

CENTRE HALL.

Miss Mollie Hoffer, of State College, is visiting friends in town.

J. F. Lutz spent the past week in Nittany valley helping his cousin, Hiram Lutz, make hay.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shoop are entertaining a little guest who visits them quite frequently.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. W. R. Picken went to Huntingdon county to visit with relatives in that locality.

Miss Grace Smith spent the greater part of last week with friends in Tyrone, Altoona and State College.

Stones are being placed along the road in the borough. This looks encouraging for future good streets.

Mrs. Getschell and children are visiting at the home of her parents, ex-Sheriff and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart.

R. D. Foreman is not greatly improved. At times he seems to rally a great deal and again suffers from severe sinking spells.

Mrs. Filmore, of New York city, formerly Miss Mary Krumbine, sister of John H. Krumbine, with her husband and daughter, spent several days at the hotel.

Last Friday, Erdman West and family returned to their home in New Jersey, taking with them Mr. West's mother, who has been living with the H. J. Lambert family.

Ruth Bingham, second daughter of Rev. J. F. Bingham, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday evening, suffering with appendicitis. Pneumonia having developed during Saturday night, an operation was postponed indefinitely.

Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Jones and daughter, Miss Gladys, came to Centre Hall on Tuesday evening to be present at the wedding of William Bradford and Miss Isabel Rowe, which took place on Wednesday evening. Rev. Jones tied the knot.

Mrs. S. H. Heckman, of Johnstown, was called here last Friday on account of the serious illness of her father, Mr. H. W. Kreamer, who was suffering from a severe attack of indigestion. He improved so rapidly, however, that she was able to return to her home on Monday afternoon.

PORT MATILDA.

Alvah Weaver spent Sunday in town as the guest of his lady friend, Miss Eloise Adams.

Miss Nannie Cowher is taking the six week's summer course at the Normal school at Lock Haven.

The social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gates, on Saturday evening, was a success socially and financially.

Miss Virginia Adams, one of Tyrone's successful school teachers, is spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Adams, in Reese Hollow.

Clarence Walk and Miss Tillie Woodie, two well known young people of our town, quietly slipped away to Cumberland, Md., where they were united in marriage, Saturday, June 24th. They returned home the beginning of the week and have been receiving the congratulations of their many friends, who wish them a long and prosperous married life.

To "Educate" Wine Drinkers.

English palates, long noted for their appreciation of fine old wines, are in danger of deterioration because of the lower price of vintages, according to a group of prominent wine merchants who propose an English "wine week," in emulation of the French custom. Wine, they declare, is no longer a luxury, as the lower price has brought it within reach of all.

The purposes of wine week, it is said, will be to educate the English taste for wines and also to instruct diners in the elementary rules and traditional usages of beverage selections. It is planned to gather a representative group of speakers and writers to sing the praises of wine and to tell those who would learn how to drink it. The merchants expect substantial assistance from the governments of wine-producing countries, such as France, Italy, Spain and Australia.

Interested in Big Ship.

As the Seydlitz, of the North German Lloyd steamed up the Hudson, she listed to larboard because 255 of her 256 cabin passengers wanted to get a look at the Leviathan. The one passenger who was indifferent was a German-American from Philadelphia, who claimed he had seen her before. Some of the new arrivals who had never laid eyes on the Leviathan could not be convinced that it was a vessel of any kind or name, declaring that no ship could be that big. One thrifty soul exclaimed: "And just think—I am told the Americans have paid $5,000 a day for the upkeep of der alte kasten (the old box)!"—New York Evening Post.

Chorus Strike Ended Opera.

Silk stockings and new blouses were among the demands of the chorus girls which brought the opera season at Bayreuth, Bavaria, to an untimely end. One day the young women declared that they would not go on the stage in the evening unless their demands for higher wages and silk stockings, blouses, and shoes were complied with. The corporation of Bayreuth declared that it would not be blackmailed by a pack of girls, dismissed them on the ground that they had broken their contract, and closed the opera house.

Some Folks Think the Counting of Sheep Will Put Them to Sleep.

Counting all the sheep in the world will not bring repose if insomnia is caused by nervousness due to eye-strain.

Reliable physicians will not prescribe medicine for sleeplessness until the patient has had his eyes examined by a thorough optometrist.

Eighty-five per cent. of all ailments are due to overtaxed nerves.

Better have your eyes examined.
