miss Walker's parents, Mr. and that the practice must be stopped or Mrs. W. Miles Walker, on east Linn the offenders will be arrested and council to the fact that the Joe Baney Invitations were received from Berfamily, on Logan street, are not keep- wick and Tyrone and the latter place ing in strict quarantine, the children was selected because it would afford being permitted to go out and play all the ministers in the conference an around, and the result is that Mrs. opportunity to visit the home for aged Wilbur Saxion, who lives in one side women now in operation at that place. of the house occupied by the Baney's Quite a number of changes were has also contracted smallpox and the made in the assignment of ministers, house was quarantined on Monday. but the Bellefonte church was not af-To prevent the spread of the disease fected, Rev. Alexander Scott being rehe advocated placing a guard on the turned here at the request of the conhouse to make sure that the quaran- gregation. New appointments in Centine is rigidly observed. Council tre county include Port Matilda, W. H. sanctioned Mr. Harris' suggestion and Upham; Snow Shoe, J. M. Stevens; decided to get in immediate touch Philipsburg, R. S. Oyler, and Pine with the local board of health and Grove Mills, J. S. Hammac, Rev. I. E. take the utmost precaution to prevent Fisher being transferred to Clearville, the spread of the disease.

The Finance committee asked for notes for $1500 and $1200 respectively with the announcement of the yearly to meet current bills, all of which appointments. Among the eleventh were authorized.

Now that the state road on Bishop, Spring and Pine streets has been completed the Street committee, borough manager and borough solicitor were instructed to get in conference promptly collected. -Elizabeth Leighton Lee, directions to give delinquents due notice John Peterson felt a stinging sensator of the school of horticulture for and if the taxes are not then paid to tion in his right arm. An examina-> ed the same to be done. water taxes against said property truck pulled out, going towards Tylong overdue and unpaid council in- rone. Of course, there is no certainty Is it possible that our prosperous structed borough manager not to turn that any of the men with the truck folks have turned a deaf ear to the

by Mrs. Heilhecker and Mrs. Hess. | were approved for payment.

-Surrounded as you are by happy, laughing children, pink cheeked and well clad, living in Centre county where God has lavished his gifts so generously, can you picture the suffering and abject misery of the starving millions of little ones in Europe? Can you resist their appeal for life? Ten dollars will save a child.

The general store of Charles E. Woodring, of Port Matilda, was burglarized on Wednesday night of last week and goods amounting to fifty dollars or over were taken. One arrest was made but insufficient evidence was produced at a hearing bethis place, and the man was discharg-

-The students of The Pennsylvania State College have sent invitations to the editors and publishers of the newspapers of the State to be their as to whether or not the franchise of guests at the College on May 6th and 7th. It is to be merely a social gathby the company through its failure to ering, no shop or trade talks. The supply service to the public, and also fraternity is invited to the College for maica ginger, ten cases of wine and the question of borough taxes against a good time and, incidentally, to give question of the various tax liens the the State's big institution of higher education.

> -The "Watchman" last week announced the resignation of Matthew Rogers Jr., as cashier of the First Nationl bank of Howard to accept a similar position in Philadelphia. Mr. Willard Kline McDowell, who has been a clerk in the bank, has been selected to succeed Mr. Rogers as cashier and Winfield Thompson has been selected as clerk by the board of trustees. Mr. Howard, and his selection by the board | April. of directors shows wise judgment on their part.

Bellefonte Shirt Factory to Resume.

S. D. Ray, proprietor of the Bellefonte shirt factory, expects to start work there on or about the first of April. He has secured an unlimited contract with a large New York firm thirty additional operators. With the capacity, the Pennsylvania Match factory in full operation and the shirt standing in one place all the time. factory about ready to resume every girl in this section willing to work ought to be able to get employment.

Fire in Millheim.

