

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Members of the Order of the Eastern Star picnicked at Hecla park yesterday.

The Bellefonte fish hatchery has started the shipment of fingerling trout for stocking the various trout streams in the State.

Mrs. George A. Beezer is a surgical patient in the Bellefonte hospital, slowly recovering from the effects of an operation Wednesday.

Policeman George C. Glenn has a good bicycle picked up on the street and so far unclaimed. The machine evidently had been stolen and abandoned. Owner can secure same by proving property and paying for this notice.

The Bellefonte public schools will open on Tuesday of next week, September 5th, with a full corps of teachers. All pupils will be required to present certificates of vaccination. The Bellefonte Academy and The Pennsylvania State College will open September 13th.

The coach and sixteen candidates for the 1922 football team at the Bellefonte Academy arrived in town yesterday and will at once begin practicing for the opening game. The Academy will open next Wednesday and indications are that the attendance will be up to that of last year.

Coach Bezdek has issued a call for all football material to report at State College today to begin practice for the 1922 season. Only six of last year's championship team are left as a nucleus around which to build a fighting eleven this year, but the fans are pinning their hopes on Bezdek, who has never failed them yet.

The Granger's picnic will not be the only attraction next week. The always reliable, ever dependable Scenic will be open as usual every evening during the week and it offers a splendid way for entertaining your friends. An evening at the Scenic is a treat for old and young and motion picture parties are both pleasant and interesting.

Bellefonte housekeepers should bear in mind the fact that next Monday will be Labor day, and all the stores in Bellefonte will be closed. Many people also are under the impression that yesterday was the last day for the stores closing Thursday afternoons, but such is not the case, as the practice will be continued throughout the month of September.

Bellefonte friends of C. E. Williams, purchasing agent of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, will be interested in learning that he has just completed the erection of a handsome new home at Westfield, one of the most delightful suburban towns in New Jersey, and has moved there from Bayonne, where he and his family have lived for some years past.

Don't forget that tomorrow (Saturday), the real and personal property of the late C. T. Gerberich will be sold on the premises, on north Thomas street, Bellefonte, at 2 o'clock. In addition to the fine home many useful household articles will be sold. Among the latter is a piano and a kitchen cabinet, neither of which are mentioned on the bills advertising the sale.

Going out to feed her chickens, one morning this week, Mrs. George Rhoads, of Coleville, found a man's size solid gold ring in the chicken yard. As she has no use for the ring, the owner can recover same by calling and proving his property. Incidentally it might be mentioned that about a dozen of Mrs. Rhoads' chickens have mysteriously disappeared during the past few weeks.

The United States government has issued notice that two billion dollar's worth of Victory loan bonds will be redeemed December 15th, 1922. This will include all bonds bearing the serial letters A, B, C, D, E and F, and due in May, 1923. The bonds will be redeemed at par with accrued interest at 4 1/2 per cent. Interest on all bonds as above noted will cease bearing interest after December 15th.

From three to five the afternoons of September fourteenth, twenty-first and twenty-eighth, at the homes of Mrs. Frank McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. John Blanchard and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, respectively, the music study club, for the joint benefit of its own work and that of the Bellefonte hospital will give a series of musical teas. William Shakespeare did not say that good tea, and the afternoon, become the touches of sweet harmony; but, bearing a specimen of Uncle Sam's silver coinage, go and prove it's true.

George W. Rossman, the well known merchant and garage owner of Rock Springs, was brought to the Bellefonte hospital on Wednesday and yesterday morning underwent a major operation. He was taken sick several weeks ago and because of the seriousness of his condition two minor operations were performed at his own home as a means of temporary relief until he could stand the trip to the hospital. Inquiry at that institution before the "Watchman" went to press yesterday brought the information that while Mr. Rossman is a very sick man he withstood the operation fairly well, considering his condition. He had not entirely recovered from the effects of the anesthetic and it will be some hours before any decided developments, either for better or worse, may be expected.

