HEROIC DEAD HONORED

Memorial Services in Bellefonte Largely Attended.

Fifty-six years ago the war of the rebellion of the South against the North came to an end with the surrender of Lee's army at Appomattox. The fratricidal strife continued for four years and it was the greatest war in history up to that time.

The parade formed in the Diamond promptly at 1:30 o'clock and moved as the town clock struck two. John J. Bower Esq., was chief marshal and the parade as made up included Troop L, Capt. W. Frederick Reynolds in command; the I. O. O. F. band of Bellefonte; upwards of five hundred school children, members of the G. A. R., six Spanish-American war veterans, the American Legion, forty-eight strong, including both soldiers and sailors, the P. O. S. of A., Knights of the Golden Eagle Commandery and the Logan fire company.

Commander S. B. Miller had charge of the exercises at the cemetery and at the conclusion of the G. A. R. ritual introduced Samuel Hare Esq., of Altoona, who made the Memorial address. An incident of the day was the placing of special wreaths by members of the American Legion on the graves of John Cunningham, Richard Corman, Joseph Anderson, Joseph Morrison and Ira Wolfe.

Details from Gregg Post went to Shiloh and the Meyers cemetery last Sunday and decorated the graves of soldiers buried in those places and the coming Sunday members of the Post will leave the Post rooms at 9 a. m., for Snyderstown where services will be held at 10 o'clock. Returning in the afternoon services will be held at Hubbersburg at 2 o'clock and at Zion at 4 o'clock.

Members of the Post acknowledge with sincere thanks contributions of flowers for Memorial day from the following persons:

Wedded Fifty Years.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey Rickard, of Milesburg, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage last Saturday with a home-coming of their children, grand-children and great grand-children to the number of twenty-six. Mr. Rickard was born at Axe Mann seventy-three years ago, while his wife, who before her marriage was Clara Potter Thomas, was born at Milesburg seventy-four years ago. They were married at Milesburg in 1871 and shortly thereafter moved to Lock Haven. After living there forty years they returned to Milesburg in 1912. Mr. and Mrs. Rickard's children are Mrs. W. O. Knapp, of Mill Hall; Mrs. A. E. Suter, of New York city; Edgar, of Lock Haven; J. Boyd, of Salona; Rembrandt P., of Johnstown; Alice, Amy, Gladys and Russell, at home.

At the age of fifteen years Mr. Rickard enlisted for service in the Civil war and served until the close of the struggle. After the war he entered the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company as a bridge builder and had been connected with that company for a period of fifty years, having been retired at the age of seventy years.

The Milesburg fireproof garage, William W. Keichline and Calvin Hockman proprietors, opened for service on Wednesday. It is located on the main street, where the Mann picture show used to be.

MILLER.—Mrs. Rachael Larimer Miller, widow of Sidney Miller, passed away last Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Wian, on east High street, Bellefonte, as the result of injuries sustained almost a year ago. Readers recall the fact that on June 28th, 1920, a heavy barn door fell upon Mrs. Miller at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Noll, at Pleasant Gap, breaking her ankle and otherwise injuring her. As a result of the accident she spent a number of weeks in the Bellefonte hospital, later being removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wian. Last October she was taken to the Noll home at Pleasant Gap where she remained until about five weeks ago when she returned to the Wian home, where she passed away last Thursday.

Deceased was a daughter of John and Mary Swaney and was born at Pleasant Gap on June 17th, 1842, hence was almost seventy-nine years old. When a young woman she was united in marriage to Sidney Miller, of Spring township, and their entire married life was spent in the vicinity of Pleasant Gap. She was a life-long member of the Lutheran church and an upright christian woman. Possessed of a kind and gentle disposition, with always a thought for the welfare of others, she was loved and revered by a large circle of friends.

Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. L. H. Wian, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Harry D. Gehret, of Corry; Mrs. J. T. Noll, of Pleasant Gap, and Mrs. H. H. Kirkwood, of Woodlawn, Pa. She also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Levi A. Miller, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Maggie Raudenbush, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Lewis Miller, of Kansas City, Kan.

The remains were taken to the Noll home at Pleasant Gap where funeral services were held last Saturday morning by Rev. Wilson P. Ard, of Bellefonte, after which burial was made in the Lutheran cemetery at the Gap.

