THE OLD AND THE NEW.

Old Bellefonte Council Held Final Session, New Council Organized.

The old Bellefonte borough council held its final session on Monday evening with every member in attendance. W. C. Coxe was present and made complaint about the partial closing of east Logan street by Harry Keeler, who recently purchased a lot in that section and fenced in over half of the street. On motion of Mr. Harris the borough manager was instructed to see that the street is opened to its full width of forty feet.

Chief fire marshal John J. Bower submitted his report for the past year, calling attention to the fact that the department has but 1850 feet of hose, with but 1150 feet in good condition.

A communication was received from John S. Ginter, of Tyrone, treasurer of the Pruner Orphanage, informing council that the money received from the sale of the Pruner block in Tyrone and the property in Ness county, Kan., had been invested in Liberty bonds long ago, and that he had only recently received the money from the sale of the woodland in Bald Eagle valley.

The Street committee reported the collection of $152.50 by the borough manager on the Spring street state road account.

The Water committee reported the laying of a 1 1/2 inch water pipe out Howard street and the collection of $32.68 for its extension beyond the borough limits. Report was also made of the collection of $238.35 on the 1920 water taxes.

The Fire and Police committee presented the burgess' check for $16.24 for fines collected during the past three months.

The Finance committee presented the report of the borough treasurer showing a balance on hand on January 2nd, 1922, of $22,230.31. The committee also asked for the renewal of notes for $1,700, $2,000, $3,000 and $2,500, all of which were authorized.

On motion of Mr. Richard $2,000 was transferred to the sinking fund. Secretary Kelly stated that the new fire department ordinance passed at the last meeting of borough council had been vetoed by burgess W. Harris Walker, who submitted ten lengthy reasons for so doing, which were read by the secretary. After hearing the reasons Mr. Richard stated that he did not consider them sufficient for killing the ordinance.

Mr. Cunningham stated that the committee had spent considerable time in preparing the ordinance and it had been carefully drawn by the borough solicitor, and he made a motion that it be passed over the burgess' veto. Mr. Harris seconded the motion and on a roll call every member voted aye and the ordinance was passed.

The secretary presented the deed, fully signed, for the land for the opening of north Water street and was instructed to have the same placed on record. The ordinance providing for the opening of said street was then read for the second time and passed finally.

Mr. Brouse, of the West ward, nominated Darius Waite as a member of council from that ward as successor to John L. Knisely, recently resigned. Mr. Cunningham seconded the motion and Mr. Waite was unanimously elected.

The secretary presented a list of exonerations of taxes requested by collector J. Kennedy Johnston covering the period from 1915 to 1921, inclusive, and the same was referred to the Finance committee for investigation and report.

Bills to the amount of $7,588.09 were approved for payment. The minutes of the meeting were then read and approved and on motion of Mr. Harris the old council adjourned sine die.

Burgess Walker then administered the oath of office to the incoming members, W. J. Emerick and Benjamin Bradley, of the North ward; Thomas Hazel, of the South ward, and Darius Waite, of the West ward, as well as the re-elected members, W. H. Brouse and J. M. Cunningham, of the West ward. He also administered the oath of office to David Barlett, re-elected borough auditor, after which he called the new council to order and announced that he was ready to hear nominations for president. John S. Walker was the only nominee and he was duly elected. W. T. Kelly was elected secretary without opposition.

A communication was received from Thomas Howley requesting the appointment as policeman for the ensuing two years, the same being referred to the Fire and Police committee.

President Walker announced that until the new committees are appointed at the next meeting of council the old committees will remain in force. There being no other business council adjourned.

The regular meeting of the Bellefonte Parent-Teacher association will be held in the High school room Monday, January 9th, at 8 p. m. There will be music and interesting speaking. Although the attendance has been fine more should be present to hear the splendid talks which are given; more fathers especially should attend.

"Watchman" readers will this week miss the breezy little "Week Ahead Program" of the Scenic theatre and opera house movies. Manager Brown has been uncertain as to the merits of the advertising; whether the program was read with interest by scenic patrons, and to settle the matter he asks all who read or watched the program weekly to either tell him or write him a card informing him of the fact, and if the same has been appreciated he will gladly continue it.

The bride is well known in Bellefonte, having been engaged in the insurance and real estate business the past few years. Mr. Fauble is proprietor of the Fauble stores in the Brockerhoff house block and is one of Bellefonte's leading business men. They expect to return and be at home to their friends in their already furnished rooms in the Brockerhoff house.

Goheen-Lowther.—A wedding of interest to readers of the "Watchman" in the western end of Centre county was that at noon on Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Lowther, in Indiana, Pa., when their daughter, Miss Margaret Helen Lowther, became the bride of Capt. John P. Goheen, of Tyrone. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Elliott S. White, D. D., of the Methodist church, in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride is an accomplished musician and most charming young lady. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Ida M. Goheen, of Tyrone, and a grandson of the late John B. Goheen, of Ferguson township, this county. He is captain of Troop B, of Tyrone, and only recently returned from Fort Riley, Kan., where he completed a course in special cavalry training.

Musser—Handley.—Ralph M. Musser, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Musser, of Boggs township, and Miss Birdie A. Handley, of Lewisburg, W. Va., were married at sunrise on Monday morning of this week at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Musser came to Bellefonte on their wedding trip on the 3:10 p. m. train on Tuesday and were at once driven to the Musser home on the farm below Milesburg where they will spend the week. Sixty-five guests were present at a big reception and dinner given in honor of the young couple yesterday.

