

ALL ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The marriage of Joseph Hogentogler, an employee in the State Highway Department, and Miss Stella A. Daley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Daley, of east Lamb street, Bellefonte, will take place early next week.

The Y. W. C. A. girls will give The Circus on Friday evening, July 1st, at 7:30 p. m., on the High school grounds. Admission, 25 cents. Go and see the many world's wonders which will be shown in Bellefonte for the first time that night.

Two men from Tyrone, one of whom was a Mr. Haven, accidentally drove over the abutments of the bridge at Snow Shoe intersection on Wednesday evening, upsetting their car. Both men were badly cut and bruised but not seriously injured. They were fixed up at the Bellefonte hospital.

If you failed to see that wonderful motion picture, "Passion" at opera house last night don't fail to attend this evening. At the same time bear in mind the fact that every evening's program at the Scenic is worth seeing, and if you are a lover of motion pictures you should be a regular attendant.

Carl Weaver, of the Weaver grocery, this week purchased through the Robert F. Hunter agency the property on Curtin street owned by Henry A. Reed, until his transfer ten days ago superintendent of the Bellefonte silk mill. The property is located on the south side of Curtin street just east of Spring street.

Dr. James Caldwell, the dentist who has occupied the offices on Allegheny street where the late Dr. J. E. Ward was located, will leave Bellefonte on or about July first to locate in Lewistown, his home town. Though the doctor has built up a good practice here he always has had a hankering to be in the place of his birth and this is his main reason for leaving Bellefonte.

Put Wednesday evening, June 29th, down as the date when you will want to hear Mr. Heckerman, of Bedford, tell about Japan and the world's Sunday school convention held there last October. He will speak in the Reformed church at 8:15 p. m., and illustrate his talk with several hundred views that he had made for him in Japan. Every one welcome. A silver offering.

One of the biggest trout pulled out of Spring creek opposite the Bush house this season was caught by Benny Ichniowski on Saturday morning. It measured nineteen inches and weighed three pounds and Benny was just about the proudest, happiest boy in Bellefonte when he got the big fish safe on dry land, notwithstanding the fact that he broke his rod while landing the big fellow.

C. D. Casebeer has sold his house on Linn street to Harry P. Kelley, of Snow Shoe, who has been hunting a home in Bellefonte for some time past. The price paid was $7,500. Possession will be given on or about July 15th, the Casebeers going to the Brockerhoff house and taking the large rooms on the third floor, occupied by landlord H. S. Ray and family during their occupancy of the hotel.

Work is progressing very satisfactorily on the repairing of the Academy building, which was so badly damaged by fire about a month ago. In the rebuilding of the top portion of the building, the attic will be eliminated, which will obviate any further danger of fire from that source. Patrons of the Academy can feel assured that the building will be fully repaired and everything in readiness for the opening of the institution in September.

A delightful lawn party was given last Thursday evening by Miss Martha C. Beezer in honor of Miss Ruth E. Beezer, a former Bellefonte girl, now a resident of Philipsburg. The guests present included Misses Marie Smead, Kathryn Morrison, Margaret Howard, Nellie Monsell, Esther Hines, Elizabeth Hazel, Ruth C. Beezer, Mary Raymond, Anne Gherity, Elizabeth Smead and Betty Gherity. The evening proved a most pleasant one for all.

Not enough councilmen could be gotten together on Monday evening to hold a meeting, but as there was nothing special to attend to the lack of a quorum did not matter. The Fire and Police committee have not yet reached a decision as to the kind of pumps it would be wise to purchase, but are carefully considering the merits of the various makes. At the present time the LaFrance and the White seem to be in the lead, with no certainty of which one will be recommended.

On Wednesday morning Mrs. James Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, and several of her children were in Bellefonte on a shopping expedition, her seventeen year old son having driven in their Cadillac car. On the return trip home, while making the detour in the neighborhood of Hancock's place, the car caught fire and though all the occupants got out without any mishap the top and a good part of the woodwork of the car was destroyed. Mr. Uzzle just recently took the car home from Huntingdon, where it had been thoroughly overhauled at the Vuille agency. What occasioned the fire is a mystery to those in the car at the time, as the first knowledge they had of it was when the flames began to shoot out from under the hood.

G. M. MARKS MURDERED.

Killed and Robbed in His Home Near Hannah Furnace.

