PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. John Herman and Mrs. J. D. Herman and Mrs. Elsie Rimmey were Bellefonte shoppers on Saturday last. Whitebrook is shipping four cars of furnace limestone daily, and orders for several cars more are in sight, while new men are added daily.

Abner Noll had a force of men demolishing old land marks the past week. Thirty years ago Abner planted about a dozen poplar trees on his premises fronting on the state road. Through age they began decaying so that they presented a ragged eye sore appearance.

For ages past certain teachers and preachers have been trying to fix in the public mind the notion that cleanliness ranks next to Godliness. However, for some reason or other, it does not take well, although taught in the schools and preached from the pulpit.

Rumor has it that L. J. Burris is now a benedict, having married a lady from Altoona. L. R. Lingle's new dwelling on the old foundry site will soon materialize, as the wall is now being built. The restaurant formerly conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shoop is now controlled by Mrs. Belle Whiteman and son John.

Some of our Odd Fellows went to Sunbury last Wednesday to help celebrate their 203rd anniversary. Some went to Tyrone Friday, to help the western Odd Fellows celebrate.

A new ice cream parlor was opened on Saturday evening by Clyde Bradford in his dwelling. Dewart ice cream, made by Charles F. Sheffer, is sold at very reasonable prices. Last Thursday a car load of people from Mifflinburg spent the day at the home of Harry Dinges. Among them were the mother and sister of Mr. Dinges, the former of whom remained for an indefinite period.

Rev. J. E. A. Bucke, district superintendent of Sunbury district, preached in the Methodist church on Sunday, the 23rd. At this time the church, which has been greatly improved, was re-opened. The First Quarterly Conference of Pennsylvally charge was held immediately after the preaching service.

BOALSBURG. Miss Margaret Snyder spent Friday in Bellefonte. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town on Monday.

Mrs. William Sweet and Mrs. Fred Reitz went to Instanter Thursday. Miss Mary Hazel spent the weekend with Miss Geraldine Hackenberg, at Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dale and daughters, of Bellefonte, were visitors in town on Sunday. Misses Mary Reish and Nora Miller, and W. H. Sover, had their houses beautified by a coat of paint.

"Squire and Mrs. J. F. Zechman, with Ralph Rishel as chauffeur, enjoyed a trip to Snyder county, Saturday, returning home Sunday evening. Rev. Wagner preached an instructive sermon to the graduating class of the local High school on Sunday evening. The class is composed of the following members: Ruth Royer, Hester Lombarger, Mildred Gingrich, William Smith, Paul Brouse, Russel Bohn.

bright, or it played too much with its toes, or it crowded too soon, while the parents console themselves with the words of the preacher: "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away," or publish their sorrow to the world in the familiar lines: "Dearest Sally, thou hast left us, And thy loss we deeply feel, etc. Too much soap and water was what did the mischief.

Invalids are frequently kept weak and debilitated from too much bathing. Because the skin gets dry many persons, and not a few of them doctors too, think water is demanded. The chances are the dryness is the result of too much water. Friction, or something that will cause increased secretion of the natural lubricants is what is needed. There are times when the sick need bathing, but it should only be done by direction of the physician. Children should be washed when there is dirt on them, but not bathed twice a day nor once a day. See the dirty little cherubs; they are not washed more than once a week. If dirt were poison they certainly would die, but being hardier as a rule, than scrupulously clean children, the inference is that dirt is not such an ungodly thing after all. As external baths are necessary, for the removal of extraneous matter from the outer surface, so are internal baths necessary for removing it from inner surfaces. In carrying water from the inside out, the pores are acting naturally and no bad results follow. Persons rarely experience any bad effects from going into the cold while in a state of perspiration caused by a drink of hot water or any other liquid.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Good Rich Red Blood

And plenty of it, is essential to health, willing effort, good appetite. Lack of it, or thin watery blood, means illness, rheumatism, catarrh, humors, headache, wandering pains, cold hands and feet, decline of health- tone. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for all these and other symptoms because it is made from the best ingredients physicians prescribe, combined by pharmacists who have made a life-long study of medicines; and best of all, because it has helped thousands to have good, rich, red blood and all the blessings that come from it. The world and great economy of Hood's Sarsaparilla appeals to every one. A bottle will last a month. War tax removed and price reduced. Get a bottle. For a mild cathartic, get Hood's Pills. 67-18

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Politics are warming up in this section of the county. J. I. Reed is breaking ground for a new home on Main street.

A. C. Kepler has twenty acres of his farm planted in potatoes. Edgar Hess has the auto fever, and a new Ford looks good to him.

William Paul Goss went to Pittsburgh on Saturday in quest of a job. Mrs. Harry Miller and mother spent Sunday at Fairbrook, their former home.

Miss Mabel Goss, a typo on the Tyrone Times, spent Sunday with relatives in town. Mrs. Emily Johnson, of Pine Hall, departed on Tuesday for a visit with friends at Niles, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn motored up from Graysville on Saturday evening on a shopping expedition. J. B. Stearns, of Huntingdon, was an over Sunday visitor at the Oliver P. Bloom home on the Branch.

George P. Irvin is putting corrugated iron roofing on a portion of his large barn. S. E. Ward has the job. About two weeks ago Dr. Stork left a little boy at the C. M. Ross home, the eighth child in their interesting family.

The Will Glenn and Shirk families were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the Thomas Glenn home at State College. Hon. J. W. Kepler and wife came in from Johnstown and spent the early part of the week at their home on Main street.

Fred Osman, wife and two boys motored to Centre Hall in their new Maxwell car on Sunday and spent the day at the Fred Osman home. Miss Ella Livingstone, having closed her school at Reedsville, is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Maude Randolph, at the St. Elmo hotel.

William H. Homan and wife, of Centre Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Walker, of this place, were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the Charles T. Homan home on the Branch. The venerable J. P. Taylor of Mifflin county, is visiting his old friend, Samuel Fleming, on east Main street. Both gentlemen are around the foursome mark but are enjoying splendid health.

Samuel Kaup, of Altoona, passed through town on Saturday on his way to Boalsburg to visit his home folks, and carried the good news to his moth-

PREPARING GROUND FOR CROPS.

Lack of moisture is one of the important limiting factors in growing corn, oats and potatoes. Cultivation to conserve moisture before the crop is planted may be as important as later cultivation. When land is plowed and left loose and rough, it dries out very rapidly. The usual and natural practice in plowing is to complete the entire field before starting to harrow. If the weather is dry, as it often is in May, by the time plowing is completed the earlier plowed land is fairly dried out.

Not only is this moisture lost, and germination and growth seriously handicapped, but the dry soil does not harrow up and pulverize nearly so well as when worked when moist. On heavy soils a good seed bed may be impossible until rain falls. The logical method is to roll and harrow over the plowed land at the end of each day's or every second day's plowing. Harrowing can be done as well at one time as another. Prompt treatment settles the soil, closes the cracks and air spaces which promote rapid evaporation and leaves a loose mulch on the surface for a good seedbed which will hold the moisture until needed.
