

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Sunday will be Mother's day, and it should be reverently observed by everybody.

Miss Jane McCalmont, who has been ill for ten days, at her home on north Allegheny street, is slightly better.

St. John's Lutheran Brotherhood will be the guests of the Lock Haven Brotherhood Tuesday evening, May 16th.

The regular May term of court will convene next Monday and continue until all cases ready for trial are disposed of.

Samuel Joseph Koch and Mary Evelyn Davy, both of Bellefonte, were granted a marriage license at Cumberland, Md., last week.

William C. Rowe has a gang of workmen employed putting Hecla park in shape for the opening of the picnic season, which will be on Memorial day, May 30th.

Dr. Nissley, veterinarian, has moved his office from the Bush house stables to the rear of his residence, 16 Spring street, in building formerly occupied by Krader Motor Co.

The junior reception to the members of the graduating class of the Bellefonte High school, at the High school building this (Friday) evening, gives promise of being a delightful social event.

August Glinz has leased the Garman house to Henry Kline, former proprietor of the Haag hotel, and will leave in the near future on a trip to Europe. Mr. Kline will take charge next Monday.

Miss Ruth Garman was hostess at a dinner given Thursday evening of last week, at Edgefont, the Garman summer home at Axe Mann. Miss Garman's co-workers in Hazel & Co. store were the guests of honor.

At a regular meeting of the Business Men's association last week it was decided to observe a half holiday every Thursday afternoon from the first Thursday in June to the last Thursday in September, inclusive.

While Hugh Taylor and Harvey W. Tressler, of Bellefonte, failed in winning any of the big prizes in the North American salesmanship contest, they did qualify for a ten per cent. commission on every dollar sent in.

The advertising card of Sparks Bros. circus was in town last Friday plastering the country with big bills announcing the appearance of the show in Bellefonte a week from today, Friday, May 19th, on the fair grounds.

The condition of Mr. C. T. Gerberich, who has been so seriously ill at his home on Thomas street, was reported, yesterday, as being no better. His daughter, Mrs. C. U. Hoffer, of Philipsburg, came over Wednesday to be with her father.

While doing some repairing at the house of Peter Mendis, on east High street, last Thursday afternoon, Isaac Miller, the veteran carpenter, fell from a ladder and sustained injuries which will probably keep him housed up for some time.

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will please note the meeting for Friday evening, May 12th, at 7:30. Matters of importance require your presence. An invitation is extended to women who are not members to attend and add their names to the membership list.

Some time last Friday night both the Oak Hall and Lemont stations were broken into for the purpose of robbery. No money was secured but a few minor articles were taken. On Tuesday William Baker, who worked for John Klingner on the farm near Lemont, was arrested charged with the robbery. In default of bail he was committed to the Centre county jail.

The Bellefonte Academy track team, seven strong, went to Pittsburgh last Saturday and won the interscholastic meet at Schenley Oval under the auspices of Carnegie Tech. They scored forty points and won the handsome silver cup against twenty-nine other schools of western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia. The Pittsburgh Sunday papers gave glowing accounts of the good work of the Academy team.

Coincident with the Bellefonte Academy minstrels next Thursday and Friday the Academy baseball team will play ball on both days. Thursday afternoon's game will be with the Pittsburgh Collegians and the game on Friday afternoon with the Pitt Freshmen. Both games will be called promptly at three o'clock. Every fan should help swell the crowd on Hughes field each afternoon as the contests will be worth seeing.

The sensation of the Red Men's parade in this place on Wednesday was Wetzler's band of Milesburg. We announced several weeks ago that the band was soliciting funds with which to purchase new uniforms and while the public was probably prepared to see the organization in them we don't think any one anticipated such a resplendent appearance. A band is essentially a gala day institution and always we have thought that its uniform as well as its music should contribute to such a spirit. Certainly the Wetzler band must have had the same idea, for the new uniforms leave nothing to be desired in the way of effecting a dashing appearance.

ONE KILLED, TWO INJURED.

Furman Lyons Victim of Premature Explosion in Stone Quarries.