George M. Marks, an aged and well known resident of Taylor township, was brutally murdered in his home about a half mile west of Hannah Furnace presumably on Tuesday night of last week, although the murder was not discovered until Friday morning. Marks lived alone in a small house, his wife having left him almost twenty years ago. The last time he was seen alive by his nearest neighbors was about six o'clock on Tuesday evening when he was seen sitting on his porch.

No one seeing him on Wednesday and Thursday naturally caused comment and on Friday morning his neighbors decided to investigate, as they feared he might be sick and in need of help. Consequently, John Marks, a brother, J. A. Walk, Alfred and Joe Larkins went to the Marks house. They found the doors locked and the blinds all down. A window was forced and entering the small sitting room they saw Mr. Marks lying on the floor with his head and shoulders covered with an overcoat. On removing the coat the men were horrified to discover that the man had been brutally murdered, and had evidently been dead for some time.

Dr. W. R. Heaton, of Philipsburg, coroner of Centre county, was promptly notified of the crime and a message was also sent to district attorney James C. Furst, and the state police of Bellefonte. The latter hurried to the scene of the crime and kept the crowd away until the arrival of the coroner in the afternoon. A jury was at once empanelled and an examination made of the body. It was found that Marks had been dealt three hard blows with some heavy instrument or a club, one on the upper portion of the back of the head, one on the right temple and one over the right ear, each one causing a fracture of the skull. All indications showed that the crime had been committed in the kitchen and the body dragged into the living room and covered with the overcoat.

Robbery was undoubtedly the cause of the murder. At the inquest John Marks testified that his brother usually carried five hundred dollars or more in paper money in his pocket. The money was generally wrapped in a piece of paper and tied with a string. The paper and string were found in one of the pockets of the dead man's clothing but no money. He also had two pocketbooks and sixteen cents in change was all that was found in them, although he generally carried considerable small change with him.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict in effect that the man met his death by being struck on the head with some blunt instrument in the hands of some unknown person or persons. While Mr. Marks lived alone he had many friends in that part of Bald Eagle valley and his brutal murder has caused considerable excitement among the people in that section. The body was buried on Sunday.

So far the state police at work on the case have failed to find a single clue that would lead to the identification of the murderers. The very fact that robbery was the cause would indicate that the deed had been committed by some one who knew the habit of Mr. Marks in carrying such a large sum of money about with him, but so far nothing has been revealed by the investigation.

Mr. Marks, by the way, who was upward of eighty years old, was a veteran of the Civil war, having served four years in Company E, 45th regiment, and had a splendid record. In recent years it was his great delight to attend the regimental reunions and meet his old comrades in arms.

American Lime & Stone Co. to Mine Limestone.

Quite a number of Bellefonte people were considerably startled at half past one o'clock on Sunday morning by hearing some six or eight heavy blasts out at the American Lime and Stone company operations and naturally wondered the reason therefore, inasmuch as it is generally known that most of the limestone industries in this section are virtually at a standstill.

But it now develops that the company above named has a force of men, about twenty-five all told, working day and night against the time when there will be a revival in the lime business, and their activity is being spent in the direction of preparing a slope so as to mine the stone and take it out underground instead of removing it by the old quarrying method. The operation is at the No. 2 mine on the old Alexander farm, where to get at the stone by the quarrying method it would be necessary to remove one hundred feet or more of dirt and stone. To obviate this a drift some eight feet high and twenty feet wide will be dug in the hill a distance now estimated at about 380 feet to tap the best portion of the limestone vein. This drift will be on an incline so that the stone can be hauled out by small cars to the top of the incline. There the stone will be dumped into bucket conveyors and hauled over the meadow to feed the kilns at the big hydrating plant. Inasmuch as the men are working on this operation night and day, in three eight hour shifts, blasting may be heard at any time without meaning anything unusual.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church of Bellefonte, will hold a social on the lawn at the public school building on Bishop street, Saturday night, June 25th. Ice cream, cake and candy will be for sale.

Kerstetter-Bottorf.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Bottorf, at Lemont, was the scene of a pretty wedding at eleven o'clock on Monday morning when their daughter, Miss Sara Margaret Bottorf, was united in marriage to Harold M. Kerstetter, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. E. F. Brown, former pastor of the Lutheran church at Boalsburg.

