They are still here and are assisting their mother in making their father as comfortable as possible.

According to reports from Hollywood, Cal., the salaries of motion picture actors and actresses are becoming more stabilized, but that does not affect the quality of the motion pictures shown at the Scenic. Manager T. Clayton Brown makes it a point to get the best on the market for exhibition at the Scenic, which is the main reason why that popular place of amusement has attained a wide reputation for showing good pictures.

Two kilns of the Pike quarries of the American Lime & Stone company were fired on Monday. This makes thirty-two kilns this company now has in operation, burning lime for chemical industries. The company is also shipping out a few cars of furnace stone daily. The Chemical Lime Co. has secured a big contract for crushed stone for state road work so that business is beginning to pick up at the various quarries in this section.

WITH THE BOROUGH DADS.

Howard Street Residents Oppose Erection of Krader & Co. Garage.

John J. Bower Esq., appeared before borough council on Monday evening as representative of W. C. Krader & Co., automobile dealers, requesting the granting of an application for the erection of a garage on Howard street, in the rear of their Allegheny street property. Mr. Bower stated that the company is compelled to vacate the building they now occupy and being unable to secure another suitable location had gone ahead with their arrangements to build a garage on their own property. That the framework of the building would be of heavy timbers but the sides and roofing would be corrugated iron, which would make the building semi-fireproof. Mr. Bower further stated that the company had not anticipated any objections to the erection of the building until they were notified by the borough solicitor that they had better secure a permit from council.

Hard P. Harris personally protested against the erection of the garage and also presented a petition signed by citizens of that locality requesting council to refuse a permit. John Blanchard Esq., also appeared on behalf of the residents of that locality and vehemently protested against the building of a garage at the designated point, because of the fact that it is a residential section and would to a certain extent depreciate the value of property in that locality. He also called attention to the fact that the courts have granted injunctions restraining the erection of garages in residential localities. T. R. Hamilton also entered a protest.

In reply, Mr. Bower stated that while it is true, as Mr. Blanchard stated, that courts have issued restraining injunctions it is also true that they have refused to issue injunctions. He further pointed out the fact that the stockholders of the Krader company are practically all business men of Bellefonte and entitled to some consideration. That it was impossible for them to secure a building elsewhere and they should not be restrained from erecting one on their own property. He further requested council in the event they refuse the permit to state the reason therefore, so that the question of the rights of the property owners can be settled in the courts.

Inasmuch as the rights of all parties might be properly conserved, president Walker decided that it would be better to refer the whole matter to the Fire and Police committee and borough solicitor for investigation and report at next meeting.

Morris D. Runkle asked for a grade for pavement in front of his property on north Spring street and the matter was referred to the borough manager.

The Street committee reported the collection of $30.00 for three sewer permits.

The Water committee reported the cleaning of the big spring.

Mr. Plack, of the Fire and Police committee, stated that the Eureka Fire Hose company had furnished two sections of new hose to take the place of two damaged sections. Mr. Emerick, of the same committee, stated that so far the committee had not worked out any plan governing the parking of cars on south Water street, but it was the general sentiment of the committee that all parking should be limited to five minutes. The committee was instructed to continue its work.

The Street committee presented the agreement with the County Commissioners to pay the sum of $500 toward the expense of repairing the Lamb street bridge.

The Finance committee presented the report of the borough treasurer showing a balance on hand April 3rd of $6960.31. He also asked for the renewal of notes for $1,100, $600, $1,000, $630 and $1,000, and that a new note of $1,000 be authorized to take up a note of like amount with the Bellefonte Trust company.

Mr. Emerick stated that the borough council of State College is contemplating the purchase of new fire-fighting apparatus and he asked permission of council to take one pump to the College to give a demonstration. The matter was referred to the Fire and Police committee and chief fire marshal.

Mr. Brouse, of the Street committee, stated that the American Lime & Stone company have resumed work at the Pike quarries and inasmuch as they offered to make the fill for the opening of north Water street the committee should be empowered to make the necessary arrangements. Mr. Fauble stated that some estimate should be made of the cost before any steps were taken to open that street, as the borough has almost reached its limit in finances. Mr. Brouse stated that the fill is to be made without any cost to the borough, as the American Lime & Stone company is anxious to have the chance to thus dispose of their waste material. Under the circumstances the matter was referred to the Street committee, the borough manager and the borough engineer to locate the street and designate where the fill is to be made.

