Bellefonte's Remodeled Y to be Re-opened January 2nd.

The doors of the remodeled Y. M. C. A. building in Bellefonte will swing wide open on Monday, January 2nd, to welcome the public.

A more attractive social centre is not to be found here. A Y more comprehensively planned would be hard to find anywhere. Spacious lobby and social room, large gymnasium and splendid bowling and billiards facilities, with quiet reading and rest rooms for men and boys it is really such a place as the town needs and will serve every purpose of a community house, if we all pull together unselfishly for its success.

The opening will be very informal. From three in the afternoon until ten at night every man, woman and child in the community will be welcome. Light refreshments will be served continuously and something of an entertaining character will be going on all the time. It is especially desirable that every one who can will call at the Y on the opening day and see just what has been done with the money that was raised for its rehabilitation. While there has been criticism of the delay in getting the work completed—and possibly justifiably so—we are sure that an inspection of the house will be so gratifying as to efface any unpleasant memories of the past.

Something in the neighborhood of $16,000 was raised for the work three years ago. Most of it was expended in the peak of high prices and you should bear this in mind when viewing the great changes that have been wrought. Few of the people who have seen the remodeled building understand how so much was accomplished with the funds on hand. It was not. All of the subscriptions have not been paid and probably will not so there will be a deficit of nearly $5,000.00. This is a very small amount, however, when it is considered that the Y building and improvements have been estimated by various competent business men as being worth from thirty to forty thousand.

The plans for operation have not been worked out yet. They are being held pending the arrival here next week of the state secretary as counsel in formulating them. Enough is known, however, to insure that it will be run on a most efficient scale possibly for long enough time to give the community opportunity to see whether it needs and will support an active Association.

During the day of the opening there will be expert bowlers from a distance here to show the possibilities for pleasure and recreation on the new alleys. Basketball teams of the High school and American Legion will play on the gym floor and there will be music every hour. Among the vocal soloists will be Mrs. Ambrose Schmidt, Mrs. Krader, Miss Mildred Locke, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blair, Miss Marie Doll, Master Irvin Martin, Ross Williams, Roy Wilkinson, and R. M. Funk. Cecil and Milan Walker, James Seig and Mr. Fitzpatrick constitute the male quartet. Miss Hazel Solt, Mrs. Edna Straub, Miss Rachel Shuey and Mrs. Krader will sing in quartet. The entire Reformed church choir will be present and sing parts from their Christmas oratorio.

Instrumentally, there will be Hill's novelty orchestra, Wetzler's brass quartet, Mrs. Louis Schad, violinist, Miss Rebecca Lyon, pianist, and Mack Yeager, saxophone.

There will be no program. All of these artists have kindly consented to drop in during the day and play or sing just as informally as they would were they visiting in your home. It is a delightful arrangement and if we all catch the spirit of such good fellowship the opening day of the Y will long be remembered.

In the evening, at 8:30, there will probably be a general meeting in the gym presided over by the president, Hon. A. G. Morris, at which the State Secretary will briefly explain the aims of the Association for the future.

The ladies of the auxiliary will serve the refreshments and, remember, that entertainment is provided for everybody every minute of every hour from three until ten and you are invited and will be made most welcome.

Bilger — Bartiges.—A Christmas week wedding was celebrated at the Reformed parsonage, Bellefonte, at the noon hour on Wednesday, when Miles E. Bilger, a son of Charles Bilger, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Ruth L. Bartiges, of Centre Hall, were united in marriage by the pastor, Dr. A. M. Schmidt. Both the bride and groom are well known in their respective communities and their many friends join in wishing them a happy voyage over the ocean of life.

GARMAN.—Cornelius Garman, a member of the well known Garman family, of Bellefonte, and whose critical illness with asthma and dilatation of the heart was noted in last week's paper, died at his home at Weehawken Heights, New Jersey, last Thursday night.

He was a son of Daniel and Louisa Schreyer Garman and was born in Bellefonte upwards of fifty-seven years ago. The greater part of his life was spent here, the most of the time as one of the managers of the Garman hotel. He left Bellefonte about sixteen years ago, going to Williamsport and later moving to Weehawken Heights. For a number of years he held a position with Meyer Bros., dealers in gent's furnishings, in New York, but of late years had been a clerk in the Industrial Bank of Commerce, where he worked up to ten days or two weeks prior to his death.