GRANGE FAIR NEXT WEEK.

Big Encampment Will Open Tomorrow at Centre Hall.

Grange park, Centre Hall, will be the mecca next week for Centre county farmers, stockmen, implement dealers, politicians from State candidates down, Midway celebrities and the general public. It will be the forty-ninth annual encampment and fair held by the Centre county Grangers and every indication points to an unusually large gathering. Practically every one of the tents have been taken and many permits have been granted for exhibition purposes and Midway attractions.

Most of the permanent campers will move in tomorrow so as to be on the grounds for the religious services on Sunday. Exhibitors and concessionists will also put their attractions in shape tomorrow so as to be ready for the opening of the picnic on Monday. No admission will be charged to the grounds on Sunday and with pleasant weather many people will likely motor to the park for the religious services.

The official opening of the picnic will take place on Monday and the speakers both that day and Tuesday will be officials of the Centre county and State Grange.

Wednesday will be soldier's day, when the members of the Centre County Veteran club will hold their annual reunion. While all the arrangements for this gathering have not been completed at this writing the committee in charge has the assurance of a number of good speakers. The Citizens band of Ferguson township will furnish the music during the day. Soldiers of the Spanish-American and World wars are invited to join with the G. A. R. men on this occasion. All soldiers will be admitted to the grounds free of charge on that day.

A live stock judging contest for boys and girls will be held on Wednesday under the auspices of The Pennsylvania State College and the county Farm Bureau. County agent J. N. Robinson will be in charge and all boys and girls wishing to enter should report to him. Prizes will be awarded the winners.

The big day of the picnic will naturally be Thursday, and the drawing cards are the gubernatorial candidates, John A. McSparran and Gifford Pinchot. Being Master of the State Grange Jr. McSparran will spend the entire day at the park and will speak in the auditorium at two o'clock in the afternoon. The arrangements for Mr. Pinchot's visit, as made by county chairman L. Frank Mayes, contemplates a motor trip over the Seven mountains from Lewistown in the morning. His address to the picnic crowd will be made at 10:30 o'clock a. m., after which he will motor to Boalsburg, where he will be entertained at lunch by Col. Theodore Davis Boal, who will that day entertain the officers of the old Twenty-eighth division. The afternoon will be spent as Mr. Pinchot elects, either returning to the picnic or motoring to State College and Bellefonte.

The big picnic will close on Friday with the customary sale of stock and implements.

League of Women Voters Picnic.

A community picnic at the Snow Shoe driving park, last Friday, was given under the auspices of the League of Women Voters, of which Mrs. W. Cordis Snyder is the district director. Owing to the threatening weather the crowd was not as large as anticipated, but there was no lack of interest because of that fact.

All the candidates on both the Democratic and Republican tickets had been invited to attend, but none of the Republicans were in evidence. Democratic candidates present included Fred B. Kerr, J. Frank Snyder, William I. Betts and Miss Zoe Meek. The purpose of the League of Women Voters and the object of the picnic were tersely explained by Mrs. A. L. Kocher, of State College, president of the Centre county branch of the League, and Mrs. R. M. Beach, of Bellefonte. Opportunity was then given each of the candidates to address the women and their remarks left a very favorable impression upon all who heard them. The sentiment of all seemed to be in favor of an energetic campaign along the lines laid down in their party platform and devoid of all mud-slinging and improper personalities.

Mrs. Romans Coming to Bellefonte.

On Friday evening, September 8th, Mrs. Viola D. Romans, of Columbus, Ohio, vice president of the Ohio W. C. T. U., and Chautauqua lecturer, will address a public meeting in the court house at 8 o'clock. The recent great victory in the Ohio primaries, where the "wets," who were running on the wine and beer platform, met such a great defeat, was largely due to the efforts of the W. C. T. U. Many have been the battles waged in the politics of Ohio by the "wets" and "drys," but always in the last few years the "drys" have won overwhelmingly. Every one should be interested in seeing and hearing Mrs. Romans. Admission free to all.

