The campaign will continue one month and the entire State will be covered. No meeting will be held in Bellefonte, however, according to the itinerary sent out, but regardless of this fact world war veterans who are not now members of the Brooks-Doll Post will never have a more opportune time to join than right now.

The Royal Neighbors of America will hold an oyster supper this (Friday) evening at the home of Claude Thompson, on north Water street. Price of supper, 35 cents. The public is cordially invited.

CENTRE HALL.

Thomas A. Hosterman has been quite ill for a week or more, suffering from a very severe boil.

Mrs. Stofflet and daughter Phyllis, of Hartford, Conn., spent Sunday with Mrs. Stofflet's sister, Mrs. T. L. Smith.

Miss Elsie Moore, who had been getting along fairly well since leaving the hospital, had a severe heart attack early in the week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Knarr on Sunday night. He is to be named John Dauberman Knarr; a very appropriate name.

Mrs. Mervin Arney and Mrs. J. H. Puff, who have been quite ill with pneumonia, are both slightly improved, but not yet out of danger.

The body of Mrs. Hanna, a daughter of W. H. Blauser, of Pottery Mills, was brought here from Ohio on Wednesday and buried at Sprucecreek.

Mrs. W. A. Picken had a hemorrhage of the nose last Saturday night and was confined to her bed for several days. On Monday night Rev. Picken was also taken quite ill.

Winter over? Well, I guess not! The weather on Wednesday morning was regular winter weather—and it grew worse as the day advanced—until by evening traffic was practically at a stand-still.

CROSS EYES CAN BE STRAIGHTENED.

Some people cross their fingers when they see a cross-eyed person. This is unfortunate, as both are entitled to sympathy. The former, because they are superstitious and think they avoid bad luck by crossing their fingers, and the latter because their appearance attracted the attention of the former.

Both can be much benefited if they use a little common sense.

Cross-eyes can be straightened with properly fitted glasses if not allowed to go uncorrected too long.

I have straightened many cross-eyes.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