Furman Lyons met instant death in a premature explosion of a pop shot at the Miller quarries of the American Lime and Stone Co., located east of Bellefonte along the Jacksonville road, about eight o'clock on Tuesday morning. A pop shot is what is used to blow large stone to pieces so the men in the quarry can handle them. Mr. Lyons had been doing this kind of work for months and was one of the most reliable men on the job. Tuesday morning a hole had been drilled in a large stone and he was stooping over it tamping in the load when for some unaccountable reason the shot went off and he got the full force of the explosion. The upper portion of his body was almost blown to pieces. A dozen or more men were standing nearby at the time, but fortunately only two were injured. Edward Sunday sustained a number of bad cuts and was rushed to the Bellefonte hospital as quickly as possible. While his injuries are rather serious and painful they are not considered critical. Irvin Felmele sustained a few minor cuts but after having his injuries attended to by a physician he went to his home. A. G. Morris Jr., was standing on a ledge of rock just above where the explosion occurred and he escaped without a scratch.

Furman Lyons, the unfortunate victim, was a son of William (deceased) and Malissa Shultz Lyons and was born near Curtin on February 7th, 1896, hence was 26 years, 3 months and 2 days old. He served with the A. E. F. during the world war, being a member of the infantry in the 42nd division. He was married just about a year ago to Miss Grace Lucas, of Curtin, who survives. He also leaves his mother and the following brothers and sisters: Clarence Lyons, of Curtin; Charles, of Zion; Mrs. Catherine McGinley and Lehman, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. C. Dunkleberger, of Bellefonte; Nellie, Lilah, Thelma, Ruth and Peter, at home.

Rev. Mackey had charge of the funeral services at the house, which were held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, while Rev. W. P. Ard officiated at the interment in the Curtin cemetery where the Brooks-Doll Post of the American Legion was in charge.

Moonshiners, Stills and Moonshine Disposed of by Court.

Monday was moonshine day in the Centre county court, and two men, Peter Lose and August Zuranda, each drew sentences of $500 fine and six months imprisonment in the county jail. Both men are from Edendale, in Rush township, and two stills, two jugs and five quart bottles of moonshine were exhibited in court as evidence against the men. Both, of course, plead guilty. August Zuranda told the court that he started making moonshine because of the serious illness of his wife who needed a stimulant. His wife died on April 24th, but Zuranda also admitted that he had sold some because he had no work and needed the money.

Garfield Bolich, also of Rush township, plead guilty to having liquor in his possession and was placed on parole for one year.

Clarence Gross, of State College, plead guilty to the larceny of clothing from the Garner merchant tailoring establishment at State College and was sent to the Huntingdon reformatory.

Before adjournment the court instructed the district attorney to empty the moonshine into the sewer in the presence of witnesses and destroy the stills, consequently the illicit liquor was taken to the prothonotary's office and emptied into the wash bowl, trickling from there into the sewer and running thence into Spring creek.

"Listen to Me."

Le Compte and Flesher's musical comedy, presented at Garman's theatre, Monday evening, was unusual in many ways. For a road company playing one night stands like Bellefonte almost it was in a class by itself. It had stage settings worthy of big city productions. It had two people who sang well, in Maude Baxter and Ross Robertson. It had a chorus of girls who were piquant and comely and sensible enough not to hide their natural charms with an over use of lip sticks and paint brushes—and among them was not the usual belting, nasal, brazen dame that mars nine out of ten choruses in the traveling musical show.

The dancing of Barbara Bronell and Leslie Jones was grace itself and the comedy provided by Billy Murphy and Billy Moore was clever as it was appropriate to the nature of the play.

"Listen to Me" has probably had a successful season. It is late going in so it must have had. However that may be it deserved success because, as we have said above, it was an unusual show in point of settings, costuming, singing and acting.

Armenian Bundle Day.

Ransack your attic for Bundle day. No contribution will be too bizarre or old fashioned if it is capable of producing warmth. Bellefonte's Bundle day will be during the last week of May; the definite date and receiving places will be announced later. In the mean time keep this in mind and lay aside anything that will help destitute people living, many of them, in a climate where the winters are as severe as in Canada.

