Mrs. Hector Griffith and daughter Betty left for Pittsburgh Saturday last with a view of visiting their many friends there for a few weeks.

David Keller, wife and son Ephraim II, with two children, of Philadelphia, visited the Ephraim Keller home for a few days, returning home on the evening of Labor day.

Since it is universally admitted that the auto has come to stay and belongs to the modern age of economics, it is in place to consider logically the various uses to which it is adapted. By many it is regarded as a vehicle of pleasure only; that view has been relegated to the scrap pile. The trucks are being manipulated for transporting goods of every description—farm products are being taken to the markets, milk is being transported to the creameries, making it a great time saver. Some of our churches, in point of patronage, are being greatly benefitted, while others are complaining that they are injured from the fact that so many of their members now regard the Sabbath as a day of pleasure, and in consequence neglect their church duties, giving preference to trips all over the country. They forget our biblical teachings—"Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy," and again "For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh; wherefore, the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it."

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Walter Daily, of Altoona, is visiting at the George Ertley home.

Quite a number of people from this section are attending the Granger's picnic.

A surprise party was tendered Mr. Luther Fisher last Saturday evening, many guests being present.

Mrs. Merrill Walker and daughter Sarah, of Howard, were visitors at the Ephraim Lucas home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yearick and children, Lucille, Bradley and Geraldine, visited friends at Zion on Sunday.

Mrs. Mabel Peck, with her daughter Freda and son Mervin, of Bellwood, spent a few days the past week at the Harry Hoy home and with other friends in the valley.

Cattle Dying Strangely.

Young cattle pasturing in the Blue Ridge mountains bordering the Juniata valley in Pennsylvania are dying like flies from some unknown disease or poison.

The carcasses are found along the mountain streams, where they rush for water, and either drop dead in the water after drinking or stagger away a few yards to die on the banks.

Frothing at the mouth or excessive bloating after death would indicate laurel poisoning, but mountain men claim the laurel is not far enough advanced to be eaten in lieu of short pasture, and insist that poison has been set in the salt licks visited by the animals. Dr. S. G. Hendren, a veterinarian, suggests it may be a recurrence of a kind of blood poisoning found among cattle in Stone valley last season.

BOALSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ishler and sons moved to State College last week.

Mrs. Mitchell Stover, of Altoona, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Kuhn. William Rocky and son Willard recently purchased the Zebby garage.

Mrs. Vernon Russell, of Burnham, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ellen Young.

Mrs. Porter and daughter, of Juniata, arrived in town Saturday to visit friends.

The Lemont band rendered excellent music at the community picnic on Wednesday.

Miss Gladys Hazel returned, Monday, from a ten day's visit in Altoona and DuBois.

Mrs. Nannie Coxey is having a bath and furnace installed in her home on Church street.

Roy Raymond, of Pitcairn, is visiting his sister, Mrs. George Homan, and also attending the Grange picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corl, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Goheen and Mrs. Close returned Tuesday from a motor trip to Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Henry Reitz entertained her brother and family, and Monday accompanied them to their home in Williamsport for a week's visit.

Mrs. Johnson and daughter, Miss Mary, and son, Irvin Johnson and wife, of Crafton, spent several days at the home of Mrs. Woods.

Boalsburg is well represented at the Grange encampment at Centre Hall, a number of families camping, and others spending a day or more there.

S. E. Weber, accompanied by J. J. Tressler, of Oak Hall, attended the Ohio State fair last week, returning home Sunday very well pleased with the trip.

Prof. Ed. H. Meyer, wife and daughters left early Friday morning for their home in Newark, N. J., after spending several months at their home on School street.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hosterman, former residents of Boalsburg, motored from their home in Milton last Wednesday morning to attend the community picnic.

Fred Musser, of San Francisco, Cal., who is visiting his friends in Wilkes-Barre, spent some time last week in Boalsburg, the Musser family being formerly residents of this place.

On receipt of a telephone message from Pitcairn announcing the arrival of twin boys at the Edward Isenberg home, Charles Isenberg and son Hubert went to Pitcairn on Monday morning.

Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh and son, Charles Jr., are visiting in Crafton, having accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Stuart on their return home. Miss Mollie Hoffer, of State College, is in charge of the Mothersbaugh home.

Single Men Found to Make Most Trouble.

Harrisburg.—Single men get into more trouble than married men. Complete tabulated reports of arrests made by the Pennsylvania state police during 1921 made public Monday showed that 7,141 single men were arrested compared to only 5,767 married men.

The "dangerous age" proved to be 24. More men were arrested at that age than at any other.

Women caused the state troopers almost no trouble. Out of a total of nearly 13,000 arrests only 706 were women.

Human failings were indicated in comparative importance by the following principal causes for arrest: Avarice, 5,500; recklessness, 4,289; alcoholic stimulant, 1,270; revenge, 1,026.

Thirty-seven ten year olds became so dangerous to the peace of the Commonwealth that they had to be arrested. One man of 80 was likewise caught in the net.

Of all the prisoners rounded up by the troopers 11,798 were for the first offenses, 178 for second offenses and 932 were habitual criminals.

SEPTEMBER MILK PRICES.

The producers' schedule of milk prices, which the Dairymen's League Co-operative Association, Inc., is asking the dealers to pay for milk in September, was decided upon by the board of directors at its monthly meeting held at Ithaca, N. Y., recently. The prices, as recommended, are as follows:

Class 1. Milk sold in fluid form, $2.90 per 100 pounds.

Class 2. Milk sold for use chiefly in the making of cream and ice cream, $2.00.

Class 3-A. Milk sold for the manufacture of canned milk, 55 cents per 100 pounds over the price to be determined for milk for butter in September.

Class 4. Milk for butter and cheese to be determined in the usual manner by the average wholesale prices of these products in the New York city market during September.

The price asked for Class 1 milk is 21 cents per 100 pounds more than the present price. It is exactly the same price as the dealers paid the association in September, 1921, during which month they charged consumers 15 cents a quart. The retail price for grade B milk in New York city now is 15 cents a quart, the dealers paying $2.96 for fluid milk.

The League News says that the increase in this price will be highly satisfactory to dairymen, as it represents a figure more closely related to costs of production than has prevailed in many months. It is a price which is justified by economic conditions now prevailing.
