Foods for School Children.

Following is a list of the generally approved foods for school children, with suggestions for the school lunch, prepared by the State Health Department:

BREAKFAST

Cereal (oatmeal, cornmeal, rice, cream of wheat, shredded wheat, farina, corn flakes).
Milk, or cocoa made with milk.
Bread and butter (preferably whole-wheat bread).
Egg or fruit (egg soft boiled or poached); (stewed apples, peaches, apricots, prunes; oranges or grapefruit).

LUNCH

Vegetable soup, or cereal, or egg.
Milk.
Bread and butter.
Cooked fruit (apple sauce, baked or stewed apples).

DINNER

Meat or fish (about two ounces. Never fried).
Fresh vegetables (spinach, chard, beet tops, greens, carrots, beets, boiled onions).
Raw celery, cucumbers and corn should not be given until after the tenth year.
Starchy vegetables (potatoes, sweet potatoes, rice, hominy, spaghetti, macaroni).
Bread and butter.
Dessert (rice, tapioca, bread pudding, cooked fruit, cornstarch pudding, gelatin, ice cream).

Candy should be eaten immediately after meals. If the child is hungry after school give him bread and butter. Never give a child under twelve tea, coffee, mustard, catsup, pickles, pork, dried or salted meats, kidney, liver, game or rich pastries.

The poverty social to be held in the armory by the Brooks-Doll Post of the American Legion on Friday evening, March 24th, promises to be an unique affair. Everybody is invited and are expected to wear the oldest clothes they can find, the older the better, as a fine not exceeding ten cents will be levied on well dressed people. No admission will be charged but a charge will be made for the dance and refreshments. Make your plans to be on hand.

$3,500 Buys $11,500 Farm.

By paying $3,000.00 down and the balance on very easy terms.
This farm of 270 acres of practically all tillable soil is located in the heart of the great potato growing section of Potter county, Pa., and is just one mile from railroad station.
The barn is 60x100, with two silos, gambrel roof, etc. The house is cottage style, one and one-half stories, both buildings are in excellent condition.
With the farm goes 25 head of registered Ayrshire cows and heifers, one registered Ayrshire bull, and complete line of farming machinery and tools.
This is a great bargain and must be sold at once. For particulars and further information write,

Teaching You Thrift
Practice makes perfect. Schoolmasters of today as well as yesterday constantly repeat that truth. Pupils learn by applying it.
Application of that principle to our everyday habits proves its practical help. We learn by practicing, whether it be a good habit or a bad habit.
This bank teaches you thrift by leading you to practice it. The lesson is easily learned once it is begun. To become perfect in it requires constant practice. A savings account is the most consistent method of practicing thrift. Try it by starting an account with us and see how easy and profitable the habit becomes.