It is interesting to note in this connection that in twenty other States recently like victories have been won by the "drys" at State primaries, which the W. C. T. U. claims denotes the real sentiment of the people of the United States better than any magazine poll or "wet" propaganda published widely throughout the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haag are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born yesterday morning, at their home on Bishop street.

The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. has made provision for taking care of boys and men from the rural districts who come to town either to school or for leisure. In order that they may have advantage of the Y while in town a membership card will be issued at the nominal price of $1.00 for boys and $2.00 for men.

The people of Bellefonte are again reminded of the fact that the closing exercises on the Bellefonte playgrounds will be held on the High school grounds this (Friday) afternoon. Those in charge of the affair have arranged a splendid program, which it is believed will demonstrate the value of the playgrounds to the children of Bellefonte. Everybody in Bellefonte who has in any way contributed to the support of the playgrounds during the summer should show their continued interest by attending the closing exercises this afternoon.

Roy Woomer, of Axe Mann, a member of Major H. I. Curtin's headquarters troop, 62nd machine gun battalion, is home recuperating from injuries received last Saturday when the troop was moved from Ebensburg to Somerset. Mr. Woomer was riding his own horse and leading a hurdler when the latter frightened at something, jumped in front of Woomer's horse which fell to the ground. The young trooper could not get his feet out of the stirrups quick enough to jump and the horse fell upon him. He sustained several fractured ribs and some bad cuts about the face and head but is able to walk around.

Quite a number of Bellefonte and Centre county people motored over the Seven mountains last Thursday for the big day at the Lewistown fair, and it proved a disappointing trip for all of them. The first heats of the races in the afternoon had just been pulled off when a hard rainstorm descended on the big crowd. It is estimated that over twelve thousand people were on the grounds and as half of them couldn't get under shelter they were drenched to the skin. The rain continued the balance of the afternoon and the races were postponed until Friday.

Among the new subscribers added to the "Watchman" list this week is the name of W. H. Hendershot, of Pittsburgh, who was born and spent his boyhood days in the neighborhood of the Valentine iron works. That was over half a century ago and in those days boys in the neighborhood of the Valentine iron works were educated mostly in the school of hard knocks and Mr. Hendershot evidently graduated at the head of his class, as he is the last member of his immediate family and has come through all the hard knocks that generally befall the average man and is now comfortably located in the Smoky city. Leaving Bellefonte going on forty years ago he went to Harrisburg where he was employed as a switchman by the Pennsylvania railroad company until about four years ago when he gave up his job and went to Pittsburgh where he now has a good berth with a large wholesale house.

If any person has noticed a shortage in Bellefonte's meat supply during the past two or three weeks the scarcity might be laid at the door of one Edward P. Butts, a native of the town who is now visiting here after an absence of some years. His chief diversion every day is feeding the big trout in Spring creek, and he feeds them morning, noon and night, and sometimes gives them a lunch between times. Of course he isn't the only one who feeds the trout, as many strangers indulge in the same practice and there are days when easily ten pounds of ground meat are thrown to the trout in the creek near the "Watchman" office. During the open season for trout it was generally believed that many of the big trout had been scooped out of the creek, but if such were the case, it don't look like it now, as dozens of the big fellows can be seen every day in the short space between the bridge and the falls. Of course the feeding of the trout is one of the reasons for their congregating in that place.

Two Families Burned Out of House and Home.

Shortly after midnight on Saturday night the double house at Hecla occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fulton and John Sheasley and family was burned to the ground together with most of the contents. Mr. Fulton is quite aged and somewhat decrepit and it is believed the fire was caused by his dropping a lamp. The Fultons were unable to save any of their household goods while the Sheasleys got some of their furniture out of the first floor but everything else, upstairs furniture and clothing were burned. Mr. Sheasley was not at home at the time of the fire as he works on a saw mill on Trout Run. The Sheasley family includes five children, one boy ten years old and four younger girls. Inasmuch as they have no clothing an appeal has been sent to Bellefonte for contributions and any one who can spare anything suitable for little girls up to eight years of age and a boy ten should send them to the Red Cross rooms and they will be delivered to the Sheasley family.

