Miscellaneous Business Transacted by Borough Council.

Eight members were present at the regular meeting of borough council on Monday evening. A written communication was received from chief fire marshal John J. Bower calling attention to the fact that all the fireplugs in Bellefonte should be thoroughly tested to see that they are in good working order.

The street committee reported various repairs made and $6.00 collected for manure sold. The water committee reported several water connections made, the collection of $225.66 on the 1919 water duplicate, turning the water on at the Lane property on Linn street after the payment of $30.00 back taxes, and the payment by the G. F. Musser Co. of $750 for rent of Phoenix mill property for the year 1920.

The fire and police committee reported four fires within the past two weeks. The finance committee presented the report of the borough treasurer showing a balance in the treasury on May first of $2624.42. He also requested the renewal of a note for $3,400, which was authorized.

Mr. Cunningham reported that the State-Centre Electric company bill for pumping water for the month of April is $278.00. Mr. Brouse stated that something ought to be done to drain the pavement in front of the Lauderbach-Zerby Co. building, as every time it rains water accumulates there to the depth of an inch. Referred to borough manager.

Mr. Flack reported that the floor in the Undine building on Bishop street is worn out and recommended that the borough put down a concrete floor. On motion the Fire and Police committee was empowered to secure bids for the work.

Mr. Cunningham presented the request of G. Fred Musser that council rescind the resolution making the rent of the Phoenix mill property $1,000 a year dating from March 1st, 1921. Mr. Cunningham stated that the water committee did not recommend the reduction, that he merely presented the request of Mr. Musser. Mr. Fauble, chairman of the Finance committee, stated that he was opposed to making any reduction in the rent asked, as he considered it very reasonable for the property. He also made a motion that the borough solicitors be instructed to prepare a lease with the G. F. Musser Co. for the rental of the property for a period of five years from March 1st, 1921, at an annual rental of $1,000, payable quarterly, and the motion passed.

Mr. Harris called attention to the fact that a movement had again been started for the opening of north Water street from the McCalmont & Co. office building to a point about opposite west Curtin street. He stated that John McCoy and G. R. Gamble had offered to give the land free and Mr. Morris, of the American Lime & Stone company, had offered to do the filling necessary. President Walker suggested that the first thing to be done would be to secure all such offers in writing so that council would know just where they stood before any definite action was taken.

Fire marshal John J. Bower made his appearance at this juncture and asked council to install the switch connecting the fire alarm direct with the Commercial telephone exchange. The switch in question was purchased some time ago but never installed. The matter was referred to the Fire and Police committee with power. Bills to the amount of $1026.55 were approved and council adjourned.

Express Appreciation. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nolan wish to publicly express their deepfelt thanks to all who assisted them in removing their household goods from their burning home last Wednesday. Much furniture would have been destroyed had it not been for the splendid work of neighbors, who removed everything in an orderly way.

BECK.—Isaac Beck, a lifelong resident of Halfmoon township, passed away at his home at Centre Line at ten o'clock last Thursday morning following five month's illness with stomach trouble.

He was a son of Daniel and Elizabeth Cryder Beck and was born on the farm at Centre Line, almost within a stone's throw of where he spent his entire life, on October 8th, 1835, hence was 85 years, 6 months and 20 days old. As a boy he attended the public schools and helped with the work on his father's farm and when he grew to manhood he naturally stuck to the farm, with the result that he became one of the most successful farmers in that section of the county. He was a charter member of Halfmoon Grange and always an ardent supporter of the organization. He was a lifelong member of the Centre Line Lutheran church, one of its staunchest supporters, and had at various times filled every lay office in the church.

On October 20th, 1859, he was united in marriage to Miss Barbara Rider, of Gatesburg, who passed away on April 16th, 1905. Five years later he married Miss Rachael Wright, of Adams county, who died in April, 1915, but surviving him are the following children by his first marriage; Elmer E. Beck, superintendent of farms at the Huntingdon reformatory; Mrs. Mary E. Corle, of Philadelphia; Dr. W. F. Beck, of Altoona, and Daniel J. Beck, on the home farm. He also leaves one brother, Isaiah Beck, of Centre Line.

