PINE GROVE MENTION.

Dr. Frank Bowersox and wife, of Millheim, were in town on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Sadie Burwell left on Tuesday morning for a week's visit with relatives in Blair county.

Mrs. Lizzie Mallory, of Altoona, was here on Thursday, making numerous calls along the line.

W. F. Thompson went to Philipsburg on Tuesday where he had a good job awaiting his coming.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Hammac are visiting friends in Pittsburgh, expecting to be away two weeks.

So many people in this section have been afflicted with tonsillitis that it almost seems like an epidemic.

Children's day services will be held in the Reformed church at Pine Hall Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Children's day services will be observed in the Lutheran church here on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Anderson and wife, of State College, enjoyed an outing on his farm near here the early part of the week.

Fred Reitz, forester at Charter Oak, was in town on Monday morning on his way to Altoona on a business trip.

Miss Nannie Glenn is seriously ill with heart trouble and her friends are very much concerned over her condition.

Miss Ella Livingstone departed on Monday morning for the Sea Shore to spend the hot weather with her brother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strouse, of Baltimore, were here for the College commencement, Mr. Strouse being a graduate of the class of 1884.

S. S. Krumbine and wife, of Nant-y-Glo, but formerly of our town, passed through here Sunday on their way to Shingletown to attend the funeral of Miss Anna Kuhn.

Ralph Thomas, vocational instructor in the schools at Hickory, Pa., was called home last week owing to the death and burial of his grandfather, the late Lewis Thomas. Ralph remained here for the commencement exercises at Penn State.

The Victory class of the Lutheran Sunday school at Boalsburg will hold a bazaar Saturday afternoon and evening, June 18th. Choice refreshments will be served and the ladies will have many nice articles for sale. Don't fail to patronize them.

Ralph Illingworth and bride came up from Philadelphia to spend their honeymoon among relatives and friends hereabouts. It is rumored that Ralph will soon engage in farming on the H. M. Snyder farm, adjoining the farm of his brother Henry.

Merchant E. M. Watt accompanied his son Thomas to Pittsburgh last week where he had a good job in view with his uncle, who is a prominent contractor and builder. Thomas just graduated at the State College High school, being the youngest member of the class, and will surely make good in his new position.

Pennsylvania Lodge No. 276, I. O. F., will hold Memorial services at six o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) evening. They will form at their hall and headed by the Citizens band will march to the cemetery where the services will be held. Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick will be the orator for the occasion. The public is cordially invited.

A large congregation was present in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening to witness the Children's day exercises. The I. O. O. F. orchestra furnished the music, Rev. Kirkpatrick delivered the address and all the children taking part acquitted themselves very commendably. The church decorations were very beautiful and appropriate.

A very delightful surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. James W. Peters, at their home in the Glades, on Wednesday night of last week. As the birthday anniversary of both Mr. and Mrs. Peters are very close together their many friends decided to give them a surprise that would answer for both and they certainly succeeded. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Peters had any inkling of the impending onslaught and naturally they were very agreeably surprised. Their cosy home was crowded with friends who took with them all the necessary refreshments of ice cream and nine big cakes. It was a delightful evening for all.

The "Watchman" correspondent in his trip last week got down into Maryland and visited the home of an old friend and neighbor, James Hoover and family. Jim is proving a handy man in his new home. In addition to tilling the Maryland soil he does carpenter work and acts as auctioneer at public sales. The frost and drought in that section almost ruined the strawberry crop but potatoes are thrifty and Mr. Hoover expects to raise and ship a car load to market in the near future. His wheat, oats and hay are also fine and promise more than an average crop for that section. Mr. Hoover expressed a wish to be remembered to all his Centre county friends.

BOALSBURG.

Rev. Lutton, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town on Monday.

Fred Reitz has secured employment in the Bellefonte silk mill.

One hundred and thirty-eight guests were entertained at the Boalsburg tavern on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Lonebarger and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reitz spent Sunday at Charter Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. James Houtz and son Kenneth, of Lemont, spent Sunday at the home of David Snyder.

Mrs. E. R. Tussey and children, of Sinking valley, spent a week at the home of William Goheen. On Sunday

Matthew Goheen and wife and Mrs. William Goheen and Mrs. Alice Magoffin took them to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norris, of Philipsburg, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Charles.

Henry Hosterman represented the Reformed Sunday school at the convention held at Milesburg. Mrs. Hosterman and son Frank and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faxon and children motored down Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stuart and son, of Crafton, spent several days in town. Mrs. Reuben Stuart and daughter accompanied them on their return after a two week's visit, and Miss Nannie Bell Stuart is also a guest of the Sturarts, at Crafton.

PLEASANT GAP.

Carl Corl, of Chicago, is visiting among relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Frank Keen is visiting her son Harry and family, at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Christ Keen, of Port Matilda, is visiting friends at the Gap and vicinity.

Miss Margaret Swartz has accepted a position as book-keeper in the Schlow Quality Shop.

Mrs. R. S. Melroy spent the week-end with her numerous array of friends in Williamsport.

Mr. Joy Schmoer has taken Harry, his little son, to the Wills Eye hospital, Philadelphia, for an operation.

Mrs. Harry Haag and grand-son Alex, of Tyrone, spent a brief vacation at the home of J. Cline Greenoble.

Mrs. William Florey left Thursday for Akron, Ohio, to visit her daughter and other friends in the thriving Buckeye city.

Fred Mulfinger, who had a lay-off for a week or ten days, was agreeably surprised when he was called back to resume work at his old job.

Our neighbor, Frank Barnes, married recently a very estimable lady of Tyrone, and has taken up housekeeping in his cozy residence here.

