Who Will be the Harvest Queen?

The chief feature of the Elk's big carnival, parade and great white way on Halloween night, October 31st, will be the crowning of the Harvest Queen. The queen will be chosen by popular vote of the people. Votes will cost one cent each and ballots will be for sale at convenient places. A beautiful prize will be given to the queen elected, and many splendid prizes will be given for the best Mummers' costumes and best automobile float in the big parade.

At this time it is impossible to announce the nature of the prize to be awarded the queen, but it will be one worth contesting for. The ballot box will be on the Elk's porch, where ballots may be deposited at any time. The result of the voting will be announced daily on the bulletin posted near the box. The competition is open to all, no one barred. Select your queen and make a fight for her, so that she will be able to ride in the beautifully decorated float in the big parade. The costume and float will be furnished by the Elks. Watch the papers for further announcements.

—Rev. and Mrs. Wilson P. Ard, who are now snugly located in the Lutheran parsonage on Linn street, were given a big reception and donation by the congregation of the church on Tuesday evening. The affair was planned as a surprise and just to get the parson and his wife out of the way they were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Emerick for dinner. After dinner Rev. Ard was compelled to return to the parsonage to perform a wedding ceremony and invited Mr. Emerick to go with him as a witness. On going into the parsonage Rev. Ard pulled down the blinds, so was unable to see what was going on. Some time later Mrs. Emerick accompanied Mrs. Ard to the parsonage and told the men that there was light in the church and they had better go over and see what it meant. They all went and found the congregation there, about a hundred of them. After a general handshake refreshments were served and then the members presented their donation which included 75 pounds of sugar and enough canned goods, vegetables, etc., to last over the winter, if not longer. Of course, both Rev. and Mrs. Ard appreciate to the full the thoughtfulness of their church members.

A Demonstration in Chiropody.

Mrs. Jane Crowley Carson has made arrangements with the Wizard foot appliance manufacturers for the services of one of their expert demonstrators. The demonstration will be made at her offices in Lock Haven on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 3rd, 4th, and 5th.

All persons afflicted with corns, chilblain, bunions, ingrowing nails, falling arches or other foot troubles are invited to be present at the demonstration on any of the dates announced.

UNIQUE DE MILLE FILM.

"The Affairs of Anatol" Remarkable in Every Respect.

Absolutely unique in the annals of screen entertainment is Cecil B. De Mille's production "The Affairs of Anatol," which comes to the Pastime theatre, State College, October 7th and 8th.

Unique from the point of view of cast, story, treatment and magnificence. Jeanie Macpherson wrote the photoplay which was suggested by Arthur Schnitzler's play.

The cast is extraordinary. Here is the list of all stars: Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elliott Dexter, Bebe Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Kosloff, Polly Moran, Raymond Hatton, Julia Faye, Charles Ogle, Winter Hall, Guy Oliver, Ruth Miller, Lucien Littlefield, Zelmo Maja, Shannon Day, Wm. Boyd, Maude Wayne, Fred Huntley, Almo Bennett and Elliott Glyn, the famous British novelist, and Lady Parker, wife of Sir Gilbert Parker, the novelist.

From every standpoint—investiture, its all-star cast, sumptuousness of settings, brilliance of directorial execution, richness of costumes, quality of story and general artistry, this picture marks a distinct epoch in screen production of the decade.

Academy Road Improvement Fund.

Work on the pillars has not yet begun for the reason that the mason has been engaged on another job. As soon as that is finished he will erect them. The fund to date amounts to $1335.00.
