PINE GROVE MENTION.

W. K. Corl is housed up with a badly bruised hand. A 550 gallon gas tank is being put in at the Louck garage. Martin Harpster is suffering with a partial stroke of paralysis. All the churches here had very interesting Christmas entertainments. A family dinner was served at the C. M. Dale home on Christmas eve. John Martin is nursing a broken arm, sustained in a fall from a wagon. Clarence Cronmiller is nursing a broken arm sustained in crashing a car.

Prof. Leslie Krebs, of Shippensburg, greeted old friends here on Friday. Miss Ruth Watt, of Lewistown, spent the holidays with her parents.

Lester Goheen, of Philadelphia, spent his Christmas vacation in this section. Many family home comings was a feature of the Christmas season in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rupp and little son, of Pittsburgh, are visiting friends at Boalsburg. During the holiday season the Stork brought a little son to the Ernest Trostle home.

Grandmother Rachael Wilson is here to spend the winter at the W. E. Johnson home. Jacob DeHaas and family are now snugly located on the W. G. Runkle farm at Oak Grove.

A. S. Walker found one of his fattening steers choked to death in the stable Friday morning. Quite a number of minor motor accidents have occurred in this section on account of slippery roads.

D. W. Miller is planning to rebuild his bungalow in the mountains, which was recently destroyed by fire. After a lengthy visit among Centre county friends Miss Esther Sparr returned to her home at Williamsburg on Friday.

Mrs. Sarah Sunday, wife of Elmer Sunday, of Fairbrook, was taken to the Clearfield hospital last Friday for an operation. The entire family of Charles T. Homan are ill with influenza. Considerable illness prevails hereabouts, but no very critical cases.

Mr. and Mrs. Benner Walker, of Oak Hall, went to Dayton, Ohio, on Friday, on a ten day's visit, their special mission being to see their new grandson. While Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Long were motoring down the state road on Christmas their car skidded and turned upside down. Both were badly bruised but not seriously hurt.

A large crowd attended the 75th annual banquet of Pennsylvanians at the I. O. O. F. last Friday evening. Guests were present from Harrisburg, Lewistown, Alexandria, Charter Oak and Pleasant Gap.

A family gathering was held at the old Bowersox home on Christmas, which will probably be the last, as the venerable Franklin Bowersox was taken to the Glenn sanatorium at State College last Friday.

Rev. John E. Reish, of Loganton, preached in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening. Being a native of this locality he was greeted by a large congregation. Regular services will be held in the same church next Sunday morning.

On Monday morning while Mr. Beck, of Warriorsmark, was hauling a load of students from Tyrone to State College his car turned a loop on the road and did not stop until it ran backwards down a steep bank. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Rev. A. M. Lutton, who recently resigned as pastor of the Lutheran church here to accept a call at Dayton, Ohio, shipped his personal effects to that place on Thursday and with his wife and baby left for his new parish on Friday. Rev. Lutton was pastor here two years and eight months and during that time conducted a drive for the Susquehanna University, remodelled the church at an expense of $4,000, every cent of which was paid, and was at all times very progressive in all kinds of church work. He is a splendid pulpit orator and will be greatly missed by the congregation here. He preached his final sermon on Christmas evening.

OAK HALL.

L. K. Dale and son Ralph transacted business in Bellefonte Friday. Mrs. Jacob Zong, who has been sick for the past week, is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Peters and family visited on Christmas day with relatives at Pine Grove Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhoades are spending an indefinite time at the Adam Rhoades home in this place.

Malcolm and William Gramley, of Altoona, spent part of their vacation at the home of their aunt, Mrs. R. C. Lowder. Miss Levon Ferree, who is employed at Williamsport, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ferree.

days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ferree. Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Homan and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Homan were Christmas guests at the Earl Ross home near Centre Hall.

A Holiday party was held at the home of L. K. Dale, Friday evening. Quite a number of young people were present and all reported a good time. While working at the Oak Hall Lime and Stone company plant, last Wednesday, William Albright had the misfortune to be hit by a falling stone and cut about the face. He is improving.

BOALSBURG.

The schools opened Monday morning after a week's vacation. Mrs. William Beck, of Altoona, visited among friends in town recently. Charles Hosterman spent part of the Christmas vacation on a western trip.

Prof. and Mrs. Lenhart, of Milroy, were week-end guests of Mrs. Jennie Fortney. Mrs. Devine, of Altoona, is spending some time at the home of P. B. Lonebarger.

Capt. and Mrs. Sohl spent the Christmas season with their parents in Philadelphia. Mrs. Lettie Goodhart, of Farmers Mills, recently visited at the home of Mrs. W. A. Murray.

A number of our prominent business men participated in the parade on Saturday afternoon. The Koch brothers and sisters and their families spent Monday with the youngest sister, Mrs. Roy Coxey.

Mrs. Mabel Mothersbaugh and son Daniel, of Aaronsburg, visited friends in town en route to State College. Prof. Lenks and sister spent their vacation at their home at Jersey Shore, and Prof. Rettew at Hummelstown.

After spending several days at her home here Mrs. E. C. Radel returned to Millersville, where she is helping to care for her mother, who is ill. Albert Meyer, of Pittsburgh, and Dorothy and Helen Odenkirk, of Centre Hall, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fry, of Philadelphia, have been in town for several weeks, called here by the illness and death of Mrs. Fry's father, George Kaup. Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Kuhn and daughter, Miss Mildred; Mrs. George Houtz and daughter Elsie, of Williamsport, were visitors in town recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stuart and son, George Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Reuber Stuart and daughter Elizabeth, and Mr. and Mrs. David Stuart, of Crafton, were visitors in town during the Christmas season.

