Will the "Missing Link" be Built.

During the past week or two a corps of Pennsylvania railroad surveyors have been at work making a survey from Lemont to Fairbrook, by way of State College, and residents of the College are hoping that the survey is preliminary to the building of the missing link which will connect the eastern and western end of the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad and make that town the principal station on the through line instead of the terminus of the Bellefonte Central.

Similar surveys have been made on former occasions and all data as to the cost of construction, probable income as the result of the building of this piece of road, and everything connected therewith compiled and filed with the railroad officials and there the matter apparently ended. But now that another survey is being made hope has again revived in the hearts of State College residents and they are anxiously awaiting the verdict.

One argument put forth as favorable to the building of this piece of road is the recent purchase of an immense tract of limestone in Penn township by the Midvale Steel company. Most of the stone, when operations are begun there will be shipped west, and State College people figure that the building of the missing link will reduce the haul by many miles. While this is correct, the fact must also be considered that the western end of the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad is a line full of sharp curves and heavy grades, and it is impossible under present conditions to haul a train of more than ten or twelve cars over the road.

Be that as it may, the railroad company will undoubtedly figure out the whole proposition to the question of dollars and cents, and if they find that the building of the link will be a paying proposition, the link will surely be built; but if the report is adverse it will likely be pigeonholed like all previous reports.

Planting of Memorial Trees Postponed.

The planting of memorial trees along the state highway between Lock Haven and Bellefonte, contemplated for this spring by the Civic club of Lock Haven and later by the Woman's club of Bellefonte, can not be done this year. The project has been held up by negotiations with the State Highway Department which has been going on for some months.

The United Telephone company objected to the project when it was planned to plant the trees at the edge of the highway, but the Highway Department now advises setting the trees back from the present line, as the department will broaden the roadway when the present macadam wears out. The fund that the Civic club of Lock Haven has already accumulated toward this project will be kept intact for another year.

District Health Board Organized.

Representatives of the borough boards of health from Blair, Huntingdon, Clearfield, Centre, Fulton and Bedford counties met in Altoona last Friday and organized a district health board with the following officers: President, Luden K. Chilcote, of Mt. Union; vice presidents, M. W. Nace, McConnellsburg; Sheridan Gaulin, Clearfield county; John C. Dunkle, Huntingdon; James C. Furst, Bellefonte; John N. Drass, Hollidaysburg, and William Lysinger, Bedford. Secretary, Thomas G. Herbert, Altoona; treasurer, H. G. Bickley, Williamsburg.

In the appointment of the various standing committees John Blanchard Esq., of Bellefonte, was made chairman of the committee on public policy and legislation.

—Albert Torrence White, of New Castle, was electrocuted at the western penitentiary at Rockview on Monday morning for the murder of his wife over a year ago. Early in 1921 Mrs. White mysteriously disappeared and several weeks later her body was found in an abandoned barn on the outskirts of that city. Every indication pointed to the fact that she had been choked and beaten to death. White was convicted of the murder and on Monday morning paid the penalty, though he protested his innocence to the last.

GOSS.—William H. Goss, a well known farmer and lifelong resident of Ferguson township, passed away at the home of his son Samuel, at Reading, at 12.30 o'clock on Sunday morning. He had been in poor health for almost a year and in January went to Reading and entered the hospital where he underwent two operations. He was apparently regaining his health and had gone to the home of his son but last Wednesday he suffered a relapse and sank gradually until the end.

Deceased was a son of Samuel and Myra Harpster Goss and was born at Graysville on February 2nd, 1848, hence was a little past 74 years of age. In the spring of 1873 he married Miss Susan Keichline and they started their married life on a farm at Rock Springs. In 1891 he purchased the Brett farm at White Hall where he lived until 1909 when he quit farming and moved to Pine Grove Mills. He was a lifelong member of the Lutheran church and for a number of years past a ruling elder in same. He was a member of Pennsvalley Lodge No. 276, I. O. O. F., a past grand and one of its trustees. In 1920 he was elected supervisor in Ferguson township but was compelled to resign his office owing to ill health.