Funeral services were held in the Centre Line Lutheran church last Saturday afternoon, after which the remains were laid to rest in the church cemetery.

KREBS.—The very sudden death of J. Calvin Krebs, at his home at Pine Hall on Monday evening, was quite a shock to his many friends. Mr. Krebs was caretaker of the Pine Hall cemetery and had just returned home from his day's work. Mr. W. K. Corl met him at the entrance to his home and they talked a few minutes about some church matters then he started for the house and on the way dropped dead from heart failure.

Decceased was a son of Daniel and Rachael Royer Krebs and was born near Pine Hall fifty-two years ago. All his life was spent in that vicinity. For a number of years past he had been janitor of both the Lutheran and Reformed churches at that place as well as caretaker of the Pine Hall cemetery. He was a member of the Lutheran church from boyhood and an upright, conscientious citizen. He was also a member of Washington Camp Sons of Veterans, of State College.

In the spring of 1896 he was united in marriage to Miss Ella Brown who survives with three children, Mrs. George Saul, of State College; Luther and Charles at home. He also leaves four sisters, Mrs. B. Corl Bloom, of Wadley; Mrs. George Hoy, of Pine Hall; Misses Emma and Anna Krebs, of State College.

Funeral services were held in the Pine Hall Lutheran church at ten o'clock yesterday morning by Rev. A. M. Lutton, after which burial was made in the Pine Hall cemetery.

BOAL.—Mrs. Rebecca Boal, wife of Peter Boal, died at her home near Colyer last Saturday following an illness of some weeks with a complication of ailments. Her maiden name was Rebecca Bubb and she was born in Potter township about eighty years ago. All her life was spent in that section of the county. Surviving her are her aged husband and the following children: George Boal, of Potters Mills; John, of Huntingdon; Eugene, in St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Thomas Boal, of Houserville. Rev. Maneval, of the Evangelical church had charge of the funeral, which was held at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning, burial being made in the Zion Hill cemetery, near Tusseyville.

PARKER.—Mrs. Annie Parker, wife of Joseph Parker, died at her home at Centre Hall on Tuesday night following a prolonged illness with sarcoma of the liver. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Confer and was born about sixty years ago. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Blystone, of Potters Mills; Mrs. Colhol, of Altoona; Mrs. Samuel Bethlum, of Thompsonstown; Mrs. Harry Truckenmiller, of Lewistown; Harry, of Lewisburg; William, at home; James and Frank in the west. Burial will be made in the Sprucetown cemetery tomorrow.

HARTMAN.—Mrs. Ida Hartman, wife of W. M. Hartman, died at her home in Williamsport on Monday after a brief illness with pneumonia, aged 57 years. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, and spent most of her life in that place. In addition to her husband she is survived by a daughter and a son, Minnie and Reuben. She also leaves three brothers and a sister, Charles R. Brown, of Millheim; Ellery O., of Akron, Ohio; Edward, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Annie Neff, of Mingoville. Burial will be made at Mingoville this (Friday) afternoon.

HARTER.—George Harter died at his home at Centre Hall on Tuesday morning of general infirmities, aged 77 years. He was a miller by trade but has lived a retired life for some years. Surviving him is one son, Ephraim, at home; also one brother, Jacob, of Aronsburg. Rev. Drumm officiated at the funeral which was held yesterday, burial being made at Tusseyville.

A Clarence Version of the Martin Case

Since the North American published the pitiful appeal of the starving condition of Mrs. John T. Martin and family, living at Clarence, people all over the State have gone into hysteria and have gone the limit in heaping censure on people of Clarence, and money and provisions on the Martin family, without making any investigation whatever.

The truth of the matter is the people of Clarence know that the Martin family's condition was nothing like the North American represented.