ORVISTON.

Miss Daisy Wyland, of Howard, visited her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wyland. Miss Almata Bixel has returned to her duties at Sterling Run, where she is teaching the grammar school.

Clair and Margaret Poorman spent the holidays with their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roger B. Poorman, at State College. Harold and Daisy May, of Jersey Shore, visited their father, Frank May, the station agent here. They had a good time roaming over the hills with Merrill Condo, hunting Christmas greens.

William Gray and daughter, Miss Essie, visited with Mr. Gray's brother, Schuyler Gray, at Flemington, last week and also hunted for Santa Claus. Other Orviston folks who visited in Lock Haven and Mill Hall were Mrs. Hensyl Young, Mrs. Ira Condo, Mr. and Mrs. James Delaney, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brown and Mrs. Mary Lomison.

The Orviston church gave its annual Christmas entertainment Thursday, the 22nd. It was in the nature of a concert, and rather well rendered, considering the weather and the short time taken to practice. It was under the able direction of Newton Cameron and William Ridge, with Miss Almata Bixel presiding at the piano as a favor to Miss Poorman, releasing her for the choir. A beautiful "Shepherd's drill" by the young girls from Miss Poorman's, Mrs. High's and Miss Miles' classes, was beautifully performed. The best recitations of the evening were by Nettie Watson, Harvey and Dorothea Young and William Hume Jones. As Harvey is not yet seven, and William and Dorothea are less than six years old, they were certainly to be commended, as they spoke clearly and quite unafraid.

MEDICAL.

It's Surprising
That So Many Bellefonte People Fail to Recognize Kidney Weakness. Are you a bad back victim? Suffer twinges, headaches, dizzy spells? Go to bed tired—get up tired? It's surprising how few suspect the kidneys. It's surprising how few know what to do. Kidney trouble needs kidney treatment. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. Have convinced Bellefonte people of their merit. Here's a Bellefonte case; Bellefonte testimony. Kidney sufferers hereabouts should read it.

Mrs. L. A. Hill, E. Bishop St., says: "I am bothered by backache occasionally. I keep Doan's Kidney Pills in the house, however, and the benefit I derive from their use is very gratifying." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hill had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

AARONSBURG.

A happy and prosperous New Year. John Rupp, of State College, was in the village circulating among relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Otto entertained a number of their friends at dinner Saturday.

Mrs. George Weaver spent a day very pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Witmyer. Joseph Johnson, after spending the holidays here with his wife, returned to Philadelphia, Tuesday.

Miss Madaline Weaver, of Hubersburg, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Effie Weaver, in this place. Never since the writer remembers have the church bells failed to ring out the Old and ring in the New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crouse spent Christmas day in Bellefonte with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Vonada. Mrs. Mabel Mothersbaugh and son Daniel, of State College, spent the holiday season with her mother, Mrs. Harriet Koch.

Fred Wolfe, of Akron, Ohio, spent Christmas with his father, C. W. Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe's visit was brief, as he returned to his employment on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Burrell and son Earl, of near Rebersburg, spent several days with Mr. Burrell's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Burrell, at her home on North 2nd street.

Mrs. G. S. Cunningham spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gulick, at Riverside, Pa. Miss Lois Cunningham spent her Christmas vacation with her parents here.

Saturday, December 31st, our quiet village was favored by a New Year fantastic parade, which was well gotten up. Various industries were represented. Everybody apparently enjoyed it.

The Misses Lizzie Yarger, Lodie Harter, Amanda Haines and Pearl King returned to State College Monday, after a two week's vacation with friends here. The Misses Stover returned to State College Tuesday.

'Squire and Mrs. A. S. Stover had a pleasant home-coming over Christmas of their family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stover and daughter Elizabeth, of Duncannon; Miss Marian C. Stover, of West Fairview, and Miss Yarger, of State College. These have again returned to their various fields of labor.

On December 24th Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stover gave a Christmas dinner. Those present were Mr. Stover's brother, Rev. and Mrs. Jacob Stover and son Robert; Mrs. Stover's mother, Mrs. Mary Beaver, and also her brother, J. W. Beaver and wife, and sons Paul and Lester, and daughter Edna, and Mrs. L. E. Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull entertained Mrs. Hull's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Brooks, who came here from Coatesville. While here Mrs. Brooks became quite ill but improved to such an extent that they left for Pleasant Gap, where they spent Christmas with Mr. Brooks' niece, Mrs. John Royer and family.

December 24th, 1921, Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary at their cozy home in this village. The guests present at dinner and to spend the day were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Guisewite, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowersox, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Stover, all of Woodward; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer of Coburn; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson and J. A. Grenoble, of this place. All had an enjoyable time and on leaving for their homes wished Mr. and Mrs. Weaver many more years of wedded happiness.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Many Women Need Better Blood
They Lack Vitality and Color. It is a fact proved by thousands of grateful letters that Hood's Sarsaparilla is remarkably beneficial to women, whose most common ailments drain and weaken the system and sometimes result in anemia, nervousness, general break-down. Women overworked by family duties are overstrained socially, find their nerves all unstrung, faces pale, appetite poor, sleep unrefreshing. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives the blood more vitality and better color, makes stronger nerves, and contributes to the enjoyment of life. It embodies a long-tried and found-true formula.

NEVER FORGET
When you feel hopeless and despair of ever getting back your health, there is one medicine that you should try before giving up altogether—Bulgarian Blood Tea assists nature to flush the poison-soaked kidney, stir the lazy liver, gently move the bowels and purify the system. And when you take it steaming hot at bedtime it breaks up a bad cold and guards against influenza, pneumonia or other sickness. Why not ask your druggist or grocer for a trial box today.