Miss Hazel Fulton, of Tyrone, is visiting with her cousin, Miss Pauline Noll. The two chums are having a very pleasant and agreeable time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith were given a royal serenading last Thursday evening. The boys and girls of the Gap have a reputation second to none when it comes to dishing out a hilarious serenade.

Albert Smetzler, after a two week's visit with Prof. Wagner and family, of Harrisburg, returned home on Wednesday of last week. While in the capitol city he took in surrounding towns down the Cumberland valley railroad as far as Carlisle. He says he had a grand swing around the prolific farming country. He was particularly impressed with the immense wheat crop in that vicinity.

Simon Duggan, farmer on the Hon. John Noll farm, a few days ago decided he would break in his two three-year-old colts. He thought the corn cultivator would be the proper implement with which to initiate the youngsters. He proceeded to put his ideas into effect; the result was they became frisky and in their jambore smashed the cultivator. Simon says the experiment will cost him just forty dollars, the present price of an up-to-date cultivator.

The W. C. T. U. held a tureen supper on the lawn of Mrs. B. P. Bell, Tuesday evening. The same was numerous patronized and a most enjoyable time was the result. Our W. C. T. U. is a bunch of very agreeable entertainers. At such gatherings the sweetest ties are formed, ties that are years of burden-bearing cannot destroy nor dim. Healthful amusements, innocent recreations, social companionships and friendships will ever be an oasis in life's desert.

Children's day exercises will be held in the Methodist church Sunday evening. The children are taking an unusual interest in the coming event and the parents are nobly aiding them so that the entertainment can't help but be a great success. Children naturally take their parents as their gurus in the way of preparing for entertainments. What papa and mamma say is law and gospel to them. Of course there are some children who know more than their parents, and all other grown persons as well, from the interest manifested. It is but reasonable to suppose that all who take in the Sunday evening Children's day services will be delighted with the commendable exercises.

Johnny Mulfinger had the time of his life last Sunday on the occasion of the first Mulfinger reunion in twenty years. There are only seven of the happy aggregation left and all were present, hence the agreeable surprise for Johnny. Among the participants were Mrs. J. Cline Grenoble, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sterrett, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mulfinger, of Spring Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Showers, of Beaver Falls; Mrs. William DeRome, of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap; Fred, of Akron, Ohio, and Miss Dorothy, at home. Johnny says he was sorry the event was staged on the Lord's day, otherwise he would have enjoyed a few games of "seven up."

SMULLTON.

Jacob Winkleblech made a flying business trip to the county seat Friday last.

J. R. Styers has been very busy the past week in plowing and getting out some of his crops.

C. L. Beck has gone to Williamsport where he has secured employment at the carpenter trade.

C. F. Winters predicts a very severe winter, and has laid by a large supply of wood for winter use.

Henry Showers and wife spent last Sunday pleasantly with friends and relatives in Sugar valley.

George H. Smull is at present off on a business trip. He is a very busy man and his business calls him to a large variety of places.

L. S. Bierly spent last week in Philadelphia attending a meeting of the Odd Fellows in that city. We presume it was a rare treat to him.

Soon again will be heard the merry click of the mower, and then it will not be long until the wind will blow over the oats stubbles. How short the years seem to be.

Our ice cream parlor started business last Saturday and the business exceeded expectations as the proprietor ran short of cream before near all were accommodated.

Roy Held, who holds a job as railroad policeman in the Northumberland yards, was home one day last week to visit his wife and baby boy. He returned again to his work.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Orndorf was lately made happy by the arrival of a baby boy, who expects to stay. The smile on Howard's face indicates that he is welcome.

Howard Orndorf, Paul Winters, George B. Waite, Warren Bierly and Herbert H. Stover attended a special meeting of the Woodward P. O. S. of A. Lodge, Saturday evening.

Warren Bierly bought a vacated house near Wolf's Store recently and will transfer same to the town, and will use the lumber in the erection of an addition to his home here.

Herbert H. Stover, our wide-awake clerk, recently unloaded a car of coal at Coburn and informs us that he will have three more cars in this week. He tells us that his business increases every year, and by all indications, this is true.

Our friend John Smith, his daughter May, and several others stopped in the western part of town Sunday afternoon and greeted his friends. It always does us good to have Brother John call around, as his jovial disposition makes us feel that life is worth living.

Harry Dukeman, sheriff of Centre county, has made several visits to this town recently to see some of our boys, and he was greeted in a very friendly way by the parties called upon. The calling was part of a serious nature and it did not take long until his wishes were granted and he could return to his home on the Hill without any one accompanying him. Harry is a fine fellow and we enjoy his smile and pleasing disposition very much. While here he took time to call on County Auditor Stover and chatted with him.

CENTRE HALL.

Mrs. Margaret Smith entertained guests from Williamsport on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Fisher returned from their southern trip on Friday.

Mrs. D. A. Boozer and son Shannon returned from Chicago on Monday afternoon.

Next week is Chautauqua week. Everybody should turn out and make the week a successful one.

Mrs. John Stewart and grand-son, John Stewart Gilliland, of State College, are guests of Mrs. Stewart's sister, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs.

Mrs. John Wega, formerly Miss Mary Krumbine, of this place, and her sister Sylva and two children, are visiting in and about Centre Hall.

The Children's day service in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening.

ing was very well attended. An interesting and entertaining program was rendered.

Dr. and Mrs. Domer Smith, of Freeport, Ill., reached the home of F. M. Fisher on Tuesday afternoon. They will spend some time in the east, where both formerly lived.

J. Frederic Moore, accompanied by a classmate from New York State, Mr. VanValkenberg, returned to his home on Saturday, for his summer vacation. His friend left on Monday morning.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will hold a social on the lawn belonging to T. L. Moore, on the afternoon and evening of July 4th. The public is cordially invited to attend and give their paragon.