Conrad Miller stated to council that he is ready to start work on the new porch at the Elk's club and stated that as a matter of safety it might be necessary to close the pavement there during operations. The matter was referred to the Street committee.

Mr. Fauble stated that Bellefonte should have a building code to govern the erection of all kinds of buildings and the matter was referred to the Street committee and borough solicitor.

Mr. Fauble also stated that it was time to fix the tax millage for the ensuing year and he suggested that council adopt the budget system so that the Finance committee might have some idea of the amount of money needed. The chairman of the various committees were instructed to prepare estimates and submit the same to the Finance committee.

A representative of the Sanborn Map company, of New York, was present and offered to furnish council with a complete sectional map of the town, in colors, for $34.00, and council voted to purchase one.

Bills to the amount of $3426.25 were approved after which council adjourned.

The Granger's picnic at Centre Hall will be held, this year, during the week of September 2nd to 8th.

Mrs. John Kostok, of Snow Shoe township, whose husband was found dead near his home on Saturday morning, March 25th, is not satisfied that he committed suicide, notwithstanding the fact that he was found with a rope around his neck, one end of which was tied to a root of the stump of a fallen tree. After the body was found a physician made a most careful examination but was unable to find any evidence of foul play. Kostok carried insurance in a beneficiary association but the policy especially provides that no payments will be made in a case of suicide, and unless she can prove that his death was caused in some other way the widow will reap no benefit from his insurance.

Thirty-two models of F. A. Whitman and Bloch baby carriages and strollers, genuine hand-woven reed, in all the new finishes. "The leaders for over sixty years." Largest selection in Centre county found at—W. R. Brachbill's. 14-11

Religious Census of Bellefonte.

Plans are on foot to take a complete religious census of Bellefonte and vicinity Sunday, April 23rd, from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, by sixty men of the churches of the town, in teams of two. The follow-up work will be completed by Wednesday, the 26th of April. The aim is to get a complete record of all the members of each house and the religious preference of each person. The churches and the bible schools of Bellefonte desire to render service to every man, woman and child in the town, and this information will be used toward that end.

Children's Week—(April 30-May 7).

The Sunday School Association of Bellefonte is making great plans for the observance of Children's week from April 30th to May 7th, inclusive. A tentative program follows: Sunday evening, April 30th, mass meeting with program stressing "Childhood." Tuesday afternoon "Cradle-Roll" party for mothers and cradle-roller members. Wednesday evening in each church the pastors will be asked to speak on some theme relating to "Childhood." Thursday, 3:30, "Story Hour and Treat." Thursday night stereopticon lecture. Friday night, "Pageant." Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, parade of all the Sabbath schools of the town. Each bible school will also have a special program for the day.

State College Organizes a Building and Loan Association.

In order to help with the great building movement that has been on at State College for some years, by enabling home makers to pay on the installment plan the Mt. Nittany Building and Loan Association has been organized.

It will operate on the same lines as similar organizations elsewhere and is being gotten under way by some of the town's most active and representative men, among them being: David F. Kapp, John L. Holmes, J. Howard Musser, Charles W. Swartz, Roy L. Webber, Joseph W. Henszey, Harold B. Shattuck, Charles H. Foster, David K. Peet, Irving L. Foster, Luther D. Fye, J. Orvis Keller, Linn R. Daugherty and John T. Taylor.

Boy Scout News.

At a meeting of the Boy Scouts last Friday night Donald Mallory, Charles Mensch, James Shope and Victor Emel were selected as members of the Scouts drum corps. A troop picture was to have been taken that evening but because of the weather it had to be postponed. Two short games of basketball were played, one with the colored boys and the other between two Scout teams. On Saturday afternoon the troop, in charge of assistant scoutmaster Malin and Sergeant Steltz took a hike, practicing tracking, talking landscapes and hunting for each other's patrols. Another hike will be taken tomorrow afternoon. This (Friday) evening Dr. Dale will begin a course in first aid, which is one of the tests everybody must pass before becoming first-class Scouts. Don't forget to give the Scouts a call if you have any odd jobs to do.

Sheep and Wool Association Elects Officers.

