

BONNIWELL HITS HARD AT REPUBLICAN MACHINE.

Democratic Candidate for Supreme Court Sounds Slogan, "Who Cares?"

Unqualified charges that graft, incompetency and mismanagement prevail in many departments of the State government were freely hurled last Wednesday night by Municipal Court Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell, Democratic candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court.

Governor Sproul, State Treasurer Snyder and Justice Schaeffer, Bonniwell's opponent on the Republican ticket, were the special targets of the fire. Bonniwell outlined in detail the riot of extravagance precipitated by the last Legislature under the domination of the Governor and Senator Crow, and asserted that Mr. Sproul, while posing as a "God-fearing reformer," occupied a place at the top of the list of officials bent on squandering the public funds.

HOT SHOT FOR GOVERNOR SPROUL.

He referred to the appropriation for maintaining the executive mansion at Harrisburg as an indication of the part the Governor played in seeing to it that money provided by the taxpayers was kept in circulation.

"During the term of Governor Brumbaugh," said Bonniwell, "Mr. Sproul, who was then a Senator, and other politicians attempted to strip him of his character and they pilloried him from the Atlantic to the Pacific as dishonest and faithless to his trust because he spent $44,000 in maintaining the executive mansion."

"This God-fearing reformer, Mr. Sproul, introduced an investigation of the Senate demanding an investigation of Brumbaugh, and it has insisted that he present an itemized account of his expenditures. And this same Mr. Sproul, when he became Governor, asked and received $190,000 to cover the same items. And in the last session of the Legislature $760,000 was appropriated for the Executive Mansion. Yet Brumbaugh was branded as a thief because he spent $44,000."

FINDS LOOTING AT HARRISBURG.

Judge Bonniwell asserted "footing" is going on in all the departments at Harrisburg, and in addition to the figures presented dealing with the Governor's expenditures, he produced statistics showing how the Auditor General's Department, under the management of Treasurer Snyder, increased by leaps and bounds.

In the first year of the department under Snyder, Bonniwell declared, clerk hire, expert accountants and other employees cost $226,000. These same items for the last year of the Snyder regime amounted to $1,220,000, he asserted.

Bonniwell referred to Auditor General Lewis as the one honest and fearless official at the capital. "Just before he assumed office last May," said the Judge, "Lewis appeared before the House Appropriations committee with a request that the appropriation recommended for his department be cut by more than $200,000. When he took over the office his first move was to turn loose employees who were on the payroll and giving nothing in return. And as fast as Lewis let them out they were taken on by Snyder."

The Judge assailed the coal tax bill passed at the session, attacked the Welfare bill, with its enormous salary roll, and denounced Justice Schaeffer as "the tool of the bloated corporations."

After presenting his indictment of the Administration, Bonniwell asked: "Who cares?"

BONNIWELL SOUNDS SLOGAN.

This inquiry taken from editorial exposes of State affairs appearing in "The Record" should be adopted as a slogan by taxpayers throughout the Commonwealth for the present and impending campaigns, said the Judge. In his prepared address he said:

"The Philadelphia Record," quite unconsciously, has furnished the taxpayers of Pennsylvania, in the important political campaigns of this year and next year, with a slogan which should be proclaimed from the Delaware to Lake Erie in thundering tones—"Who Cares?" For months this reliable newspaper has been fearlessly exposing the rottenness in the fiscal affairs of Pennsylvania, and the extravagance of the Republican State Administration without raising even a faint denial of its well-founded charges from the Republican party. Silence ominous of guilt has followed every charge, to such an extent that "The Record" has been prompted to ask editorially, "Who Cares?" Who cares whether or not the reports of the Auditor General's office showing the fiscal condition of the State have been withheld from the public for a period of four years?

Who cares about the sensational statements of the newly-installed Auditor General that embezzlements by Government officials and employees have been condoned; that the accounts of the State's finances are so badly muddled as to require employment of expert accountants for their disentanglement; that there are no funds available for the payment of indebtedness and appropriations long past due, and that the State Treasury is practically bankrupt?