The handsome brick residence of the morning. The house was occupied by Mr. Knisely also called attention to Joseph H. Reifsnyder and family and gone out of Bellefonte, or about 8:30 latter is now in California where she tion of the town is without light. Mr. building, but just how cannot be def-Every movie picture fan wants Harris stated that he is now in com- initely told. It was first discovered to see the best pictures he can for his munication with Superintendent John- about nine o'clock and made such rapbuilding, though practically all the such a popular movie show. Manager Mr. Knisely further reported the first floor furnishings were saved.

Methodist Conference to Meet in Tyrone Next Year.

The annual sessions of the Central hour business transacted was select-Mr. Harris called the attention of ing a place for meeting next year.

Bedford county.

Motorist Shot in Arm.

with the State Highway Department John Peterson, all of Shirleysburg, and make up the schedule of amounts Huntingdon county, were in Bellefonte due from property owners along the attending to some business relative to road, so that the money can be the purchase of a farm in Centre county. They made the trip in Don Mr. Cunningham, of the water com- Peterson's automobile and on their rewater tax duplicate and that the debtor Alfaratta. There were five or six men property owners simply ignore all de- with the truck and just after the aumended that the list be turned over to port which they thought was a tire March 28th. the borough manager with instruc- blowout, but almost simultaneously turn off the water. Council authoriz- tion disclosed the fact that he had been shot, the bullet passing through The borough manager reported that the fleshy part of his arm, through he had received a request to turn the his clothing and through the outer gagement on account of the serious water on at the Lane house on east garments of his wife, who was sitting

> Almost at the same time the big only persons in that vicinity, officers

Some Additional Movings.

Miss Mollie Musser will go from the Stickler home on Bishop street to the Jared Harper home on west High street; Mr. and Mrs. Weaver vacating that house to take the one now occupied by Charles Larimer and his family. The Larimers will go into the Harper house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Eben Bower, who will take possession of their new home on Howard street, which the Willard Barnhart family are leaving; the Barnharts will go to the home on Pine street, vacated by Mrs. Morris Furey. Mrs. Furey will go to east Bishop street, to the house now occupied by fore 'Squire S. Kline Woodring, in Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Romick, who will take possession of their new home recently purchased from Mrs. John Harrison, a few doors away from their present home. The Roy Witmer family, now occupying the Romick house, will go to the Holz apartments, made vacant by Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Walker who will move to their new home on Linn street.

The Joseph Wolfe family will go from the Rhoads property on Lamb street to their own home, recently purchased from F. H. Thomas, on the same street.

Mrs. Hines and her family, who vacate the Wolfe house, will go to Linn street to occupy the property from which George Furey and his family will move.

The Fureys will go to their own home on the extreme end of east Linn for six weeks with her grandfather, A. G. street, known as the Wetzel house, but purchased from Jared Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Beatty, now occupying the Wetzel house, have McDowell, the new cashier, is a son of leased the Episcopal rectory, expect-Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. McDowell, of ing to take possession the first of

Dr. Irwin and his family, who leave the rectory, will go to their own home on Spring street, purchased from Miss Anna Hoy. Joseph Nolan and his family will move from the Schad property on Spring street to east High street.

Mrs. Julia Connelly, also leaving the Schad property on Spring street, is shipping her furniture to Pittsburgh, and in addition to employing all his in anticipation of making that place

> The W. D. Zerby family, leaving the Shoemaker home on north Allegheny street, will go to Linn street to the Lane house, now being put in a condition for them to occupy.

> Mrs. Hugh Taylor, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Zerby, will leave at the same time, returning to her apartments on High street.

Mrs. Showers, who sold her home on her new home on Logan street, the Taylors taking possession of their home at once.

