

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.50 Paid before expiration of year 1.75 Paid after expiration of year 2.00

New Insurance Agency for State College.

One of the important business transactions that has taken place in State College during the present summer is the sale of the fire insurance agency conducted for a number of years past by Mr. John L. Holmes, to Mr. John T. Taylor, who took possession of the business yesterday.

Both Mr. Taylor and Mr. Daugherty are well known to the residents of State College. The former has been a member of the faculty in the School of Liberal Arts of The Pennsylvania State College since 1918, and recently resigned his position in the department of economics to enter his new activities.

Mr. Daugherty is a graduate of Penn State of the class of 1914. Since 1917 he has been the district agent in Centre county for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company, of Hartford, Connecticut, and in that capacity has become well known in this vicinity.

The new firm has leased an office in the front part of the second floor of the Wood building at 118 south Allen street, just over the entrance to the Pastime theatre, and will henceforth carry on its activities in that location.

Pittsburgh Pirates to Play in Huntingdon.

When George Gibson's Pittsburgh Pirates of the National league drop into Huntingdon on September 7th, for a game with Huntingdon, local fans are to have the rare privilege of getting a look at the team that has the inside track to the pennant in the National league race.

Huntingdon will present a very strong line up and are determined to make Pittsburgh hustle to the limit to win. Randolph and Donelson will pitch. The outfield and infield will be selected from the best players of the Huntingdon and Mount Union teams.

Harvey—Luse.—John Fred Harvey, of State College, and Miss Helen Luse, of Centre Hall, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Luse, at Centre Hall, on Wednesday last week, by Rev. S. C. Stover, of Boalsburg.

Maxwell—Hazel.—A belated wedding announcement received by the "Watchman" this week is that of Charles Maxwell, of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Florence Hazel, of Boalsburg, which took place in Buffalo, N. Y., on July 12th, Rev. Conrad Hassel performing the ceremony.

Judge Witmer, of Sunbury, on Tuesday issued an order for the sale of fifty cases of champagne held by the government in Williamsport to hospitals at six dollars a case, which inspires the question, "how many of our readers would like to own a hospital?"

CARSON.—Mrs. Kate McCormick Carson, one of the oldest women of Potter township, passed away at her home at Potters Mills last Thursday.

She had been failing in health the past two years and during the past eight months had been confined to bed. She was a daughter of John and Hannah McCormick and was born in Potter township on July 9th, 1834, hence had reached the advanced age of 87 years, 1 month and 16 days.

When a young woman she married Joseph Gibson Carson, who passed away thirty-six years ago, but surviving her are two sons, Joseph M. and Frank A. Carson, both of Potters Mills. She also leaves five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

FELICE.—Ermando De Felice, a native of Italy, died at the Bellefonte hospital at nine o'clock on Tuesday evening of cerebral hemorrhages. He had been a resident of Bellefonte for about two years but recently had been compelled to close his shop on account of failing health and six weeks ago went to Snow Shoe in the hope that the higher altitude there would prove beneficial.

Mr. Felice was born in Italy about fifty years ago, his father being a tailor to the royal family. Sixteen years ago he came to this country and for a number of years was a fitter at the Meyer and Janassen store in Pittsburg, one of the leading tailor shops for women in that city.

MEYERS.—Mrs. Elizabeth Meyers, wife of W. H. Meyers, died at her home in Millheim last Friday evening after a brief illness.

Academy Road Improvement Fund. Starting at the corner of Spring and Bishop streets, the concreting of more than half the road has been finished.

GRAY.—Miss Marian Gray passed away last Wednesday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary K. Gray, in Phillipsburg, following an illness of some weeks. She was a daughter of I. V. and Mary K. Gray and was born in Halfmoon valley in the neighborhood of forty-five years ago.

VONADA.—Adam H. Vonada, a well known young farmer of Walker township, died at his home between Zion and Hublersburg last Saturday, following several months' illness as the result of an attack of laryngitis.

James Herron, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Herron, fell from a cherry tree on Monday afternoon and broke the bones in his right wrist.

The members of the Nittany Country club enjoyed a corn roast in the grove near the club house last evening.

ices which were held at his late home at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning, burial being made in the Zion cemetery.