The Martin boys had been out of work less than six weeks and records at the brick works in Clarence, where these boys worked the past eleven months, show their combined wage to average monthly $222.24 for the whole eleven months prior to the suspension of two months ago. Totalling almost $2500. Think of it! In less than a year, all spent and starving while other families on half the wage had laid by a nice account for the rainy day.

It is really very unfortunate that American people respond so readily to a story like the one published in the North American, without asking why or wherefore; and rush in to feed where plenty has been wasted. And yet these people really not yet in want get six hundred dollars to place in bank and groceries to last at least six months, to say nothing of the clothing bestowed when the whole Martin family were better dressed than the average family in Clarence.

The deplorable part of it is there are so many deserving poor whose condition is far worse than that of the Martin family, and no one bothers to give them a thought.

It is time and high time that the real American people look about them in these days when Bolshevism and radicalism are stalking broadcast before they rush in where angels fear to tread.

Now some one goes so far as to comment on Mrs. Martin's turning good samaritan. With six hundred dollars in bank and every nook and corner of her house filled with provisions until she has scarcely room for herself and children and no place to put any more, she turns away a truck load of provisions because there is no place to put it; consequently it is divided among two or three needy families and Mrs. Martin is a good samaritan.

Damage Done by Forest Fires in Centre County.

Three forest fires started at about the same time last week in the Curtin division of the Penn forest district. In his report to the Pennsylvania Department of Forestry, district forester Bartschat said the fires were in Pine Swamp and in Poc valley, south of Zerby water tank, in Centre county. Because of the very dry condition of the forest, and the wind which had raged, the two fires burned over 200 acres and 600 acres respectively before they were under control.

Forest rangers L. P. Smith and W. F. McKinney, fire warden Musser, of Millheim, and constable W. E. Smith, of Spring Mills, and a crew of more than one hundred men fought the flames for several hours. Forester Bartschat estimates the damage of the Poe mountain fire at $3,000. A great deal heavier loss was suffered in the Pine Swamp fire, where about 150 acres of the finest forest plantations in Centre county were destroyed.

Noted Overseas Worker to Spend Week in Bucks County.

Following was taken from the Doylestown Democrat of April 28th. Miss Rhoads left Bellefonte Tuesday.

"Miss Rebecca Naomi Rhoads, of Bellefonte, Pa., an overseas worker in the Y. M. C. A., and a fine speaker, will spend a week in the county giving talks under the auspices of local Women's Christian Temperance Unions.

"Thursday night, May 5, she will speak in the Newton school auditorium; Friday afternoon, May 6, in Richboro school; Friday night, May 6, Baptist chapel, Southampton; Sunday morning, May 8, Doylestown; Tuesday evening, May 8, Riegelsville; Tuesday afternoon, May 10, Langhorne; Tuesday evening, May 10, Bristol; Wednesday afternoon, May 11, Trevese; Wednesday evening, May 11, Fallsington.

—Just at this time about everybody in Bellefonte is interested in the Bellefonte firemen, and one way in which you can show this interest is by patronizing the Bellefonte Academy minstrels, which will be given this year as a benefit for the firemen. It is hardly necessary to say much about the minstrels. They have proven themselves year after year to Bellefonte audiences and there is every assurance that they will be better this year than ever before. But if you are approached to buy a ticket by any of the firemen do so. It will not only help them but encourage them in their hazardous work.

Boy Killed by Automobile.

Melvin Straw, second son of W. N. Straw, of Harrisburg, was struck by an automobile while on his way to market on Saturday morning and so badly injured that he died shortly after being taken to the hospital. He was twelve years old and is survived by his father, two brothers and a sister; also his step-mother, who before her marriage was Miss Lulu Rine, of Bellefonte. The family formerly lived at Bellwood, but moved to Harrisburg about a year ago. Burial was made at Bellwood on Wednesday morning.

—When in doubt as to your paper take the "Watchman."

Seven Keys to Baldpate.