Surviving him are his wife and three children, Samuel E. Goss, of Reading; William K., of Tyrone, and Mrs. Elsie Corl, of Pine Grove Mills. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Sadie Krebs, of State College, as well as eleven grand-children and two great grand-children.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Pine Grove Mills at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. W. C. Dunlap, and burial in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills was under the auspices of the I. O. O. F.

RIPKA.—Mrs. Amelia V. Ripka, wife of Adam C. Ripka, of Centre Hall, passed away on Wednesday night following an illness of two weeks with kidney trouble and other complications. She was a daughter of Joseph and Katherine Decker Daup and was born at Centre Hill on December 19th, 1853, hence was 68 years, 3 months and 3 days old. She was married to Mr. Ripka on June 18th, 1885, and for twenty-two years they occupied the Joseph Neff farm at Centre Hill. During the past seven years they had made their home in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Ripka is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Charles McCool, of Spring Mills. She also leaves two step-sons, Emery S. Ripka, of Centre Hall, and Bruce, of Spring Mills, and one brother and three sisters, namely: Daniel Daup, of Centre Hall; Mrs. William Ertle, of Coburn; Mrs. Jefferson Huffman, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. Charles Leister, of Potters Mills.

She was a member of the United Evangelical church and Rev. Bingman will have charge of the funeral which will be held at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) morning, burial to be made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

HEATON.—Mrs. Arvilla Heaton, wife of Miles Heaton, of Bellefonte, passed away at the Bellefonte hospital at two o'clock last Friday morning following a prolonged illness with dropsy. She had been a patient at the hospital two months previous to her death.

Deceased was a daughter of James and Isabella Stine and was born in Clearfield county on January 25th, 1868, making her age 54 years, 1 month and 22 days. When she was a child the family moved to Centre county and practically all her life was spent in or near Bellefonte. She was a member of the Methodist church from girlhood and a good, christian woman. On April 9th, 1891, she married Miles Heaton and he survives. Two children preceded her to the grave. Other survivors include her father and three brothers, Harvey R. Stine, of State College; A. W. and J. Ellis Stine, of Bellefonte.

Funeral services were held at her late home at one o'clock on Monday afternoon by Rev. George E. Smith, after which burial was made in the Advent cemetery in Boggs township.

WEILAND.—John Weiland, a well-known farmer, died at his home in Spruce Creek valley last Saturday following two day's illness with the flu. He was a son of Lazarus and Mary Weiland and was born on the same farm where he spent all his life, in 1864. In the spring of 1884 he married Miss Carrie Gilbert, who died in 1905, leaving one son, Fred. He later married Miss Minnie Rosecrans who survives with four children, Roy, May, Guy and Martha, all at home. He also leaves two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Henry Wagner and Mrs. Henry Houck, both of Warriorsmark, and A. L. Wieland, of Baileyville. Burial was made in the Seven Stars cemetery on Tuesday.

EVEY.—Mrs. Sarah M. Evey, wife of Henry Evey, died at her home at Lemont last Saturday as the result of a stroke of paralysis, aged 82 years. She was a daughter of John and Mary Painter and was born in Potter township. She married Mr. Evey in 1870 and he survives with the following children: Mrs. A. C. Grove, of Bellefonte; Mrs. J. C. Williams, of State College; Robert F. Evey, of Bellefonte, and Wade, at home. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Beck, of Axe Mann, and Mrs. Mary Lontz, of Niagara Falls. Burial was made at Lemont on Tuesday morning.