The bride was prettily gowned in a dress of white Canton crepe, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Bottorf, as bridesmaid, who wore a gown of white organdie and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Guy Stearns officiated as best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Kerstetter, a sister of the bridegroom.

White, pink and green was the color scheme in the house decorations, ferns and pink roses predominating while the table decorations for the wedding dinner were white and pink roses. Early in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Kerstetter left by automobile for a wedding trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other points in western New York. Upon their return they will locate at Pleasant Gap, Mr. Kerstetter being in charge of excavation work at the western penitentiary.

Included in the limited number of guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Schaeffer and daughter LaRue, and Mrs. Emeline Hess, of Bellefonte. Two of the guests present, Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Jacob Bottorf, are past eighty years of age, both being grandmothers of the bride.

Reynolds—Quigley.—Captain W. Frederick Reynolds and Miss Mary Shaw Quigley, of Bellefonte, were married in Cumberland, Md., last Friday evening, and the first definite knowledge the parents of the two young people had of their marriage was when they received telegrams about eleven o'clock Friday night telling of the happy event. The bride is the youngest daughter of Judge and Mrs. Henry C. Quigley and the bridegroom the eldest son of Col. and Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds.

The young people left Bellefonte about one o'clock Friday afternoon ostensibly to attend an afternoon dance in Lock Haven but instead motored to Cumberland, Md., where the marriage ceremony was performed. They returned home about 7:30 o'clock on Sunday evening and naturally have been busy ever since receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

The bride was educated in the public schools of Bellefonte and at Kent Place, New Jersey, but spent the past year at home in Bellefonte. The bridegroom saw service in France during the world war and is now captain of Troop E, of Bellefonte. He is associated with his father in the management of the Pennsylvania Match company.

Myers—Rosenhoover.—Warren J. Myers and Miss Elizabeth Helen Rosenhoover were married at the parochial residence of St. John's Catholic church at 7:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening by Rev. Father Downes. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Myers went by motor to Curtin where they took the train for a wedding trip east.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Robert F. Rosenhoover, of Bellefonte, a professional nurse and a most attractive young lady. Preceding the wedding a pre-nuptial dinner was given at the Rosenhoover home to the bridal party and a few invited guests. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Myers, of Chester, and is assistant foreman of a line gang for the Bell Telephone company.

Boozer—Emerick.—A happy June wedding took place at the Reformed parsonage in Boalsburg on Tuesday of this week when C. William Boozer and Miss Lena Emerick, both of Centre Hall, were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover, the beautiful ring ceremony being used. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Emerick and is a charming and accomplished young woman. The bridegroom is engaged in the electrical wiring business and making a success of it. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Boozer departed on a wedding trip at the conclusion of which they will locate in Centre Hall. Their many friends join in extending congratulations.

Taylor—Gurd.—John Reynolds Taylor, of Akron, Ohio, and Miss Verna C. Gurd, of Altoona, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents in the Mountain city on Tuesday of last week by Rev. S. S. Carnell, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Methodist church. The bride is a professional nurse and for some time past has been employed in the Glenn sanatorium at State College. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Taylor, of Bellefonte, and is chief electrician in the Goodrich Rubber company plant at Akron. The young couple went direct to Akron after the ceremony and will live at Lakemore, a suburb of Akron.

Gregg—Bailey.—Harry C. Gregg, of Brownsville, and Miss Alma Lee Bailey, of Carmichael, Pa., were married at the Methodist parsonage on east Linn street on Tuesday evening, June 14th, by the pastor, Rev. Alexander Scott.

Forty Crippled Children Made Happy by Assurances of Relief.

Forty crippled children were given a thorough examination and recommendations for their cure or comfort offered by Dr. George B. Stull, a well known surgeon of Harrisburg, at the special clinic held last Saturday under the auspices of the State College Red Cross Chapter, at the Glenn sanatorium, State College.

Joy was brought to more than one little tot, who, up to this time, had suffered needlessly though inability to secure the best of attention, and many parents are thankful that the Red Cross service section headed by Miss Helen K. Shippis, the executive secretary, was instrumental in securing the services of Dr. Stull.