The Penn State players will present "Seven Keys to Baldpate" at the Garman opera house next Thursday evening, May 12th. While the play was enjoying a successful run at the Astor theatre, New York, in 1914, Walter Prichard Eaton expressed his opinion as follows in an article contributed to the American Magazine:

"One of the best of the native offerings, perhaps, is a dramatization made by G. M. Cohen of Earl Derr Bigger's rollicking novel, "Seven Keys to Baldpate." Mr. Cohen calls it a 'mystery farce,' which is a good name for a new thing—or almost a new thing. Think of being able to create something new in the theatre! Those who have read the story will recall that it tells the adventures of one Billie Magee, a writer of melodramatic best-sellers, who goes up to a deserted summer hotel (Baldpate Inn) in the depth of winter to secure the quiet needed to write a really serious and worthy book. No sooner has he arrived, however, thinking that he has the only key to the inn, when a second key turns in the lock, and before long Billie finds himself involved in about the most fantastically melodramatic story ever imagined, which makes his own best-sellers look tame and realistic. There can be no question of the rare skill of his (Mr. Cohen's) melodrama, which at the same time is farce during the bulk of the play.

The play is exciting and it is funny; it is like a detective story and like a mad romp at the same time. Moreover, the setting and atmosphere are very elusive—the bare rotunda of a deserted summer hotel, the howl of the winter storm outside, the feeling of damp chill and dark, mysterious rooms lying above and on every side."

Such words of praise coming from one of our foremost dramatic critics can signify only one thing—that the play is well worth seeing.

It has often been said that the public likes nothing better than to be fooled. If that is true then "Seven Keys to Baldpate" will find instant favor with its Bellefonte audience. Those who have never seen this production have in store an evening of thrills and surprises which will send them home after the final curtain in a very happy frame of mind, while those who were fortunate enough to see the play as Mr. Cohen staged it eight years ago will no doubt be delighted with the faithful reproduction to be presented by the Penn State players on May 12th. Tickets may be obtained at Mott Drug Co. Monday, 9 a. m., at popular prices.

Daughenbaugh — Shope. — Clyde Daughenbaugh and Miss Laurena C. Shope, both of Port Matilda, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whippo, in Altoona, on Wednesday last week, by Rev. Robert J. Allen, pastor of the Juniata Methodist church. The young couple were attended by H. L. Shope and Mrs. W. H. Whippo, brother and sister of the bride. Following an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Daughenbaugh will take up their residence at Port Matilda where the bridegroom is telegraph operator on the Pennsylvania railroad.

Tyson—Heverly.—Walter G. Tyson, of State College, and Miss Janet Heverly, of Milesburg, were married at the Reformed parsonage, Boalsburg, on Wednesday of last week, by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover. Both Mr. and Mrs. Tyson are well known in their home communities and have many friends who wish them a happy and prosperous married life. The young couple will make their home at State College.

Ocker—Bierly.—John C. Ocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Ocker, of Bellefonte, but formerly of Rebersburg, and Miss Hilda Pauline Bierly, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bierly, of Rebersburg, were married at the Evangelical parsonage in Madisonburg last Saturday evening by the pastor, Rev. H. P. Maneval.

Marriage Licenses.

Walter G. Tyson, State College, Janet Heverly, Milesburg.

George E. Keen and Maude S. Wert, Millheim.

Howard D. Callahan, Linden Hall, and Verna A. Franz, Centre Hall.

John C. Ocker, Bellefonte, Hilda Pauline Bierly, Rebersburg.

—Miss Mae Peterman has tendered her resignation as Red Cross community nurse in Bellefonte to take effect June first. Miss Carolyn Royer, of Bellefonte, who will graduate from the Bellefonte hospital training school for nurses next week, has been secured as her successor. Miss Peterman came here just about a year ago and has done remarkably good work. She was induced to give up her work for the reason that being an only child, her parents desired her return to Philadelphia.

—Motion pictures of the world war will be shown in the opera house on Wednesday of next week, afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the Brooks-Doll Post of the American Legion. These are the official pictures taken by the U. S. signal corps. Inasmuch as the pictures will be shown as a benefit for the American Legion it ought to be well patronized.