HARTMAN.—Rev. Willard W. Hartman, a well known minister in the Central Pennsylvania Methodist conference, died at the Ward house, Tyrone, on Monday afternoon as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained on Sunday morning. Rev. Hartman was stationed at Clearfield and was in Tyrone attending the conference. On Sunday morning he went to the Tyrone station to take the train for Clearfield to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Thomas H. Murray. He was stricken while waiting for the train, was carried to the Ward house where he lingered until late Monday afternoon.

The deceased minister was not quite fifty-two years old and was a native of Columbia county. A peculiar coincidence is the fact that he was ordained a deacon when the conference was in Tyrone in 1895, and it was there he passed away just twenty-seven years later. During his pastorate he filled appointments at Freeland, St. Mary's, Mifflinburg, Gettysburg, Hollidaysburg, Tyrone, Harrisburg and Clearfield. He is survived by his wife and three children, his only son being a theological student at Boston. The remains were taken to Bloomsburg for burial.

STAMM.—John William Stamm, a native of Centre county, died at his home in Altoona on Sunday morning. He had been in failing health for several years and last August fell and sustained a fractured hip which kept him confined to bed ever since.

He was born near Boalsburg, this county, on November 18th, 1846, hence was in his seventy-sixth year. He followed farming in Harris township until fifteen years ago when he sold out and moved to Altoona, where for some years past he had lived a retired life. In January, 1870, he married Miss Anna Myers, of Boalsburg, who preceded him to the grave. Surviving him, however, are the following children: Mrs. W. A. Lytle, Fred P. and Charles H. Stamm, of Mifflinburg; Mrs. W. J. Ishler, of Bellefonte; Ursinus W., of Aaronsburg; Russell H., of Altoona; Jacob M., Annette E. and Elsie M., at home. He also leaves one brother, C. J. Stamm, of Eldorado.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Tuesday evening and on Wednesday the remains were taken to Boalsburg for interment.

PEALER.—Mrs. Jane Pealer, widow of the late William Pealer, of Spring Mills, passed away last Friday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. Manasses Geiss, at Penn Hall, as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained a short time previous.

She was a daughter of Philip and Julia Leitzell and was born in Gregg township almost eighty years ago. She married William Pealer when a young woman and all their married life was spent at Spring Mills. Since Mr. Pealer's death a number of years ago she had made her home with her sister. She had no children and her survivors include her sister, Mrs. Geiss, and two brothers, James Leitzell, of Wisconsin, and Philip Leitzell, of Millheim.

Funeral services were held at the Geiss home on Tuesday and burial made in the Heckman cemetery. Among those who attended the funeral were James Leitzell and several nieces and nephews, of Pittsburgh; William Pealer Leitzell, of Illinois, and Mr. and Mrs. John Dauberman, of Centre Hall.

WHITEMAN.—After a week's illness with pneumonia John A. Whiteman passed away at his home near Centre Hall last Thursday, aged sixty-one years. He is survived by his wife and eight children, Ira and Mrs. Arthur Garlic, of Lynn, Mass.; Edna, Grace, Gilbert, Ralph, Laura and Frances, at home. He also leaves one brother and two sisters, Samuel Whiteman, of Hastings; Mary and Margaret, of Snow Shoe. The remains were taken to Snow Shoe where burial was made on Monday afternoon in the Askey cemetery.

Automobile Show a Success.

Bellefonte's second automobile show closed last Saturday evening and every member of the Centre County Automobile Dealers' association, under whose auspices it was given, seemed well satisfied with the results. The total paid attendance during the week ran close to twelve hundred. The proceeds were more than sufficient to meet the expense, and will leave a small balance in the treasury.

Several of the exhibitors claim to have made sales as the direct result of the show, while most every one got a number of prospects that they probably would not have had if it hadn't been for the show. Every person who visited the show was impressed with its style and dignity and there is every reason to believe that it will be made an annual affair.

The March meeting of the Womens club of Bellefonte, will be held Monday night, at the home of Miss Mary H. Linn, at seven-thirty o'clock. It being a musical evening, Mrs. Louis Schad and Mrs. J. Carpenter Hess will have charge of the program which will include a male quartette composed of James Seig, Russell Blair, John Bullock and Frederick Reynolds. All music lovers are invited to be the club's guests that evening.