The bridegroom is a graduate of State College and was filling the position of farm agent in Tioga county at the time the United States entered the world war. He promptly enlisted for service overseas and served with the engineers. During the past year he has been serving as county agent of Greenbriar county, West Virginia. He is an energetic and progressive young man and the "Watchman" joins with hosts of friends in wishing him and his bride a long and happy life.

A Wonderful Picture. "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," which will be shown at the opera house Tuesday and Wednesday nights, January 10th and 11th, has been pronounced one of the greatest pictures ever filmed. It was six months in the making, cost an even million dollars and twelve thousand people were employed at various times from the time it was started until completed. The picture is a screen version of Vincente Blasco Ibanez's wonderfully interesting book of the same title, which is now in its two hundredth edition. Half a million feet of film was used up in the original screening. This extraordinary length was cut down to twelve reels of a thousand feet each, which now make up the picture. A splendid orchestra furnishes appropriate music during the showing of the picture. Everybody who can do so should make it a point to see this wonderful picture.

BANK ROBBERS CAPTURED.

Kartha Bank Looted by Two Residents of Phillipsburg.

Within forty-eight hours from the time two men held up cashier Avery Shope and robbed the First National bank at Karthaus of $6,280, both men were arrested and proved to be Harry Kinkead and Raymond Shope, both residents of Phillipsburg. On Monday of this week the two men pleaded guilty and were sentenced by Judge Bell, at Clearfield, to not less than seven nor more than twelve years in the western penitentiary. Up to the present a little over three thousand dollars of the stolen money has been recovered. Suspicion was first attracted to Harry Kinkead by his lavish expenditure of money the day following the robbery, and he was promptly arrested. After considerable questioning he finally confessed and implicated Shope. The latter had gone to Brookville in the Hudson car used by the two men on their trip to Karthaus and he was arrested there on Friday morning. Morgan Shope, a brother of Raymond Shope, was also arrested on Friday and on Saturday two other Phillipsburg men, Summerfield Test and William Fryberger were taken into custody.

According to the story of the two principals in the affair Test and Fryberger helped to plan the robbery but failed to show up when the time came to do the deed, and Kinkead and Shope did the job themselves. They further admitted that neither Test nor Fryberger shared in the proceeds. Under the circumstances the two men were released from jail but held in one thousand dollars bail each as accessories before the fact. Morgan Shope was given $350 of the stolen money to pay a pressing debt and he was discharged under a suspended sentence, as it was proven he did not know where the money came from.

The robbery of the bank occurred on Wednesday morning, December 21st, and by the evening of the 24th all the men were under arrest and over half of the money recovered, but up to this time the two principals have not disclosed the whereabouts of the balance of it.

Kinkead is a native of Phillipsburg but spent most of the summer in Pittsburgh. He returned to Phillipsburg early in the fall and had been working at the new Curtis park. Shope had for some time before his arrest been an employee at the Centre and Clearfield Railway company. He is married and has two small children.

Chinaman Electrocut.

Chung Tao, of Reading, was electrocuted at the Rockview penitentiary on Tuesday morning and was the first of his race to be put to death in the electric chair in Pennsylvania. Chung was brought to the death house on Saturday by sheriff Edward Deem, of Berks county, and at least four deputies. Ordinarily he would have met his fate on Monday morning, but that being a legal holiday the mandate of the law was not executed until Tuesday morning.

Chung's downfall was the result of a poker game. According to the story he won all the money and then was accused of cheating by Joe Lee, a fellow countryman. A fight ensued and Lee was killed, having been stabbed eighteen times. Chung was arrested for the murder and at his trial denied the killing. Later, however, he confessed to his spiritual adviser that he had committed the crime but did it in self defense. Chung was attended to the death chair on Tuesday morning by Rev. S. P. Erisman, pastor of Grace United Evangelical church, of Reading.

During the holiday week we just stole enough time from the mechanical department to this plant to sit out in the front office for a few hours and act like the newspaper game was so soft that all one need is to keep his face and hands clean, throw a little bull and paw in money. After about four months of intensive nosing into type cases, ink legs and roller washing it seemed like "a little bit of Heaven." So many agreeable callers came in all wreathed in seasonal smiles and radiating good feeling. Among the nearly agricultural "bloes" who loafed and swapped yarns with us for a few moments were Wilbur Tibbens, who is on the Shugert farm at Pleasant Gap; E. J. Gentzel, who is carrying on on his father's big farm below Pleasant Gap; and Henry Hoy, who makes a specialty of raising beautiful flowers, good crops and serving pure milk to a Bellefonte route. Then came Ollie Campbell, of Barnesboro. He and his wife had been here for a few days at her former home at Pleasant Gap. Following him J. F. Zeigler and Peter Keichline, of Bellefonte, dropped in and with two such stalwart old Democrats laying themselves open to confab we nearly died of disappointment because there was a Republican lurking round in the back office and we couldn't open up with our friends for fear he would get mad and chuck the job he was at, for in that event our little delusion of being boss around here would have ended right then. O. H. Nason, farmer, lumberman and road builder of Martha, was next with a display of photographs of a hunting camp where deer and bear galore were hanging. Just when we effervesced with congratulations Orrie admitted that the picture wasn't of his camp, but that of the crowd located near his in the mountains. He had to get a picture of their kill because his own had none to take. We used to hunt with Orrie and we recall that he was always in our class—a dandy hunter—with the accent on the hunt. The last caller was J. H. Heberling, of Tyrone, who merely ran in for a moment while the train that was carrying him to his former home in Eagleville for a short visit, was discharging passengers. When he left we remembered something that had been forgotten down under the big press and our sun went behind a cloud of grease, printer's ink and paper scraps for the rest of the day.
