PLEASANT GAP.

The robins are visiting us in profusion, but the frisky bluebirds are late in putting in their appearance.

Mrs. Lee Samsel and her interesting little daughter Margaret, spent a very pleasant day recently with her brother-in-law Rice's family, at Rockview.

Our enterprising townsman, Mr. Ray Noll, paymaster of White Rock quarries, has purchased the Abram V. Miller estate farm adjacent to Pleasant Gap. The entire tract consists of almost four hundred acres, three-fourths of which is well covered with prop and chemical timber.

Some of the officials of our state road department had a meeting in Bellefonte last week. Among other pending operations it was decided to re-surface and widen the College state road from the summit to State College in the near future.

What strange infatuation is it that tempts men to drink alcoholic liquors to excess, when facts and reason, and nature and religion, are continually warning them of the inevitable train of disasters and evils consequent thereon?

Probably the happiest girl in Benner township on Friday night last was Miss Cora Peters, it being the occasion of her birthday anniversary, and a delightful party was given in her honor by her numerous friends and admirers.

Recently while at the postoffice, two rather prepossessing High school girls, evidently mistaking me for an information bureau, asked me to please write something on love in my next epistle to the "Watchman."

ing but sickness. In many respects it is similar to sea-sickness, coming on suddenly, debilitating both mind and body and making the victim miserable. The love sick swain is just as pitiable a sight as the sea sick tourist. Neither cares if the sun ever rises or sets again. They want to die, and occasionally when nature refuses to accommodate them they take the affair into their own hands.

Rev. and Mrs. Stover are enjoying a visit of their daughter, Mrs. Hoffman and little child, of Baltimore. Henry Gilbert, our aged shoemaker, had the misfortune to fall on Sunday morning. In his feeble condition the fall rendered him almost helpless.

Frank B. Miller, of Tylersville, spent Tuesday night, the 7th inst., as the guest of Thomas Hull. Mr. Miller was a delegate to the Evangelical conference in session in Lewisburg.

Mrs. A. S. King left Tuesday morning for Milroy, where she will visit her daughter, Miss Lodie, and Mr. and Mrs. Kramer, who previous to going to Milroy were residents of this place.

Squire and Mrs. Stover have as a guest Mrs. Stover's sister, Mrs. Clark Herman, of State College, who came down Saturday for a week's visit here with her brother and family and with friends.

Mrs. Henry Mowery was called home from Altoona, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Mey, Mr. Mowery having had a bad fall from the straw mow while doing his evening chores.

5,000,000 acres of waste land in the State, and it already has been approved by the Grange. The Department's studies show that if this sum is made available for the purchase of devastated forest land, the entire amount will be repaid—principal and interest—within a reasonable time by the growth of the forests.