Mother's Day Service.

All members of the American Legion Auxiliary and all ex-service men are urgently requested to attend a special Mother's day service at the Lutheran church Sunday morning, May 14th, at 10:45.

McSparran to Visit State College.

John A. McSparran, Democratic candidate for Governor, will visit State College on Monday, May 22nd, and speak in the open air theatre at 7 o'clock in the evening, standard time. If the weather should interfere the meeting will be held in the auditorium. This will be an opportunity to hear this intelligent gentleman discuss the issues of the campaign.

Sunday School Baseball League.

A Sunday school baseball league is now being organized, and much enthusiasm is being manifested by the young men of the various Sunday schools in Bellefonte, all of which have been invited to join in the sport. A meeting of representatives of each church will be held at the Y. M. C. A. next Monday evening, May 15th, when officers and a board of directors will be chosen.

Leaves for Italy.

Robert Mercur, a student at Lehigh University, and Fritz Mercur, a student at the Harrisburg Academy, will sail by the first available steamer for Italy where their mother, Contessa Grace Bocchi Bianchi is seriously ill.

Mrs. Henry M. Stine, of Harrisburg, received a cablegram on Saturday telling of the illness of her sister, Contessa Bianchi, whose home is in the Palazzo Pandolfini, Florence, Italy, and Robert Mercur arrived in this city last evening, to arrange with his brother for an immediate journey.

The above was taken from Tuesday's Harrisburg Evening News. Contessa Bocchi Bianchi is well known in Bellefonte as Miss Grace Houck.

Bellefonte Scout News.

At our meeting last Friday night we had the compass test for those who did not pass at the previous meeting. Dr. Dale was unable to be present and give his third talk on first aid. We expect to have our suits to wear on our next hike. The Scouts discussed the question of going from house to house to ask for odd jobs of work. There was also some talk about ways and means to earn money to go camping. A committee was appointed to consider the question of an ice cream festival on the school house grounds and also having a stand at Hecla park picnics. Another committee was appointed to frame a constitution for the Troop. After the regular meeting the officers held a conclave.

DAVID GEISS, Scribe.

The Red Men's Convention.

Surely the native American is fast passing away, as was evidenced on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, on the occasion of the Red Men's convention. The committee expected an attendance of from three to four hundred but less than one hundred from the thirty-one tribes in the Central Pennsylvania district showed up. But those who came to the pow-wow had a good time and doubtless enjoyed the outing.

The meetings were held in the Bellefonte armory where burgess Walker welcomed them to Bellefonte in a brief address on Tuesday morning. Business sessions were held Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning. Officers were elected for the ensuing year and Lock Haven was selected as the place of meeting next year.

The spectacular event was the parade on Wednesday afternoon. The Bellefonte tribe, in war paint and feathers, turned out in full force accompanied by their squaws. The parade was led by the L. O. O. F. band, of Bellefonte, while the division of visiting delegates was headed by Wetzler's band, of Milesburg, resplendent in their new uniforms. The convention closed with a dance in the armory on Wednesday night.

Benton D. Tate Badly Injured in Fall from Ladder.

Benton D. Tate, the veteran line-man of the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania, was badly injured in a fall from a ladder at the home of R. D. Foreman, in Centre Hall, last Thursday afternoon. He was engaged in trimming out some trees which were causing wire trouble when he suddenly fell to the ground, a distance of fifteen feet or more. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and was brought to Bellefonte on the Lewisburg and Tyrone train and taken to the Bellefonte hospital where an X-ray examination disclosed the fact that his collar bone was broken, one rib fractured and another rib torn loose. Indications also pointed to a slight puncture of the lung, as well as a number of severe bruises. Just how he came to fall is uncertain, but it is believed that he was partially overcome with dizziness which caused him to lose his hold on the ladder and tumble to the ground.