Father's Day at State May 6th.

The annual "Father's Day" celebration at The Pennsylvania State College will be observed on Saturday, May 6th, according to a decision by the student council, and plans have already been started to show the 1500 to 2000 "Dads" expected, the most unusual treat of their lives. More than a thousand fathers attended the first gathering of this kind at Penn State last spring and that event was such a great success that many more are expected by their sons and daughters this year.

Members of the Senior class at Penn State who last fall started a movement for the laying out of a monster letter "S" on the shoulder of Nittany mountain, three miles from the college, are about to reconsider the plan. A number of objections have been raised, chiefly by faculty members, based on the ground that the letter, even outlined in evergreen trees of light and dark shades, would have a "billboard" effect and mar the natural beauty of the mountain scenery. No final action has yet been taken by the class, and plans are being considered to use the letter fund for some worthy campus project.

The Penn State war memorial tablet has arrived and plans are under way for its erection in the auditorium on the campus on May 30th, Memorial day. This tablet was purchased through student contributions. It is of bronze and contains the names of all Penn State men who lost their lives in the world war, a total of seventy-three.

To Furnish Feed for Trout.

To provide natural food for trout in streams flowing through state forests, the Pennsylvania Department of Forestry is preparing to plant along the brooks trees that will attract insects. It has been decided that shad bush, commonly called June berry, is the most desirable variety because bugs and insects will come to the white flowers which bloom in the early spring. It is expected the insects will fall into the stream and be eaten by the fish.

John W. Keller, chief of the Bureau of Silviculture, has announced the Department will collect shad bush seeds and plant them in state forest nurseries next spring. When they are large enough, the trees will be transplanted from the nurseries to the banks of streams.

Boy Scout News.

At our meeting last Friday evening we went over portions of the tenderfoot test in order to explain it to those who failed to pass on March 10th. We also went over the second-class test briefly, taking most of the sixteen parts in the compass and going over the semaphore code. At the conclusion of this work three-quarters of an hour was spent in games and social enjoyment.

Announcement has been made by Mrs. David Watts, of Harrisburg, of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marion B. C. Watts and Richard Randolph Johnson, of New York. The wedding will take place in the fall. Miss Watts and Miss Bertha Laurie volunteered for service at the opening of the war, going over and working together until its close. Upon returning home they were put in charge of a Y. M. C. A. in New York city, the first women to hold this position in America. Miss Watts left the work when announcing her engagement.

Very few farmers this spring who have made public sales have been satisfied with the prices received for their stock and farm machinery, but this cannot be said of ex-county Commissioner D. A. Grove, who made sale last Friday. One horse sold for $302 and a pony for $75. His sale totalled $4650, as much as the two day's sale of the Grazer brothers at Huntingdon Furnace. Mr. Grove had good stock but only three cows and a large variety of implements. He advertised his sale well and had many real buyers there.

Good motion picture shows can be seen at the Scenic every evening in the week. If you are among the regulars you know the high class pictures always shown there; if you are not a fan you can't find a better place to spend a few hours each evening than at this well known place of amusement. Pictures worth the money is the standard set by manager T. Clayton Brown, who believes the best is what his patrons deserve.

To those people who are bemoaning the fact that cold weather continues to prevail to a certain extent it might be stated that at this time last year many fruit trees were in full bloom and then on April 11th along came a storm of rain, sleet and snow with a regular freeze and that settled the fruit crop last year. Better put up with the cool weather now and have in prospect a bountiful supply of all kinds of fruit later.

John Price Jackson, formerly dean of the school of engineering of The Pennsylvania State College, is chairman of the Engineers' Club committee of Philadelphia, on the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition. He has also been retained in consulting capacity by the Industrial Relations committee of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are living at 1108 S. 46th St., Philadelphia.

