Why Does Every Woman Have to Battle Against Love?

Why does every woman have to feel the straining power of seduction through love in one form or another—the hot, ALLURING BREATHS OF DECEITS?

This thing has been, from the beginning of history, through all the ages. Man's most beautiful dream, most sought after, most desired, HAS BEEN WOMAN. And through all these ages it was more through passion than the better desires.

Even the saints of past history fought bloody battles; worked, dreamed, struggled through their love for women—not satisfied with one or two or three. These almighty men demanded hundreds—every variety of beauty, dainty little girls in their 'teens; blondes from the Northlands; strange, slant-eyed brunettes from the Southlands. Mighty wars, broken nations, WRECKED CIVILIZATIONS OVER THE HELENS-OF-TROY. And Cleopatras.

Doesn't the same battle go on today, though changed and modified? Is not every girl still pursued? Why? What is THIS GREAT MYSTERY OF LOVE?

There is the greatest revelation of a woman's soul and a woman's temptation in a tremendous play that is shaking the world; the greatest UNCOVERING OF A WOMAN'S INNER SOUL ever given. If you know, then you know all love and all temptation, joy and sorrow. You will know the DIFFERENCE between the alluring passion of deceit and promiscuous love that leads to bitter ashes and the great all-enfolding SOUL LOVE that looks through the body and finds the great WOMAN-HEART; the love that every woman wants, with peace and passionate purity, leading on and up into the great happiness, with the masterful, overwhelming, all-centered love of the great ONE MAN for the ONE WOMAN—ONLY.

To learn the lesson of ALL LOVE you must see "WAY DOWN EAST" and WOMAN and ALL WOMEN, and the story of Anna Moore in this play. And of David, the farmer boy, greatest of all lovers. And Sanderson, with the old polygamist idea of deceit, and shame for those women who fall in his clutches.

"In 'Way Down East' Mr. Griffith has pictured a plain human story of love and life that will go thundering down the ages BECAUSE IT IS SO HUMAN."—Boston Traveler.

"The patrons shrieked and roared. It is enough to raise the hair on a man's head and raise the man out of his seat."—New York Herald.

You cannot afford to miss it. Go to see "WAY DOWN EAST." It will be shown every afternoon and every night at the Garman Opera House, Monday and Tuesday, April 18th and 19th.

Prices, Matinees, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Nights, 50c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00. Seats on sale Thursday, April 14th, at Mott Drug Co.