RUMBERGER.—Amos Harper Rumberger, treasurer of Clearfield county, died at the Cottage State hospital, Philipsburg, shortly after the noon hour last Wednesday as the result of peritonitis following an operation for appendicitis.

He was a son of Balsaer and Hannah Rumberger and was born at Pennsylvania Furnace, this county, on January 14th, 1862, hence was a little past fifty-nine years of age. When a boy his parents moved to Huntingdon county and later to Houtzdale where Mr. Rumberger engaged in the hardware business. In the fall of 1919 he was elected treasurer of Clearfield county, hence had served but a little over a year of his term. He was a member of the Osceola Lodge of Masons, the Williamsport Consistory and the Altoona Shriners. He was a member of Centre Council No. 803, Royal Arcanum, of Philipsburg, and treasurer of the Central Pennsylvania district Volunteer Firemen's association.

He is survived by his wife and these children: Mrs. G. M. Gleason, of DuBois; Mrs. Glen Cameron, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Mahlon Hagerty, of Philipsburg; George, of Seattle, and Miss Gertrude, at home. He also leaves four brothers, Dr. Walter Rumberger, of Mt. Union; William, of New Castle; George, in western Canada, and Howard, in Bellingham, Wash. Burial was made at Houtzdale on Saturday afternoon.

TAYLOR.—George Taylor, an old and well known resident of Milesburg, died very suddenly at noon on Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Samuel Campbell. After eating his dinner he sat down in a rocking chair, had a collapse and died in a few minutes.

He was a son of Jacob and Hannah Taylor and was born in Elk county ninety-two years ago, being the eldest of six children. He came to Centre county in 1865 and located in Milesburg where he lived ever since. He had been a member of the I. O. O. F. for more than fifty years. He was twice married but never had any children, so that his only survivors are his half-sister, Mrs. Campbell, and two half-brothers, James Taylor, of Nebraska, and William in Tennessee. Rev. M. C. Piper had charge of the funeral which was held on Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in the Treziynul cemetery.

Proclamation.

By reason of the fact that many serious accidents result from the failure to observe a "safe and sane" Fourth of July, notice is hereby given that the provisions of the ordinance of the Borough of Bellefonte, relating to the firing or throwing of fire crackers, fire balls, squibs, or other fire works, or the firing of any pistol, will be strictly enforced.

The Fourth of July may be properly celebrated without endangering the life or property of any person and it is this kind of an observance that will be expected. The celebration will be strictly confined to that particular day; it does not start a week or two in advance or continue for an indefinite period thereafter. July 4th, 1921, is only twenty-four hours in length.

All good citizens are hereby respectfully requested to inform upon and prosecute to conviction persons offending against the laws of our State or the ordinance of our borough relating to the sale and explosion of any and all fire works contrary thereto. Assist in making the day "safe and sane."

Given under my hand and seal of said borough this 1st day of June, A. D., 1921.

W. HARRISON WALKER, Burgess.

Where It Stings.

He wasn't much of a hand at work; but when a strike was in the air Joncki was well to the front. Nothing pleased him better than to stand at street corners and bewail the hard lot of the workmen, even though at the same time his wife had to take in washing to keep herself from starving.

So he was in his element when a strike actually happened. On the fourth day he swaggered into the family kitchen, where Mrs. Joncki labored over a steaming tub. "And I tell you, Sarah," he ended his oration proudly, "the only way for us working men to keep our liberty is to strike while the iron's hot, and stop the slave-driving capitalists from fattening on the fruit of our labor!" Sarah straightened her weary back, and eyed him loweringly.

"You listen to me, my man!" she replied sternly. "I've heard about enough of that clap-trap! I'm obliged to iron while the strike's hot; and if you come gassing around here I'll introduce you to the argument of the broomstick!" — Louisville Courier Journal.

Candle and Grade Eggs.

Farm women frequently have entire charge of the marketing of eggs, butter, and poultry. In some States they form what are called "egg circles" for marketing their eggs in large quantities. The eggs are collected regularly by one of the members or by some one hired by the circle. Efforts are being made by marketing agents of the United States Department of Agriculture to teach these farm women the value of properly candling and grading the eggs so that only the best are marketed.