While his condition is serious it is not considered alarming. He has been improving slowly this week but his recovery will naturally take some time. Mr. Tate is the oldest employee of the telephone company in Bellefonte, and his many friends sympathize with him in his unfortunate accident.

MILESBURG OLD HOME WEEK.

Citizens Planning for Big Time at Dedication of Soldiers' Monument.

The committee in charge of the erection of the soldiers' monument in Milesburg anticipate having the memorial ready for the unveiling and dedication in about two months, and arrangements have already been started to make it an epochal event in the history of that town. An Old Home week is being planned but the exact time has not yet been fixed for the reason that the date will be arranged to suit the convenience of one or more soldiers of national repute whose presence is very much desired on that occasion. Chief among the number is Gen. John J. Pershing, who is being communicated with, and who, it is hoped, will be able to attend.

The committee already has been assured of the attendance of Governor Sproul and his staff, Adjutant General Beary and his staff, a regiment of cavalry, and other military units. Of course the American Legion and men who served in the world war will be there. Arrangements have been made for a motion picture outfit to take pictures of the event, and a radio broadcasting station will be erected to transmit the speeches as well as the music of the Boys' band to a radius of eight hundred miles.

The monument, which has already been described in these columns, will contain the names of all the soldiers from Milesburg and Boggs township who served in any of the wars in which this country engaged, from the Revolution down to the world war. That part of Centre county has always responded most liberally to any call for patriotic service, whether it was for soldiers on the battle field or for money to assist in their equipment and maintenance.

During the Spanish-American war it was James McMonigal, of Milesburg, who cut the cable in the harbor of Cienfuegos, Cuba. Commander James J. Lucas, of Boggs township, was in charge of the U. S. cruiser Santiago when it was blown up above Sandy Hook in 1918 by a German submarine, and was the last man to leave the sinking ship. Then there was Lieut. C. W. Smith, of Milesburg, who refused to surrender to the Prussian guards in the fighting at Chateau-Thierry. These are notable instances of the bravery of the boys who served their country from that locality.

Is it any wonder that the people want to perpetuate their gallantry in a lasting memorial? Therefore it is up to the public generally to boost the Milesburg Old Home week to the limit.

A Musical Treat Coming.

Only once in a while do the residents of Bellefonte have the opportunity that will be theirs on the 18th and 19th of May at the opera house. At that time all the best musical and humorous talent of the Bellefonte Academy and some additional star talent will present the musical treat of the season at their annual minstrel performance.

Every effort will be made to excel all previous performances. The orchestras are of the best and Johnson and Campbell, the noted artists on the piano, xylophone and saxophone, will startle the audience with their musical manipulations. The prize quartettes, who claim to be fresh from audiences before the Crown Princes of Europe, will render their entrancing melody to a peace-pursuing audience with wondrous effect.

Eight clever end men will be supported by a fine male chorus of forty voices, well trained and in perfect harmony. In addition to the unusually fine program will be added the attraction of a star dancer in clog and fancy dances. This will be his first appearance here and is sure to be a catchy number.

Tickets are now on sale by members of the various organizations of the Y. M. C. A., as the performances will be given for its benefit. Tickets for reserved seats can be purchased from the canvassers and exchanged at Mott's drug store on and after Monday, May 15th. Secure your seats early.

Child Killed at Coleville.

A most distressing accident occurred at Coleville about 2:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon when nine year old Gilbert E. McMurtrie was caught under the track of the Bellefonte Central railroad turntable and crushed to death. The turntable has always been a favorite place for the boys of Coleville to play, notwithstanding the fact that they have been frequently cautioned to stay away from it. On Sunday afternoon a number of boys went to the turntable and were observed by Sinickson Walker, an employee of the company. He walked down toward the boys but at the time they were picking dandelions, so he went on his way.