Betty Stevenson Badly Injured.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stevenson, of Waddle, have received word from San Antonio, Texas, of the serious injury of their daughter, Miss Betty, a nurse in the government hospital fonte Sunday, from a three week's visit there, on Tuesday evening of last with her daughter, Mrs. Wilkins, in Washweek. Miss Stevenson in company ington and with friends in Lewistown. with a soldier from the government fort, were out horseback riding and present at the inauguration. just as they were in the act of passing a touring car a big truck also attempted to pass the car and ran into the two riders. Miss Stevenson was thrown from her horse onto the motor of the truck and from there tumbled into a stream of water along the roadway. Her companion suffered a broken arm and the two horses, which were among the best polo horses at the bus. Miss Slack said yesterday was the fort, were so badly injured they had to be killed. While Miss Stevenson sustained no broken bones, her right arm and right side are quite badly injured, but just how seriously, cannot yet be definitely told. Miss Betty and her sister, Miss Sara, have been at San Antonio only a comparatively short time, having been | Monday. transferred there from San Francisco. They were under orders to leave but Miss Betty's injury will delay their deprature indefinitely.

Harvey's Greater Minstrels. Having been trained and tested in newspaper and circus business it is not strange that R. M. Harvey, the founder of the Harvey Greater Minstrels, should be successful in the collecting of an unusual array of minstrel and vaudeville acts for his company of fifty people. Bold and yet cautiously scrutinizing, ready to take a chance on a big salary and yet cer-Last Thursday morning Mr. and tain to know what he is doing, this Mrs. Don Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. minstrel magnate seems able to retain the same when they have become members of his company. The Australian Waites, without a doubt the world's most daring and wonderful Ard before her marriage being Miss Helen whip crackers, were long associated J. Dreese. with Mr. Harvey in the circus field mittee, reported that there is still a turn trip they passed a big truck and appreciating their unusual merit considerable amount due on the 1919 standing alongside of the road near and the superior novelty of their act in his younger days a resident of Belle be featured with his minstrel compamands for the money and he recom- toists passed them they heard a re- ny. At the Garman theatre Monday,

Real Estate Deals.

R. B. Taylor recently purchased the brick house on Spring street from Bertha L. Showers, and will move into same on or about the first of April.

-Less than one per cent. of the people of Centre county have responded to the appeal for European relief. children in Europe? When a life can them die?

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Robert Gherrity went to Tyrone Sunday to accept a position in the garage of his brother-in-law, James Davis.

-John S. Walker and Frank Crawford will go to Scranton the early part of the week to serve as jurors in District court. -Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Capers are entertaining Dr. Caper's brother, W. K. Capers, a law student at the University of Pittsburgh.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Willard Hall, of Harrisburg, will spend Easter in Bellefonte with Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Spigelmyer.

-Harper Rice and his sister, Mrs. Jane Campbell, went to Center Line this week, called there by the illness of their sister, Mrs. Samuel Cupp.

-Miss Margaret Carnahan, of Oakmont, Pa., is in Bellefonte spending the Easter season with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Forest L. Bullock. -Miss May Turner, for a number of left there to accept a position in one of the leading hotels at Atlantic City. -Mrs. James Johnson, of Lansdowne, has been a guest for a part of the week of Miss Louise McMullen and her brother Lawrence, at their home at Hecla. -Col. Emanuel Noll returned home the latter part of last week from a five week's visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs.

Chauncey F. York, at Detroit, Mich. -Mrs. Max Miller was in Bellefonte last Friday, coming here from Washington for Mr. Miller's Nash car. Russell Lambert drove to Washington with Mrs. Miller. -Miss Elizabeth Morris returned Wed nesday from the south, where she had been

Morris, and her aunt, Miss Lida Morris. -Miss Annie Pearl has been spending the week in New York, attending the showings of imported gowns now on display at the exclusive houses, for the Easter trade. -Miss Margaret Rodenbush, who is a gues of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Fetterhoff, came here from Johnstown a week ago, expecting to be in Bellefonte for an indefi-

-Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes came here yesterday from Atlantic City and entered the hispital, intending to remain there while arranging to re-establish her home in Bellefonte.

-Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy Jr. was in

Altoona the early part of the week, going over for the funeral of Michael Laughrey, who died at his home in Germantown Thursday of last week. -Mrs. Carrie E. Mosher, who has been in Bellefonte the past two months, visiting with her brother and his wife, Mr .and Mrs. J. S. McCargar, left Saturday to return to her home in Genoa, N. Y. -The Misses Loreen Struble and Emma Hart, of Connellsville, Pa., spent the weekend in Bellefonte, as guests of Miss Frances Willard, at the home of her parents

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Willard, on Thomas street. The Misses Ada and Mary Taylor, of Spring street to R. B. Taylor, went to | Hartford, Conn., and Miss Mary Curtin, of Philadelphia, have all been in Bellefonie this week, looking after some business interests pertaining to the Dr. Roland Cur-

-Mrs. John Ardell, who had been at Curtin for three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Harry H. Curtin, left Saturday for the western part of the State, where she will spend some time with her sister, Mrs.

D. W. Stinson, of Donora. -Mrs. Nancy Miller returned to Belle-Mrs. Miller went east at this time to be

-Mrs. Asher Adams, of Sunbury, was in Bellefonte between trains Monday, for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Sheffler, who is now dividing her time between her son, John C. Sheffler, at State College, and her daughter, Mrs. Sasserman, of Bellefonte.

-Miss Elizabeth Slack, of Potters Mills, was a business visitor to Bellefonte yesterday, making the trip over the mountain in moving day in their locality, seven farms having changed hands within a radius of

-Dorothy and Richard Fox, who make their home with their grandmother, Mrs. Henry Haupt, of south Allegheny street, will go to Lock Haven this week to spend Easter with their father, LeRoy Fox, and his son George, returning to Bellefonte on

-Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haines, who have peen in Bellefonte for the past two weeks in the near future for the Philippines visiting with Mr. Haines' mother, Mrs. Martin Haines, went to Clearfield Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Haines, to be Easter guests of Mrs. J. J. Black. From Clearfield Mr. and Mrs. Haines will return to their home at Hastings-on-the-Hudson. -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Musser left Wednesday for Philadelphia, where Mrs. Musser entered the Jefferson hospital as a surgical patient for the removal of a cataract from one eye. Mr. Musser will remain in the city until after the operation. During their absence their home on the farm near town, will be in charge of Mrs. Geary, of State College.

-I J. Dreese and daughter Miriam, of Lemont, were among the Centre countians who attended the performanc of "Chu Chin Chow" at the Mishler theatre, Altoona, on Tuesday evening, both continuing their journey the next day to St. Louis, Mo., where they will be guests over Easter of Major and Mrs. George P. Ard; Mrs.

-Among the "Watchman" office callers last Friday was C. T. Ray, of Altoona, but he did not hesitate to engage them to fonte. While he has lived long enough in the Mountain city to become thoroughly identified with that city's daily life he has not lost interest in the people or doings of his native county and in order to keep fully informed as to what is going on here he ordered the "Watchman" sent to him regularly at his Altoona home.

-Mrs. G. O. Benner, of Centre Hall, passed through Bellefonte Wednesday on her way to the home of her brother, John B. Miles, at Julian, to assist in the preparation for his public sale today. In addition to selling off his farm stock and implements the old home farm will also be sold, if the right kind of a bid can be obtained, as Mr. Miles is retiring on account of his health and is considering going to California. From Julian Mrs. Benner will go to Altoona next week to attend the annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Misbe saved for ten dollars, dare we let sionary society, of Huntingdon Presby-

-Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetzler, and Mr .and Mrs. Malcolm Wetzler, of Milesburg, were all guests at the St. Patrick day banquet given by the Mystic Shriners in Altoona, last week. -Mrs. Hiram Hiller is spending the week in Philadelphia, having gone east Monday, to accompany her two daughters to Bellefonte Saturday. The girls, who are students at the Shipley school at Bryn Mawr, are coming home for their Easter vacation. Dr. Hiller will join his family in Philadelphia and return with them to Bellefonte.

Will Meet in Altoona.