Mr. Garman was twice married, his first wife being Margaret Crotty, by whom he had three children, Louisa and Anna, both at home, and Mrs. Freeman Moorehead, of Williamsport. His second wife was Miss Sophie Schoff who survives with two sons, Daniel and George. Funeral services were held at his late home on Sunday evening and on Monday morning burial was made in the cemetery at Weehawken Heights.

BARR.—Homer Barr, a well known resident of Boalsburg, died at his home in that place on Tuesday evening as the result of a stroke of paralysis. He was a member of the Riley hunting club and was stricken while in camp at the Bear Meadows on Wednesday night of last week. He was taken home on Thursday where he lingered until his death on Tuesday.

He was a son of Robert and Mary Barr and was born in Huntingdon county fifty-four years ago. In 1889 he married Miss Mary Harpster, of Centre Hall, and they took up their residence at Gatsburg where they lived until 1910 when they moved on to one of Col. T. D. Boal's farms at Boalsburg. He quit farming several years ago and has since lived in Boalsburg. Surviving him are his wife and one sister, Mrs. Blair Gates, of Gatsburg, as well as other relatives throughout the county. He was a member of the Lutheran church and a good citizen in every way.

Rev. W. J. Wagner had charge of the funeral services which were held at ten o'clock yesterday morning, burial being made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

STALKER.—Miss Martha M. Stalker died at her home in Williamsburg, Blair county, on Saturday morning, as the result of heart trouble which developed only twenty-four hours prior to her death. She was a daughter of John and Elizabeth Stalker and was born near Warriorsmark on December 7th, 1835, hence had attained the age of 86 years and 10 days. The Stalker family for years occupied a farm in the Glades, in Ferguson township, this county. Miss Stalker was the last of the family. Her father died many years ago while her mother passed away less than ten years ago, at the advanced age of 108 years. Miss Stalker was for many years a teacher in the Blair county schools. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and for a long period secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society. Her only known relatives who survive are a niece and nephew, Mrs. Frank Fleck and H. L. Orr, both of Tyrone. Funeral services were held at her late home at 1:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon after which the remains were taken to Graysville for interment.

ELLENBERGER.—Mrs. Margaret Ellenberger, widow of John Ellenberger, for many years residents of west Ferguson township, died at her home in Sinking valley last Thursday morning as the result of a fractured hip sustained in a fall over two months ago.

She was a daughter of James and Margaret Reed and was born at Canoe Creek, Blair county, on May 22nd, 1838, hence was in her eighty-fourth year. The earlier part of her life was spent in the vicinity of Gatsburg, this county. When a young girl she became a member of the Lutheran church and was faithful to the teachings of that church until her death. Her husband died in 1900 but surviving her are the following children: Milton and Irvin W. Ellenberger, of Sinking valley; W. H. Ellenberger and Mrs. George James, of Tyrone. She also leaves one brother, Harrison Reed, of Auburn, N. Y. Burial was made in St. John's Lutheran cemetery, in Sinking valley, on Sunday afternoon.

HOLMES.—Mrs. Jennie Conley, widow of the late John Holmes, passed away at her home in Howard on Sunday evening as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained on Wednesday last week, aged 84 years. She is survived by one son, Richard Holmes, of Bellefonte, and two daughters, Mrs. C. H. Hockman, who made her home with her mother, and Mrs. Joseph Warwick, of Philadelphia. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. Funeral services were held at her late home at Howard at eleven o'clock yesterday morning and burial made in the Schenck cemetery.

FRY.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fry, of Fairbrook, are mourning the death of their only child, Freddie Jr., who passed away on Wednesday afternoon. He was two months old and had been delicate all of his brief life. Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon by Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick and burial will be made in the Pine Grove Mills cemetery.

FISHER.—Bond Fisher died at the borough home at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning as the result of asthma and other complications. He was sixty-three years old on December 5th, and for many years had been in the employ of the Misses Valentine, at Burnham, their country home. When they left early in November for the Bermudas Mr. Fisher went to board and lodge with Mrs. Cain. He is survived by a wife and three children. The funeral will be held at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, burial to be made in the Friends cemetery.

