Frank Wetzler and His Band.

Our memory fails to record the time when music was not coming out of Milesburg. We go back to the period when the elder Bierlys were stellar instrumentalists in the old Bellefonte orchestra composed of such leading citizens and music lovers as Ivan Blanchard Esq., F. Potts Green, Dr. Hibler and Miss Susan Ohnmacht, when there was no commercialism, all love, in music. Then the Milesburg band was young. Frank Wetzler was sented Halfmoon township at the school a boy and 'Squire Bierly awakened the souls of Frank and his companions and they too sought expression in mu-

Ever since those days Milesburg has had a band and a band that Bellefonte would have been proud of and, in truth, has often claimed as one of its creditable organizations. Almost to Frank Wetzler, alone, is the credit due for the boys band and the girls band. While we have all, on occasion, had reason to feel grateful to him for our pleasure only those whom he has persuaded to take up an instrument know really what the accomplishment tal treatment for several days at the Geis- his unselfish devotion gave them means.
