CENTRE HALL.

Myra Miller and little niece, Mary Horner, spent several days among friends in Centre Hall.

Mrs. C. F. Emery and daughter Algie spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Tom. Foss, in Altoona, returning home on Monday afternoon.

A serious cough seems to be going the rounds now. Many grown people and children are greatly annoyed by it. Among the former, is Mrs. C. M. Smith, who has been quite miserable.

Mrs. P. S. Garis and two children, from Altoona, spent last Sunday at the home of W. B. Garis. They were accompanied home by Miss Anna Garis, who had visited a month or more in Altoona.

The remains of W. G. Miller, of Glenside, Philadelphia, were brought to Centre Hall on Tuesday afternoon and buried from the train. Mrs. Miller, who will be remembered as Miss Virna Geiss, and their two daughters, accompanied the body.

Dissolution Sale!

The partnership existing between Sim Baum and Maurice Baum in the firm of Sim, The Clothier, is to be dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued with the same policy and along the same progressive lines by Sim Baum, who for years has been conducting this store and endeavoring to make it the most popular store in this section. With this end in view—I will now place my entire stock of Men's Suits and O'coats on sale at Decided Reductions. There will be no reservation, every Suit and Overcoat in the store will be sold at February Clearance prices.

It is your opportunity to obtain the newest and most choice clothes at the start of the season—at after season's prices. Decided savings on the most trustworthy merchandise has made this store successful in the past. The same policy, methods, and straightforward dealings cannot fail to make it continue its popularity in the future.

Week-Ahead Program

(Cut this out and save for reference).

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17:

JOSEPH DOWLING in "THE KENTUCKY COLONEL," a story with the sweet southern atmosphere that will please any who like those stories. Also, Snub Pollard comedy.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 19:

BUSTER KEATON, in "SKIRTS," is a jazzy, thrilling comedy; also featuring the single midgets, something new, worth seeing. Also, Pathe News, Topics and Spanuth's Vod-a-Vil.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20:

BEBE DANIELS in "THE SPEED GIRL," is a good, swift action picture, amusing in its absurdity. Built around the jail term she served for speeding. Gives star room for athletics. Also, two 2-reel comedies.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21:

LON CHANEY and BETTY COMPTON in "FOR THOSE WE LOVE," a six reel fine production of a real drama of small town life. Story of redemption of four people of the Underworld. Don't miss this. Also, 2-reel Sunshine Comedy. A good show.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22:

NAOMI CHILDERS in the big Albert Kauffman picture, "COURAGE." A six reel story of wife of husband wrongly convicted of murder carries on his life work until his innocence is proven. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23:

FRANK MAYO in "GO STRAIGHT." Story of minister who shows up nefarious schemes of man who runs town. See Mayo as the fighting parson. Also, 4th episode of the best yet serial, "MIRACLES OF THE JUNGLE." Wonderful wild animal pictures.

OPERA HOUSE.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17:

TOM MIX in "AFTER YOUR OWN HEART," one of his most interesting pictures.

COMING:—"Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," the big feature of the year, January 10 and 11.

Watch for our big X-mas week program.