Basket ball will have an important place on the program this year. The best players in the Y will be organized into one representative team. A Sunday school league will be organized and also a league composed of industrial and commercial teams.

Volley ball will also be on the program. It is planned to promote a local tournament before Christmas in the business men's class and from those teams pick the members of a representative team to play other Y. M. C. A. teams. Interclass meets in athletics will also be held.

Exhibitions will be held during the season, with a New Year's demonstration and a grand closing exhibition. If you are not a member of the Y join now and get in on these athletic contests.

Lots Being Sold on Halfmoon Hill.

Up to Tuesday evening Haupt and Brown had sold twelve building lots on Halfmoon hill and have a number of other prospects. The owners bought the Halfmoon hill tract a number of years ago confident that the time would come when a demand for building lots in and near Bellefonte would afford them a good market. In the meantime the land was farmed and yielded good crops.

The scarcity of desirable houses in Bellefonte, with few vacant lots, has at last created a demand for building sites on Halfmoon hill. The first lots, three in number, were sold less than a month ago to William Cunningham and he is already having the foundation dug for a house. Since his purchase nine additional lots have been sold and on some of these, at least, houses will be built next spring.

Haupt and Brown have put new concrete steps up the hill from the end of west High street and the borough is now extending the water out over the hill to the borough limit. In due time a good road leading from Lamb street will be graded to the top of the hill, which will afford ample hauling accommodations either up or down.

Where Bellefonte Boys and Girls Will Go to College.

Within the next two weeks a number of young men and women of Bellefonte, graduates of the Bellefonte High school last June, will depart for college and included in the list are the following:

At the W. C. T. U. meeting held last Friday afternoon, at the home of the president, Miss Rhoads, the following officers were re-elected for the coming year: President, Miss Rebecca Rhoads; vice president, Mrs. Edward Struble; recording secretary, Mrs. D. I. Willard; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. S. Brouse; treasurer, Mrs. L. H. Gettig.

It was decided to hold a cake sale in the W. C. T. U. room, Petrikin hall, tomorrow, September 2nd, opening at 9 a. m., for the benefit of the W. C. T. U. room in the Bellefonte hospital. This room is now being renovated and repainted by the W. C. T. U. and they need more linen, etc. Any donations will be gratefully received. Please notify or send to Mrs. L. H. Gettig, east Bishop street.

Sparks flying from a burning flue on Quaker hill, at five o'clock yesterday morning, inspired some person to send in a fire alarm but no fire developed and little excitement was caused.

Miss Dona Krumrine, of Altoona, was a guest for a few hours on Wednesday of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk on her way home from a five day's visit with Miss Lillian Sheffer, at Paddy Mountain. Several weeks ago the "Watchman" published an item relative to Miss Sheffer being the possessor of a young timber wolf which had become quite a pet in the household. Miss Krumrine saw the wolf and admits that the animal is harmless but has not yet passed the period known as a baby wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bullock are entertaining Mrs. Bullock's sister, Mrs. Frank Baldrige and her son, Frank Jr., who are on their way from Denver, Col., to their new home in Milesburg. Mr. Baldrige will join them here tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Nagney and Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Locke returned last Wednesday from a ten day's trip over the Great Lakes to Duluth, Minn., and return. When they left Bellefonte they had had planned to continue their trip into northwestern Canada but when they found the transportation companies tied up by the strike and means of travel so uncertain they decided to return home and came back on the same boat they sailed in going toward the setting sun. Of course they spent enough time at Niagara Falls to visit all places of interest and also make a trip into Canada.