RICHARDS.—James Richards, of Bellefonte, died at the Bellefonte hospital last Thursday as the result of an attack of typhoid fever, following a brief illness. He was a son of John and Lida Richards and was born in Bellefonte on April 28th, 1893, making his age 28 years, 3 months and 25 days.

Stolen Automobile Recovered.

On Tuesday night Harold Lane, George Fisher and Charles White, of Phillipsburg, stole a car from the garage of Ben Carleton and started on a trip into the outside world. The theft was reported and early Wednesday morning state police took up the trail in a borrowed automobile.

A. E. F. Officers to Gather at Boalsburg Tomorrow.

The Officers Club of the 28th division A. E. F., will hold their annual reunion at the Boal camp, at Boalsburg, beginning tomorrow and continuing through Monday, as guests of Col. Theodore Davis Boal.

Tax Notice.

The undersigned having resigned as tax collector for Boggs township hereby gives notice that all taxes must be paid on or before October 1st, 1921.

JOHN T. HARNISH, Office at Bellefonte Lumber Co., Bellefonte, Pa. 66-34-2t

The pictorial edition of Sunday's Public Ledger, of Philadelphia, contained a picture of a statue of George Washington which will be unveiled at the entrance to the park at Waterford, Pa., in the near future.

Workers have been engaged this week in laying a sewer pipe from the borough sewer on the east end of Bishop street out to Beaver field to connect with the drain pipe of the Academy swimming pool.

Wright Dances, Attention! The incomparable Wright and his orchestra will be at Burnham park, Lewistown, on Tuesday, September 6th. You are invited. Subscription $2.50. No tax. 66-33-2t

A complete program for next week's teachers' institute will be found on page six of this issue of the "Watchman." In fact something of interest will be found on every page of the paper.

James Herron, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Herron, fell from a cherry tree on Monday afternoon and broke the bones in his right wrist.

The members of the Nittany Country club enjoyed a corn roast in the grove near the club house last evening.

In the Churches of the County.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. Christian Science Society, Furst building, High street, Sunday service 11 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH. Services will be resumed next Sunday, September 4, and also the sessions of the church school.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH. The pastor returned from his vacation Thursday, September 1st, and will preach on Sunday at 10:45, subject, "To Know Thyself."

ST. JOHN'S REFORMED CHURCH. Services next Sunday morning at 10:45. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH. Worship and sermon 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST. Holy Communion Sunday, September 4th, at 10:30 and 7:30.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Morning worship 10:45. Evening worship 7:30.

BOALSBURG. Boalsburg was well represented at the Lewistown fair last week. Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Brown, of Lovette, were visitors in town last week.

Runville. Mrs. G. A. Sparks is spending a week with friends at Mount Union and Lewistown.

Wright Dances, Attention! The incomparable Wright and his orchestra will be at Burnham park, Lewistown, on Tuesday, September 6th.

Academy Road Improvement Fund. Starting at the corner of Spring and Bishop streets, the concreting of more than half the road has been finished.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

Measures being taken to improve the road between Phillipsburg and Bellefonte.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. George Shaffer, of State College, spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. Alice Eisenhauer.

Miss Lola Stover, of Bellefonte, has returned home after having spent six weeks among relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Walter Orwig came up from Northumberland and spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bright.

Mrs. Mabel Mothersbaugh and son Daniel are at their home here with Mrs. Mothersbaugh's mother, Mrs. Harriet Koch.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Acker and children spent Sunday in State College with Mr. Boyer's daughters.

Miss Amanda Haines is improving her property on Front street by building a front porch, which will add to both beauty and comfort.

Miss Rebecca Snyder has as guests her sister, Mrs. Kerstetter, two grandchildren and her niece, Miss Anna Taylor, all of State College.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham and children spent a few days with Mrs. Cunningham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gulick, of Ironside, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert and two sons, of Akron, Ohio, are guests of Mr. Lambert's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Lambert, at her home on Front street.