The Value of Cow Testing Associations.

How a cow testing association increased the average value of production per cow above feed costs from $46.50 to $222.53 in the five years he was in the association is told by county agent J. N. Robinson. This man started with grade cows and finished the five years' period with pure-breds. His average production from grades the first year was 7,150 pounds of milk and 274 pounds of butter fat. The production from the pure-breds in the fifth year was 11,720 pounds of milk, average for each cow, and 454 pounds of butter fat. The cow testing returned an increase of 4,570 pounds of milk and 180 pounds of fat in five years. He was receiving $176 more per cow above the feed costs, with pure-breds in the fifth year than he received from the grades in the first year.

Dairying is probably the most important single farm enterprise in Centre county, yet there is not a single cow testing association in the county.

There is considerable sentiment in favor of a testing association and already about two-thirds of the required number of dairymen have signified their desire to join. Any one interested should get the particulars from Mr. Robinson, at the Farm Bureau office.

A public dance which has been arranged for by the Woman's club will be given in the armory Thursday evening, April 27th. The Academy orchestra will furnish the music and all tickets of admission will be seventy-five cents. Go to the dance, which will be both a benefit and one of the most delightful events of the season.

Manager Mishler, of the Mishler theatre, Altoona, announces an engagement of Sousa and his wonderful band for two special concerts afternoon and night of March 31st. Persons not living in Altoona can make reservations by mail, telephone or messenger. Matinee at three o'clock and evening concert at 8:15.

Word has been received from Philadelphia of the death in that city last Friday afternoon of Mrs. Anna Suber, an aunt of Mrs. H. W. Tate. She was ill but three days, having contracted a severe cold which developed into pneumonia. Burial was made on Monday.

Horace G. Tussey died on Monday at his home at McAlevy's Fort, following an illness of several months. He was well known throughout the western end of Centre county where for years he pursued his vocation as a stock buyer.

The groundhog made good this year but there is no sense in the darn critter overworking his usefulness as he has been doing this week.

The Hagenback and Wallace circus with sixty cars is booked for Altoona on May 6th.

High School Student May Win all College Expenses.

The High school students of Centre county have received announcement of a good roads essay contest that will net the winner an award that carries tuition and all reasonable expenses for a college education valued at $4000. It is a four year scholarship to be used at any American college or university the winner may select. The contest is national and is announced by the Highway and Highway Transport Education committee, of Washington, D. C.

Essays not exceeding 700 words in length on the subject "How Good Roads are Developing my Community," are to be written by High school students and turned over to the principal by May first. A local committee will select the three best from the essays submitted and send them to The Pennsylvania State College engineering extension department at State College. There the best one from Pennsylvania will be selected and sent to the committee at Washington where it will be considered with those from other States and a formal award made. The college extension department, which is now giving highway construction training to hundreds of men throughout this and other States, has sent the announcement and rules to each High school in the State. The prize is worth while, for the scholarship will undoubtedly cover every item of expense for a four year college course.

Every County Represented.

Every county in Pennsylvania is represented in the student body of The Pennsylvania State College this year, a fact which demonstrates the representative character of this state educational institution. Allegheny leads the list of counties with a total of 527 in the 3100 students in the regular four year courses and the 2000 in the last summer session. Centre is second with 377; Philadelphia third with 349; Luzerne fourth with 228; Dauphin fifth with 200, and Lackawanna sixth with 185. Fourteen counties have 100 or more.

Why Does a Brown Cow Eat Green Grass and Give White Milk.

That's the cow's business. If the cow had to have glasses to help her perform this wonderful feat, we wouldn't be able to prescribe the proper glasses.

This not being necessary, we give all our time to caring for men's, women's and children's eyes so they can see the brown cow, green grass and white milk, as well as anything else. Dr. Eva B. Roan, Optometrist. Licensed by the State Board.
