The Penn State student glee club of forty-four men will give three concerts in the western part of the State next week.

KUNES.—Mrs. Clara E. Kunes, wife of W. T. Kunes, of Runville, died on Monday morning of last week at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. P. Swisher, at Mill Hall, whither she had gone on a visit.

Surviving her are her husband and the following brothers and sisters: Ralph Snyder, of Stewart, Va.; Lewis, of Mill Hall; Mrs. F. F. Stout and Mrs. S. S. Stout, of Renovo, and Mrs. Samuel Schroyer, of Savannah, Ga.

The following resolutions on the death of Mrs. Kunes was passed by the Christian Endeavor Society of Runville:

Whereas, the hand of Providence has removed our beloved sister from the scene of her temporal labors, and from our society, and in view of the loss we have sustained by the death of our friend and sister, and of the still greater loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to her, be it

Resolved, That we deeply mourn her untimely departure, and sincerely regret the loss of her faithful services as a co-laborer in our Christian Endeavor society, taking refuge in the thought, however, that after having ended her earthly strife she has at last joined the blessed society of the redeemed in heaven.

Resolved, That we tender our earnest and heartfelt sympathy to the afflicted husband and relatives, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are dealt by a loving hand.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be published in the Centre county papers, that a copy thereof be placed in the records of the Society, and another sent to the husband of the deceased.

COAKLEY.—Mrs. Jennie Coakley, wife of Edward Coakley, died at Yarnell last Saturday evening after a week's illness with pleuro-pneumonia, aged 36 years.

DEITRICH.—Mrs. Margaret A. Deitrich, widow of J. L. P. Deitrich and a sister of Mrs. Robert Irwin, of Bellefonte, died at her home in Altoona on Tuesday morning, following ten days' illness with pneumonia, at the age of almost eighty-four years.

Thanksgiving at The Philips.

Those of you who are not going to Pittsburgh for the State-Pitt game and want to have a real Thanksgiving, one that mother or wife does not have to spend the whole morning cooking for and the most of the afternoon cleaning up after, might realize your ambition more than you know by taking the family out for a change.

If you live in the neighborhood of Bellefonte and don't care to go far away during the day the Bush house offers a splendid menu which is published elsewhere.

Where Will You Eat Your Thanksgiving Dinner?

If the time has come at your home when a little change would do father, mother and the children, all good—and such times do come to all of us—why not take the family to the Bush house for Thanksgiving dinner.

An old time pre war dinner at the pre war price of $1.00 will be served in the hotel dining room and in the Coffee Shop from 1 to 2:30 and from 6 to 7:30 p. m. The menu to be served will be as follows:

- Bouillon en Tasse Mock Turtle
Queen Olives Hearts of Celery
Roast Native Turkey with English Filling Cranberry Sauce
Baked Sugar Cured Ham, Wine Sauce
Roast Ribs of Prime Beef au jus
Oyster Patties Lemon Sherbet
Mashed Potatoes Candied Sweet Potatoes
Dried Sweet Corn Creamed Onions
Tomato Salad a la Bush House
Pumpkin Pie
Martha Washington Cream Pie
Mince Pie Maple Walnut Ice Cream
Cheese Coffee
Wafers

It reads good and manager Lewis Daggett assures you all that it will taste just as good. Make reservations early.

Special Thanksgiving Dinner.

Why worry with cooking at home when you can get a special Thanksgiving dinner at the Brockerhoff House next Thursday for $1.25 a plate. Make your reservations early.

Bear are reported quite plentiful on the mountains this season and quite a number of hunters have sighted one or more of the animals while out hunting small game.

Further inquiry on our part reveals that it was a resident of Bellefonte who saw the Sullivan car and phoned the information to the parties who attempted the arrest and when the story was given to us originally Rosenthal's name was mentioned in a manner that gave rise to the inference that he was the informant.

Such was not the case, however, and we wish to correct the error.

Divorced Wife Asks $25,000 in Breach of Promise Suit.

The following dispatch appeared in a recent issue of the Altoona mirror: State College, Pa., Nov. 15.—A divorced wife here filed suit against her former husband for $25,000 for alleged breach of promise, instituting one of the most novel cases in the annals of local courts.

Mrs. Gertrude Spitzer is the complainant and Guy W. Spitzer, local furniture dealer, the defendant. According to the bill, the Spitzers were married in 1907, the wife securing a divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, in 1919.

The defendant promptly sought a reconciliation, building a new home as an aid to his suit. The complainant, the bill recites, was induced to inspect this home the night before her second marriage was to take place and remained there until morning, when the defendant failed, and has since refused to remarry her, destroying her reputation.

Lieut. Browning Missing.

The State College Chapter Red Cross has been asked to aid in locating Robert F. Browning, lieutenant Company G, 318th infantry, 80th division, who has not been seen since June 15th, 1921, when he left his home in Kingston, N. Y., supposedly to keep a business engagement in New York city.

Who Killed the Deer?

Blair county game wardens have been in Centre county this week trying to locate the man or men who killed a six pronged buck near Pennsylvania Furnace last Thursday. The dead deer was found hidden in the woods by hunters and the finding reported to the game wardens. It had been shot several times, then dressed for use and hidden. The carcass was taken to Altoona and turned over to the hospital. The deer dressed weighed 150 pounds. A party of men hunting for small game in the locality in which the dead deer was found are suspected, but nothing definite has yet been learned.

Amends to Max Rosenthal.

Last week the "Watchman" in publishing an account of the attempt to apprehend a liquor runner named Sullivan, stated that the warrant for his arrest was sworn out on information furnished by Max Rosenthal.

Rosenthal called the writer from Elmira, N. Y., Tuesday evening and stated that he had not been in Bellefonte for two weeks prior to the date of the Sullivan visit and had nothing whatever to do with the information furnished.

Further inquiry on our part reveals that it was a resident of Bellefonte who saw the Sullivan car and phoned the information to the parties who attempted the arrest and when the story was given to us originally Rosenthal's name was mentioned in a manner that gave rise to the inference that he was the informant.
