Country Correspondence

Items of Interest Dished Up for the Delectation of "Watchman" Readers by a Corps of Gifted Correspondents.

PINE GROVE MENTION.
Received too late for last week's issue.
Sheriff Harry Dukeman was in town for a short time last Thursday.
Dr. Frank Bailey, of Milton, was an over Sunday visitor with his mother.
Assessor E. C. Musser is busy as a mailer making the triennial assessment.

Mrs. Laura Dreibleister spent election day with her sister, Mrs. Maggie Bowersox.
Mrs. Sue Fry, of Altoona, has been spending the week with friends here and at Boalsburg.
We have met the enemy but they aren't all ours. Of course, a very light vote was cast.

Comparatively little game has been bagged in this section the first part of the hunting season.
The Louck Bros. have their new garage about completed and will soon be ready for business.
A social hop was given on Tuesday evening at the home of our new merchant, John Borest.

The Goheen sisters have closed their home at Rock Springs and gone to Tyrone for the winter.
J. M. Watt, of Pittsburgh, and Hon. J. Will Kepler, of Johnstown, were here to vote on Tuesday.
J. A. Peters, wife and family, of Oak Hall, spent Sunday at the John Kocher home at Fairbrook.

William Sunday reports another baby boy at his home, making two boys and two girls in the family.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Collins attended the funeral of Alpheus Johnstonbaugh, at Bellefonte on Wednesday.
Cyrus B. McWilliams and sister, Mrs. Gardner, were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the C. C. Williams home.

W. C. Frank will till the broad and fertile acres of the Gardner farm vacated by the Harlsons. It is probably better known as the Archey farm.
While hunting rabbits in the Barrens the other day Dr. R. M. Krebs shot at a cottontail just as his favorite dog ran in the range of his gun, the entire load hitting the animal on the head.

Among the gunners hereabouts who have brought home their wild turkey are George Fortney, W. H. Stuart, D. W. Meyers, George Reed, Chester Behrer, Eugene Irvin, Ralph Judy, Harry Peters, John Barto, Mr. Immel and Bruce Miller.
Tommy Frank failed to bag any game the first day of the season but his wife presented him with a chubby baby boy, No. 2. The following day the Stork left a boy at the Fred Fry home, their first born. It has already been christened Fred Burwell Fry.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harlston bade adieu to their many friends and on Wednesday morning took their departure for Mr. Harlston's former home near Kansas City, Mo. During their stay here they made many acquaintances, all of whom hated to see them go.
Last week Col. Theodore Davis Boal purchased the Pyscher farm on the Branch tenanted by A. S. Walker, containing 286 acres. The Colonel plans many improvements to the place, including new buildings, electric light and power, etc. Mr. Walker will remain on the farm as tenant.

Last Friday A. S. Bailey and sister Nannie took a run to Water Street in their new Reo car and just as they were about to turn a corner a Studebaker car came along, forced their machine against a telephone pole and down over a steep embankment. Fortunately both Mr. and Miss Bailey escaped without any serious injury but their car was pretty badly damaged.
The "Watchman" correspondent is still held fast as a juror in the United States district court at Scranton, being tied up on a case in which the sum of $140,000 is involved. Some of the best legal talent in the State is lined up in the fight and from the way it looks now the trial may be prolonged two weeks; but court will adjourn over Armistice day and we anticipate going to Washington, D. C., for the big celebration there.

BOALSBURG.
Mrs. E. E. Brown is ill.
Miss Ellen Rhone is visiting friends in Tyrone.
Mrs. W. A. Rockey, who had been quite ill, is improving.
Miss Virginia Hess, of Shingletown, was the guest of Miss Ellen Dale on Sunday.
Mrs. R. M. Krebs, of Pine Grove Mills, spent Tuesday among friends in town.
Dr. Mortimer, of Williamsport, representing the Anti-Saloon League, will speak in the Lutheran church Sunday morning at 10:30.
John Fisher, of Bellefonte; William Fisher, of Sunbury, and Frank Fisher, of Juniata, visited their mother, Mrs. A. E. Fisher, last week.

Mrs. William Stuart and daughters; Miss Anna Sweeney, and Misses Ellen and Cathryn Dale attended a birthday party at the home of Harry Musser, at Shingletown, on Saturday, the occasion being the tenth anniversary of John L. Musser. Fifty guests were royally entertained and delicious refreshments were served.