—Governor Sproul has approved the State College deficiency bill for $251,000, which is within $30,000 of the amount requested.

—A. L. McGinley now has a force of men at work painting the exterior of the court house.

Merchant E. M. Watt recently stocked his game preserve on Tussey mountain with thirty or more rabbits and anticipates having plenty of cottontails by the time the fall season comes around.

Motoring along in the vicinity of Oak Hall on Tuesday night Roy Henry lost his bearings and ran into the ditch at the side of the road. Nobody was injured but his car was considerably damaged.

Last Sunday while Donald Robison and bride were out for a ride a passing auto frightened their horse, which ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing them out. Fortunately neither one was badly injured but the buggy was considerably damaged.

Milford and Will Corl motored to Waynesboro last Friday to move Wray Reed and family to State College. Mr. Reed has secured a good job at the College and before setting down to work will visit among his relatives a few days, as this is his first trip back since going to Waynesboro.

The Pine Hall Rod and Gun club has closed a deal with Reed Bros. for a site for a hunting camp on old Tussey mountain east of the Pine Grove Mills gap, where they will erect a substantial hunting lodge with everything up-to-date. Harry Musser and C. T. Homan have the project in charge.

E. M. Krug, of Huntingdon, spent Sunday with the Henry Sents family on the Branch. A number of years ago Ed was connected with the State College Times, leaving there to go to Huntingdon as associate editor of the Globe, but his health failing he got out of the office and is now conducting a chicken farm.

The W. F. Thompson home was the scene of gaiety and mirth last Saturday evening when Misses Hazel and Marjorie entertained a large party of young friends in honor of the nineteenth birthday anniversary of their brother, Wills Thompson. Delicious refreshments were served and it was midnight when the party broke up.

Our mutual friend, E. S. Tressler, had a rather close call last Friday. While in the act of descending from the roof of a building on which he was working the ladder turned and he was thrown to the ground. His head struck the sharp end of an iron pipe, cutting an ugly gash thereon. He was rushed to the Glenn sanatorium where his injury was attended to. Fortunately he was not hurt otherwise and by Monday he was able to be about, though a little shaky in the legs.

Perseverance is Circus Performer's Biggest Asset.

Vivacious Dorothy Snyder with the Walter L. Main Shows that give two performances here on Monday, May 9th, is one of the best lessons in the great American quality "stick-to-it-iveness" that one would care to see.

For the past two years Miss Snyder did an aerial act with the Main Shows with complete success. One day the elephant trainer became sick and it was necessary for some one to take her place. Miss Snyder, previous to that time, had an instinctive fear of all animals, and had always studiously avoided them. No one knew this. She was asked, however, if she would help out for a day or so, and with a gasp she said "Yes."

"It took all the courage that I possessed that day before I could go near the elephants. I knew that in part of the act I had to have one of the huge beasts crouch over me and I think that I was so frightened that I simply went through the paces without knowing it. The thing I remember best is when everything was over and I heard the applause. Now, well, now the elephants and I are the best of friends. They all come when I call them, and I have taught them a number of new stunts. I like it now very much and will continue at it, although I can assure you that the first time I had to stick with it, although I thought of a thousand places I would rather have been."

There are numerous other features with the Main Shows this season that make it one of the best in America. The menagerie is most complete, very entertaining, and a great many new features have been added to the program. The parade is at noon and is over a mile in length. There is also a number of remarkable free acts on the grounds that is an innovation in the circus world.

On account of the circus, the regular Parent-Teachers meeting will be postponed until Monday evening, May 16th, at which time there will be an election of officers, followed by a social evening, with refreshments.

Jobs for the Senate.

From the Indianapolis News.

As soon as the Senate perfects its scheme for keeping government bonds at par it will probably take up some easy job, such as writing a tariff law which will please every one.

Cameron, Pike and Philadelphia counties are the only ones in Pennsylvania without Farm Bureau organizations at the present time. Elk, Montour and Fulton are the latest to join the ranks, and with Perry, will ask State College to supply county agents in the near future.