Program for Annual Meeting of Farm Bureau.

December 24th will mark an epoch in Centre county agriculture. Take this day off and attend the annual meeting of the Centre county Farm Bureau and Centre county's farm products show. Both will be held in the court house at Bellefonte. Mr. Farmer, are you satisfied with farming conditions in Centre county? Come to this meeting and learn what the Farm Bureau is doing to better agricultural conditions and give your support in making this work more effective. The educational exhibit and farm products show will be in the grand jury room. The premium list was announced in a previous issue of this paper. The meeting will begin promptly at 9:30 a. m. in the court room. The program is as follows:

FORENOON.
Call to order, John S. Dale, president.

Report of secretary and treasurer, W. C. Smeltzer.

Report of year's work, J. N. Robinson, County Agent.

Discussion of projects by farmers co-operating.

"Baby Bears."

Did you ever read Beatrice Fairfax's column in the newspapers and enjoy some of the good laughs she gives you? She has a rival in the first act of the "Baby Bears" which is called "The Love Nest." You must see this to appreciate it, for it matters not whether you are married, single, divorced or intend to get married, it gives you lots of advanced information on marriage. There is no vampire in particular, but just eighteen of the prettiest "Baby Bears" (which by the way is a new name for the chorus girls) to help entertain you with lots of singing, dancing, etc. With all this charming personality of eighteen beautiful girls good comedians, and lots of novelties you are sure to have a good evening's entertainment. The cast of the "Baby Bears" include Harry S. LeVan, one of the funniest Hebrew comedians, and his associates, Ruth Denice, Geo. Reynolds, Jean Schuler, beautiful Nance Shannon, Charlie Kane and the plump little Baby Bear comedienne, Pauline Russell. Opera house, Thursday, December 29th, matinee and night. Matinee 2:30 p. m. Prices, 50 and 75 cents. Evening prices, 50 and 75 cents, $1.00 and a few at $1.50.

Academy Basket Ball Team.

The prospects for a champion basketball ball team at the Bellefonte Academy this winter are unusually bright. There seems to be an abundance of excellent material. The two opening games which the boys won just before they went home for the Christmas holidays gave a good line up on the team and created intense enthusiasm among the students in general. Their first game with the Phi Kappa Sigma five of State College resulted in the close score of 23 to 21 in favor of the Academy. Their second victory was over the All Star team of State College and the score of 35 to 17 was just as pleasing as the first. Large crowds were present in the armory to witness both games, especially the latter because of the fact that some of Penn State's famous football stars were on the team, namely: Benz, Snell, Lightner, McCollum, Bedenk and Palm. But the excellent team work of the Academy was too much for their sturdy opponents.

High School Defeats Philipsburg.

Last Friday evening marked the opening of the High school basketball season with a victory over Philipsburg. The latter team presented a quintet of tall and experienced passers against the local green team. The tension of playing their first full game before a crowd told on several inexperienced players and at half time the visitors led 10 to 8. With the beginning of the second half the Bellefonte aggregation found themselves and soon changed the 2 point deficit to a 10 point lead. Thinking the game won, the Red and White started to take things easy but a Philipsburg rally soon reduced the lead to 3 points, the final margin of victory. Katz, by splendid work from the foul line, really won the game as the visitors outscored Bellefonte from the field.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDINANCE Passed by Borough Council Without a Dissenting Vote.

Seven members were present at the regular meeting of borough council on Monday evening, Mr. Fauble being the only absentee. A communication was received from the Logan Fire company enclosing a resolution passed by that organization protesting against that clause in the new fire department ordinance providing for the election of a fire marshal by council without giving the companies opportunity to make recommendations.

The Street committee reported various repairs and the collection of $29.00 for work done and the sale of old material.

The Water committee reported the laying of a 1 1/2 inch water pipe out Howard street to Wilson; also the collection of $50.03 from the Bellefonte Trust company for making connections for their fire protection equipment, and $820.57 on the 1920 water duplicate.

The Fire and Police committee reported that policeman Thomas Howley was in need of a new uniform and the committee was instructed to purchase one for him.

The Finance committee asked for the renewal of one note for $3,000, which was authorized.

