Ed Livingstone, who spent some time sightseeing at Washington, D. C., is now rusticated at the St. Elmo.

Miss Esther Corl is in the Glenn sanatorium at State College, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Rev. J. S. English, of Williamsport, Md., will fill the pulpit in the Lutheran church at seven o'clock Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shuey, of Pleasant Gap, were pleasantly entertained at the Wallace Musser home on the Branch last Friday.

Mrs. Gertie Williams and Mrs. Maggie Bowersox attended the funeral of Mrs. Philip Meyer, at Centre Hall, last Wednesday.

W. R. Ward has installed a wireless outfit in his home here and is able to catch messages from Arlington and various other stations.

William and Irvin Keller, of Pittsburgh, are visiting their aged father, who is quite feeble as the result of a third stroke of paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everhart are both down with the grip. Mrs. Susan Goss and Mrs. Anna Fortney are also among the sick this week.

Fred Fisher, of Cumberland, Md., has been here this week buying goods, Cleve Mitterling having gone to Arkansas on account of his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fry spent Sunday with Mrs. Fry's sister Ethel, who has been under the doctor's care for some weeks, but is now improving.

A community hop was held at the Irvin Walker home just west of town last Wednesday evening. H. B. Ward and George Reed furnished the music and refreshments were served.

Robert Barr, who went west thirty years ago, and since then has been in various of the western States, is visiting his cousins, postmaster David Barr and sister, Miss Sallie Barr.

While Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn were in town Friday on a shopping expedition Mr. Quinn was taken suddenly ill and had to secure a driver to take them to their home near Graysville.

Randall Rossman, rural mail carrier, last week bought the T. A. Frank home at Baileyville. The consideration was $850.00, and as soon as some necessary repairs are made he will move in.

D. W. and Miles Thomas transacted business in Altoona last Friday, preparatory to the latter leaving for North Carolina, where he will go into training as a pitcher with the Reading ball club.

Dr. Stork left a little girl at the Robert Campbell home last Friday, the first arrival in ten years. A little boy was also left at the W. B. Frank home on Washington's birthday, and has been named William Washington Basil Frank. It might be interesting to note that the youngster's father and grandfather were also born on Washington's birthday.

The missionary pageant held by the ladies of the Baileyville Presbyterian church, last Sunday evening, drew a full house. The proceeds, including the Sunday school collection in the afternoon amounted to $70.00, which will be given to the Near East relief. The collection at the Presbyterian Sunday school in the morning amounted to $55.00, which will also go to the Near East.

Last Friday evening as Kenneth Thomas was in the act of unhitching the family driving horse a gust of wind blew the buggy against the horse. The animal became frightened and ran away, smashing the buggy. The horse also attempted to jump a fence and ran a stake into its side, cutting an ugly gash. A veterinary sewed up the wound and there is every probability the animal will get all right. The boy was uninjured but so badly frightened that he has been ill with a nervous shock ever since.

RICH MAN, POOR MAN, BEGGAR MAN, THIEF, DOCTOR, LAWYER, INDIAN CHIEF.

All have their troubles. The rich man has nothing on the poor man when it comes to trouble. The doctor and lawyer, as well as the beggar man and thief have their troubles. They may differ somewhat, but trouble is trouble and why trouble trouble until trouble troubles you? But if you have trouble with your eyes I am at your service and can overcome eye trouble which will help you overcome all other trouble.

Personal Equations

Character is the chief asset of any business. And the character of any business is made up of the characters of all its executives and personnel. What do you know about the character of the men who govern the business where your money is placed?

We know the business and personal history of every executive in all of our industries. We know that back of the physical assets and earning power of our companies there is the good faith and moral courage of its heads.

That is a comforting assurance to our investors.

Teaching You Thrift

Practice makes perfect. School-masters of today as well as yesterday constantly repeat that truth. Pupils learn by applying it.

Application of that principle to our everyday habits proves its practical help. We learn by practicing, whether it be a good habit or a bad habit.

This bank teaches you thrift by leading you to practice it. The lesson is easily learned once it is begun. To become perfect in it requires constant practice. A savings account is the most consistent method of practicing thrift. Try it by starting an account with us and see how easy and profitable the habit becomes.