Evidently tiring of picking the golden blossoms the boys went to the turntable and attempted to turn it around. The McMurtrie boy tripped and fell right in the way of the heavy track, was caught between the track and the concrete wall of the pit and crushed to death. He was a son of Edgar and Mary Bathurst McMurtrie and was born at Coleville on December 27th, 1913, hence was 8 years, 4 months and 8 days old. In addition to the bereaved parents nine brothers and sisters survive, as follows: Boyd, Harry, Ralph, Samuel, Ray, Florence, Nina, Martha and Lawrence. Funeral services were held on Wednesday and burial made in the Union cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane, of Boalsburg, are anticipating a visit to Philadelphia, expecting to spend a part of next week in the city, while Mr. McFarlane is under treatment by his oculist, Dr. Radcliff. Mr. and Mrs. McFarlane were among those from over the county who were in Bellefonte Wednesday—the Red Men's day.

Mrs. Charles C. Ashbaugh, of Detroit, and her two children, Katherine and Chase, who were here for the greater part of two weeks, called to Bellefonte by the critical illness of Mr. Ashbaugh, were guests for a part of the time during their great sorrow, of Mrs. J. Will Conley. It was the renewal of a friendship of thirty years ago, when Mrs. Conley and Mrs. Ashbaugh were school friends.

Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker will return from Pittsburgh Sunday to join her two younger children, Ellen and John, who are now occupying a part of the Shoemaker house on the corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets. Mrs. Shoemaker's two eldest sons, Philip and Collins, were here for the week-end, having driven over on the truck with the furniture. Augusta and Mary Shoemaker will come to Bellefonte later, expecting to be with their mother for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming and George T. Bush returned home the latter part of the week from attending the national encampment of the Knights Templar at New Orleans. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming made the round trip by rail while Mr. Bush went by boat from New York to New Orleans and returned by rail, making brief stops at the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky, Louisville, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Altoona, assisting in the latter place in introducing a class of one hundred and thirty-five novices into the mysteries of Shriner land.

Samuel H. Taylor, for the past two years located at Bridgeport, Conn., was a brief visitor in Bellefonte last Saturday and Sunday, coming here to see his wife and daughter, who have been in Bellefonte for several weeks, and also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Taylor. Mr. Taylor recently resigned his position at Bridgeport to become traveling inspector of a chain of stores operated by a Detroit firm. He travels over seven States and it takes from five to six weeks to make a trip. Mr. Taylor's headquarters will be at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., but owing to the fact that he will only be able to touch that city at infrequent intervals he has stored his furniture, Mrs. Taylor and daughter will for the present, at least, spend their time in Bellefonte with Mrs. Taylor's mother, Mrs. J. M. Leib.

State Sanitary Inspector Visits Bellefonte Again.

Mr. W. C. Welliver, sanitary inspector from the engineering division of the State Department of Health, spent Monday in Bellefonte making a hurried survey of the properties against which complaints had been lodged at the time of his first visit six weeks ago. He found the borough board of health had been making efforts to abate the nuisances with evident success. The toilets on the Railroad street properties of the Potter-Hoy Co., have been cleaned, also those on Phoenix avenue belonging to the Match company; the outside toilets removed from Miss Rebecca Rhoads Lamb street properties, but a new complaint has been entered against toilets on her Howard street properties and assurance is given that these will soon be attended to; the manure heap, at the end of the Bush house stables along the creek, that has been an eyesore to many for a long time, has been removed.

The frequent complaints against the outside toilets on A. C. Mingle's properties on W. Logan street will be satisfied as Mr. Mingle very soon will install inside toilets of an approved sanitary type. Complaints against two properties on E. Pike alley belonging to S. D. Ray, and against properties in Beaver Row remain unsatisfied, as also are the numerous complaints against the piggeries.

It is difficult, almost impossible, for a health officer to determine when a pig pen is in a sanitary condition and the surest redress for these complaints is to abolish pig pens from the boroughs. This puts the matter up to the council and complainants would better see their own councilman and ask that action be taken to remove piggeries from the borough.

George Glenn, who is taking the place of Elmer Yergeer as health officer, has been following up all complaints made to the secretary of the Board of Health and, in several stubborn cases, has given the offender five days to clean up premises or be subject to fine or imprisonment. Let all who are interested in seeing our town in a sanitary condition support the health officer in his commendable efforts.