ORVISTON.
Mrs. Jane Williams, of Mill Hall, is visiting her brother, J. H. Slatterbeck, of Orviston, for a few days.
Miss Mabel Page is visiting friends and relatives. Every one is pleased to see the little lady, as she used to be an Orvistonian at one time, and was very popular.
Mitchell Kephart, who has been working in Woodland, came down the line Saturday, to see his little family. I have no doubt it is pretty lonesome up there for "Daddy," away from those pretty boys and sweet baby girl.

Mrs. Harry Leathers, of Curtin, has been helping her daughter, Mrs. Roy Love, with her butchering; also helping her sister, Mrs. Amelia Rickard, with her butchering work. The squeal of the piggy is once more heard in the land, and how many cans of lard did you get? is a common question.
Francis Poorman has been quite ill with laryngitis. His son Roger, of Bellefonte, and son Alton and wife, of Altoona, were to see him. Mr. Poorman has been ailing for some time but would not give up until too ill to be about. We are glad to learn he is much better and is already talking of going to work.

Dr. and Mrs. D. O. Merrick, of Elmira, N. Y., accompanied Mrs. Walter T. Merrick home last week, and are spending a few days with her, and their son, Rev. W. T. Merrick. Master Robert and his wee sister, Irene Marie, accompanied their mamma also. Mrs. Merrick has been away since early in the summer for her health, part of the time in a hospital and a while with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redfield, of Covington, Pa. She is now much improved.
Received too late for last week's issue.

Mrs. Hensyl Young has been ill but is feeling some better.
Mrs. Thomas Gillespie was a very welcome guest at the home of her son, Gilbert Gillespie.
Mrs. Charles Singer was an Orviston visitor last week, but was unable to stay longer than a couple of hours, as her father-in-law is still in a very low condition, at her home.

Mrs. J. W. Oyler, of Howard, and Mrs. F. C. Harker and nephew, Jack Oyler, of Johnsonburg, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wensel.
Quite a number of friends surprised Mrs. Wesley Emehizer at her home, Thursday evening of last week, the occasion being her birthday. Mrs. Emehizer received quite a number of useful and pretty gifts. An excellent lunch was served, which the guests highly appreciated.
Mrs. Bion T. Nelson leaves Tuesday evening for Mill Hall, where she will visit for a few days with her relatives before proceeding on her journey to Hutchins, where the Nelson family will make their home. Orviston friends will be more than sorry to part with this very excellent little woman. Miss Thelma will be missed by a host of her young friends. Mrs. M. E. Nelson, who has been helping her daughter-in-law, will accompany her as far as Mill Hall. We must also state that Master Georgie leaves a lot of little friends who will miss the dear little fellow.

RUNVILLE.
L. J. Heaton visited his brother-in-law, Orin Brooks, at Pleasant Gap, last Friday.
G. W. Heaton, of Altoona, spent Monday night at the home of his brother, L. J. Heaton, and attended the funeral of Mrs. Edward Coakley, at Yarnell, Tuesday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Walker attended the funeral of the former's sister, Mrs. Willard Crispin, at Snow Shoe, last Tuesday.

—If it happens in Centre county and is worth reading you can find it in the "Watchman."

LEMONT.
Sunday brought snow, the first of the season.
The farmers are through with their corn husking.
B. F. Hoy and wife are slowly improving at this writing.
James Thorp's little daughter is quite ill with pneumonia.
Lots of hunters in the woods but very little game for any one.
Butchering began in this neighborhood this week. Hogs are in fine condition.
James E. Lenker and wife are spending a few days among friends in the eastern part of the State.
A bunch of the young people from town were at the Glades school Friday evening attending a box social.

T. Guy Williams, Cornelius Houtz, Susan Bloom and Nellie Shuey attended the young people's convention in Bellefonte, Saturday, and report a very profitable time for all the delegates who succeeded in getting there.
P. W. and John Knepp motored from Detroit, Mich., the latter part of last week and will visit among friends in these parts for three or four weeks, while the Studebaker company is putting in new machinery.

MEDICAL.
Bellefonte Evidence for Bellefonte People
The Statement of Bellefonte Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.
Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of Bellefonte people carry weight. What a friend or neighbor says compels respect. The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts. Here's a Bellefonte man's statement.
And it's for Bellefonte people's benefit. Such evidence is convincing. That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.
E. J. Eckenroth, painter, Main St., Bellefonte, says: "As every one knows, men who follow the painting business are troubled more or less by their kidneys. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills whenever bothered by my kidneys and they have always given good results. My advice to any one having kidney complaint is to take 'Doan's Kidney Pills.'"
Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Eckenroth had. Fister-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 66-45