At this stage in the proceedings the new ordinance for the control of the Bellefonte fire department, with the changes authorized at the last meeting, was read for the third time. A committee from the fire companies consisting of John J. Bower, Alex. Morrison, Thomas Shaughnessy and Joseph Beezer, with Mr. Bower as spokesman, was present to protest against the passage of the ordinance without changing the section providing for the election of a chief marshal so as to permit the fire companies to have a voice in his selection.

Mr. Bower stated that it was the sentiment of both companies that they should be permitted to recommend a number of men from which the selection could be made. President Walker stated that there is nothing in the ordinance that will prohibit the fire companies from making such recommendations, and council would probably welcome suggestions of names of men who will make good marshals. That it was not the purpose of the ordinance which had the drawing of the ordinance in charge to slight the fire companies, but rather to relieve them of the responsibility of the selection as the fire marshal, whoever he may be, will be held to strict accountability for the care and upkeep of the equipment. And for this reason council felt that the selection should be made by council.

Mr. Cunningham stated that the fire companies will have their redress if the marshal selected by council does not prove competent to fill the position. The two chiefs, under the ordinance, will have the power to make any proper complaint against him, and if the charges are sustained he can be removed and another elected in his place. Mr. Cunningham then made a motion that the ordinance be passed as read and the same was seconded by Mr. Harris. On roll call every councilman present voted aye with the exception of the president whose name was not called.

Mr. Harris, of the Street committee, presented an ordinance for the laying out of north Water street, which was read for the first time. Mr. Harris also stated that the deed conveying the necessary land for the street to the borough has been signed by all parties interested with the exception of two heirs living away from Bellefonte, and the deed has been sent to them for their signature. He also presented a survey of the new street as prepared by the borough engineer.

Mr. Harris introduced a resolution requesting the board of managers of the Pruner Orphanage, through the treasurer of the association, to invest all the money received from the sale of the Hoover block in Tyrone, the property in Ness county, Kan., and the forest land in Taylor and Rush townships, as well as all other surplus money in the hands of the treasurer in government bonds, and it was so ordered.

The borough manager called attention to some much needed repairs at the Logan fire company building and the installation of additional radiators. The borough manager and Fire and Police committee were instructed to make the necessary repairs.

Methodists Organize White Cross.
In order that the work of the Methodist Episcopal church in caring for needy children and aged folks may be expanded and made permanent, a society known as the American White Cross has been organized in Central Pennsylvania Conference. There are 90,358 Methodists on the church records in the Conference and each one is being asked to become a member of the new society by the payment of at least one dollar per year membership dues. Each congregation is being canvassed between December 10th and 25th, and with the funds secured it is hoped that the maintenance costs for the home for the aged at Tyrone and the home for children at Mechanicsburg will be assured for 1922, so that the Centenary funds now being applied to that purpose may be used for permanent building work. The matter of taking care of the children of the church is one particularly that demands bigger and better facilities immediately.

The White Cross will also give considerable assistance toward providing a minimum salary for more than seventy pastors in the sparsely settled districts in the Conference.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

—Among the out-of-town Christmas shoppers in Bellefonte yesterday, was Mrs. James J. Mitchell, who with Mr. Mitchell returned to Centre county to make their home at Lemont, after having lived in West Virginia for a number of years, and Mrs. David O. Eppers, of State College.

Child Killed by Automobile at Pleasant Gap on Monday.

Going home from Bellefonte on Monday with a bag of Christmas candy in his hand, and his little heart filled with Christmas cheer, William Chester Knoffsinger, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knoffsinger, was struck by an automobile just as he reached his own home and injured so badly that he died within an hour; his bag of candy strewn along the road as a mute reminder of happiness turned to sorrow.

The little boy had accompanied his father to Bellefonte to do some Christmas shopping. They went out on the Lewistown bus, arriving at their home, some distance above Pleasant Gap about 3:30 o'clock. The boy jumped out of the bus and ran around back of the big machine to cross the road to his home. Just as he ran out from behind the bus a car driven by Howard Dry, of Bellefonte, came down the mountain and struck the boy. According to the story of those who saw the accident the lad was not knocked down and run over but literally picked up and carried several rods before he fell from the machine. Mr. Dry was accompanied by William Taylor and as soon as he could stop his machine went back to render any assistance he could.