Operations were recommended definitely in nine cases. Five of these will be cared for by Dr. Stull, in Harrisburg, two can be performed at the Bellefonte hospital, and in two cases Dr. Stull recommended that the patients be sent to Dr. Rugh, a bone specialist at the Methodist hospital in Philadelphia. One other spinal case may be accommodated at the North American sanatorium in New Jersey. Arrangements were made for X-ray examinations in two cases, and in one case an X-ray photo was taken immediately so that Dr. Stull might be able to give an immediate diagnosis. One boy was referred to a Philadelphia eye specialist and another to a throat specialist. A definite medical follow-up was recommended in nine cases, and placement in training schools in two. In ten out of the forty no treatment was recommended. Five cases are corrective with braces only, and measurements were taken by a representative of a brace manufacturing company in Harrisburg.

Fourteen of the children came from the jurisdiction of the Bellefonte Red Cross Chapter, and twenty-six from the State College territory. The follow-up care, hospital arrangements and treatment will be under the direction of Miss Shippis and the two Chapter nurses.

He is looking fine but bronzed with his year's outdoor life. However, he is not exactly struck on the job he had in that southern country, as it is too far away from civilization. This week he is attending commencement at Williamstown College, Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fasnacht, of Canton, Ohio, and their daughter Martha, were visitors the early part of the week of Mrs. Fasnacht's brother, W. C. Cassidy, and Mrs. Cassidy, at their home on Bishop street. Mr. and Mrs. Fasnacht had driven to Washington, D. County Treasurer L. Frank Mayes returned home on Saturday from Des Moines, Iowa, where he attended the annual Shriner's convocation. Of course so far west he never thought of meeting any one from Bellefonte, so when he went to register as a delegate was considerably surprised to see behind the desk in charge of the registration Miss Sara Longwell, who spent most of her life here and went west less than a year ago. Of course she was very glad to see some one from Bellefonte who could tell her about her many friends here.

Mrs. Pond's leaving State College is greatly regretted, as ever since going there a bride some twenty-five years ago, she has been identified with and was a factor in every forward movement in the college life. Her great interest in the local Chapter of the D. A. R., of which she was the retiring president, gave her recognition in both state and national work. In appreciation of her service to the Chapter, its regent, Miss Overton, and the officers met at Mrs. Pond's home last Wednesday, and presented her with a retiring regent's pin.

Women Bathers Robbed.

Mother may I go out to swim. Yes, my darling daughter; Hang your clothes on a hickory limb But don't go near the water.

Had Mrs. Charles Martin, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Curtis Swank, of Harrisburg, not gone bathing in the Susquehanna river near the state capital, one evening last week, they wouldn't have lost their money and jewelry. According to a dispatch from Harrisburg when Mrs. Martin, who was visiting in Harrisburg, and Mrs. Swank prepared for their dip in the Susquehanna they put their clothing, money, jewelry and railroad passes in a suitcase and hid the latter in the bushes on the bank of the river. While they were disporting among the little fishes some naughty person stole their money, jewelry and railroad passes. The "villain" must have been a man because he didn't take the ladies' clothes.

Y., where he expects to attend the summer school of the University of Rochester, his alma mater. Mr. Hubbell is associated with the school of mines at State, where he has been in charge of the teachers training in mining and metallurgy. Mrs. Hubbell will join Mr. Hubbell the first of July for a visit, Rochester being the former home of both.

Adam Swartz, of Kansas City, Mo., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fortney, having come east a week ago to visit until the middle of August with relatives in Centre county. Mr. Swartz, who is a retired railroad man, is a native of Benner township, leaving there to go west a number of years ago, his first visit back being made within the past five years. Although in his early eighties, he retains much of the vigor of youth, which enables him to divide his time between his daughters in California, his home in Missouri and his relatives in Pennsylvania.

John Dimeling, of Spokane, Washington; Lawshe Baird, of Philipsburg, and Mr. Bloom, of Clearfield, were in Bellefonte a short while yesterday morning on their way back to Clearfield, after a trip to Williamsport to consult with some business associates there. Mr. Dimeling left Clearfield about a year ago and has been living in Spokane ever since, so as to be in closer touch with his extensive lumber interests in that section. He came east because of the critical condition of his brother, Senator George Dimeling, whose illness we mentioned two weeks ago. Happily the Senator is much improved though not nearly so well yet as his friends would like him to be. John has spread out considerably since going west. Almost he looked like he could make a good try at filling Lawshe Baird's shoes and anybody who knows Lawshe will realize that John must be thriving in the salubrious climate of the Pacific slope.