The future of the sheep and wool industry never looked brighter in thirty years than it does at present, (war time prices excepted), says J. N. Robinson, county farm agent. Medium wool at present is worth thirty cents at your local loading station, and grade ewes with lambs at side have sold as high as twenty-five dollars each at farm sales in Centre county. This is quite a different story from two years ago when wool could not be sold at any price and sheep were worth four or five dollars each. The sheep men of the United States are one of the best organized bodies of men in agriculture, and it is the efforts of these county and State sheep and wool growers' associations that are largely responsible for the present good condition of the wool market, and the price of wool is reflected in the price of lambs and breeding sheep.

The various branches of the Centre county Sheep and Wool Grower's Association held their annual meeting last week and elected officers and made extensive plans for this summer. The officers of the local branches elected for this year are:

President, Harry Harter; secretary and treasurer, W. C. Smeltzer, Bellefonte.

President, R. P. Campbell; secretary and treasurer, J. W. Evans, Spring Mills.

President, I. O. Campbell; secretary and treasurer, S. M. Hess, Pine Grove Mills.

The association expects to market the wool on a graded basis the same as last year. If you are a producer of wool in Centre county you cannot afford to remain outside of your sheep and wool grower's association. The members during the past year, and past three years have saved from 35 to 50 per cent by marketing their wool co-operatively and on a graded basis.

It is economy to tie each fleece separately, flesh side out and with paper twine. A loose fleece shrinks heavily, looks bad, is hard to handle and often means a difference of grade which may mean several cents per pound, because it comes before the grader looking its worst, while if properly tied the reverse is true.

Put up a good honest package in an attractive way, market co-operatively through your own association and you will come out ahead in the long run.

If you are interested in a pure-bred ram or a few pure-bred ewes your association can help you locate good ones at a right price.

Corl-Boal Bus Wrecked Last Friday.

Seven passengers in the Corl-Boal bus, running from Boalsburg to State College, had a thrilling experience last Friday afternoon when the bus collided with a wagon on the second bridge beyond Lemont and went down over a twelve foot embankment, and just missed tumbling into Spring creek. While all the passengers were considerably shaken up and some sustained a few slight bruises, none were seriously hurt.

The bus was a Reo, one of the light weight machines of the Corl-Boal company, and was driven by Luther Brouse. He was on his way to State College. The bridge where the accident occurred is at the bottom of a hill and located about the middle of a curve. It is barely wide enough for two vehicles to pass thereon, and it is generally customary for drivers to wait on one side when they see another machine or team closer to the bridge on the other side.

It just happened last Friday afternoon that three two horse teams were in line on their way to Lemont. William McClintic was in charge of the team in front, Clarence Blazier was in the middle and Frank McClintic drove the rear team. Two of the teams were about over the bridge when the bus came in view on top of the hill. The driver kept on down the hill but unfortunately when he realized that the last team would not be able to clear the bridge he was unable to stop his machine. He managed to evade hitting the horses but caught the rear end of the wagon, which threw the bus around and it plunged down over the bank at the left of the road. The wagon was damaged and Frank McClintic thrown from the seat onto the brake, injuring his side. The passengers in the bus were quickly rescued from the overturned vehicle.

Lock Haven an Examination Centre.

The State College entrance examination board has designated Lock Haven as one of the examination centres in Pennsylvania, and the examinations during the week of June 18th will be held in one of the commodious halls of the High school. Notice of this fact should be taken by all candidates who live in the central and northwestern part of the State, who may find Lock Haven more convenient to reach than larger cities. Notification of a candidate's intention to take the examination should be sent to Dr. Nelson P. Benson, superintendent of schools, Lock Haven, Pa., and conductor of the examination, several days before the examination is held, in accordance with the rules of the College entrance examination board.

He is now connected in a business way with the Watsonville Door and Sash company. The coal strike is on in earnest, but we should worry. If the supply in Bellefonte and Centre county runs out the Schaeffer hardware store has that wonderful Red Star vapor stove that burns oil and the fuel costs less than half as much as coal. Even if coal doesn't become scarce there is a stove worth looking at. It is economical and a great labor saver.

Notice!

The coal business in this place, which was financed by, and is conducted in the name of M. J. Thomas, continues to be run under the same business arrangements as when started less than a year ago. J. D. and Arthur Thomas are only employed to conduct the business for me.