Who cares if the almost prohibitive price of anthracite coal is enhanced by the imposition of a tax to raise revenue to meet the extravagant appropriations of the last Legislature?

Who cares if this unjust tax was levied in defiance of a former decision of the Supreme court that this tax is unconstitutional and that it is proposed by the Republican party to elevate to the bench of the Supreme court at the November election, William I. Schaeffer, recently Attorney General of the State Administration, to review and reverse this constitutional decision?

Who cares if the Bolshevik methods of Trotsky and Lenin were emulated and employed in the overthrow of constituted authority in the House of Representatives last session in order to rush through a program of legislative acts taxing coal, multiplying State offices, increasing salaries, imposing an excessive collateral inheritance tax, and jamming through the most extravagant appropriations in the history of the Commonwealth?

Who cares if the annual salary of the Justices of the Supreme court of Pennsylvania was raised to $17,000, and of the Superior court Judges to $16,000, over-topping the pay of the Judges of the Supreme court of the United States, in direct violation of Article III, Section 3, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania?

Who cares if there has been placed on the statute books of Pennsylvania an infamous Sedition act, framed by the Governor and his Attorney General, William I. Schaeffer, now candidate for Justice of the Supreme court, abridging the rights of citizens to free assemblage and free speech and infringing upon the prerogatives of a free press?

Who cares if the graft in the construction of the State highways makes the State capitol steal look like petty larceny?

Who cares if William I. Schaeffer, corporation attorney and master mind of the present State administration, is elevated to the bench of the Supreme court of Pennsylvania for a term of 21 years?

"Who cares?" Let every voter who has become blinded by narrow partisanship and indifferent to his or her duties of citizenship in this great Commonwealth ask himself or herself this question and then devote a few minutes to silent contemplation of the record of Pennsylvania's most extravagant and profligate administration. If endowed with average intelligence, self-respect and conscience, every voter, after such contemplation, will seek a channel through which some concern may be expressed for the rescue of the State government from the grasp of officials who have burdened the taxpayers with expenditures aggregating $116,000,000.

Recognizing the gravity of the situation and the need of heroic action to save the State from moral and financial bankruptcy, the Democracy of Pennsylvania has banished personalities and factionalism and is presenting a united front of earnest men and women battling for the better weal of the Keystone State in the great political campaigns of this fall and next year.

FEEBLE BLOOD WORKS HAVOC.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Makes Red Blood; Liquid and Tablet Form.

When blood becomes thin and weak it is due to a falling off in the number of red cells. It is easily recognized by pallid skin or a bleached complexion, loss of appetite or unnatural irritability and a sensation of weakness. It is not dangerous at first. In fact, many people scarcely notice it and go on for days, thinking they will be better the next day.

The great danger is in the possibility of becoming seriously ill from disease, which can work havoc in a body that lacks the endurance and resistance in rich, red blood.

Taken in time and steadily, a few bottles of Gude's Pepto-Mangan are a great help. It improves the quality of the blood by adding red blood cells. They check the weakness, improve the appetite, and clear the complexion.

You can get Gude's Pepto-Mangan in liquid and tablet form at your druggist's. Get the genuine with the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan on the package."—Adv. 66-43

MEDICAL.

All Wrong

The Mistake is Made by Many Bellefonte Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right.

A Bellefonte resident tells you how. Mrs. Elmer Yerger, 306 N. Beaver St. says: "I had kidney trouble in its worst form. My back was so weak I could hardly get around. My kidneys acted very irregularly, I was in constant misery and dropsical swellings set in. I tried different remedies, but received no benefit. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended and in a few days the trouble was relieved. I continued their use and they entirely removed the kidney disorders and I had no further kidney trouble."

Four years later, Mrs. Yerger said: "Others in my family have since had the same good results from Doan's Kidney Pills as I had. I confirm my former statement."