Chaplains and Mrs. T. W. Young have as a guest this week their daughter, Mrs. William B. Epley, of Pittsburgh, who is making her annual summer visit to Bellefonte. They also had as a guest over the week-end their son, T. W. Young Jr., and Mr. Stibold, of Los Angeles, Cal. The two gentlemen had been in New York on a business mission and had time to spend but two or three days in Bellefonte. Mr. Stibold is an architect and was wonderfully impressed with some of the old houses in town, spending most of his time on the street with a camera taking pictures of various buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Driver will go there from Miss Mona Struble's, on Bishop street, where they have been living for a month or more.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Osmer left Friday for the return trip to Cleveland, after a week's visit with the Osmer family in this locality. On the drive east Mr. and Mrs. Osmer had stopped for a visit with the boys at Jenners Station, bringing with them to Bellefonte, Ralph Smith, who was among several of the boys who were home for a week-end visit.

Dr. and Mrs. Borden, of Sheanandoah, Pa., with their daughter, Miss Lois Borden, were over night guests at the Bush house, Wednesday. Dr. Borden was a resident of Bellefonte in the late eighties, having practiced his profession of dentistry here for several years, and made a short stop to renew old acquaintances in Bellefonte, while on a drive through central and western Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Clarence Williams and Miss Anna Straub have been chaperoning the fourteen girl scouts, who are in camp at the Potter and Hoy camp on Bald Eagle creek. This camp, which originally belonged to the Masons, and later to Mr. Gooding, of State College, was purchased early in the season by the Potter-Hoy hardware company, and converted into one of the most attractive places in this section of the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kirk and their small daughter, Mary Katherine, are spending a part of Mr. Kirk's vacation with Mrs. Kirk's mother, Mrs. D. I. Willard, expecting to be in Centre county for a week or ten days. Upon leaving next week for the return drive to their home at Tarrs, Westmoreland county, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk will be accompanied by Mrs. Willard, Miss Frances Willard, who left a month ago with a party of girls for Lake Canada, later going to Union City and Lake Chataqua, returned home Saturday.

Miss Anna Mary Hunter was a guest of her cousins, Robert F. and J. D. Hunter for a part of the past week, having come here Saturday from State College, where she had been visiting with relatives and friends for a part of August. Miss Hunter, who now makes her home with her brother, Prof. John A. Hunter, at Boulder, Col., is east for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Smith, at Mingo Junction, Ohio, and with the family of her brother, the late Dr. Wallace Hunter, of Erie, a short part of her time being with friends elsewhere in the State.

Harry McWilliams, of Ferguson township, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday. He didn't say that he was on business and we rather believe that he was just joy-riding because he was with a large family party. His brother Samuel and wife, of Canonsburg, had been visiting him since last Friday. With them were Mrs. McWilliams' father, William Thompson, and Prof. McVey, superintendent of the schools of Canonsburg. They all started for Bellefonte and at State College picked up their sister, Mrs. Newton Hess and her husband, so that they had a car full by the time they reached here. The Canonsburg party returned to their homes on Wednesday.

A Scott Harris, of Pittsburgh, is here for a visit of a few days with his father and sister, Mr. John P. Harris and Mrs. Emily Warfield. Scott is on the staff of the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times and along with his other work contributes to the sporting pages of the Sunday edition. Last Sunday he published a reminiscence story of John Montgomery Ward's time in baseball and as we were reading it we wondered whether he might not tell the readers of the Times a few of his own experiences in baseball. While Scott was never a professional he was an amateur of some reputation in this neck-o'-the-woods back in the west spring of '97. We fancy that a tale of the time Bellefonte journeyed to Lemon in a special train then walked three miles overland to play State College and got nothing more than a free-for-all fight would interest Pittsburghers whose only thrills nowadays are throwing pop bottles at an umpire. If Scott were to let out some of the high lights of that expedition his story would be really sensational.