Mrs. Hess, who has been living with her daughter, Mrs. Greninger, ever since she has been in town, left Monday for Nebraska, to stay with another daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole, of Mansfield, Ohio, are visiting relatives through this section of the country.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. C. E. Musser had the pleasure of having her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Feese, two sons and two daughters, of Catawissa, run in to spend a short time with her.

Mrs. Charles Rhodes and little daughter Virginia, of Youngstown, Ohio, after spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stover, left Tuesday morning for her home.

John Grenoble has as guest in the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson, his brother, James Grenoble, of Ohio, whose wife expects to join him here in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rupp had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Hammill, of Pittsburg, Mrs. Hammill and Mrs. Rupp being the only children surviving of Monroe Kramer, who spent the summer here with his younger daughter.

Friday, the 19th, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stover took their eldest daughter, Nora, to Milton, where she was taken in charge by Mrs. Stover's nephew, Dr. Charles Tomlinson, who operated upon her, removing her tonsils and adenoids.

They returned home the same day. She is now getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle have with them at the present time their two sons, William C. and Henry Mingle, of Akron, Ohio. They arrived in the village Saturday about midnight, having made the trip in their automobile.

Mrs. E. J. Burd, of Millheim, spent Sunday with her niece, Mrs. A. S. Musser. She reports Mr. Burd's condition as being greatly improved and he hopes soon to be able to leave the sanatorium at York, where he is receiving treatment for rheumatism.

John P. Condo has built a new concrete walk in front of his residence on Front street. This is a great improvement, besides being a great convenience.

C. G. Bright, who resides next door to Mr. Condo, is also tearing up the old stone walk in front of his residence and contemplates building a new walk. These things are a great benefit to the town and are worthy of commendation.

enoids. They returned home the same day. She is now getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle have with them at the present time their two sons, William C. and Henry Mingle, of Akron, Ohio. They arrived in the village Saturday about midnight, having made the trip in their automobile.

Mrs. E. J. Burd, of Millheim, spent Sunday with her niece, Mrs. A. S. Musser. She reports Mr. Burd's condition as being greatly improved and he hopes soon to be able to leave the sanatorium at York, where he is receiving treatment for rheumatism.

John P. Condo has built a new concrete walk in front of his residence on Front street. This is a great improvement, besides being a great convenience.

C. G. Bright, who resides next door to Mr. Condo, is also tearing up the old stone walk in front of his residence and contemplates building a new walk. These things are a great benefit to the town and are worthy of commendation.

Centre Hall. The Korman reunion was held at Penn's cave on Wednesday.

Mrs. T. L. Moore and children returned from Elysburg on Monday.

Granger's picnic opens tomorrow. All the tents are taken, and more could have been tented.

Mrs. Mary Whiteman Geary and three children came to town on Sunday to visit Grandma Whiteman.

The Bartholomew family made a trip to Curwensville on Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kittleberger.

"Billy" Garis came to his home in this place on Saturday, to spend several months during the dull season.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. George Sharer returned from a motor trip through the eastern part of the State.

T. L. Smith and E. S. Ripka returned from Lancaster last Saturday. Mr. Smith brought a little niece along to spend a week.

Miss Gertrude M. Spangler, who spent the last few years in Rochester, started for Kansas on Wednesday, to spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Milton Bolinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shadle and little grand-daughter, of Charleston, W. Va., are spending Mr. Shadle's vacation in Centre Hall, with headquarters at the Runkle hotel.

Miss Kathryn Bradford and Miss Pearl Ruble, two nurses in the Bellefonte hospital, came over on the ambulance on Tuesday evening, when Mrs. Sarah Kerlin was brought home.

J. M. Keichline, when he was tax collector paid the running expenses of the borough, and reduced the borough debt fifty thousand dollars, and reduced the millage to twenty-two mills. Why not vote for him at the primaries Tuesday, September 20th, 1921.

Public Sale Saturday September 17th 25...Used Cars...25 Franklin Chevrolet Studebaker Nash Oakland Cadillac Buick Ford Overland Maxwell All Cars Ready for the Road This is the largest sale of used cars ever made in the central part of the State. Sale will start promptly at 10 o'clock at Beezer's Garage Bellefonte, Pa. Terms will be announced on day of sale. L. F. MAYES, Auctioneer