The forty-seventh annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Huntingdon Presbytery will be held in the Second Presbyterian church, Altoona, Wednesday and Thursday, March 30th and 31st, 1921. The meeting will begin at 2:30 o'clock years head waitress at the Bush house, has on Wednesday. After the close of the meeting on Wednesday afternoon a reception will be given to the Presbyterial officers and speakers, followed by a supper for all the delegates at the > church. Mrs. John Y. Boyd, of Harrisburg, will have charge of all the devotional services. Among the speakers will be Rev. W. O. Elterich, Ph. D., of China, and Mrs. J. P. Cochran, of Persia. A strong program has been prepared for every session.

Lyon Meat Market Sold.

After being under one management for more than forty-four years the well known Lyon meat market, on Allegheny street, will pass into other hands on April first. The place has been sold by Jacob Lyon to Henry Kline who will put Barney Bilger in charge. The late W. A. Lyon came to Bellefonte in 1876 and took charge of the meat market of his uncle, and he conducted the same until his death several years ago, since which time it has been under the management of Jacob Lyon. The latter, however, has considerable property interests in Danville and his main object in disposing of the meat market was to enable him to go to Danville and give his personal attention to his interests there.

Gates-Rossman.-LeRoy Gates, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Gates, and Miss Teressa Rossman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Rossman, both of Tyrone, were married at the First Lutheran church in Harrisburg on Tuesday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. C. C. Haeors. They are now on a brief wedding trip to eastern cities and upon their return will locate on the bridegroom's dairy farm in the Warriorsmark valley. The Gates family are originally from Centre county and have many relatives in the county who will be interested in the above wedding notice.

-Benjamin Franklin Houseman, of Altoona, who was retired by the Pennsylvania Railroad company on March 1st, enjoyed the distinction of never having been suspended nor reprimanded by the company in the forty-two years he was in its employ as a carpenter. Mr. Houseman was born at State College and was sixty-nine years old last November. Forty years ago he was married to Miss Margaret Weeks, at Pine Grove Mills, and their family includes four children.

-The annual Easter donation contributed by the public schools of Bellefonte yesterday for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital was the largest ever made. The donation included many dozen eggs, hundreds of cans of canned fruit, crocks of applebutter, bushels of apples and potatoes, cabbage, groceries, etc. In fact when it was all gotten together it made a big truck load of everything needful at the hospital.

-A carload of fifty-one prisoners arrived at the western penitentiary at Rockview on Tuesday from Pittsburgh; and that recalls the fact that at the present time there is the largest number of prisoners in the western penitentiary ever recorded, the total number being upwords of seventeen hundred.

New Milk Route to Open.

The Western Maryland Dairy wishes to announce that Harold Fisher, of Unionville, Pa., will start a milk route on April 1st, 1921, beginning two miles west of Julian and picking up the milk of any one who wishes to send to the Western Maryland Dairy at Bellefonte. For further particulars 12-1t see Harold Fisher.

-13 pieces of Aluminum ware, guaranteed for 20 years, given away free to every purchaser of one of our Dutch Kitchen Cabinets. Offer good until March 31st only. Easy payment if desired.—Cohen and Co. 12-1t

-Apartments for rent, 19 west Bishop street.

-Three cases of scarlet fever have developed on Bishop street.

-First quality fishing boots, $6.95 pair.—Cohen & Co.

Sale Register.

MARCH 29th.—At the residence of W. M. Cronister, at Martha Furnace, Pa., horses, cattle, farm implements, household furniture and many other articles. This is a real "clean-up" sale. Sale begins at 10 o'clock, G. H. Bell, Auctioneer.

eer.

TUESDAY, APRIL 5.—The sale and exchange at Geiss' livery was a decided success on March 21st. Everything was sold at good prices. Another one will be held on Tuesday, April 5th. Any person having horses, cows, shoats, apples, potatoes, furniture or other articles to sell is urged to have them there early on that date.