The father did not see the accident as he was paying the driver their fare out when it occurred. He heard the impact, however, when the boy was hit and quickly ran to him and picked him up. He at once realized that his condition was very serious and took him into his home in preference to sending him to the hospital. The little fellow passed away about 4:30 o'clock. Just about eighteen months ago LeRoy Knoffsinger, a brother, was run over by a heavy lumber wagon near the same place and killed.

William Knoffsinger was born April 29th, 1915, hence was 6 years, 7 months and 20 days old. In addition to his parents he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Harry Young, John, Mrs. Claude Baumgardner, Maurice, Anna Mary, Esther, Marion, Isabelle and Dean, all of Pleasant Gap. Rev. M. C. Piper had charge of the funeral services which were held in the Methodist church at Pleasant Gap at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.

BOLD BANK BURGLARY.

Two Men Hold Up Cashier Shope, Wednesday, and Rob Karthaus Bank of $5,000 to $8,000.

Two auto bandits held up cashier Avery Shope, of the First National bank of Karthaus, at 11:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, took all the loose cash they could get their hands on, a sum estimated at from $5,000 to $8,000, then locked the cashier in the vault, walked very unconcernedly out of the bank, got into their machine and departed for other fields.

One of the bandits was a large man and the other small. They drove a sports model Hudson car, but unfortunately no one seems to have noticed the license number. According to reports they drove into Karthaus from the direction of Snow Shoe. A Mr. Potter noticed the car as it crossed the bridge and stopped in front of the hotel. He also saw the two men get out. They were strangers and were well dressed. They walked directly across the street and into the bank, but he paid no further attention to them. Cashier Shope was alone in the bank when the men entered and one of the men promptly covered him with a drawn revolver and ordered hands up. The cashier promptly complied. They then forced him to open the door leading into the banking room and while one of the men kept him covered the other gathered up all the cash he could find and dumped it into a small grip he was carrying.

What to do with the cashier was the next question. The smaller man advocated shooting but the larger man demurred. Finally they ordered him into the vault and in closing the door mashed the cashier's fingers. The vault was locked so the cashier could not get out, then the men deliberately walked out of the bank, got into their machine and turning around started in the direction of Snow Shoe.

It was probably a half hour later when the Mr. Potter above referred to walked over to the bank. On entering he failed to see the cashier but at once noticed the open door leading into the banking room. He called Mr. Shope by name and that gentleman answered from the locked vault. The latter managed to give Mr. Potter the combination and he opened the door and released the cashier who promptly told of the hold-up. An alarm was at once sent out in the hope of catching the bandits, but they already had a half hour's start. By diligent inquiry, however, it was learned that they had driven towards Snow Shoe until they came to the cross-roads when they went toward Kylertown and Clearfield, but there the trail ends.

Fairbank's Greatest Picture Coming to State College.

"The Three Musketeers," coming to the Pastime, State College, January 9th and 10th, is announced by Mr. Baum, manager, as the most gripping and spectacular film ever produced by Douglas Fairbanks.

Based on that universally read classic by Alexander Dumas, "The Three Musketeers," and added to from the Memoirs of D'Artagnan, this feature is said to embody more that is adventurous, romantic and dramatic than it has ever before been possible to incorporate in a film vehicle.

The feats of swordsmanship alone in this picture are said to be worth the price of admission.

Fred Niblo, who directed Douglas Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers" was formerly a Cohan & Harris star in the "speaksies."

George Melford's superb picturization of E. M. Hull's famous novel, "The Sheik," which is the literary sensation of the year, will be seen at the Pastime theatre January 6th and 7th. Agnes Ayres, Paramount star, and Rudolph Valentino, who made such a hit in Camille recently shown there, are portraying the leading roles. Another big picture scheduled for early showing there is the Queen of Sheba, for January 16th and 17th.

EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY, BUT A DOG WITH A BROKEN TAIL HAS A WEAK END.

A week-end is usually considered a holiday, something the majority of us look forward to, yet few of us are fortunate enough to realize. Some of us are so busy that we fail to grasp the importance in giving our eyes a rest. Weak, tired or strained eyes are a detriment to your appearance and are continually sapping away energy. A pair of rest glasses will prevent both.
